

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mrs. Nettie Poorman spent Christmas with relatives in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley of Clearfield, spent the weekend with home folks.

Jim Boerman of Johnstown, spent a few days with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Clyde Watson and two sons were callers in our burg, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woomer of Maryland, spent Christmas with relatives in this state.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and son, Mrs. John Watson and Frank Johnson, called at the Walter Sweetzer home in Bellefonte, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and son of Stomstown, visited relatives at this place and Bellefonte, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robb entertained all their children at home for Christmas and visited friends at Coleville, on Sunday.

Russell Poorman and Clair Johnson called on friends at Dry Top, on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson spent Christmas, at the Orvis Watson home.

Mrs. Clark McKinley of Dry Top was a caller in our burg last week.

Mrs. Edith Burt spent several days with friends, in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. Forman and daughter of Bellefonte, were callers at the Charles Lucas home on Sunday.

Monroe Burd spent Friday with relatives, in Bellefonte.

Aaron McKinley of Milesburg, visited friends at this place, on Sunday.

Jackie Lucas of Pleasant Gap, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and family called at the Orvis Watson home on Sunday.

Almost every busy man knows the importance of exercise and recreation but few of them stop long enough to put their knowledge into practice.

Bronchial Coughs

Just A Few Sips—Like A Flash—Relief!

Spent a few cents today at any good drugstore for a bottle of triple extract BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE—take a couple of doses and sleep sound all night long. Irritating cough of bronchitis is under control.

One teaspoon and the ordinary cough is on its way—continue for 2 or 3 days and often you'll hear no more from that tough old hacking cough that nothing seems to help. Over 9 million bottles sold in cold-winter Canada.

White Brothers' Drug Store.

Notice To Truck Coal Haulers

GONZALES COAL CO., KARTHAUS has good hard roads to mines.

Coal in hoppers can dump in truck.

15 ton wagon scales at mine.

Mine run coal all lump.

Stoker 1/4 inch to dust.

C. Y. WAGNER & CO.

WAGNER'S Quality Flour A Hard Wheat Pat Flour.

WAGNER'S Our Best Flour 50-50 Blend.

WAGNER'S Very Best Flour Winter Wheat.

Wagner's 32% Dairy Feed

Wagner's 20% Dairy Feed

Wagner's Horse Feed

Wagner's Pig Mash

Wagner's Egg Mash

Wagner's Chick Starter and Grower.

Wagner's Turkey Starter and Grower.

Wagner's Scratch Feed

Wagner's Medium Scratch Feed

Wagner's Chick Feed

Rydes Cream Calf Meal.

Eshelman's Dog Feed

All kinds of high protein feeds for mixing with your own feed.

Dealers in All Kinds of Grains.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

STATE COLLEGE

Miss Mary Louise Frear of Montrose, spent the holidays with her parents, Canon and Mrs. Edward Frear of Frazier Street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vandervort and family of East Fairmont are spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Vandervort's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barto Bull of Middletown, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Resides of East College avenue spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Deysher in Washington, D. C.

Miss Betty Springer who is a teacher in the Berlin High School is spending the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Springer on East Foster avenue.

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parsons, were their son Howard, of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Parsons and daughter, of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Torrence of East Foster avenue have as their holiday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Knoll of Emous, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Balhauer of Fushing, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manning of East Fairmont avenue have as their holiday guests their son and daughter-in-law of New York.

Holiday guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Foster of West Beaver avenue were, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everst of Washington, Miss Emma Jane Foster of New Haven, Conn., Miss Loreta Foster of State College, Miss Josie Wilson and Miss Mary Baker, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shomburg had as their guest on Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Shaffer, of Altoona.

Frank Scott of the Evergreens spent the holidays with his sister Leota, of Camden, New Jersey, where she is a patient in the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital.

Ms. Sarah Erb and daughter of Healey street spent Christmas at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lancker in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons of East Beaver avenue had as their guests on Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sulouff of Milroy.

John Erb of Heister Street spent Christmas with his wife and daughter in Patton.

Mrs. Della Williams of East College avenue, is spending the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sunday of Hershey.

Mrs. Margaret Garner and daughter Julia made a business trip to Buffalo Run one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snyder and daughter Helen of Philadelphia and Mr. Fulmer Stout and daughters Betty, Louis and Evelyn, of Pottsville spent Christmas at the Guy Bitner home on Prospect avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Parsons had as their guests Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaw and son Bobby, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward James of Patterson street, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dunkle of Boalsburg visited relatives in Tyrone on Christmas afternoon.

Miss Kathryn Corl a nurse in the Brooklyn, New York hospital, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Corl of Strubles Station.

Mrs. Mildred Fowler of Garner street is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan in Charlestown, South Carolina.

The following were entertained to dinner at the D. S. Nelding home in State College on Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Orr and children, of Mill Hall, Mrs. Mary Rudy and daughter, Mrs. Dora Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Braucher, Mr. and Mrs. William Nelding, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harpater, all of State College.

The many friends of John Kelly of East College avenue will be sorry to hear he has been admitted to the Centre County Hospital where he is being treated for a dislocated hip which happened while at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parsons of Heister street had as their guest on Sunday, Edward Mandell of New York.

Roger Hetzel of New York spent the holidays with his parents, President and Mrs. Ralph Hetzel.

FIRST RAIN IN 6 MONTHS Los Angeles, Calif., recently got its first real rainfall since May 30, it was the 100th day of drought, in which only 0.1 of an inch of moisture had fallen.

The latter family remained in the home and participated in the evening meal, other Sunday callers were Mrs. J. B. Lucas and daughters Lucille and Doris of Fox Hollow, Christine Burd and Kathryn McCrea.

Mrs. Lucy Conway spent Christmas day with her son Matthew Conway, a family of Pennsylvania, who buried their little six months old daughter on Christmas forenoon, a victim of pneumonia, and spent from Christmas eve till Sunday with another son, Ellsworth Conway of Beech Creek, and was accompanied home by her granddaughter, Miss Mae Conway who is spending the holidays with her grandmother.

Callers at the Charles Harter home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harter and daughter Kathleen of State College, Mr. and Mrs. James Delaney and son of Lock Haven, Rebecca Bartley, Clair and Mildred Beighl, Monday callers at the same home were Mrs. Ralph Fletcher and daughter Marjorie of Little Nittany and Mrs. Robert Conway and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and children were Christmas supper guests at the home of Mrs. Bartley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Neff of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Weaver of State College were Sunday afternoon callers at the A. A. Garrett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Kenneth, Christy and Elsie have spent their Christmas and New Year with friends in and around State College.

The writer has been informed that Ben Vonada has purchased a good second-hand Ford car, now I am afraid Ben may have to hire a stenographer to keep his dates straight. How about it Ben?

Sunday visitors at the Miles Bartley home were Mr. and Mrs. James Dicker and children Billie, Edna, James and John of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harter and

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Jan. 2, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 4:45. Topic for discussion "Problems in Daily Living."

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their next monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Sumner Noll on Saturday evening, Jan. 1.

The Jacksonville cemetery association will hold their annual meeting on Monday afternoon, Jan. 3, and all interested persons are urged to be present.

Mrs. W. J. Daley of Altoona, arrived here on Sunday to spend several days with her brother D. P. Erley and family, additional Sunday evening dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strunk and daughter Hope of State College and evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and daughter Janet of Bellefonte.

Christmas dinner guests at the William Boone home were Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCaleb and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Boone, George and Daniel Boone all of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Dolan and daughter of Mill Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children of this place, other callers were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rogers and daughter Irma of Bellefonte, R. D. 2 and boy friend Russell Pike and Ira Haagen of Little Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunkle and son Paul were X-mas evening callers at the William Beighl and Robert Conway homes and were accompanied home by Mrs. Dunkle's sister Louise Beighl who is spending several days with the Dunkles who have started up housekeeping on Pike Street, Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy of Centre Hall spent X-mas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer and daughters spent Sunday afternoon with his brother William Shaffer and family of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Eleanor Winslow of Lewistown, spent her X-mas vacation with her children and mother, Mrs. Julia Lucas, Mrs. Merrill Walker and family spent Sunday at the same home.

Miss Geraldine Swope was a Christmas dinner guest at the J. B. Lucas home of Fox Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dixon and children, Donald, Billie and Irene of Washington, D. C., spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon and was very sorry to find his mother in such a critical condition, wishing her a speedy restoration to good health.

Afternoon callers at the same home were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Flemington, Mrs. Stover of Lock Haven, Miss Mabel Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stover and family, of Lockport, and Mrs. P. Garrett and Miss Fleta Stover, of Rebersburg, spent X-mas at the A. A. Garrett home.

Sunday callers at the Nevin Yearick home, were Mr. and Mrs. Ocean Yearick and infant daughter of Hubersburg, Miss Hazel Weaver, Mrs. L. A. Aley, Christine Burd and Kathryn McCrea.

Thursday callers at the Charles Harter home were Mrs. Minnie Bell and daughter Mrs. Robert J. Harter, of Shrewsbury, Mr. Harter accompanied them to Bellefonte in quest of Santa Claus.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy of Centre Hall, spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aley, Mr. Lester Conway and family, was a Saturday evening caller at the same home.

Misses Geraldine and Althea Swope and Vivian Wolfe spent the weekend in Lock Haven with their aunt, M. S. C. Miller.

Mrs. Harry Lyons and daughter Thelma of Lock Haven, and Mrs. William Delton attended the family party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harter, near Kylesburg on Saturday returning home on Saturday evening at 8 p. m.

Lucy and Harry Thomas, Conway children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conway, victims of Grippe.

A birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley in honor of Mrs. Bartley's birthday on Friday evening, Dec. 17, as her birthday falls on Monday, Dec. 20 thinking Friday was more appropriate than Monday.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bartley and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Walters, of Upper Merion, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bartley and children Earl, Raymond, Leo, Betty and Marjorie, of Zion, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall and children Bobby and Rhynell, Mrs. John Harter and daughter Hazel and Helen of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and children Rebecca, Philip, Claraella, Carl, Marna Jane, Rosetta, Dorothy and Vera, Mrs. Anna Robb and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and son Arthur, Roy, Ralph and Fred, all of this place, were served and Mrs. Bartley received many useful and beautiful gifts, at a late hour all departed wishing her many more happy birthdays.

With this issue the old year dies and before another edition is printed a New Year will be born, thereby the writer wishes all a Happy New Year, using our past mistakes as steppingstones into a higher and more Godly life.

FAIRVIEW

Miss Ella Lucas visited a couple days last week at the Thomas Lucas home, at Curtin.

Mrs. James E. Lucas attended the party at Russell Lucas' at Curtin on Wednesday.

Miss Sylvia Lucas called at the Charles Chapman home, on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Miles Eltera visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lucas at Curtin, on Monday.

Mrs. Alice Barry was quite painfully hurt in an accident when her father, Mrs. George Harter had a slight wreck with their car, while coming home from Bellefonte, recently.

Rev. Weaver has returned to his home from the Philadelphia hospital where he had been confined.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gruber and family, of Janestown, Pa., spent Christmas with Grandpa and Grandma Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Miles and son have started housekeeping in rooms in the Harpster home.

HOWARD

Mrs. Agatha Wyland has moved to the former residence of T. A. Fletcher where she will continue her Tea Room business. Mr. Fletcher has had the home remodeled extensively to suit Mrs. Wyland's business. Sunday dinner will be a specialty. Meals and lunches at any time at reasonable prices. Mr. Fletcher has moved to the John A. Woodward property which has been extensively remodeled.

Mrs. Stella V. Williams will return to Howard the first of Jan. 1938 and expects to again conduct a Tea Room business where Mrs. Wyland vacated.

Mr. D. L. Welsh is slowly recovering from the removal of his leg in Lock Haven Hospital, and hopes to be home in about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bulkley will leave soon for State College where Eddie has secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Wanda, N. E. arrived in Howard Friday to spend the Christmas season with his wife and two children at the Bulkley home.

George Bulkley Jr., and wife of New York state are at their respective homes for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tice spent Christmas in Altoona with their son George and family.

Miss Freda Conroy received a large basket of oranges, grape fruit, lemons and limes from Florida as a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Jennie Myers and daughter (the Cummings) spent a short time in Howard on Sunday. They are both employed in Harrisburg.

Several loads of Boy and Girl Scouts from Bellefonte came to Howard Wednesday night and sang under the Community Christmas tree. The tree is a very beautiful one and a credit to the town sponsored by the Howard Civic Club.

The Union Christmas Eve service held in the Church of Christ Friday night was well attended and the carol singers after church were much enjoyed by every one who heard them.

Mrs. Fietta Harter spent Christmas with her daughter in Bellefonte. The home of Rev. Morris bears a "Whooping Cough" sign, due to illness of one of the little boys.

Paul Zimmerman of Johnstown is spending his holiday vacation at the A. Fletcher home. Malcolm Fletcher a convalescent of a state sanitarium is home for the holidays and looks fine. He was accompanied home by Miss Gertrude Lucas who is a patient at the same institution and who came to visit her sister Mrs. Harry Butler.

Mrs. Edward Gardner who makes home calls, visited her daughter Mrs. Dewey Runnels at Williamsport, has been quite ill the past few months.

Christmas was a slippery, gloomy day in this section, with no snow. The side walks were dangerous to walk upon. But since the writer started this year we are having a really snow fall.

W. E. Confer has been laid up with lumbago for the past ten days.

The annual Watch night service will be held in the Howard M. E. church tomorrow evening, beginning at eleven o'clock, and continue until midnight. Rev. R. L. Morris will be the speaker. The pastor will deliver a sermon, "Be Ledeth Me." The public is invited to this service of contemplation, consecration, and challenge. Many think that this is the most fitting way of watching an old year die and a new year be born and a contract of peace will be celebrated in the Hunter Run M. E. church on Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The annual Week of Prayer services of the churches of Howard will start on Monday evening, January third, and continue every evening except Saturday, until Sunday, January 10th. The plan of meetings, and the list of speakers follows: Monday, Jan. 3—Church of Christ, "In the Beginning God," Rev. George R. Johnson; Tuesday, January 4—Church of Christ, "Barriers Burned Away," Rev. Lewis E. Kluge; Wednesday, Jan. 5—Evangelical Church, "The Place and the Bride of Christ," Rev. David Neilson; Thursday, Jan. 6—Evangelical church, "From the East and the West, the North and the South," Rev. Johnson; Friday, Jan. 7—Methodist church, "Power from the Spirit," Rev. Neilson; Saturday, 8—Reformed Church, "The Kingdom Come," Rev. Raymond L. Morr.

Bald Eagle Methodist Episcopal Parish—Rev. R. L. Morris, Minister. Hunter Run—Holy Communion 9:30. "Sins That Jesus Hates," Church of Christ, "The Kingdom of God is Within You," Rev. Perry Mann, supt. Divine Worship 10:45. "Open Doors," Howard—Church School 9:30. Wilbur Hall, supt. Organ Recital by Vonda Johnson, 7:30. Revival Worship 7:45. "Open Doors," Kennedy—Church School 9:30. C. C. Leonard, supt. Curtin—Church School 9:30. Irvin Bryan, supt.

PORT MATILDA

A. H. Duncan, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Boyd Williams, and Mrs. M. P. Thompson of Rising Sun, Md., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woodring.

Ben Nicodemus while driving to Altoona on Christmas morning wrecked his car. Mr. and Nicodemus was quite badly hurt and is in the hospital at Altoona. The car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gruber and family, of Janestown, Pa., spent Christmas with Grandpa and Grandma Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Miles and son have started housekeeping in rooms in the Harpster home.

Mrs. Alice Barry was quite painfully hurt in an accident when her father, Mrs. George Harter had a slight wreck with their car, while coming home from Bellefonte, recently.

Rev. Weaver has returned to his home from the Philadelphia hospital where he had been confined.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gruber and family, of Janestown, Pa., spent Christmas with Grandpa and Grandma Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Miles and son have started housekeeping in rooms in the Harpster home.

Mrs. Alice Barry was quite painfully hurt in an accident when her father, Mrs. George Harter had a slight wreck with their car, while coming home from Bellefonte, recently.

Rev. Weaver has returned to his home from the Philadelphia hospital where he had been confined.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gruber and family, of Janestown, Pa., spent Christmas with Grandpa and Grandma Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Miles and son have started housekeeping in rooms in the Harpster home.

MILESBURG

Now that Christmas is over, we must say Happy New Year to all. We hope to see John Wetzler back on duty soon.

Mrs. Emma Smith spent Christmas at the Cronmiller home on Howard street, in Bellefonte.

A two week series of Christmas Fellowship meetings are now in progress at the Methodist Church. Make these meetings truly beneficial by telling all your friends. Everyone welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lucas have moved into the house vacated by the Clark family.

The pupils of Central City School presented a play on Thursday, Dec. 23, afternoon and evening, which was well attended.

Malcolm Poorman of Pittsburgh is visiting at the Edward Haugh home.

Mrs. Mattie Geist is visiting in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bortoff visited relatives and friends over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cruse of Bellefonte, visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hugg, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander of Baltimore, arrived Wednesday to spend the New Year Holiday with his mother and brother, Mrs. Alma and Lee Alexander. Fred was just recently married. So we offer our congratulations.

Jesse Smith is home on a ten day furlough, at present he is visiting friends at Oil City. On Jan. 1st he will return to duty at Langley Field.

Danny Skyles visited his parents for the Christmas holidays.

We are glad to say that Mrs. F. L. Wetzler is able to be around again, she having been ill for some time.

Armour Heaton who is stationed at a camp near Huntingdon, visited relatives over the holiday season.

Miss Hilda Haupt and Fred Dye motored to Renovo, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weaver visited at Altoona, Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Glenn, Miss Albino Fulton and Enoch Smith motored to Philadelphia, Sunday, to visit Miss Ruth Fulton who is seriously ill. Ruth was a former resident of our town and has been a nurse in a Philadelphia hospital for some time. We hope to hear that she is better.

Phyllis Shoar fell on the icy sidewalk and injured her knee. The injury is quite painful.

On Tuesday of last week, Mrs. William F. Peters spent the afternoon and had supper with the M. H. Hall family.

RUNVILLE

The rainy and icy highways caused many to stay at their homes on Christmas day in this section.

Some of our folks attended the Christmas program at Yarnell, last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Minnie Poorman and two children of Hornell, N. Y., arrived last Thursday to spend Christmas with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leuck and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sinclair and family of Snow Shoar, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Newton Leuck, Sunday.

E. M. Furl left last Tuesday for Baltimore, Md. for a visit and spent his Christmas in Hampton, Va.

Mrs. Emma Wilberic came home from the hospital last Tuesday and is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leathers and family motored to Mt. Eagle and spent Christmas with home folks.

Miss Eleanor Hull, of Bellefonte, visited at the Lloyd Walker home, Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fye and daughter Jane and Mr. and Mrs. John Furl and son Richard, motored to Getzville Sunday and enjoyed a dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fye.

Clyde Watson and children visited at the Newton Leuck home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wey motored to Snow Shoar Sunday, visiting with home folks.

HOWARD

Mrs. Agatha Wyland has moved to the former residence of T. A. Fletcher where she will continue her Tea Room business. Mr. Fletcher has had the home remodeled extensively to suit Mrs. Wyland's business. Sunday dinner will be a specialty. Meals and lunches at any time at reasonable prices. Mr. Fletcher has moved to the John A. Woodward property which has been extensively remodeled.

Mrs. Stella V. Williams will return to Howard the first of Jan. 1938 and expects to again conduct a Tea Room business where Mrs. Wyland vacated.

Mr. D. L. Welsh is slowly recovering from the removal of his leg in Lock Haven Hospital, and hopes to be home in about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bulkley will leave soon for State College where Eddie has secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Wanda, N. E. arrived in Howard Friday to spend the Christmas season with his wife and two children at the Bulkley home.

George Bulkley Jr., and wife of New York state are at their respective homes for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tice spent Christmas in Altoona with their son George and family.

Miss Freda Conroy received a large basket of oranges, grape fruit, lemons and limes from Florida as a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Jennie Myers and daughter (the Cummings) spent a short time in Howard on Sunday. They are both employed in Harrisburg.

Several loads of Boy and Girl Scouts from Bellefonte came to Howard Wednesday night and sang under the Community Christmas tree. The tree is a very beautiful one and a credit to the town sponsored by the Howard Civic Club.

The Union Christmas Eve service held in the Church of Christ Friday night was well attended and the carol singers after church were much enjoyed by every one who heard them.

Mrs. Fietta Harter spent Christmas with her daughter in Bellefonte. The home of Rev. Morris bears a "Whooping Cough" sign, due to illness of one of the little