This game will be played at Howard. DOE BREAKS BACK IN EFFORT TO CROSS FENCE Two doe at the closing hour of the hunting season on Saturday evening ran down from Nittany Mountain and in an effort to crash the second fence on Route 95, near the J. W. Delaney farm, east of Centre Hall, one of them broke its back. The two vaulted the fence on the north side of the road, but in their efforts to go through a woven wire fence only one succeeded, the other meeting its death. D. W. Bradford was returning home from an afternoon's hunt at this time and saw the doe's plight. A warden notified, ordered the animal killed. The carcass strung up in Mr. Bradford's barn. —Games, scooters, bicycles electric trains and Christmas tree lights are only a few of the items on sale at the George A. Miller & Son store, High Street, Bellefonte, Pa.
