Employees of the Central Pennsylvania Gas Company met at the Markland Hotel, Tuesday evening to hear about the 1938 Gas Week. Many outstanding improvements are standard equipment on this year's gas ranges.

H. S. Weeks, of the American Stove Company, stated that ranges would be available April 1st which are faster for top burner as well as cooking. The high speed oven will reach a baking temperature of 400 degrees in six minutes, he said.

C. E. Martin, manager of the local company told of the tremendous increase in the gas sent out from the plant at Axemann. He said "March 3rd was a record breaking day in this respect. Usually these big days come in the summer. We attribute an increase at this time to the addition of nearly one hundred new customers, most of whom are enjoying the many advantages of modern gas ranges."

Among those present were the following: Mr. Freeman, Mr. Dan Miller, John Morrison and C. E. Martin, of Bellefonte; Richard Livingston, Luther Shoemaker and N. W. Adkins, of Pleasant Gap; Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Graham and T. R. Robinson, of State College, and H. S. Weeks, of Bloomsburg. Refreshments were served.

The Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce at its general meeting, Tuesday night in the Court House, might include on their program for the coming summer the elimination of unnecessary radio interference in Bellefonte and vicinity. In some communities there are ordinances declaring it illegal to operate electrical appliances that are not properly equipped to prevent radio interference. Radio reception in Bellefonte, notoriously bad, had been fair for a time, but in recent weeks local noise has become so troublesome that it is oftentimes impossible to hear favorite programs.

Motorists in Bellefonte will learn with pleasure that Bellefonte Borough is to repair streets in town this summer for the first time in three years. Of course some patching has been done here and there, but no major improvements or maintenance has been undertaken. Many of the streets are in bad condition, with deep-chuck-holes and the large areas of macadam eroded and broken up. It is hoped that the full opportunity to get into the road-bed and work further destruction Council plans to purchase several cars of road oil, and to resurface as many streets as finances permit during the summer.

The venerable S. W. Bryan, former well known Bellefonte resident, who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Dukes at Cresson, Pa., celebrated his 75th birthday on March 2nd.
