

VISITING AND OTHER ACTIVITIES IN MILESBERG

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Pifer, Mrs. Mildred Stanley and Helen Switzer motored to Blairsville on Sunday and visited at the home of Mr. Pifer's parents.

Easter Flowers Does not cost a lot. But it looks so sweet. In a decorated pot. You surely have one here. That you hold most dear. Send them an Easter flower. With its sweet message of cheer. Each and every one.

Has a fragrance all their own. So patronize the girls. And send a flower home. Here is the salutation we heard everywhere last week: "How do you like the weather?" It wasn't very nice, but we have to like it, so there.

Go to your favorite flower and food sale this coming week. There will be one by the Junior and Intermediate grades of the Methodist Sunday school on Friday; and another by the 3-W girls of the Presbyterian Sunday school on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley of Baltimore, visited the former's mother the past week. On Wednesday they returned to their home. They were accompanied as far as Baltimore by Jesse Smith, of Langley Field, Va. Jesse is now a member of the Military Police of the First Air Base Squadron.

We are looking forward to the Easter parade next Sunday. Emerson Hall celebrated his birthday on Saturday. Birthdays are an occasion for nine-year-old boys.

Mr. Bruce Peters is able to be back again at work after being off duty for a week due to a light attack of blood poisoning which was caused by the cutting of a corn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley and little daughter spent Sunday with the former's mother.

Mrs. W. S. Walker of Bellefonte, spent Wednesday of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jodan are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy at their home on Sunday which weighed ten and one-half pounds.

Miss Jennie Adams is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Haupt at State College.

Among those who attended the funeral of Mr. F. L. Wetzler on Wednesday of last week were: Mr. Dallas Bullock, of Philadelphia; Sherwood Dunkle, of Pittsburgh;

Mrs. Bertha Cox and daughter Mrs. Walter Nisley and Miss Alice Rickard of State College, Rev. Clark of Franklin, a former pastor of the Baptist church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garbrick and Mrs. Anna Witherrite, of Tyrone, visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and at the Chester Miles home on Sunday.

The Foreign Missionary Society and Mrs. Frances Zimmerman's Sunday school class met in the social room of the Methodist church Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coxey of Altoona, are visiting at the Jodan home.

A cantata entitled "In the Garden" will be presented in the Methodist church Easter Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Philip Cronmiller, of Juniata College, called at the home of his grandma, Mrs. Emma Smith on Monday.

Mrs. Clyde Peters, of Hamersley Fork, returned home Sunday after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Peters. Other visitors at the Peters home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peters and daughter Lois, of Renovo.

Foster Baird and Donald McKinley were business visitors at Williamsport Monday.

PLEASANT VIEW

Rev. Mr. Homer E. Gaunt and Mrs. Gaunt and three children Joanne, Charles and Sandree were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sheesley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Neidigh and sons James and Ronald spent Sunday afternoon at his parental home that of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Neidigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Sheesley and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stieckler all of Hartleton were visitors at Clarence Sheesley's during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Garner and little daughter moved into the vacant rooms in a part of the house where John Poorman lives on the P. S. C. Brennan farm.

The Merrill Houser family moved into the house vacated by the Dillon family on Monday April 11, they came from Pine Grove Mills. There are several children in the family.

Misses Anna, Charlotte and Naomi Lyle and Miss Arelene Sheesley saw the movie "Snow White" and report it was lots of fun.

Spring presents a bewildering spectacle, not including the new hats that the ladies display.

HUBLERSBURG

Preparatory service will be held on Friday evening and Holy Communion on Sunday morning at the usual hour of service in the Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yearick and son Joel motored to Pittsburgh on Saturday morning where they spent the week-end visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harris and family of Mill Hill, R. D., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krape.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Funk and family of Clintondale, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Carner, Mr. Ed. Vonada and son Ben of Jacksonville, spent Sunday evening at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kling and son of Lamar, spent Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Truckenmiller.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Markle of Bellefonte, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Yearick and daughter visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Bierley on Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Markle of State College, called at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emeline Deitrich, on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayes and family moved to Bellefonte on Monday, and Charles Vonada and family moved into the house vacated by the Hayes.

PLEASANT HILL

Mrs. W. M. Johnsonbaugh visited at the J. C. Johnsonbaugh home on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. J. M. Garner and Mrs. W. M. Johnsonbaugh attended the quilting at the J. C. Rockey home on Thursday.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. L. A. Wolford was taken to the Phillipsburg hospital on Sunday afternoon.

A birthday party was held at the Harry Speary home on Monday evening in honor of their daughter, Betty. She received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brennan and daughter, Nancy, Mrs. Florence Brennan, and Mrs. Shope visited at the Harry Speary home on Sunday afternoon.

The ladies aid held their monthly meeting at the Gamber home on Monday evening.

Mr. Goheen called at the W. M. Johnsonbaugh home on Monday evening.

Don't forget Epworth League on Sunday evening at 7:30. The topics for the evening will be Jesus could not be defeated.

There are people in the world who prefer dogs to human beings—there's a reason!

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

A number of folks from our town motored to Howard Friday p. m. to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. A. S. Bailey.

Dairyman Hugh C. Dale of the Branch purchased a fine Gurney bull last week, from C. W. Witmer.

John F. Musser Jr. is this week back at his school desk after an illness, nursing a severe attack of grippe.

Little Miss Susan Watson of State College was a pleasant weekend with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Isenberg of Baileyville.

Edward Frank, James Poust and Earl Harpster attended the milk producers banquet at Alexandria, last Friday night. Hoffman & Co. were the hosts.

Albert Fry has entered into partnership with Arthur E. Stephens contractor in State College.

The condition of Miss Ruth Williamson at the Sally Barr home remains about the same.

Farmer Ralph Judy is turning Mother Earth upside down with a new Fordson tractor.

The Ladies of the organized class of the Lutheran Sunday School netted $35.00 from dinner served in the I. O. O. F. hall last Friday at the annual community sale.

Mrs. Elsie Anderson, Mrs. Bertha Schilling, Mrs. Viola Barst, and Mrs. Ruth Barto attended the 4-H club meeting at Bellefonte last Tuesday.

At the last Sunday evening service in the Methodist church Rev. Robert Leighty in charge, 6 new members were added to the church roll.

Carl Kocher, employee on the State Highway is back at his usual job after a week indoors with case of grippe. Mrs. Kocher has been spending some time with her mother in Tyrone, Mrs. Allen Burwell.

Within the next two weeks our Ferguson Township band will be all decorated with new uniforms and caps to match any contributions you wish to donate will be gratefully appreciated by Manager A. Brooks Corl.

Mrs. Margaret Sunday, Paul Sunday and wife, attended the funeral at Lamar last Thursday of the former's brother, Mr. John Mayer, a veteran lumberman of Clinton County.

Harry Bechold is now boss farmer at the Harold Glenn farm (the Iron Road homestead) just west of town.

Farmer Irvin G. Walker is proud possessor of a handsome team of mules purchased last week from Oliver Wilbur Lightner of Shavers Creek.

The Ralph Musser family fitted back to their Rock Springs home last Saturday after spending the winter in State College.

Mrs. Hugh McClintock of Boalsburg was honored with a kitchen shower at her home on Mrs. Mary Steward, farm by the Ladies class of the Presbyterian Sunday School, Wednesday evening last, 25 being present. Mrs. McClintock was the former Miss Freda Horner, one of our town belles.

G. Elwood Fry was a business visitor in Pittsburgh Saturday and drove home a new Chrysler sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hess accompanied by David and Phyllis Hess were recent visitors to the National Capitol to see the beauties of the Cherry Blossoms.

William Deliber was a caller Sunday at his sons home George Deiber and family.

Isaac G. Harpster trucked a large load of fine porkers to the Phillipsburg Market Monday p. m.

Dairyman and potato man Elmer T. Parsons of Tadpole, was among the bidders at the Walter Gates sale at Petersburg Friday p. m.

Theodore Homer is sporting a new Henry Ford V-8 purchased of King Motor Co., State College—Teddy is popular among the fair sex so just what this new Ford will do to the character—we'll have to just wait and guess or perhaps both—at once.

Rev. Albert Groendyke and wife were entertained Sunday to a sumptuous dinner at the Martha Johnson home in Grayville.

The Misses Margaret, Nora, and Anna Mary Goheen of Baileyville, were callers in our town Friday p. m. they report Dr. George B. Goheen recovering very slowly from recent operation in the State Hospital at Phillipsburg.

Peter Waldo Corl, wife and son Wilbur were recent visitors in Tyrone.

Rev. Robert Leighty of the Methodist church will fill the pulpit Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church at Baileyville, 8 p. m.

Farmer Wilbur Decker of Millheim was a visitor in W. Ferguson last Thursday and purchased a new tractor of Johnson Bros. farm equipment Co.

Mrs. Madeline Hawn and two daughters of Petersburg, spent several days the past week at her parental home, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland.

Prof. G. Ernest Ardery of Port Matilda was here Saturday and purchased good team loggers for his farm operations this coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Reed, son Paul, Misses Doris and Lois Schilling were pleasant visitors in State College, Friday evening, also taking in the "New Minute and the Seven Dwarfs" at the Cathum theatre.

Mrs. George Musser entertained some ladies at her home on the Branch last Friday to a quilting party, another large event of the day being a luscious dinner served to Mrs. Charles Graham, Mrs. Dorothy Mothersbaugh, and Mrs. Melvin Barro.

PERSONALS, ANNOUNCEMENTS, CHURCH NEWS, OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Methodist Church Services—Sunday School on Sunday morning at the regular hour followed by the preaching service at 10:30 a. m. at which time the pastor Rev. D. D. Kauffman will deliver an Easter sermon, and the choir will sing some special Easter music. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. also in keeping with Easter to which all are invited.

W. C. T. U. Institute—On this Thursday afternoon and evening the annual W. C. T. U. Institute will be held in the Methodist church here. Afternoon session opens at 1:30 p. m. and the evening session at 7:30 p. m. Guests will bring a box luncheon and be served here with coffee. The young folks of the community are rehearsing a play for the evening session.

Latest reports from Billy Sheets who has been a patient in the Phillipsburg Hospital, were that he was discharged from the hospital and is taken to the home of his sister in Phillipsburg, but confined to his bed. His many friends in this community are hoping for his complete recovery.

Missionary Meeting—The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church, were entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harriet Askins.

The monthly group meeting of the young folks of the Methodist church will be held this Friday evening in the Methodist church at Bellefonte. The annual Easter Communion service will be the feature of the evening service.

Mrs. Mary Wright and two daughters, Nancy and Jane, moved from the Pratt home here on Monday to Bellefonte where they expect to make their future home. We are sorry to lose them from our community, but our loss will be Bellefonte's gain.

Mrs. Amanda Way, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. McDewitt at New Alexandria, Pa., returned to her home last Monday and expects to visit further with relatives and friends in Ohio, Washington, D. C., and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Smith and family, who have been living on the Flick farm along the Bald Eagle Highway, moved on Monday into the Fisher tenant house, now the property of George Berg, which house was recently vacated by David Custer and family.

Mrs. Hannah Way, who was a patient in the Centre County Hospital last week has returned to her home very much improved. Her many friends and neighbors were glad to hear of her return and hope her complete recovery may be speedy.

The Tennis Club is progressing rapidly. They had another meeting last Tuesday evening to make their By-Laws and collected some dues. If the weather remains favorable they will make little more head way on the excavating of the court.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Fisher, who has been a patient in the Centre County Hospital for a mastoid operation is recovering slowly and is being cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler in Bellefonte. Her many friends in the community are hoping her complete recovery may be speedy.

Mr. and Mrs. David Custer were honored on Tuesday by a miscellaneous shower, gotten up by some of their friends. They received a nice lot of useful articles.

J. D. Mitchell and son Joseph took a load of furniture to Westminster, Maryland, on Tuesday, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowan being articles which John had reserved of the property of his mother. They returned the same day.

Miss Patty Lou Garrett, the Scarlet fever patient is improving rapidly and will soon be able to be up and around again. No new patients have been reported and we are hoping there will be none.

Roy Calhoun has sold his garage to Kenneth Hall and Reuben Comley, who will take possession very soon. Reuben Comley will run the garage and he is well qualified for the work.

Just what we need in the community, is a garage where automobile repairs can be done. We wish these young men much success in their new field and hope the citizens of the community will patronize them and encourage this new enterprise.

The students of the Bellefonte High School are looking forward to their Easter vacation which will begin on Friday of this week and they will not return to their studies until next Tuesday. Those from the community who attend State College will enjoy a vacation from this Wednesday noon until next Wednesday.

Joseph Mitchell is still a patient in the Lewistown hospital and his condition is slightly improved.

Bake Sale—The young folks of the Epworth League will hold a bake sale this Saturday afternoon and evening. If the weather permits it will be held in front of the Sam Holt store, if not they will go to the Community House. All kinds of baked goods will be on sale, also candy and Easter eggs. Plan to get your Easter baked goods from the young folks and help them in their efforts. Sale will start about 3 o'clock and last until everything is sold.

Tax News—Another reminder along the line of taxes. All Real Estate taxes which are not paid or made arrangements for by May 1st, will be turned in to the County Commissioners for sale. Please try and contact the tax collector and make arrangements to pay off this obligation for the Borough needs the money. Any amount paid by installments will be appreciated.

Those in the community who had rotten the garden fever a couple weeks ago were somewhat held up when we were visited with our usual snow. We have decided this last snow was more than an onion snow as it was about as bad as any we had all the past winter. At this writing the snow is about all gone and the gardeners can resume their work again.

Johnnie Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, was laid up all last week from school on account of a sore foot which, for a few days, looked very much as though Johnnie was going to have blood poison. He is better this week and able to be back in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sager moved last week to the farm known as the late Peter Cowher farm, also P. B. Woodring moved to the late Kate Young property.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miles and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Miles and baby David spent Sunday afternoon with J. M. Miles and family at Martha.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kridler of Ohio, spent the weekend with Mrs. Kreider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Williams, also her brothers Jay and Jack.

A dinner was served on Sunday at the home of Mr. Ed. Robison in honor of his birthday, his family were all present, consisting of Ira Robison and family, Morton Crain and family, of Clayburg, Gilbert Robison and wife of Bellefonte, Howard Robison and family and Arthur and Anna at home. Mr. Robison was greatly surprised.

Miss Isabel Snyder spent Sunday with Miss Betty Royer at Centre Hall.

Mrs. Elsie McKelvey of Tipton, visited last week with her sister, Mrs. A. B. Williams, Mrs. McKelvey, just recently returned from a visit of several months with her sister, Alice in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bennett attended the funeral of Rosella Hamer held in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

Miss Catherine Young of Tyrone spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Cora Young.

Mrs. Alice Harshberger and Samuel Harshberger of Clayburg, visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woodring.

Miss Grace Weaver has returned to her home after undergoing an operation for appendicitis at the Phillipsburg hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shope and family, of Altoona visited on Sunday with Mrs. Shope's father, Mr. O. A. Williams.

The meetings that were being held in the different churches last week are being continued this week in the Methodist church, different ministers speak each evening.

A. H. Dunsen of Phillipsburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woodring and Mrs. Marion Bennett and daughter, Gladys, Mrs. Allison Bennett and son Byron stopped in Tyrone on Monday.

A birthday dinner was held at the home of Gilbert McKinley of Port Matilda, on Sunday April 3, 1938, in honor of his father William H. McKinley of Milesburg. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McKinley and children, Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lingle and children of Yeagertown, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Clair C. Baumgardner and children of Milesburg, Mrs. Ora Shober of Port Matilda and Mr. E. C. Woodring of Port Matilda and Mrs. Eva Watson of Milesburg.

HOWARD

The Missionary Society of the Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. M. W. Wagner Wednesday evening.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kline Saturday morning in the Bellefonte hospital. Both mother and daughter are getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Metzger, son John and daughter Marjeha of Petersburg, Pa., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Buckley.

Mrs. Gilbert Shope has been suffering with mumps for the past four days.

The Senior Class play held last Friday and Saturday nights was quite a success. The class may present the play at a later date.

Miss Grace Corman, one of our high school teachers has been confined to her bed for several days due to a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. William Batchlett, Mrs. Grace O'Neal and nephew Lyle O'Neal of Jersey Shore spent Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. George Regal.

An Institute of the Ladies' Temperance Union will be held at the Unionville Methodist Church this Thursday afternoon and evening.

A ham and egg supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fletcher on Wednesday evening, March 30, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White, of New York. The evening was spent in card playing and social chat. The following persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fletcher and children, Mary Louie, McDowell and Chester; Dale Rhodes all of Bellefonte; Mrs. Melvin W. Low of Curwensville; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tice and children Arlene and Lloyd; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fletcher. Other callers at the same home that evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leech and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leech all of Curwensville.

MARTHA

Martha's Garden Club will meet Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at the church. All parents interested in the civic project have your children to come promptly at 1:30. While the work was planned for children between the ages of 8 and 15 years, yet this ruling is not like the unchangeable law of the ancient Medes and persons which could not be altered. Any child near this age or over who is willing to give their time to the work will be gladly welcomed by the leader.

PORT MATILDA

R. F. D. NO. 1

The Bald Eagle Grange will hold a "Poverty Dance" on Friday evening April 22nd, in the Grange Hall. Everyone is cordially invited. Admission 25c. Gentlemen will please wear overalls and ladies in gingham dresses. Come for a good old fashioned time.

Mrs. Charles Hollabaugh has returned home after a months visit with her son Robert in Oklahoma.

Mrs. C. E. Piper of Tyrone, and Mrs. Chancy E. Piper of Altoona, spent Sunday with their friend, Mrs. M. A. Kerin.

Mrs. M. L. Woomer of Tyrone, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Colet.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stimer of Look Haven, spent Sunday with the former's aunt, Mrs. Minnie Stimer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harshberger, who underwent an operation for goitre a few weeks ago, was taken suddenly ill and rushed back to the hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Deahong of Altoona are spending a few weeks with their brother George Weaver, of this place.

Miss Phyllis Vaughn of State College spent a day with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn and family spent Saturday in Tyrone.

Margaret and Louise Merryman the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Merryman who have been on the sick list, are better at this writing.

The many friends of Mrs. T. P. Cowher are sorry to hear that she is on the sick list again.

J. T. Beckwith is building a bungalow on his farm at Fowler.

Miss Pearlina Walk spent Saturday in Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Nearhood spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin.

On Tuesday evening April 12th, the Bald Eagle Grange initiated six new members in the 3rd and 4th degree.

The Ralph McCartney family are on the sick list, we wish them all a speedy recovery.

John Jacobs and Robert Knutshly of Yarnell, were Tuesday evening visitors at the home of Harvey Emminizer.

Ben Kessinger of Yarnell spent last weekend with her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Emel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Emel and baby spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keeling.

Eugene and Lewis Lucas were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Lee Richner.

Christina Keeling spent this week end with her sister, Mrs. Web Emel. Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Harvey Emminizer were Luvera Emminizer and Betty Packer and James Mahies of Bellefonte.

Henry Keeling spent Sunday at the home of Harvey Emel.

Harvey Emminizer and Jane Earler were Monday evening visitors at the home of William Richner.

Gladys and Vivian Richner are on the sick list, we wish them a speedy recovery.

POTTERS MILLS

Mr. Franklin Sharer and family of Rebersburg, visited on Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Palmer.

Mr. Harry Ishler and wife, of State College, visited on Sunday at the H. E. Foust home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bond, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Palmer, visited at the William Foust home in Yeagertown on Sunday. They found Mrs. Foust who had been seriously ill slightly improved.

The ladies quilted last week at the G. H. McCormick residence.

—Read The Centre Democrat, $1.50 in advance.

Public Sales

SATURDAY, APRIL 16—Mrs. Harry Meeker will offer at public sale at her home at Pine Glenn, near the State Highway, two good work horses and a lot of farm implements, including scow, bayonet, plows, etc. Terms cash. W. V. Fulmer, auct.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30—Mrs. Jack Robinson will offer at public sale at her home on Willowbank Street, the following household goods: living room suite, day bed couch, bed and chair, carpet, ingrain rug, bed room suite, two sets of up-hill, lamp, pictures, dishes, rocking chairs and many other items. Sale at 1:30. S. H. Hoy, auct.

YOU CAN HAVE a Beautiful Up-to-Date Home

Thru F. H. A. Monthly Payments It's Cheaper To Repair or Remodel than to Let Your House Run Down

See CLUSTERS We Help Make Financial Arrangements Prevent Forest Fires—It Pays

NOW! A completely equipped Westinghouse at this Amazing low price!

NEW 1938 WESTINGHOUSE with the Kitchen-proved MEAT-KEEPER only $119.50

Big family size with complete food-keeping facilities

Big 5 cubic foot Hostess Model, exactly as shown. Has new Super-capacity Froster, the Zoned Temperature Regulator, Safety Zone Indicator on the door, new sliding Adjusto-shelf, built-in vegetable storage, and the new MEAT-KEEPER (keeps meat fresher... for days longer). Features also include new improved Eject-o-Cube Ice Trays, now in their fourth year as a Westinghouse advantage. See this sensational refrigerator value, today!

SAVES FOOD... SAVES TIME... SAVES MONEY... KITCHEN-PROVED

Announcement

It is with a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction that we announce the opening of our new and larger salesroom at 8 West Bishop Street, in the Stickler building, on Saturday, April 16th.