FIVE HELD AFTER PROBE UNCOVERS MURDER FACTS

Five men of Jacks Mountain are being held in the Middleburg fail on murder charges in the investigation of the death of a 58-year-old man which Sheriff George C. Grubb said resulted from injuries received in a fight four months ago.

"That's the roughest place around here," said the Snyder county sheriff, who arrested the five after the death of John Hackenburg, father of 11 children, in the Danville State Hospital. "They've been fighting up there for years and years," the sheriff added.

Those named in the murder warrants sworn out by District Attornev Henry J. Somner were Lincoln Jordan Clarence Smith Chester and Joseph Ettinger and William Weisen, Joseph Ettinger is 65, the others about 40.
