

MILESBERG

The Milesburg Methodist Missionary Society will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Rose Haupt. Mrs. Meda McCollough will be the program leader. The text-book being used is "Mecca and Beyond" by Dr. and Mrs. Dodd, who have been missionaries in Persia and know Islam through close contact. This book is charmingly written and full of up-to-date information. Capt. G. H. Keller and wife, of Kingston, Pa., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ross Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baird, daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Leathers and son Jimmie were Sunday dinner guests at the Joseph Baird home in Lemont. Don't forget the baked ham supper at the Methodist church Feb. 11th, under the auspices of the Suzanna's. Miss Besse Miles accompanied her sister, Lillian, to the Geisinger Hospital, where she will undergo a treatment. A meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will be held Thursday of this week at the Clayton Lucas home. Mrs. F. L. Baird is suffering from an injured knee, having fallen on Monday last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Haupt and daughter Betty Jane, of State College, spent Sunday with the Misses Jeanie and Annie Adams. The occasion was Miss Jeanie's birthday. Incidentally, Mr. Haupt won the cake at the President's birthday ball and brought the first lady for the birthday dinner. Mrs. Orin Heaton held a quilting party during the past week. Mrs. William Switzer is a patient at the Centre County Hospital. Rev. D. D. Kaufman and daughter Christine spent Monday at their cottage at Newton Hamilton. Miss Martha Rugg returned Saturday from Pittsburgh where she spent the past week, being transferred there from Bellefonte. Mr. Walter Smith, son Enoch, spent Sunday in Tyrone as guests of Mrs. Annie Wilherite, Mrs. Smith, who had been visiting in Tyrone, returned with them. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley of Flemington, spent the week-end with the former's mother. Mr. John Hall motored to Pittsburgh on Thursday of last week. He was accompanied by his sister and brother, Jean and Richard. Mr. James Crook, who is employed in Lock Haven, spent the week-end with his wife, who is spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jodon. Mrs. Crook accompanied her husband back to Lock Haven for a visit. Henry McKinley, who has been ill with pleurisy, is improved. Miss Mary Adams, our post mistress, has moved into the Roberts' apartment. We have on our sick list at this time Mrs. LeRoy Brian, daughter Audrey, Betty Hall, Faye Scheckler, Margie Spicer and Chester Fisher, our genial milkman. We hope these folks soon regain their usual good health. Our other sick folks are still on the improvement list. Mrs. Oscar Shay is quite ill at this time. Mrs. Grant Dyke of Tangletown, suffered a paralytic stroke on Wednesday last week. At this writing she is slightly improved. We hope she continues to improve. Mrs. Anna Smith is spending a few days at the Cronemiller home in Bellefonte. Mrs. William Eckenroth spent Tuesday evening of last week at the Ray Allison home in Howard.

PLEASANT VIEW

Miss Charlotte Lyle spent Tuesday night with her school friends, the Misses Anna and Helen Tressler. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rocky who lived in the Hensey bungalow, have moved to the Smith property in Gilttown, located along the road leading from Pleasant Gap to Zion. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitehill and four interesting sons, of Linden Hall, called on their friends Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spicer, on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Odie Spicer spent Saturday at the Charles Shearer home sawing wood with the circular saw. It is reported by good authority that a newlywed couple will move into the bungalow vacated by Grover Rocky, and that Mr. and Mrs. Howard Young, of Lewisburg, will move in the spring to the farm house on the Hensey farm which is at present tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rocky. Miss Ariene Hendershot spent Saturday afternoon with the Misses Anna and Helen Tressler. Speaking of thunder in January, the writer recalls having heard the older people say upon such occasions "Thunder in January means a failure in crops." The leader in this community should be a worker, not a voice to tell other people what to do.
