

47-Year-Old Ex-Policeman Dies In Choir

"Gentlemen, I pronounce Martin Sullivan dead."

The priest, Father P. P. McCreesh, Catholic parish chaplain, made the sign of the cross.

The witnesses got up from the stone benches. They filed past the hearse that was Martin Sullivan.

Sullivan, while a Duquesne policeman, was accused of molesting a 13-year-old girl.

He claimed it was a frame-up. When arrested Dec. 17, 1936, he asked Constable Thomas Gallagher, who had known him for years, if he could notify one of his sons. While Constable Gallagher waited in front of a drug store, Sullivan slipped out the back way and began his tour of murder.

He went to the home of Joseph Benda, found Benda and his wife Helen, and he opened fire. Mr. Benda died almost instantly. His wife, who fell over his body, died two hours later in McKeesport Hospital.

The crazed officer then went to the home of Joseph Vukelja, at 14 McCrea St., father of 12-year-old Antonette whom Sullivan was accused of molesting. A son, Milan, grappled with him as the mother fled. He shot Milan dead. Then he shot the mother.

He went to the home of Mrs. Laura Bacon, 229 S. Second St., widely known social worker, and shot her.

Three weeks ago on his ride to the prison, Sullivan said:

"I didn't molest that girl. I wouldn't do a thing like that. I was defending my character. That's all a poor man has, his character. I guess I went mad. I can't remember killing them."

Three daughters, Mrs. Frances Sweeney, Mrs. Jessie Shaffer and Miss Catherine Sullivan, and Martin Sullivan, Jr., visited him Saturday in the death house. They talked to him two hours.

"Afterward he told prison officials, 'I am more ready than ever to die.'

Three guards, each working in an eight-hour shift, watched him during the last three weeks. They reported that he had perfect control of himself until the day before his death. Then the 'ghost' who bothered him in Allegheny County Jail again appeared. He screamed, said 'they are going to gouge out my eyes,' but toward the last he gained control of himself.

His last meal was the usual prison fare. He ate at 10 o'clock Sunday. The meal consisted of cheese, coffee, tea cake and rice soup. He then dozed off for several hours. He was awakened by guards two hours before the execution. Deputy Warden C. C. Rhoads said he seemed resigned to his fate.

The priest, the Prison Chaplain and Rev. Father A. W. Habroskapi, of Portage, Pa., were with him until he began his last walk to the chair. The body was claimed by members of the family.

MARTHA

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ardery and Mr. and Mrs. Elery Knarr and little Rachel spent Saturday with Howard Ardery and family at Nittany.

The Port Matilda Grange instructed a class in 3rd and 4th degree on Thursday evening. The Grange had a Pruning Demonstration near Hannah Furnace on Friday under the management of R. C. Blaney, the County Agent.

The Grange will hold a soil conservation meeting April 7th, with speakers from State College. This Grange is a real live factor in bettering the farm life in the community.

Rev. D. A. Sower will conduct the Communion service in the Methodist church on Sunday at 11 o'clock. Rev. and Mrs. Sower have been very faithful in their work for the three years they have been here and the church is very hopeful that they will be returned at conference time.

Rev. Sower held Evangelistic services for three weeks, but due to the inclemency of the weather and the extremely bad condition of the roads people could not attend as they would otherwise have done.

The ladies of the church had planned to hold a chicken and waffle dinner in the social room of the church Saturday evening, but the road leading to the church was too bad to travel so Mr. D. R. Richards very generously loaned the use of his garage for the dinner. This was very well suited for the purpose and contributed to the success of the dinner which was quite well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardery Calhoun of Belle Vernon spent Saturday at Sylvan Crest. Ardery pruned the peach orchard. He is an expert in this line of work having been trained in his course at State College. They returned home Sunday and were accompanied by their aunt, Miss Ida Williams, who will visit many of her friends in the Iron City and her sister, Mrs. L. L. Melcher and family in Wilkesburg. Mr. Melcher had quite a serious accident having fallen down stairs.

The caretaker of Huston Twp. had the road scraped leading past the church, on Saturday, as far as G. E. Ardery's. It made a decided improvement. It is hoped that the balance of the road may soon be made possible to travel over without danger of accident.

MILESBERG MAN INJURED AT PINE GLEN SAWMILL

Raymond Winn, aged 20, who resides with Lot Catherman, at Milesburg, had a bone in his right foot fractured Saturday morning in an accident at Pine Glen.

Winn, employed at the George Narebush sawmill at Pine Glen, was riding the carriage of a sawmill when his foot was caught between moving parts of the carriage. He was brought to his home in Milesburg, where he is now under a physician's care.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

Most of us know our cooking has gotten in a rut, but we soothe our conscience by thinking that experiments are costly, take too much time and the family probably wouldn't like it anyway. So we keep right on scrambling eggs, frying steak and baking puddings. A simple, yet different menu, perfectly prepared and charmingly served, will take the monotony out of cooking and will make the family feel proud of its housekeeper.

Creamed Tomatoes and Cheese
3 large tomatoes.
4 tablespoons fat.
1 1/2 cup milk.
1 teaspoon salt.
6 slices buttered toast.
Pepper.
6 tablespoons grated cheese.
3 hard boiled eggs.
Parsley.

Wash, stem and cut the tomatoes in halves crosswise. Dip in seasoned flour, then saute in the hot fat until golden brown on both sides. Arrange on the toast in the center of a platter. Then add the flour to the fat left in the skillet, stir until smooth, then add the milk gradually, the salt and pepper and the grated cheese. Cool gently, stirring until smooth. Add the eggs, which have been sliced. When thoroughly heated, pour over the tomatoes. Garnish with parsley.

Liver and Vegetable in Casserole

1 pound liver.
Pepper.
2 tablespoons fat.
2 cup tomatoes.
1/2 cup mashed potatoes.
2 cup corn.
4 tablespoons flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
Dip slices of liver in flour, salt and pepper. Fry in the fat until a delicate brown. Put liver in casserole. Put tomatoes and corn in frying pan. Mix flour to a smooth paste in a little cold water and add to the tomato mixture. Add salt and pepper and bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly until thickened. Pour over the liver. Cover with mashed potatoes mounded in peaks and brush top with beaten egg diluted with milk. Bake in an oven 400 degrees about 20 minutes.

Tuna Fish and Green Pea Salad

1 can tuna fish.
2-3 can green peas.
Mayonnaise.
1/2 cup chopped stuffed olives.
1 head lettuce.
Remove skin and bones from fish. Drain peas. Mix fish, peas and olives. Add mayonnaise to taste and mix lightly. Arrange on crisp lettuce. Sprinkle with sliced olives and capers.

Corn Turnovers

Season cooked or canned corn highly with salt, pepper, paprika and a little butter. Add chopped green peppers and pimientos, if desired. Drain if necessary. Make a rich pastry, roll very thin and cut in rounds with a large cookie cutter. Place a mound of the corn mixture on each round of pastry, fold over, moisten the edges with water or butter and press firmly together. Dip in beaten egg, place in frying basket and fry in deep fat or bake in an oven 400 degrees until golden brown.

Squash Surprise

Wash, scrape and dice enough yellow squash to make 6 cups. Put into a baking dish with 2 cups of tomatoes, cut into cubes. Add 1/2 cup grated cheese and 1 tablespoon of granulated onion, 1/2 teaspoon butter and salt and pepper. Mix lightly with a fork. Bake in an oven or until the squash is tender, stirring it lightly once or twice during baking. Just before serving, sprinkle with grated cheese and run under the broiler to brown.

Casserole of Spaghetti and Beef

Have dried beef cut very thin. Separate in pieces, cover with hot water and let stand 10 minutes. Drain. Put a layer of hot canned spaghetti with tomato sauce in a greased baking dish, cover with the beef; repeat process and put a layer of spaghetti on top. Sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Bake in an oven 375 degrees until crumbs are brown. Serve with grated Parmesan cheese.

Banana Fritters

6 bananas.
Powdered sugar.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.
Peel bananas and cut each in half lengthwise. Then cut in two crosswise. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and lemon juice and let stand 30 minutes. Drain and dip in batter and fry in hot fat. Drain.

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Treat Vegetable Seeds—Many growers during the past few years have increased their seeded stands of vegetables 20 to 30 per cent by treating the seed with red copper oxide or formaldehyde dust, report Penn State plant pathologists. Complete details for treating can be obtained from your county agent.

Put Horses in Shape—Horses expected to do hard work this spring need conditioning. They can be prepared through exercise, good care, and proper feed. Any livestock specialists of the Pennsylvania State College. Too many horses lose in weight and efficiency because they have not been prepared for field work.

Select Strawberries—During the past few years strawberry variety demonstrations have been conducted in 40 Pennsylvania counties. Certain varieties have proved to be outstanding in performance. Penn State fruit specialists report. Your county agent can give you the names of varieties adapted to your conditions.

Prepare Soil for Plants—Now is the time to start preparing a compost pile to provide good soil for growing early vegetable plants under glass next year. A rectangular pile 4 to 6 feet wide and any length desired can be built of alternate layers of barnyard manure and top soil until the pile is about four feet high. Penn State vegetable gardeners explain.

New Publication Available—A new publication of interest to farm folks who do their own butchering is Circular 126, "Meats in Canning Meat and Poultry," just issued by the Pennsylvania State College agricultural extension service. It may be obtained from your county agricultural extension office.
