

HUBLERSBURG

Come and see and hear Jim and Jane and their Western Vaagabonds on Friday evening of this week, Dec. 8, in the community hall. Admission free and twenty-five cents can bring your friends and enjoy an evening of good entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fulton of Kenmore, New York, spent from Thursday until Sunday visiting among his sisters and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hayes and children spent Thanksgiving day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Yearick of Mill Hall, R. D.

Mrs. James Carner and daughter Phyllis were Thursday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Grieb of Lamar.

Mrs. Boyd Heckman spent last Tuesday and Wednesday with her son, Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman of Lock Haven and then was able to go and see her daughter, Mrs. George Kerstetter who was in the Lock Haven hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Springer and daughters, Virginia, Betty and Jean of State College, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vonada and daughter of Mackeyville and Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Mackie and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Shaffer and family of Williamsport, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lee.

Lewis Markle of Edgewood, and Lloyd Markle, of State College, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Ida Markle on Friday.

Mr. Doyle Hoy of Pitsburg, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoy on Sunday.

Mrs. Dora Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutchinson of Altoona, and Mr. Alred Smith of Philadelphia, were Saturday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Portier.

Mrs. Clara McCleintock of Johnsbury, spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dunkle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes and daughter were Thanksgiving day dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayes.

Miss Helen Guiser of State College, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Guiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Tucker Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Larye Heckman and Mrs. Boyd Heckman motored to Lock Haven on Sunday evening to see Miss George Kerstetter who is improving as her many friends will be glad to know.

Mrs. P. A. Hinds and daughter Madeline were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hines of Hecla.

Mrs. Laura Rathmel of Moore, visited among some of her old friends here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harris and family of Mill Hall, R. D. spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krape.

Mr. and Mrs. Ocean Yearick and daughter spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yearick.

Mrs. Dean Baughman of Renovo and Mrs. Jacob Weaver spent Thursday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Carner.

Mr. Boyd Heckman and Elmer Richner were lucky enough to shoot their wild turkeys in time to have them for their Thanksgiving feast.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warfield and children of Lock Haven were Thursday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes.

Mr. Frank Fulton, Mr. Calvin Fulton and Mr. and Mrs. David Barnhart and children of Stoeystown, spent Thursday visiting among their relatives and friends.

Mrs. James Carner and daughter spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Heaton of Jacksonville.

MONUMENT

There is a belief, 7 deer brought in our town Monday, and one of the lucky ones to get a deer was the minister, Rev. Robert Deboer.

Raymond Muthler and family entertained company last week. Mrs. Alice Yeager and daughter Madeline of Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eiters are entertaining company Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eiters and family spent Friday with Mrs. Eiters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bechtel of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mann and daughter Alice and James Guier were out of town on Sunday afternoon.

Vivior Williams, of Pittsburgh, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Williams.

Mrs. Priscilla Young, who is teaching at Bellefonte, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Young and son Harold of Kenmore, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Young on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Johnson and sons Vaughn, Harold and Paul, spent Friday and Saturday at Port Royal, with Mr. Johnson's brother, Merle and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deboer and Verna Belle Young and Miss Emma Karstetter of Lock Haven, spent Thanksgiving day at the Bible School at Binghamton, N. Y.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Fred Lutz spent Wednesday in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hoy and children were guests of the latter's parents in Lock Haven, on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. George Margargel Sr. will be hostess to the garden club at her home Thursday afternoon, Dec. 9th at 2 o'clock. It will be a X-mas meeting and decorations for homes, windows, doors, trees, gifts, etc., will be illustrated and exhibited.

A new roof and chimney is being put on the bungalow where Richard Royer lives but belonging to the Wade Eveys.

Mrs. Harry Showers left on the early grayhound bus Monday for Sunbury where she spent the day with her aunt, Margaret Wertz, who is now 82 years of age and returned that evening on the late bus.

Miss Dorothy Mulfinger and friend, Mr. Clark, of Williamsport were Saturday visitors at the Harry Showers home.

The Frank Irwin family, who moved out of the T. E. Jorden home several months ago while it was being converted into a double house, moved back into the lower side of same on Thanksgiving day. They made their home with their son, Musser and family during the alterations.

The William Tucker family motored to Penn Aryl where they spent a few days over Thanksgiving with Mr. Tucker's parents.

A birthday surprise party was given for little Miss Jean Rouse at her home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Eleanor Westerfield was home for a few days visit over Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Margargel, Sr.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Keller of Kingston were Thanksgiving guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sampel.

Mrs. John Moore is spending the week in Philadelphia. Her sister, Mrs. Feldman Hamilton, of Houtzdale, who is filling her position in the store during her absence, was called home Wednesday to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law who died early Monday morning after a long illness.

Among those who attended the Army-Navy game in Philadelphia on Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noll, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Noll and Miss Charlotte Helm.

Master Francis Fry of Altoona, spent his holiday vacation with his friends in W. Ferguson, enjoying the rabbit hunt.

Carpenter R. S. Musser and family are planning to vacate their home in Rock Springs and become citizens of State College for next three months.

Well known conductor, W. S. Meyer of Port Royal was within our midst recently and purchased a truck load of choice fire cows.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Woodford of Harrisburg, were weekenders at the Lutheran paragon guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. English, John English State Forester of Stroudsburg, was also a visitor.

Hugh C. Fry, of Smithport, and Conrad G. Fry of Pittsburgh were Thanksgiving holiday visitors at their parental home.

Farmer George Deiber was a lucky shot Monday a m. and brought home a fine 9 pointer.

Harold Martz of Pitt University, spent a few days the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Martz on Wall Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barto enjoyed an auto trip South to Virginia last week and visited several days with their relatives.

Willis Schilling, John Donley, Roy Wilson and Fred Dillon spent the first three days of deer season in the wilds of Potter County.

One of our popular gas and oil men, John H. Bailey has taken the general agency for a most excellent: royal paint, representing the American Oil and Paint Co. of Cleveland, Ohio.

At the last regular meeting of Bellefonte grants the following officers were elected for 1938: Master, Paul Stevens; Overseer, R. W. Reed; Steward, John Donley; Assessor, Steward, Earl Homan; L. S. Ruth Walker; Chaplain, Ruth Harpster; Treasurer, Frank Homan; Secretary, Bertha Schilling; Lecturer, Harry Homan; Gatekeeper, Melvin Fry; Gules, Pauline Sunday; Flora, Mae Harpster; Pomona, Betty Harpster; Pianist, Betty Goheen; Ex-Com, 3 yrs., Irvin Walker; 2 yrs. Richard Fye; Fin. Com. Paul Sunday; Purchasing Agent, Charles Campbell; Insurance Agent, I. G. Harpster.

Harpster-Weaver camp 3 deer the first day; Skeck camp 1, George Rossmann and Clark Harpster each a nice one.

Mrs. Mary Bailey Sauerman is a patient in the Centre County Hospital having been admitted on Monday.

PINE GROVE

George Burwell and family assisted in the annual butchering at the Fred Remo Fry home in Baileyville, last Thursday.

Rodney Hoy and Pauline Keller were pleasant callers Sunday evening with their friends at Rock Springs.

Charles Waple, well known milk distributor of Tyrone, was circulating among his producers in West Ferguson last Friday.

Prof. Ernest L. Gilliland of Had-donfield, N. J. and his sister, Mrs. Madalene Hawn and two daughters were over Thanksgiving visitors and butchers at their parental home, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland, at Baileyville.

Farmer George P. Irwin was among the milk producers committee in Harrisburg Tuesday, conferring with the State officials on some questions of vital interest.

That price of good fellows, and little man of 300 avoirdupois, Irvin M. Blanton, of Williamsport, motored up Sunday for his usual hunting expedition on the E. T. Crank home on the Glades.

Joseph Shoemaker and a party of friends departed Sunday for the deer hunt to Sullivan Co., where the big ones are plentiful.

Miss Dorothy Deltrick of Hecla Park in her new 1937 Chevy motored up for a short visit Thursday evening with friends in Rock Springs.

The homes in West Ferguson are now illuminated with some of Ben Franklin's juice. The current turned on the past week at the A. W. Treslers, Mr. Mary Sauerman and Miss Myra Miller. The Tadpole citizens are registering with the West Penn for power in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kessinger of Johnston were holiday guests with their relatives in our town and State College.

George Blair Miller of the Blair Ice Co. Altoona is enjoying his annual deer hunt on his old stamping ground, Tussey mountain, a guest of his sisters, Misses Maud and Gertrude Miller on the Glades farms.

County Commissioner, A. L. Bow-ersox, of State College was a pleasant caller in West Ferguson Thanksgiving day.

Miss Sydney Stauffer is now a patient of the Altoona hospital, being moved there latter part of last week.

Master Francis Fry of Altoona, spent his holiday vacation with his friends in W. Ferguson, enjoying the rabbit hunt.

Carpenter R. S. Musser and family are planning to vacate their home in Rock Springs and become citizens of State College for next three months.

Well known conductor, W. S. Meyer of Port Royal was within our midst recently and purchased a truck load of choice fire cows.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Woodford of Harrisburg, were weekenders at the Lutheran paragon guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. English, John English State Forester of Stroudsburg, was also a visitor.

Hugh C. Fry, of Smithport, and Conrad G. Fry of Pittsburgh were Thanksgiving holiday visitors at their parental home.

Farmer George Deiber was a lucky shot Monday a m. and brought home a fine 9 pointer.

Harold Martz of Pitt University, spent a few days the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Martz on Wall Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barto enjoyed an auto trip South to Virginia last week and visited several days with their relatives.

Willis Schilling, John Donley, Roy Wilson and Fred Dillon spent the first three days of deer season in the wilds of Potter County.

One of our popular gas and oil men, John H. Bailey has taken the general agency for a most excellent: royal paint, representing the American Oil and Paint Co. of Cleveland, Ohio.

At the last regular meeting of Bellefonte grants the following officers were elected for 1938: Master, Paul Stevens; Overseer, R. W. Reed; Steward, John Donley; Assessor, Steward, Earl Homan; L. S. Ruth Walker; Chaplain, Ruth Harpster; Treasurer, Frank Homan; Secretary, Bertha Schilling; Lecturer, Harry Homan; Gatekeeper, Melvin Fry; Gules, Pauline Sunday; Flora, Mae Harpster; Pomona, Betty Harpster; Pianist, Betty Goheen; Ex-Com, 3 yrs., Irvin Walker; 2 yrs. Richard Fye; Fin. Com. Paul Sunday; Purchasing Agent, Charles Campbell; Insurance Agent, I. G. Harpster.

Harpster-Weaver camp 3 deer the first day; Skeck camp 1, George Rossmann and Clark Harpster each a nice one.

Mrs. Mary Bailey Sauerman is a patient in the Centre County Hospital having been admitted on Monday.

HOWARD

Mrs. W. L. Stauffer was admitted to the Altoona hospital last Tuesday for medical treatment.

Mrs. Kate Weber, daughter Nellie and Mary Weber spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of Mr. Walter Weber and family of Chewick.

Friends of Mrs. Charles Beightel gave a shower Saturday in honor of her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. William Markle and daughter of State College spent the day at the Beightel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Win DeLong of Salem, N. J. spent Saturday with Miss Frieda Confer.

Among the young men who came home to hunt were Eddie Robb and George Plecher of Philadelphia; Irvin Fletcher of Turle Creek; and Harris Heverly of Juniata College.

Mr. Stanley Wagner and wife, of Ephrata spent the weekend at Mr. Wagner's home. Miss Eleanor Leathers returned to school at West Chester with them.

Mrs. Chester Caseman of Wheelerville is spending some time at her old home with her sister.

The sale of Shuman Holter Saturday was well attended.

The traffic Sunday through town was the greatest since midsummer, as a great number were hunters on the way to camp.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Waite and daughter Peggy and Mr. Clayton Cassidy of Tyrone, spent Tuesday at Mrs. Waite's home.

Mr. R. H. Lauth of Lock Haven passed away early Tuesday a m. He is the father-in-law of Mrs. Myrtle Plecher Lauth and will be buried in Schenck cemetery at Howard at 3 p. m. Thursday. Mr. Lauth was well known and well liked in Howard.

Mrs. Kathryn Swartz entertained the members of her Sunday School class Tuesday evening.

D. L. Welch who has been ill the past two weeks is not much improved. His son Ronald Welch and wife of Philadelphia visited him Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Eschie Keller and son of Lock Haven and Jacob of Marsh Creek also visited him Saturday.

Tomer Hobbs was fortunate in killing a deer on Monday a m. at the home of Miss Mabel Barton. The business session will be followed by a Social time. All members are urged to be present.

Aid Bazaar—The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold a Bazaar at the home of Mrs. Mollie Holt, on Friday, December 10th, afternoon and evening. They will have on sale, aprons, and handkerchiefs, besides many other articles, including baked goods. Come and help the Ladies in their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McElwain spent Thanksgiving day as guests of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Tate of Salona. Harry spent the afternoon hunting and returned in bringing in a nice 14 pound turkey.

The members of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church were entertained on Tuesday at the Holzworth home.

Mrs. W. B. Parsons spent last weekend with her brother, M. B. Richards and family of Jersey Shore, returning to her home on Sunday afternoon.

Paul Immel of Washington, D. C. spent Thanksgiving with his wife and young son Paul Jr., of this place. After the Thanksgiving festivities were over they motored to Washington and spent the remainder of the week taking in the sights there, returning to their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miles of State College, called on friends and relatives in and about the community on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keatley of Washington, D. C. spent Thanksgiving Day with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Keatley.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Germal of East Orange, N. J., spent the holiday with her father, Mr. Daniel Buck of this place.

Mrs. Mary Wright and two daughters, Nancy and Jane, were entertained Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her brother and family of State College.

Cornelius Smith, who has been employed in the state of Michigan, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Smith.

The Grammar school, taught by Russell Reich, was closed the fore part of this week as their teacher was on the mountain hunting. They opened up for business this Thursday.

J. C. Fox, teacher in the Valley View School, spent Monday and Tuesday of this week on the mountain hunting.

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening at the close of which will be held the monthly business meeting of the Official Board, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:15 a. m.; Junior League in the afternoon at 2 p. m.; Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. immediately followed by the preaching service at 7:30 p. m. with sermons by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kauffman.

Miss Virginia Hall of State College, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Jesse Hall.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock over Thanksgiving Season were their daughter and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Keeler of Philadelphia and their son George S. Bullock also of Philadelphia. Mrs. Keeler remained until Sunday and Rev. Keeler and George S. returned to Philadelphia on Thursday.

Guests at the home of Miss Laura Rumberger to dinner on Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. George Rumberger, Jr. of DuBois; Pearce Rumberger, of Baltimore; M.D. and Miss Eleanor Lucas of Union Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Williams, accompanied by Miss Helen McClellan, Mary Brugger and Margaret Parsons, motored to Williamsport Sunday afternoon and attended special evangelistic services which have been in progress there for some weeks, past, closing on Sunday.

Miss Florence Finch of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her father, J. H. Finch of this place.

Charis Rowan of Bellwood spent time between trains here on last Saturday looking after the interest of his mother's home, prior to cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams and daughter Nell and two grand daughters, motored to Philadelphia and spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nason and young son.

Mrs. Estella Parsons of State College, was a Thanksgiving guest of her son Clair Parsons and family of Union Township.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth League will be held this Friday evening at the home of Miss Mabel Barton. The business session will be followed by a Social time. All members are urged to be present.

Aid Bazaar—The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold a Bazaar at the home of Mrs. Mollie Holt, on Friday, December 10th, afternoon and evening. They will have on sale, aprons, and handkerchiefs, besides many other articles, including baked goods. Come and help the Ladies in their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McElwain spent Thanksgiving day as guests of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Tate of Salona. Harry spent the afternoon hunting and returned in bringing in a nice 14 pound turkey.

The members of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church were entertained on Tuesday at the Holzworth home.

Mrs. W. B. Parsons spent last weekend with her brother, M. B. Richards and family of Jersey Shore, returning to her home on Sunday afternoon.

Paul Immel of Washington, D. C. spent Thanksgiving with his wife and young son Paul Jr., of this place. After the Thanksgiving festivities were over they motored to Washington and spent the remainder of the week taking in the sights there, returning to their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miles of State College, called on friends and relatives in and about the community on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keatley of Washington, D. C. spent Thanksgiving Day with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Keatley.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Germal of East Orange, N. J., spent the holiday with her father, Mr. Daniel Buck of this place.

Mrs. Mary Wright and two daughters, Nancy and Jane, were entertained Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her brother and family of State College.

Cornelius Smith, who has been employed in the state of Michigan, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Smith.

The Grammar school, taught by Russell Reich, was closed the fore part of this week as their teacher was on the mountain hunting. They opened up for business this Thursday.

J. C. Fox, teacher in the Valley View School, spent Monday and Tuesday of this week on the mountain hunting.

The members of the community have been quite busy this week trying to get their share of deer. Some who have been successful were: Samuel Lucas, Buddie Williams, G. W. Holt, Charles Brust and Clifton Alexander.

Mr. Pearce Rumberger, who has been spending the Thanksgiving holiday with his aunt Miss Laura Rumberger, at other relatives' homes in the community, returned to his duties in Baltimore, Md., on Monday.

Miss Martha Rose Brugger, who had spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger, returned to her duties in Wilmington, Del., on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Keeler, who was also returning to her home in Philadelphia, after a short vacation here.

Still some new cases of mumps are developing in the community, the latest ones being Louise Tingle and Marion Filsk, student of Bellefonte High School. Miss Alice Brugger and Melville Peters also lost school from Bellefonte, on account of mumps, but are better.

BLANCHARD

Mr. and Mrs. John DeHaas left Wednesday afternoon for Winburne where they spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. DeHaas' sister and family.

Mrs. Tracie DeHaas entertained her brother Mrs. Robert McKislin for a few days last week.

On Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. E. Bechtel had a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner. The kind which were really family reunions. All of the Bechtel children and their families were present, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bechtel and family, of Beach Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Smith and family, of Beach Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Smith and family of Cleveland, Ohio; Rev. and Mrs. T. Max Hall and two sons of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Max Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. William Bechtel with their respective families of Blanchard, Donald, Robert and Glenn Bechtel at home and Allen Stevenson a member of the family also. There were over forty present at this great feast.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Bitter and daughter of Mill Hall, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Barnes' mother, Mrs. Emma Kunes.

Mr. and Mrs. Luzzelle Dietz and family of Lock Haven spent Thanksgiving and the weekend following with Mrs. Mary Hendricks.

Betty Brickley was forced to undergo another operation at the Philadelphia Hospital last week. She is getting along well as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams and family visited with Mrs. Williams' relatives in Williamsport on Thanksgiving.

Eleanor Courter accompanied Mr. Bosco and his two nieces to Ohio on Sunday. They had been spending a few days at the Courter residence here.

The Kentucky Ramblers, a group of entertainers from WRAK, who gave two performances here at the school house on Monday evening, were entertained to dinner on that evening by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxon.

Mrs. Alice Harter is recovering nicely from her broken hip and will probably be home in a couple of weeks.

Mr. Harris Heverly of Howard, preached in the Baptist church on Sunday evening and will preach each Sunday evening until a permanent pastor is obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oeder succeeded in bagging their deer on Monday, first day of the season. Congratulations!

W. W. G. will meet with Mrs. R. J. Spangier on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Homey Brooker and Miss Eva Kunes, of Emporium, were Thanksgiving and weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kunes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and family were entertained for Sunday evening dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Myers of Lock Haven.

Miss John Bolopue employed at Lock Haven, was able to be at home for butchering day on Friday. Other guests were Mrs. Nettie Bolopue, Mill Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bolopue and family of Lamar, Mrs. Anetia Friese and children of Mill Hall.

Mr. John Foreman of Howard, spent Sunday with his sisters, Mrs. Sara Rothrock and Mrs. Mayne Shaw. Mrs. Shaw has been suffering from a cold for some time.

Mrs. Idella Girton and son of Orviston, is spending a week with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kunes, and children were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ota Stull of Cherry Tree.

W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Nielson on Wednesday afternoon. Due to the absence of the leader, Mrs. W. H. Venada led the meeting.

Friends of Charles Bolopue, one time resident of Blanchard, will be sorry to learn of the death of his wife last week. Interment was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery on Sunday.

Mrs. James Martin, Mrs. Raymond Gardner and Mrs. John Heichel have been quite ill for the past week. Francis Gunasilia, who was injured last week, is showing a slight, but of improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Bechtel are the proud parents of a little daughter, born on Thanksgiving night.

Mrs. John Boves of Jersey Shore, called upon her mother, Mrs. Ellen Kunes on Tuesday.

ZION

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harnish and family, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Harnish's parents at Williamsport.

Miss Anna Louise Corman had as her guest over the Thanksgiving holidays, Miss Sara Ellen Matern, of Mapleton; Miss Corman and Miss Matern are classmates at State Teachers' College, Lock Haven.

Mrs. Emma and Sara Krape spent the Thanksgiving season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Krape.

Mrs. Condo, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Smith left Monday for Lemont, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Joe Baird.

Mrs. Margaret Wolfe returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Wolfe has been a patient in the Centre County Hospital.

All interested in taking part in the X-mas entertainment, meet at the church tonight at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. John Corman and family spent Saturday in Williamsport.

PLEASANT VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Packer became the proud parents of their first born child, a son at the Centre County Hospital on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. George T. Tibbens of Bellefonte, R. D. spent Sunday with his brother Wilbur Tibbens and family at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Harry Garbrick spent last weekend with the Rev. and Mrs. Gauna and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shuey at Houersville.

Ewood Packer spent Sunday with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Packer at Soudsburg.