

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Feb. 6th are as follows: Sunday School at 9:30; Worship with sermon at 10:30, and C. E. at 6:45. Topic for discussion, "Many, Yet One." (Christian Endeavor Day).

The Cheerful Helpers class will hold their next monthly meeting at the home of Geraldine and George Swope on Friday evening.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold their next monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ted Dixon on Saturday evening, at which time Valentine Day will be observed, so please keep in mind.

The chosen delegates of our C. E. Society represented at the second annual Officers Conference, sponsored by the Centre County Christian Endeavor Union in the Bellefonte Evangelical church on Saturday, January 29, afternoon and evening, were: Mrs. E. R. Bartley and son Arthur, Harry Beightol and Kathryn McCrea, and reported it as very interesting and inspiring. They felt sorry for those who were deprived the privilege of attending.

Mrs. Robert Conway and son Harry, and Mrs. William Beightol spent Tuesday of last week in Bellefonte at the John Dunkie home.

Sunday visitors at the Ted Dixon home were George and James Boone, of Lock Haven; Christine Burd, Kathryn McCrea and Milford Beightol.

Miss Dorothy Betz, of Williamsport, spent several days of her in-state vacation last week here with her mother, Alice Betz. Other Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. Harold Betz and daughter Nancy, of Howard.

What the writer thinks to be the winding up of the season butchering for own use was conducted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oyer on Friday of last week, and those who participated were Mr. Jason Confer, Renovo; Mrs. Eva Wenick and son Lloyd, of Clarence; Messrs. George Burd and son Lester, Guyer Ertley, Willard Yearick, Calvin Kline, William Boone, Mrs. William Boone, Mrs. William Beightol, Miss Geraldine Swope and Betty Walker.

Callers during the past week at the James Shaffer home to see the new daughter, who has been given the name Dorothy Louise, were Miss Weight, Dorothy Betz, Betty Aley, Mrs. William Beightol and children Louise and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conway and children, Arline Swope, Vivian Wolfe and Floyd Yearick. Sunday callers were Mrs. William Smith and son Krystal, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Weight, Mr. Perry Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conway and family, Mrs. E. R. Bartley, Betty Aley, Louise and Milford Beightol.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon and Billie Dorey, of Fentington, spent Sunday afternoon with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon. Although he was unable to do her family chores, so she was taken to Altoona for treatment last week. The Thompsons reside on the John I. Bortoff farm.

Mrs. Leona Thompson is reported on the sick list at this writing. Mrs. Ernest Frye held a quilting party at her home last Friday. Those present were: Mrs. Claude Confer, Mrs. C. F. Miller, Mrs. Fischer and Mrs. Sallie Furl. Last Wednesday Rev. C. F. Miller and wife and Mrs. Sallie Furl attended a quilting party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Toner Pitzer, at Yarnell.

Bald Eagle Grange will meet Friday evening, February 4.

RUNVILLE

The U. B. Revival is still in progress with good interest and good crowds. Rev. Miller is preaching plain gospel messages. The young folks are being won to the Lord. Eighteen have already taken their stand for the Lord and last Sunday night the doors of the church were open and eight joined the church. The revival will continue until Wednesday evening, or if good interest given, will continue all week. Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, was present last Thursday night and gave the message to a large crowd, and five young folks walked down the aisle to the altar.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Poorman of Williamsport, visited with home folks Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Watson celebrated his 62nd birthday last Wednesday, January 26. A number of his children and their families were present to help him enjoy the day by arranging a good dinner in his honor. Mr. Watson has been shut in with rheumatism but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warner moved from the Walter Bennett house into half of Mrs. Anna Lucas' house last Monday.

Mr. Earl Milton of Lewisport, motored here over the week-end and visited with home folks.

Raymond Pyle and family of Fetzertown visited with his brothers Ernest and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ventur, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Watka, Miss Mae Mack and Mr. Howard Derr, all of Philadelphia, motored here and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bennett over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett and son Carl of Wingate, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, and Mr. Clarence Johnson, of Pleasant Gap, were Sunday visitors at the E. S. Bennett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gussallus and son Harold and Mr. and Mrs. John Strunk motored to Flemington and visited with Wayne Hardy.

Mrs. Edward Thompson was stricken with neuritis in her arms and hands and was unable to do her family chores, so she was taken to Altoona for treatment last week.

The Thompsons reside on the John I. Bortoff farm.

Mrs. Leona Thompson is reported on the sick list at this writing. Mrs. Ernest Frye held a quilting party at her home last Friday.

Those present were: Mrs. Claude Confer, Mrs. C. F. Miller, Mrs. Fischer and Mrs. Sallie Furl.

Last Wednesday Rev. C. F. Miller and wife and Mrs. Sallie Furl attended a quilting party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Toner Pitzer, at Yarnell.

Bald Eagle Grange will meet Friday evening, February 4.

SNOW SHOE

Miss Elizabeth Dixon was honor guest last Wednesday evening to a surprise party for her birthday.

The evening was spent in playing bingo, and at a late hour lunch was served. Those present were: Mrs. C. A. Thompson, Mrs. Joe Bradley, Mrs. Kenneth Sinclair, Mrs. Nell Shaw, Mrs. Leshner Hershey, Mrs. W. G. Kialling, Mrs. Mary Park, Mrs. Mabel Lucas, Mrs. Harry Eiters, Mrs. James Uzzle, Jr., Mrs. E. M. France, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dixon, daughters Kathryn, Geraldine, Myra, Elizabeth, sons Alexander and Robert.

W. C. T. U. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. W. Rabert last Wednesday night.

Miss Verna Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lucas, is a surgical patient at the Philadelphia State hospital.

Mrs. Myrtle Chambers and Mrs. Elizabeth Gooden, of Clarence, spent last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Julia Sinclair.

The stork flew over our town and left a baby boy with Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hall, Jr. It has been called Clair Rodger.

Marie France spent the week-end with Miss Ethel Swartz of Bellefonte.

Eugene Lucas returned from Philadelphia where he had been taking treatment for a sinus condition and has been greatly relieved.

Miss Irene Sinclair has been housed up this past week with gripple.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, Jr., of Towanda, recently spent the week-end with Mr. Hall's mother, Mrs. William Hall and family.

Miss Margaret Boyce of DuBois, is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dixon.

A surprise party was held last Wednesday for Mrs. Ida Witmer of Wingate, on her 76th birthday. Mrs. Witmer has been in business for the last 53 years, but her many friends will be sorry to hear her health has been impaired. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Beident, son Carl, Painted Post, N. Y.; Mrs. F. T. Walker, Milesburg; Mrs. Mabel Lucas daughters Pauline and Madge, son Lemoyne, of Snow Shoe; Arthur McMillen and Mrs. Ida Witmer, of Wingate.

Mrs. Charles Rudy and son Charles, Jr., Mrs. John Hoy, Paul Grubb, George Homan, all of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCloskey and daughter Louise, Mr. and Mrs. William Mapes, Mrs. Nevin Yearick, Harry Beightol, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Kenneth, Dickey and Elsie Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidigh. All departed at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Neidigh many years of happy, prosperous wedded life.

It has been reported that the White Rock stone quarry here will again resume operations on Tuesday of this week. The writer is unable to state the correctness of the report or the length of time they will operate.

A box social will be held here in Grange Hall on Friday evening, February 18, sponsored by the Juvenile Grange. Entertainment will be furnished in the form of plays and music. Come everybody and help a good and worthy cause.

HOWARD

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor of Bellefonte are the parents of a new born baby. They were former Howard residents.

D. L. Welch is around in his wheelchair and seems to be recovering nicely from the amputation of his leg.

Louis Williams underwent a serious operation in the Centre County Hospital on Tuesday.

Mrs. Fleming James of W. Va., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Loma Williams, during the illness of her uncle L. L. Williams.

Mrs. Christian Schenck has been confined to her home suffering from a nervous condition.

Mrs. Fred Bechtel of Howard, R. D. is again confined to her home from illness.

Dr. Kurtz has returned from Philadelphia where he has been receiving treatment.

Friends of Mrs. Harry Fravel are grieved to hear of her passing away. She had been ill for some time. Her obituary will be found in another part of the paper.

The Lock Run edge No. 311 held their anniversary banquet Thursday evening. After a delicious meal was served, an entertaining program was given in the lodge hall. The speakers were: Mr. Edward Quick, District Executive, master, Milesburg; Mr. Willie Wion, Past Grand, Assn. Centre; Mr. Victor A. Auman, Secretary, Past Grand, Assn. Centre; Mr. Lester Koon, Grand Marshal of Grand Lodge, Jersey Shore; Mr. Girard Alendier, District Deputy Grand, Pariah, Howard; The male chorus gave several selections; Mr. A. A. Pletcher, Fred V. Pletcher, Mr. Justus O. Leather, Mr. William Leathers, Mr. Roy Oyer, Pianist Mrs. H. B. Deament. A magician, Mr. Vashug of State College gave an interesting program.

A number of Howard people attended the recital Sunday afternoon at the home of the Pleasant Gap. Miss Felda Confer, has been visiting this past week in Tyrone.

D. Water Kurz and wife of Meyerstown spent Sunday at the home of Dr. W. J. Kurtz and family.

Mr. William Mayes, Mrs. Martha Evey, Rev. Kline and daughter Loraine, attended the Consistory in Williamsport last week.

The Missionary Society of the Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. A. Thur Wendel, Wednesday evening.

Miss Mae Orr of Philadelphia is visiting at the home of her parents, Willis Geisinger of Bellefonte, who is visiting in town Sunday morning. He addressed the session of Howard M. E. Church School.

Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Kline motored to Martinsburg last Wednesday. Bald Eagle Methodist Episcopal Parish—Rev. R. L. Morris, Minister, Cut-in—Divine Worship 9:30, "Can You Take It?" Church School, 10:30. Epworth League 7:30, Church School 9:30, Edgar Beach, Epworth League 7:30.

PINE GLEN

Church will be at 7:30 in the evening during the month of February instead of 6:15. Please note the change. Rev. Blair has been delivering some very fine sermons lately and a real treat is in store for you at 7:30 this Sunday evening. Sunday School at 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Ethel Gentzel was called to the hospital on Sunday to see her sister, Miss Vera Lewis, of Snow Shoe. Miss Lewis had an appendicitis operation and is not so good.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoover and Mrs. D. W. Burkey, Miss Viola Hoover and Volge Wagner called on Mrs. Ida Dixon and Max Hoover, both patients at the Philadelphia State hospital.

James Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. John Ammerman and Mrs. Frank Ralls were also at the hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mulholland and sons of Tyrone, were at the Viehdorfer home on Sunday.

The Beates family entertained over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Benton and family, of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Bickle and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beati, of Harrisburg. They were joined on Sunday by the Wagners of Bellefonte to help celebrate the birthdays of Miss Caroline Beates, Harry Beates and Mrs. Bickles.

Mr. Clyde Hoover, Russell, Marvin and Jean Hoover, and Mr. and Mrs. George Houshell, visited Mr. Houshell's brother Frank at Marsh Creek, on Sunday.

Arthur McCollough and H. A. Beates transacted business in Bellefonte last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Buck of LeConte Mills, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pibell recently.

MARSH CREEK

Callers at the Wilson Boone home on Saturday were Mr. John Heverly and son Blair, and daughter Sylvia, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dickey and son George.

Miss Olive Lucas and Lewis Lucas visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Housshell and family on Sunday.

Miss Florence Yeager visited with Reida Woerner on Sunday.

Sunday callers at the Wilson Boone home were Sylvia Lucas, Thorus Nyman, Esther Boone, Joseph Nyman and son Joseph, Jr.

Mrs. William Boone and daughter Esther and Sylvia Lucas called on Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Weaver of Salona, on Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Wilson Boone had the misfortune to fall and break one of his ribs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Laird Nyman called at the Joseph Nyman home on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Joseph Nyman and Mr. Wilson Boone motored to Beech Creek and Mill Hill on Monday.

Miss Pearl Housshell visited her parents over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Toner Mann and daughter Jennie called on the Roy Oyer family of Jacksonville and help a good and worthy cause.

MOSHANNON

Mrs. James Walsh has returned to her home in Franklin, N. J., after spending some time at the home of her mother, Mrs. Winnie Kerlin. Mrs. Kerlin's condition is greatly improved and we are glad to see her around again.

Clyde C. Lucas of Pleasant Gap spent part of last week with relatives here.

Friday of last week Mr. John Lucas and Mr. Clyde Lucas motored to Philadelphia, where they spent the afternoon with Capt. C. T. Fryberger who celebrated his 94th birthday last week. Captain Fryberger and J. Toner Lucas fought side by side in the Civil War.

Evelyn Frye spent Sunday at her parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas of Emporium and Mrs. L. Lucas R. N. of Bellefonte spent the weekend at the John F. Lucas home.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and Hope drove to Philadelphia to visit Vera Lewis who is seriously ill at the Philadelphia hospital. Vera underwent an operation for appendicitis on Friday. Her condition Sunday was very slightly improved.

Mrs. Clyde Berger was on the sick list Sunday.

The George Cartwright Jr. family motored to Clarinet Sunday where they visited with their daughter Mrs. Kessinger, formerly Mary Jane Jeffers.

Mrs. John Cartwright and daughter Geradine, Mrs. Martin Cartwright Sr. and Earl Hoover motored to Philadelphia where they visited with Mrs. William Daughenbach.

Mrs. George Lucas, formerly Althea Quirk of North Bend, has returned to her parental home here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cartwright and Mrs. Cora Crispman made a business trip to Lock Haven last Tuesday. The stork visited at the home of Lans Wagner on Saturday morning and left a nice big boy.

Mrs. A. Jeter Plubell and three children of Coudy called at the Charles Guenther home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ann McCloskey, daughter Helen and son George spent Sunday afternoon at the John McCloskey home.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCloskey and two children were Sunday evening dinner guests at the Charles Guenther home, where chicken and waffle dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gavin of Holidayburg, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leniz of Lilly, and Mrs. John For of Altoona, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Winnie Kerlin.

Members of Oranville, Ill., and Edith Keener of Clearfield, sister of M. A. Jacob Hazard, and Mrs. George Magnuson of Clearfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Crowell of Morrisdale and Mr. and Mrs. William Hember of Argyle, Wisconsin, took dinner Sunday at the Jacob Hazard home.

MONUMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Gross Mark and son Eugene, of Avis, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Young.

The W. W. W. Sunday school class met on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Ellen Shady to hold their regular meeting. The members exchanged names for "pairs" for the coming year, and the rest of the evening was spent in playing games, prize winners being: Mrs. Robert De Boer, Misses Nancy Bommaster and Verna Belle Young. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour to the following: Hilma Swartz, Emma Heverly, Nancy Bommaster, Beulah Wilson, Mary Gummoo, Vesta and Verna Belle Young, Ellen Shady, and Mrs. Robert De Boer, teacher.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard G. Young and son Merle, of Lock Haven, spent Thursday afternoon with Rev. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Young.

There were 143 present at Sunday school Sunday morning.

Members of the boys' daughters Sunday school class met on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Swartz to hold the monthly meeting. The evening was spent in playing games, prize winners being Jeanette Shady, June Durkin and Ella Heaton. Other members of the class who were present were: Sue Durkin, Vera McCloskey, Minnie Mayes, Jane Levi, Katherine Heaton, Jean Hanley, Theo and Lillian Butler, Mary Winslow, Dorothy Jane Gloagier, Vivian Love, Geraldine Heverly, Mary Eiters, and teacher, Miss Vesta Young.

Mr. Victor Williams, who is attending Pittsburgh School for Dentists, has been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Muthler and family spent Saturday at Jersey Shore visiting Mrs. Muthler's mother, Mrs. Alice Yeager.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Johnson and sons, and Mrs. Sadie Johnson spent Saturday at Port Royal visiting Mr. and Mrs. Merle Johnson and family.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Stauffer and son Fred Watson and Earl Krieger of Warren, Ohio, are spending some time with relatives in this vicinity.

Rev. Shuey of Bellefonte called at the Watson home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Burd and son, of Pleasant Gap, spent Wednesday of last week with Mrs. Edith Burd and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Watson and son were supper guests at the M. C. Reeve home at Gum Stump on Saturday evening.

Fred Watson and Earl Krieger spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Margaree and family Jr., at Pleasant Gap.

Betty Shawley of Milesburg attended church at this place on Sunday.

Clyde Watson of Milesburg spent Thursday at the Lee Johnson home. Mrs. John Watson and son Mrs. Miles Stauffer and son and Carl Krieger, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Watson and son were recent visitors at the Roy Sheeley home at Stormstown. Mrs. Nancy Aikens, Mrs. Clark McKinley, Mrs. John Kelly visited friends at this place on Thursday.

ZION

"Woody" Corman of New York, spent the week-end at his parental home.

Sorry to note Mrs. George Vonada had been on the sick list.

A motor party consisting of Misses Mary Struble, Mary Boone, H. T. Struble, Joel Royer, expect to leave today for a four to six weeks visit in Florida.

Mary Jane Armstrong had been on the sick list. Glad to report her able to return to school Monday.

Josephine Armstrong is spending a few days at the Hoy Harter home at State College.

Glad to report Edwin Fiddler is improving nicely from his recent injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Epley Gentzel, E. J. Gentzel and Joel Royer attended the funeral of Mr. Dornblaser, held Sunday at Lamar.

Week-end visitors at the Edwin Fiedler home were: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and daughter, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farewell and family, of Glen Union; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bresler; Mrs. Harris Fiedler and family, of Greenburg; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garrison and sons, of Mill Hill; Mrs. Wilson Ammerman and Mrs. Sara Weber, of Nittany. Quite a number of these folks called to see Mr. Fiedler at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hookman called Sunday to see Mrs. Ida Markle of Hublersburg. Mrs. Markle took ill on Saturday. She is improving nicely.

Rev. and Mrs. little Miss Shirley Wilmer is on the sick list. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Sorry to note Mrs. Arthur Garbick is housed up with a severe cold.

The community young people will hold their monthly meeting in the Reformed social hall on Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m. All the young people try and be present.

The following pupils of the Zion school have had perfect attendance for the month ending January 27: Grade 1—Jo Ann Emerick; Grade 2—Dorothy White; Grade 3—Betty Butler, Dean Vonada, Ray Weaver; Grade 4—Ethel M. Kraper; Grade 5—Ruth White, Allene Wilmer; Grade 6—Lois Gilmore, Warren Wilmer, Raymond Bartley; Grade 7—Alada Weaver, Mary L. Kraper. Pupils who have excelled in spelling are: Grade 6—Lois Gilmore; Grade 7—Mary L. Kraper.

Pupils on the Honor Roll are: Grade 1—Betty Hoy, Jo Ann Emerick, Madelyn Ducky, Norman Ishler; Grade 2—Cecil Hull; Grade 3—Dean Vonada, Ray Weaver, Betty Bartley, Barbara Wilmer; Grade 4—Ethel M. Kraper; Grade 5—Madeline Harter; Grade 6—Lois Gilmore; Grade 7—Mary L. Kraper, Lois Shaffer.

Number of pupils received by transfer from Mill Hill: Grade 8—Richard Treasler.

Percentage of attendance: Boys, 85; girls, 85.

PORT MATILDA

George Harpster, Mrs. Dona D. Rice, Ora Shebet and Mrs. Ellen Williams are all on the sick list.

The Baptist Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Williams on Tuesday night. Members present were Mrs. Blanche Mies, Mrs. Mary Pringle, Mrs. Annie Williams, Mrs. H. S. Williams and Mrs. A. B. Williams.

Mrs. Howard Edwards held a quilting on Thursday.

Rev. William Murray Young, of Hollaysburg, Mrs. Ford Young and daughter Joan, of Williamsport, visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woodring on Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Y. Thompson of Rising Sun, Md., is visiting for a week with relatives and friends.

A. J. Johnson who has been on the sick list for some time, we are glad to report is greatly improved.

Miss Isabell Snyder spent the weekend at her home in Millifinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bennett and Mrs. Matilda Ammerman visited on Sunday at Mrs. Mollie Williams home at Dix Run.

A. H. Duncan of Philadelphia spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams.

J. R. Woodring has been appointed Justice of the Peace.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Grimm and two children of Buffalo, N. Y., visited several days with Mrs. Grimm's father, Mr. Orvis Williams. The Grimms left on Wednesday for Florida to spend some time.

Mrs. Miriam Osman spent the weekend with her niece, Mrs. Harrison Burns in Osceola.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams shopped in Altoona on Friday.

The D. P. Woodring house was on fire on Sunday. The fire company was called, but the fire was under control when they arrived. The damage is reported as slight.

An Amateur boxing contest will be held of eleven bouts, sponsored by Port Matilda High School Athletic Association, Friday, February 11th at 8 p. m. in W. D. Woodring's garage. Adults 35c; Children 10c.

PINE GROVE

Farmer Edgar Hess of Shingletown was a visitor in our town Saturday evening.

The Isaac O. Campbell farm buildings near Meek's church are now brilliantly illuminated with juice from West Penn Power line.

Fred Randolph of Rogers Dept. Store in Huntingdon was an important business visitor here and at Balleville Tuesday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Glenn have the sympathy of our community of the death of their 3 day old son, George Laurence Glenn, who died in the Centre County hospital Sunday. His little body was laid to rest Monday at 3:30 p. m. in the Branch cemetery.

The general G. M. C. truck agent, of State College, Herbert Nerhood, was a pleasant caller in town last Friday p. m.

Don't forget the oyster supper for the benefit of the Community Hall association at Balleville Friday, Feb. 4th at 5:30 to 8.

Mrs. Gladys Sunday, efficient office girl for Dr. Hummer in State College spent the week-end at her parental home, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sunday.

The 'hill barn' on the Snyder homestead near Pine Hill is being completely remodeled by its new possessor.

The condition of Mrs. Sydney Stauffer, former resident here, in Parkersburg, W. Va., hospital is regarded as serious. Her husband L. R. Stauffer and daughter Nancy Lee are at her bedside.

Mrs. Ruth Frank is nursing a real infected eye, under the care of Dr. W. S. Glenn, State College eye specialist. The wound was caused in a mix-up while milking with one of their Holstein switchers. U. S. mailman, Ira Harpster is also nursing a sore blister caused by sawdust from a circular saw last Tuesday.

The old Pine Grove Academy building—a real landmark—is being razed by the owner Luther G. Peters, a new dwelling house will be erected.

State Milk Inspector Claude H. Myers, spent the past week in Huntingdon county, on his official duties.

Farmer and interior decorator Grover C. Cool has recently put down hard wood floors in his town home on W. Main street.

Donald Fry is now part time chauffeur for Dr. E. G. Gavi, he who occupies the Mrs. J. W. Peters house on E. Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Irvin motored to Latrobe Sunday for a visit with his aged mother who is resting comfortably in the hospital in that town.

Sidney Reitel, Centre Hill's stock dealer, was a business caller in our town recently.

Our good friend J. Kyle Alexander will make public sale of his farm equipment, March 8, at his round barn on a farm near Julian, Kyle will devote all his time to his Harrisburg office in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cori, son Nevin and Mrs. L. G. Peters were Saturday evening callers at the Mrs. Etta Cori home on Wall Street.

Mrs. John Quinn is reported ill at her Branch home near M. D., suffering badly infected throat.

John Bearick spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. Winegardner who is still bedfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Glenn on the Branch.

The regular meeting of the I. W. G. Missionary society was held at D. S. Peterson's home Saturday last. 40 members were present to help devour the delicious dinner served by Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, a business session and social hour were observed in p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sunday of State College, were Sunday visitors at the Grover E. Fry home and found the man of the house improving nicely from recent operation in the Altoona Hospital.

The Daniel Stovers who have tenanted the Witny-Thomas farm west of town the past few years will retire from the farm this spring. Their public sale will be March 16, 1 p. m.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. Myrtle Lucas and son Morgan called on Mrs. Hannah Lucas at Wingate, on Wednesday.

Miss Hannah Amel of Red Root, is visiting at present at the James Lucas home