

OBITUARY

CARLOS FALKNER STEELE

Carlos Falkner Steele, son of Jasper and Ida Steele, (deceased) died at his home in Vanburien, Ohio, on November 29, at the age of 49 years, 2 months and 16 days. He is survived by his wife, Adaline Denning Steele, of Ohio, and the following brothers and sisters: Olive M. Williams, Bush Hollow; Margaret E. Williams, Julian; Clark W. Steele, Altona; Mrs. C. W. Shoemaker, Pennsylvania Furnace; Emily Artz, State College; Hope L. Long, Altoona; Jasper W. Steele, State College, and Boise Pentose Steele, of Ohio.

JOHN GINGERY.

John Gingery, 84, native of Centre Hall, died at the home of his son, Gross Gingery, at South Brownsville at 11 o'clock Wednesday night from gangrene following a four-month illness. Mr. Gingery was born at Centre Hall, the son of Jacob and Priscilla Gill-Gingery. He is survived by his third wife, and the following sons: William, Lester and Gross, all of South Brownsville; Dorsey, McKeesport; and Dewey, of California. Two brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Somers, and Samuel Gingery of Centre Hall; Mrs. Wallace White of Axemann and Grant Gingery of Clearfield. Mr. Gingery's first wife was the former Annie Cramer of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held from the Wetzel funeral home at Milesburg, Saturday, with burial in the New Union cemetery near Unionville. Rev. M. C. Piper officiated.

MRS. FANNIE S. BILGER.

Mrs. Fannie S. Bilger, wife of Wilson Bilger, of East Bishop street, died suddenly and unexpectedly at the family home about 10:30 o'clock Monday night, death being attributed to a complication of diseases. Although Mrs. Bilger had not been in the best of health for some time, she had been able to do down stairs much of the time and her death came as a shock to the family and to her many friends throughout the county. A daughter of Henry and Margaret Gulsewhite, Mrs. Bilger was born in Centre Hall on January 25, 1871, making her age at time of death 66 years, 10 months and 10 days. On July 4, 1892, at Centre Hall, she was united in marriage with Wilson Bilger, who survives with two daughters, Roxie and Geraldine Bilger, both at home; a sister, Mrs. Anna Gtingerich, of Tyrone, and a grandson, Ted Bilger, at home. Mrs. Bilger was a devout

WALKER TWP. SCHOOL NEWS

Hulbert Schools Give Program

The Grammar School, taught by M. Cyrus Hoy, and the Primary School, taught by Mrs. Nellie Peck, gave a program of recitations, drills, and show plays on Friday, December 3, in the High School room. The Sophomores gave a play, also, and the Freshmen girls sang a song. Mr. L. R. Fawcett, principal of the High School, spoke briefly at the end of the program. Sophie Miller presided and Junior Hinds was secretary.

Secer Team to Have Banquet

Coach Bailey announced on Friday, December 3, that the soccer players are planning to have a banquet to celebrate winning the championship of the western division of the Centre County Soccer League.

Juniors Plan Christmas Program

Kermit Showers, Ruth Dolan, Paul Krapp, and Beatrice Lannen have been appointed as a committee to plan a program to be given in English class just before Christmas vacation. One feature of the program will be a gift exchange.

Juniors Consider Means of Raising Money

Officers of the Junior class, Miriam Heckman, John McAuley, and Donald Dunkle, held a meeting on Monday, November 29, to discuss ways of making money. One suggestion was to sponsor a motion picture in the school house.

Tri-Hi-Y Gives Party

The girls of the Tri-Hi-Y club had their brothers as their guests at a Broiler and Sister party in the High School building on Wednesday evening, December 1.

SGT. LANTZ BECOMES INSTRUCTOR OF POLICE

Sgt. E. W. Lantz, of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, who has been stationed in Bellefonte for nearly six years, departed Monday for Harrisburg to spend a week before continuing on to the new Motor Police training school at Myers own, where he will be engaged as a sergeant instructor.

BELLEFONTE D. A. R. HOLDS MEETING AT COLLEGE

The Bellefonte chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Friday night, December 3, in the Little Theatre at the Centre County Hospital. An appreciative audience enjoyed a studio production of one-act plays presented by the Playshop of the division of dramatics at the College.

Those present were: Edith Dolan, Arthur Dolan, Dale Detrich, Martin Detrich, Madeline Holter, Mildred Holter, Mildred Pravel, Mildred Hayes, Betty and Jacquelyn Noll, Irene Miller, Walter Miller, Maxine Showers, Kermit Showers, Donald Nolan, Arthur McClure, Norma Yearick, Miriam Heckman, Ray Dunkle, Ned Corman, George Kane, Milo Wilson, John Hoy, Edna Harter, Jean Shaffer, Sara White, Ruth White, Damaris Benner, Helen Rogers, June Rogers, Elizabeth Brodbeck, Loreta Askey, Margaret Detrich, Sylvia Detrich, Paul Krapp, Dorothy McAuley, John McAuley, Mr. and Mrs. L. Q. Fawcett, Miss Elizabeth McCormick.

Sgt. Lantz, in addition to proving himself an able police officer, particularly in the solution of a number of car thefts in Centre County, has been unusually active in promoting safety campaigns throughout this region. He has spoken before numerous classes and organizations in the interests of highway safety and is widely known and held in high regard locally. His appointment as instructor in the training school calls for a six month's period of duty there, and in view of the fact he may return to Bellefonte at the end of that time, Mrs. Lantz and two children will remain in their apartment in the Cadillac building, South Allegheny Street.

Elected to Society. Dr. Ralph J. Garber, director of the regional picture laboratory at the Pennsylvania State College, was elected vice president of the American Society of Agronomy at the annual meeting in Chicago last week. The constitution of the society provides for succession to the presidency. The society has a membership of approximately 1200. Soil scientists and farm specialists are included. Parcel post packages in Brazil must be marked "If undeliverable, abandon" or "if undeliverable, return to sender."

Bell Employees Dine. About 40 employees of the plant, commercial and traffic departments of the Bellefonte division of the Bell Telephone company motored to Altoona last Thursday night to attend the company's annual meeting at the Penn-Alto Hotel, John T. Harris, vice-president and general manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania and a brother of Burgess Hardman P. Harris, of Bellefonte, was the principal speaker.

PENN STATE EXPERT GIVES COURSE ON READING

Dr. Emmett A. Betts, research professor in education at the Pennsylvania State College, is speaking at several national meetings of organizations concerned with reading difficulties during the academic year.

Dr. Betts is considered one of the outstanding authorities in the United States on reading handicaps. He organized the first reading clinic in the country on the detection and correction of reading faults. The clinic is now operating at the Pennsylvania State College.

Dr. Betts' clinic at the Pennsylvania State College is attracting persons with reading difficulties from all parts of the east and as far west as Indiana. He is instituting a research program for further study of the causes of reading faults and their correction.

During the last several years he has published a number of textbooks and articles in leading professional magazines.

PENN STATE ENTRIES WIN HONORS AT SHOW

Additional prizes won at the International Livestock Exposition by the Pennsylvania State College were announced by Professor Mark A. McCarty upon his return from Chicago.

In the Duroc Jersey classes third prize was won on barrow, 340-300 pounds, and third on pen of three barrows, the same weight.

The College also won first prize sweepstakes on pan of 10 barrows, the middleweight barrow championship, and reserve grand championship on barrow.

In the pork carcasses class first and second prizes were won on Chester White and the first prize carcass won the reserve championship of the show.

Total winnings on swine were $325.

Improves Potatoes.

Extensive experiments in breeding new varieties of potatoes are being conducted by Dr. E. L. Nixon, plant pathologist at the Agricultural Experiment Station at the Pennsylvania State College.

The length of the Austrian federal railways is approximately 4600 kilometers, of which 1475 kilometers are double track.
