JULIAN

It seems that the gods of balmy weather are for when we wrote this, smiling on us at last. The mud is drying up and soon we will forget the inconveniences we have suffered from inclement weather.

We are sorry to know that the experiment of the raft on Susquehanna proved so disastrous. We recall men of the generation past telling of experiences of riding the log drive. It always was a hazardous undertaking, and especially when men were riding on floating logs, with nothing to keep them on their feet but a pole and their dexterity in keeping upright.

We have learned that the chicken supper at Martha Furnace on Saturday evening was a success and a nice sum was realized for the church.

A public meeting will be held in the U. B. church at Julian on the evening of April 5th, at 7:30 o'clock, at which time Miss Mary Macken of Philadelphia, will speak and a group from Port Matilda will put on a play. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

One hears so often in sympathy to all who are suffering from the horrors of war and oppression and we hope these things will soon cease. However, as we are not an aggressive nation there is nothing we can do to help. But if history repeats itself, as it has been very evident in the past that it does—power which is based upon oppression is short lived. We can recall some prominent names in the history of Gods people, which have long since been forgotten except for examples of a kind.

Garden tools such as shovel, hoe and rake are emerging from their winter storage.

The Fisher restaurant did a big business on Sunday as everyone seemed to be motoring somewhere and the day was about all that could be desired. Many folks made a point of stopping at Fishers.

Just a little bit of advice in closing, let us make the best of our opportunities wherever we are, and if we do not have many, let us try to create some.
