

BENNER TWP.

The weather made a sudden change on Saturday—it snowed all day, very stormy and cold.

Jack Lose spent Saturday evening in Bellefonte attending the show and visiting with his father, Fred Lose.

Quite a few farmers attended the horse sale held at Centre Hall on Saturday.

Bruce Krumrine was through here this week buying up butchering stock.

Marshall brothers, Fred and Lester, helped Bob Walters to cut his summer's wood this week.

Visitors at the home of Ira Benner this week and on Sunday were George Beckwith, wife and son Charles, of Tyrone; Carmen and Thena Decker and Hilda Thompson, son and mother, from Altoona, and Miss Betty Lyons, of Lyons-town.

Ruth Shade, of Lyons-town, spent the week-end with Mrs. Margaret Young.

W. R. Shope has been buying all the timber tracts around here and is saving the timber into lumber.

William Davey held a dance at his home in Hays Hollow Friday evening.

William Davey was among the lucky men. He got a card to go to work on the campus at State College on Monday.

Francis Benner and lady friend, Miss Betty Lyons, and Floyd Silver and lady friend, Miss Marie Gordon, spent Wednesday evening very pleasantly at the home of Joseph Stover.

Fred Marshall and wife and son

RUNVILLE

A beautiful blanket of snow covered our community last Sunday morning. As the snow fell it stuck to everything, which made a white appearance everywhere, and also caused the state snow plows to get out and clear the streets of snow.

We believe that something ought to be done to help keep the Sabbath day for what it was intended—Rest and Worship.

The U. B. Revival has been in progress for 6 weeks, closing Sunday night, resulting in much good to the church and community.

There were 64 converts and 33 united with the church. All departments of the Sunday school have been helped a lot; Christian Endeavor societies reorganized; pastor appointed Mr. Roy Leathers, president of the Senior C. E. and Miss Goldie Walker, president of Intermediate C. E. society.

LITTLE NITTANY

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moltz and son of Jersey Shore, spent several days at the Ralph Fletcher home.

Mrs. Hannah McCommlings of Howard, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Mary Delaney and brother John Dullen.

Mrs. Robert Laubach and Florence Dullen of Williamsport, were over night guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dullen.

Visitors the past week at the Willard Harter home were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walker and son Junley of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Fleeta Harter and Mrs. Sancta Dorman of Howard. The ladies assisted Mrs. Willard Harter to quilt.

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services.—The Fourth Quarterly Conference, in charge of the Supt., Rev. Williams, of Williamsport, will be held this Thursday evening at 7:30 at the prayer service hour.

Persons from here who attended the meeting of the Group on last Friday evening, were Mrs. Clark Williams, Miss Mary McCommlings, Ruth Parsons, Louise Tingle and Margaret Parsons.

Miss Lorraine Parsons, student at State College, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons. She returned to resume her studies on Monday morning.

Johnnie Stere, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere, a student of Penn State College, spent the weekend with his parents.

Pearce Rumbergar, of near Baltimore, Maryland, spent the weekend with relatives in the community, returning to his work on Monday morning.

C. H. Ekenroth boarded the train on Saturday for Upper Darby, where he spent the weekend with his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner.

Miss William Brower, of Pittsburgh, is guest at this time of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleck.

Miss Maxine Flick of Union Township, spent the weekend with Miss Mary Lucas at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lucas.

Miss Florence Finch of Bellefonte, was a weekend guest of her father, J. H. Finch of this place.

Miss Eva Rowan was in the company of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, at her home this Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sue McEwen was laid up for several days last week with a severe attack of lumbago. She is better at this writing which her many friends and neighbors are glad to learn.

The World Week of Prayer will be observed in the community on Friday evening, March 4th. All the churches of the community taking part and services being held in the Free Methodist church. Everyone is cordially welcome to attend this service which will be at 7:30 p. m. A special program is being prepared for the occasion which promises to be very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fisher and son of Pittsburgh were weekend guests of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher of Pittsburgh were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher over the weekend.

George Shipley met with a very serious accident last Thursday morning, when he was burned about the fire to start it. The oil can exploded as well as the stove setting fire to the clothing of Mr. Shipley. When his wife arrived on the scene after hearing screams of "Fire," her husband was a mass of flames. The clothing was torn from his body at once but he was badly burned about the body and was immediately taken to the Centre County Hospital where he is getting along as rapidly as can be expected. Kenneth Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, in whose house the Shipley's reside, is assisting to take off the clothing of Mr. Shipley, was badly burned about his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams and children, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons and daughter, Lorraine and Margaret, were entertained to a real chicken dinner, with all the trimmings, on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall of Union Township.

Any one desiring a real bargain on a used car will profit by calling on Mrs. Alice Hess, of Bellefonte. She has a 1929 DeSoto sedan which is in the best of condition and looks like new as it was never run very hard. It is all in first class condition, battery good and the price will be right. Call on her and get full particulars if interested.

BOALSBURG

Ralph Hunter of Vandergrift, spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kimpert were entertained at the Wallace Woomer home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kline and son and daughter, of Oak Hill, called at the George Fortney home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Little of Tyrone, were callers at the J. F. Kimpert residence Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Goheen called at the Goheen home at Rock Springs on Sunday.

Mrs. Leroy Freedy and Miss Mary Segner entertained with bridge Monday evening at the Freedy home. The guests were: Mrs. Fern Hess, Mrs. Teresene Patterson, Mrs. Maude Gorman and the Misses Helen Gier, Dorothy Loberger, Anna Mary Hess, Rachel Segner, Dorothy Rinsinger, Margaret Dale and Virginia Hess. Prizes were won by Dorothy Loberger and Margaret Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hess and family, spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kerster at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stover and son, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stover at Houseville.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Herman of Pleasant Gap, were callers at the Freedy home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson and son Billy, spent Thursday in Hillidsburg.

Mr. Ernest Hess of Boalsburg, and Mr. Newton Hess, of State College, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey and family at Greensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Houtz and daughter Barbara, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Forest Evey at Lemon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gerhart and family of Pine Grove Mills, and Misses Anna Mary and Virginia Hess were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hess on Sunday.

MONUMENT

Mrs. Malcolm Johnson is entertaining a cousin from Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Groes Mark and son Eugene of Avis, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young.

Victor Williams of Pittsburgh, visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Stewart Williams called at the home of Lew Williams at Howard, Pa. Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hockenbury are the proud parents of a son, born at the Lock Haven Hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mueller entertained company on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eter entertained company on Friday eve.

Quite a number of Monument folks attended the Missionary meeting at Orviston on Wednesday evening, conducted by Mrs. Cleovena D. Ford, of Puerto Rico.

An agent told us a wonderful way to make money fast the other day and we missed the opportunity and must work for a living a while longer.

By the time we get automobile travel safe people will risk their lives in the air.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Feb. 24 are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and 10:45. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Immediately followed by the preaching service, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kauffman.

Persons from here who attended the meeting of the Group on last Friday evening, were Mrs. Clark Williams, Miss Mary McCommlings, Ruth Parsons, Louise Tingle and Margaret Parsons.

Miss Lorraine Parsons, student at State College, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons. She returned to resume her studies on Monday morning.

Johnnie Stere, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere, a student of Penn State College, spent the weekend with his parents.

Pearce Rumbergar, of near Baltimore, Maryland, spent the weekend with relatives in the community, returning to his work on Monday morning.

C. H. Ekenroth boarded the train on Saturday for Upper Darby, where he spent the weekend with his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner.

Miss William Brower, of Pittsburgh, is guest at this time of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fleck.

Miss Maxine Flick of Union Township, spent the weekend with Miss Mary Lucas at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lucas.

Miss Florence Finch of Bellefonte, was a weekend guest of her father, J. H. Finch of this place.

Miss Eva Rowan was in the company of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, at her home this Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sue McEwen was laid up for several days last week with a severe attack of lumbago. She is better at this writing which her many friends and neighbors are glad to learn.

The World Week of Prayer will be observed in the community on Friday evening, March 4th. All the churches of the community taking part and services being held in the Free Methodist church. Everyone is cordially welcome to attend this service which will be at 7:30 p. m. A special program is being prepared for the occasion which promises to be very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fisher and son of Pittsburgh were weekend guests of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher of Pittsburgh were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher over the weekend.

George Shipley met with a very serious accident last Thursday morning, when he was burned about the fire to start it. The oil can exploded as well as the stove setting fire to the clothing of Mr. Shipley. When his wife arrived on the scene after hearing screams of "Fire," her husband was a mass of flames. The clothing was torn from his body at once but he was badly burned about the body and was immediately taken to the Centre County Hospital where he is getting along as rapidly as can be expected. Kenneth Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, in whose house the Shipley's reside, is assisting to take off the clothing of Mr. Shipley, was badly burned about his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams and children, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons and daughter, Lorraine and Margaret, were entertained to a real chicken dinner, with all the trimmings, on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall of Union Township.

Any one desiring a real bargain on a used car will profit by calling on Mrs. Alice Hess, of Bellefonte. She has a 1929 DeSoto sedan which is in the best of condition and looks like new as it was never run very hard. It is all in first class condition, battery good and the price will be right. Call on her and get full particulars if interested.

PLEASANT GAP

The Men's Brotherhood of Pleasant Gap held their meeting in the Sunday School room of the Methodist Church on Feb. 18th, at 8:00 p. m., with William Tucker, the president, presiding. Rev. Bernard Henry, pastor of the M. E. church had charge of the devotions. Mr. Tucker gave a short talk on the purpose of the brotherhood, the minutes from the first meeting were read and the reports from the standing committees were heard. The speaker of the evening, Dr. Howard G. Treubold, President of the State College brotherhood then gave a very interesting talk on "What a Brotherhood Stands For." It is spirit building, Brotherhood and friendship go together. It aims to introduce the stranger and bring men into friendly relationships. The persons present were: Mr. S. E. Rote and Donald Ray of Ase Mann and Ray Swartz of Milledale being the out of town guests. A steak and supper was served after the meeting. Next meeting will be held St. Patrick's Day, March 17th, at 8 p. m. at the M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sarah Simpson announce the arrival of a son, who was born in the Centre County hospital, Tuesday morning, Feb. 22nd.

Harold Stitzer surprised his many friends recently by being quietly married to Miss Dorothy Jones of near Unionville. Their many friends wish for them a happy and prosperous married life.

Among those who attended the luncheon and card party at the County Club Tuesday afternoon were Mrs. Ray Noll, Mrs. A. H. Smith, Mrs. William Tucker, Mrs. John Noll, Mrs. S. E. Rote, Mrs. H. T. Noll, Mrs. F. A. Bauer, Mrs. Ray Melroy, Mrs. Edna Noll, Mrs. Roy Adams, Mrs. Hugh O'Connell, Mrs. M. W. Schreffler and Mrs. J. B. Barlett. Mrs. Roy Adams, Mrs. M. W. Schreffler,

NEW DISTRICT K. OF C.

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Redding succeeded Attorney Lawrence J. DeFaria, of Tyrone, as he was installed into his new post in the presence of prominent Knights of Columbus members from Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties.

State Deputy J. L. Brown, of Wilkes-Barre was master of ceremonies, with the guest speaker being the Rev. Father F. V. O'Connor, of Altoona, state chaplain of the K. of C.

Mr. Redding is Grand Knight of the Oseola Mills Council of the K. of C. and will serve as district deputy for a two year term. He is active in all community affairs and is Burgess of Oseola Mills and president of the fire department.

Thirty-four candidates were given degrees at the Sunday ceremony.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

DEPUTY IS INSTALLED

Eighty-four persons attended the installation ceremonies held Sunday afternoon in the hall of the Immaculate Conception church at Oseola Mills as John A. Redding was made Deputy of District 12, Knights of Columbus.