

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF
PINE GROVE MILLS
(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

Memorial services at Pine Grove Mills will be held at 2 o'clock Memorial Day. The parade will form at the Diamond at 1:30 o'clock. Judge Ivan Walker, of Bellefonte, will be the speaker for the occasion.

Ernest Hess, a student of Temple University spent Easter vacation at his parental home on the Branch, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hess.

Hog fancier J. M. McCracken trucked a fine lead of his finished porkers to Market Monday a. m.

Mrs. Anna Barco is suffering a severe attack of sciatica rheumatism and is under the care of Dr. H. C. Wilson, of Warriors Mark, at this writing she is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Gladys Fry of Altoona was assisting in the care of her mother a few days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno Fry were Sunday evening callers at the Charles M. Dale home near State College.

Dean Bros. of Tadpole are the proud possessor of a new Ford V-8 purchased from the King Motor Co. State College, Donald Sunday, agent.

Merchant Chester Musser of Pine Hill boasts of a new clerk for his store. It's a boy born April 9th. Both mother and young man are doing fine under the care of grandma, Mrs. Alva Johnson.

Township assessor A. S. Albright the past week was making his yearly check-up on new comers and out going taxpayers of Ferguson Twp.

Farmer Frank O. Homan of White Hall was an important business visitor at the County Capital Monday, p. m.

Robert Osman seems to be the expert angler in our town, as he boasts of 18 inches, caught Saturday at Whipples dam.

Stock drover James Hoover, was a pleasant caller in the Mountain City last Monday.

Blanchard Parsons and wife were visitors among their friends here in town last Sunday.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will sponsor "Signs" Cowboy Jim and Jane in their songs and jokes, Monday April 23 at 8 p. m. in High School and admission 15c and 25c.

George Bursell is constructing a large addition to his new house on Church Street, when completed will be a most modern home.

Mrs. Anna Koehler, son Carl and wife are now nicely located in the Ralph Albright house on E. Main Street, fitted recently from the hotel apartment.

Famer William Dreibeblis and wife were recent Bellefonte shoppers and business visitors.

Miss Dorothy Heeter and Miss Ruth Dreibeblis who each have nice clerical positions in Pittsburgh, spent Easter vacation at their respective parental homes, Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dreibeblis.

Henry Bloom is erecting a new dwelling home at New Northampton on the former Samuel Grenoble farm, to be ready for occupancy by May 1st.

Bellefonte Presbyterian church was reopened Sunday evening, after laying of beautiful new carpet and floors repainted by appropriate Easter service by Sunday School Supt. Daniel Frank in charge, an offering of $162 was lifted. A splendid Easter oration by pastor Rev. Albert Greendyck.

The Schillings sisters Doris and Lois are now making up a new player piano just recently placed in their home.

The Thomas B. Wogan family of Juniata spent several days last week at the Mrs. Etta Cori home, Tommy and Gene whipping the streams for their share of the finny tribe.

Farmer A. Fred Fry was a Bellefonte caller Monday on business also calling on his aged aunt, Mrs. Polly Ward and found her in the best of health, despite her advanced age.

Farmer and implement man Earl Gentzel, of Zion passed through our town Monday morning to move a new Allis Chalmers tractor from Johnson Bros. agency at Rock Springs.

Merrill Laidy motored in from Akron, Ohio, in his new Oldsmobile 5 Friday to spend Easter with his brother Paul at the J. E. Breessler home. Merrill is a former Ferguson Township boy but a nice position with Akron Rubber Co. His wife accompanied him and spent her vacation with relatives in Juniata.

Hugh Fry and Miss Charlotte Mc Kendrick of Farmers Valley Vocational School Faculty, McKean Co. were over weekends for Easter holiday at the Fry home in Rock Springs.

Guy Koehler and Frank Dean were numbered among the crowd of anglers at Whipples dam last Friday, came in with some big ones "so they said."

Prof. Ernest Gilliland of Haddonville, N. J. motored up Friday for a few days vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland, the young Prof. seems to be holding his avoirdupoise about the 300 mark with careful feeding. He was accompanied by Prof. Robert Lannen and wife, of Chester, who got their share of Easter eggs at the Robert W. Reed home in the Glades.

The E. G. Spicer home on South Church street has been domed recently with snow white coat of paint.

Hugh Stevens former farmer here, now of Geneva N. Y., is reported seriously injured in motor accident recently and is in a N. Y. hospital. His mother Mrs. Vincent Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Swarms visited him over the past weekend.

Rev. W. W. Moyer of Lehighton, Pa. former pastor of the Reformed church here was a Centre County visitor the past week being called here for the funeral of a close friend he was accompanied by his wife.

Rev. Ralph W. Illingsworth filled the pulpit in Centre Hall Presbyterian church last Monday evening.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick was a recent dinner guest at the W. Hamill Glenn home on E. Main Street.

MILESBERG
Mrs. Howard Oakwood recently returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Marian Dorman at Johnston.

Mrs. David Hoffman and four young daughters, of Philadelphia, were recent guests at the William Fisher home in Centre City.

On Monday Frances, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sholl experienced the thrill that comes once in a lifetime. It was her tenth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Smith, of Williamsport, spent Easter Sunday at the George Smith home.

Mrs. Marian Cronmiller and three sons, of Bellefonte, were dinner guests at the home of the former's mother on Saturday.

Mrs. W. S. Walker of Bellefonte, visited with her parents on Saturday.

Mr. Ross Wallace, who has been ill for some time with rheumatism, is somewhat improved. We hope he soon recovers his usual good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs and son, of Osceola Mills, visited during the past week at the Roy Brian home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Richardson and daughters Mary and Peggy, of Landenberg, Chester county, were week-end visitors at the L. G. Peters home.

The ladies class of the Presbyterian Sunday school are holding their family night and candle social Thursday evening, April 21st in the Sunday school room. All families of the Presbyterian church are invited to attend.

The flower and bake sale held by the Three-W girls on Saturday was a complete success. The girls and their teacher, Mrs. L. G. Peters, wish to thank all who patronized them.

Mrs. George Estabough, son John, Mrs. Edmonds and son, and Mrs. Mildred Priest, of Tyrone, visited Thursday at the M. H. Hall home.

The house formerly occupied by Henry Joden and family is undergoing a complete renovation.

Mr. Henry Kohlschreiber who has been ill for some time, is now able to take a short walk each day, and we look forward to his complete recovery.

Miss Eleanor Hall entertained the members of her sewing club at her home Monday evening.

Mr. Bruce Peters, who suffered a slight attack of blood poisoning a few weeks ago, is again confined to his bed by order of his physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baird, of Lemont, visited the former's parents Easter Sunday.

"In the Garden of Joseph," a cantata which was presented in the Methodist church Sunday evening will be repeated next Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lester Baird, Mrs. F. L. Baird and son Foster motored to Tyrone and Phillipsburg Thursday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harker and Jack Oyer, of Johnsonburg, were Saturday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wenzel. On Sunday morning they accompanied by Mrs. Wenzel, motored to State College where they spent a very enjoyable day with Mr. and Mrs. Milford Oyer.

The Milesburg Woman's Club was organized at the home of Mrs. L. C. Peters, by Mrs. Wallace J. Ward. Twenty-one members were registered. The charter will remain open until the first Monday in May. The next meeting will be held in the Milesburg school house May 2nd. Every woman is eligible to join this worthy organization, something which our town needs.

LOGANTON
Fifty pupils of the Home Economics department of the Sugar Valley Vocational School, under the supervision of Miss Helen Tussey, gave H. M. Held, the janitor of the school, a very welcome and pleasant surprise on April 12, when they tendered him a delicious birthday cake upon the occasion of the 70th anniversary of his birthday. All the pupils and teachers applied their hands and cooking skill in helping to bake the cake.

Miss Gretchen Brown and Master Teddy Reibel, of Lock Haven, were weekend visitors at the home of H. O. Wren and family.

Mr. Reibel and his friend Neal Kleckner of Lock Haven were spending Saturday on the Deer creek after speckled beauties.

Alderman T. Mark Bunsard of Lock Haven was a welcome visitor in town, calling on D. W. Mark and wife.

Miss Eleanor Doerr, a teacher at Girard College, Philadelphia, spent her Easter vacation in Loganton as the guest of C. J. Held and family and among other relatives.

Richard L. Brown, a student at Lock Haven Teachers College, spent a few days at the home of his mother, Mrs. B. H. Brown, on Saturday.

Mrs. G. W. Hancock and children, Lois and Susan, have returned from an extended visit to near relatives at Monaca, Pa.

Miss Anna Tyson, a nurse at Ferdinand Hospital, New York City, has returned to her duties after a short visit to her parents, Russell Tyson and wife and other relatives and friends.

Daniel R. Wirth, Justice of the Peace, who has been acting as agent for the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue in the dispensing of hunting and fishing licenses, has been rather busy issuing such licenses to fishermen in the past week, having disposed of 100 tags. Upon receipt of another supply he will be in a position to accommodate his fishing friends again. This method of procedure makes it quite handy for local sportsmen.

Harry Fox and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gray, of Harrisburg, and William Morris, of Philadelphia, were Easter guests of W. A. Morris and wife.

The Misses Anna and Madeline Royer, of Lock Haven, spent a few days in town doing what they could to help their grandmother, Mrs. Anna Royer, who is confined to her home by illness.

Wymouth Frank, wife and daughters Dorothy, Betty and Shirley, of Erie, spent a pleasant Easter vacation with James C. Frank and family.

L. D. Morris, funeral director of Loganton, had added a new 1933 Cadillac funeral car to his already modern funeral equipment.

The new car is a beauty, made by the A. J. Miller Co., and mounted on a Buick chassis. Mr. Morris is noted for his pleasing personality, up to date equipment and courteous service.

Charles Frank, wife and daughter Ardell, of Williamsport, were Easter visitors at the home of James C. Frank and family.

Sheriff Jacob B. Bryerton of Lock Haven was called to Loganton early Tuesday morning to check up on finger prints and possible other criminal information concerning a robbery at the W. H. Greeninger store. Some robber or robbers sometime during Monday night broke the large glass in the front door of the store and rifled drawers and cash drawer. At the time of this writing the robbers are not credited with receiving much of value according to the check up, excepting a little small change left in drawer. Early callers at the store notified the clerk, Raymond Greeninger, who was getting ready to open up for the day.

Bruce Frankenberg, a student at Pennsylvania State College, is confined to his home under the care of a nurse and physician owing to a serious illness affecting his throat and heart. A heart specialist from Williamsport was called into the case on account of complications.

The Russell Duck family is rejoicing over the arrival of another girl baby to gladden the hearts of both parents and the other children. The new addition was born April 12th.

Worship service on Sugar Valley Charge, Evangelical churches, Sunday, April 24th, as follows: St. Paul's 9:15 a. m., Tylerville 10:30 a. m., Greenburg 6:30 p. m., Loganton 7:45 p. m., J. L. Freese pastor.

The Sugar Valley Lutheran Parish, Rev. Arthur Yeag, pastor, the first Sunday after Easter, St. John's Booneville, service of worship with sermon 9:30 a. m., Sunday School 10:30 a. m., Tylerville service of worship with sermon 10:45 a. m., Sunday school 9:30 a. m., St. Paul's Loganton service of worship with sermon, 7:30 p. m., Sunday School 9:30 a. m. The sermon theme for the three services "The Silence of God."

A sunrise service on "The Rock" near Loganton, and the Holy Communion services for the churches of the charge on Easter morning, concluded the Holy Week and Easter program of the Sugar Valley Lutheran charge.

Nearly forty young people made their way to the rock at 5:30 Easter morning, Easter hymns, a prayer and a short Easter meditation made up the program. "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," played by a trumpet, heralded the Easter dawn. Young people from both the Evangelical and Lutheran churches took part in the services.

The Service of Installation for the new pastor of the Sugar Valley Lutheran charge, the Rev. Arthur Yeag, has been announced for Sunday, May 1, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Dr. Ira Sassaman, president of the Susquehanna Synod will have charge of the service and preach the sermon. Dr. Charles B. Fiedrich, pastor of Zion Lutheran church, Sunbury, where Rev. Yeag had served as assistant last year, will have part in the service. The three churches of the charge are in this service, making it the only worship service of the day.

Why blame politicians for their views; don't they depend upon the vote of the people to hold office and can't the people elect somebody else if they want to?

MONUMENT
(From last week)

Mr. and Mrs. Gross Mark and son Eugene, of Williamsport, visited Sunday with Mrs. Mark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young.

Mrs. Sadie Johnson who has been spending some time here with her son, Malcolm Johnson, has returned Monday to her home in Beech Creek.

Mrs. Cora Parnell, of Lewisburg, visited several days last week with her sister, Mrs. J. Stewart Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Williams left Monday morning for Millburg. Mr. Williams expected to enter the Geisinger Hospital for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young and Mrs. Calvin B. O'Donnell and daughter Janet, of Lock Haven, motored to Kermor, Tuesday and spent the day with Mr. Young's mother, who has been quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Blink of Indiana, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeBoer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mann and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Williams were out of town Sunday afternoon.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Matvey were Miss Maude Jordan, of Hatfield, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. David Shope and Frank Hackenberg, of Roter; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mayes, of Lock Haven.

A birthday surprise party was held on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Muthler in honor of their daughter, Helen Louise, 4th birthday. Those present were: Son, Mertha and Joan Diddin, Joan Wood, Paul Mayes, Bobby Hanley, Paul Gumm, Harold and Paul Johnson, Bobby Tomer, Lois Elers, Duane Watkins, Betty Weaver, Bobby Evers, June Schenck, Kathryn Heaton, Natalie Burnett, Billy Galt, Fredrick, Helen Louise and Ronald Muthler. Mrs. Malcolm Johnson and Vesta Young, her teacher. Games were played and refreshments were served. Helen Louise received many pretty and useful gifts, and her little friends wished her many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Muthler and daughter Helen Louise and son Frederick and Ronald visited over the weekend with Mrs. Alice Yeager of Jersey Shore.

Vaughn and Harold Johnson spent Saturday with their grandmother, Mrs. Adam Aaron, of Beech Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eilers and daughters Beverly and Shirley, visited Monday with Mrs. Eilers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bechtel, of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Johnson and son Paul and Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Young visited at the Geisinger Hospital with Mrs. J. Stewart Williams, who has been there for a week for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Levi entertained a company from Moshannon on Sunday.

The Ladies Bible Class met on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Harvey Mann. After devotion and business meeting the evening was spent in playing games and conversation. Those present were: Mrs. Paul Wood, Mrs. Malcolm Johnson, Mrs. Albert Young, Mrs. Harry Kramer, Mrs. Russell Cole, Mrs. Charles Swartz, Mrs. Roy Watkins, Mrs. Stanley Eilers, Mrs. Willa Mayes, Mrs. Raymond Muthler, Mrs. Sommer Stover and Mrs. Harvey Mann. The evening was enjoyed by all and a late hour delicious refreshments were served by Mr. Harvey Mann and Mrs. Charles Swartz.

RUNVILLE
The Runville Public school will close on Tuesday, April 26th. Mrs. Mary Lucas, teacher, has had a very successful year. Eight scholars will be ready for high school this year, and about 10 new beginners to start school, which makes this school still in a crowded condition with from 68 to 70 pupils. It is rumored that the community will present a petition to the State Board of Public Instruction for another room to be added to our school building.

The new bridge at the school house leading to Chestnut Grove will be ready for traffic this week. It is a fine structure and a credit to our community.

Quite a number of our folks attended Grange Neighbor Night meeting last Tuesday night at Washington Grange in the Odd Fellows Hall at State College. There was a crowd of 277 members present. The program presented by Bald Eagle Grange received much applause. The next Neighbor Night meeting will be at Walker Grange at Hubersburg, April 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Poorman and daughter Cleo, of Hornell, N. Y., motored here and visited with home folks on the weekend.

Mr. George Rieder, of Fayette county, made a pleasant call at John Purf's home last Friday. He is a son of Mrs. Vina Walker and has not been here for 30 years.

Mr. Bertice Wilberth and his mother, of Osceola Mills, motored here visiting with relatives and old friends over the weekend.

Doyle Walker, of Warriors Mark, visited with relatives here over the weekend.

The Rock Cabin players met at John Purf's home and practiced their string music last Friday night. They are making a good showing and will be in tune for the public soon.

Russell Zerby, wife and daughter, of Merino, motored here Saturday and visited with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomer, E. Paul and two daughters, and Mr. Charles Norwood, of Baltimore, Md., motored here and spent the holiday with home folks Sunday.

The Easter program at the U. B. church Sunday night was a fine success. Much credit is due the Easter committee for the training of these young folks.

Sunday school at 9:30, class meeting at 10:30. Afternoon Junior C. E. at 2:30, and Senior C. E. at 6:30. Preaching at 7:30. Come, you are welcome.

PLEASANT VALLEY
Mr. and Mrs. Miles Lucas, and three children, Mrs. Lydia Colton, son Ray Kanoff all of Rappahannock spent Thursday evening at the home of Harvey Emlinger.

William Evers was a Friday visitor at the home of Harvey Emlinger.

Luvera Emlinger of Milesburg, spent the weekend with her daughter, Jane and her parents.

William Eilers and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baldwin of the Howard Divide.

Thomas Peese and Reida Greek were Sunday visitors at the home of Harvey Emlinger.

Ray Leathens and daughter, of Runville, were Monday visitors at the home of Ralph McCartney, also Miss Olive Lucas.

Mrs. Irvin Conter was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mrs. Ralph McCartney.

Miss Annie Keading and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Emsel.

Sunday visitors at the home of William Richner were Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Lucas and Mrs. Hazel Grimm, and two children Billy, Linda, and friend of Yarnell.

Our community was saddened on Monday to hear of the death of Mrs. Charles Lucas of Howard, R. D. Mrs. Lucas being a sister-in-law of Mrs. Winifred Richner. The family have our sympathy.

Public Sale!
AT
My Barn, 118 E. Louthur St., Carlisle, Pa.
SATURDAY, APRIL 23rd, 1938
BEGINNING AT 1:00 P. M. SHARP.

60 Head of Horses, Mules & Colts

One carload of Iowa Horses, Mares and Colts, ranging in age from 3 to 6 years old, all fancy colored, mated teams of Sorrels, Dapple Grays, Roans, Red Roans, Bays and Blacks. Eight good big Brood Mares, several heavy in foal.

One carload of Missouri Horses and Mules. 11 head of good big broke mules, all broke to work, the balance good broke farm horses. 15 Head of Home Horses and Mules, bought in the nearby counties.

One carload of Missouri Horses and Mules. 11 head of good big broke mules, all broke to work, the balance good broke farm horses. 15 Head of Home Horses and Mules, bought in the nearby counties.

CHARLES McHENRY

Public Sale - Carload of NEBRASKA HORSES & MULES
At the Old Fort,
SATURDAY, APRIL 23rd
BEGINNING AT 1:30 O'CLOCK P. M.

I loaded these horses in Nebraska Monday. They will arrive Friday. I have several teams weighing 3500. Five teams are nicely mated; four odd ones. Have one team with a little age; rest are young. Three spans of mules, they are mules to suit anyone, they are tame, weigh about 2600 a team. One mule is fine, mule age 4, a real broke one.

Am bringing a black pony horse up from home I shipped in last load that I never saw his equal.

These horses are right out of work and the sooner they get at it the better for the horse and the buyer. Come to the sale and be convinced how good horses look after four days on car. I sure want to sell them.

C. E. SHIVELY

PRICE SMASHING SALE

FAN BELTS
Guaranteed Quality
19c

TUBE REPAIR OUTFIT
Makes a quick easy repair.
4c

WAX AND POLISH
Gives old and new cars a spark - long lasting luster. Works fast. Easy to apply. You save at our low price.
WAX OR POLISH 19c
CLEANER 19c

SPARK PLUGS For All Cars
Guaranteed satisfaction at a money saving low price.
26c

MOTOR OIL
All Grades for Every Temperature
A super refined high grade 100% Pure Pennsylvania motor oil that will not sludge or thin out.
2 gal. can. 99c

CHAMOIS
Selected Skins of Soft Smooth texture, priced low.
19c

Sponge
6c

MIRO MASTER
Eliminates that "blind spot" and gives you 100% full vision. Triple chrome plated - easily installed.
Big Value at 79c

STORAGE BATTERY
Powerful Dependable Low Priced
$2.95 Ex.

BRAKE LINING
Full molded sets. Cut to exact length for perfect fit. Be safe, buy the best here.
71c up.

MUFFLER For FORD "A"
Complete Assembly with exhaust pipe. Duplicates original equipment.
$1.59

JACKSONVILLE
Church services on Sunday, April 24, Sunday School at 9:30 and C. E. at 6:45. Topic for discussion, "Will the Teachings of Jesus Work Today?"

Mrs. William Bechtel was a Friday visitor at the home of Mrs. H. B. Ricker, and attended the third annual Three-Hour Good Friday service, sponsored by the Howard ministerium in Howard Methodist Episcopal church Friday, April 15, from noon till three p. m. The service was greatly enjoyed by all participants and each of the eight officiating ministers did his utmost to impart to the minds and hearts of each listener what Good Friday and Easter should mean.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and family spent their Easter vacation with relatives in State College.

Wednesday evening callers at the E. R. Bartley home were Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and daughter Vera of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher and daughter Marjorie Mary and Gloria Dulien of Little Nittany.

Harry Swope, who is employed at Pittsburgh and friend, Mrs. Virginia Fisher of Charleroi, spent the weekend with his father Mr. Elmer Swope and family.

Miss Viola Pike spent Friday evening at the James Shaffer home.

Misses Kathryn McCrea and Christian Burd spent Tuesday evening at the Howard Orndorf home.

Miss Betty Ayle spent her Easter vacation with her sister, Mrs. John Schaeffer and family of Centre Hill.

Mrs. Martha Yearick and daughter Mrs. Horace Oberhelm and Mrs. John Beck and children Barbara and Jack of Lock Haven, spent Saturday evening at the C. E. Ayle and Nevin Yearick homes.

Miss Dorothy Betz of Williamsport, spent Easter Sunday with her mother Alice Betz, other callers of the day were Miss Alice Funk and mother of Bellefonte.

Miss Geraldine Swope attended Class Meeting on Friday evening at the home of Lucille and Doris Lucas, of Fox HoToW.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children, Mrs. Estie Noll and daughters Florence and Betty motored to Jersey Shore on Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. Annie Bridge.

Mrs. Brydie accompanied them along home to State College.

Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. E. R. Bartley, Mrs. George Weight and Miss Nora Weight, attended the Lecturer's short course at State College on Friday, and all reported the sessions interesting and helpful.

Sunday callers at the Robert Contaway home were Miss Myrtle Gardner, of Howard, R. D.; Mrs. John Dunkle of Bellefonte; Mrs. Ted Dixon and children Billy and Elaine; Sallie Lucas, Dorothy, Julia and Ethel Winslow, Billie and Evelyn Vonada, Mitchell and Joe Poorman, Louise and Clair Beightley.

Master Carl Bartley celebrated his seventh birthday by being a supper guest at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Neff of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph of Bellefonte spent Easter at the home of her father, A. A. Garrett and family.

Mrs. Alice Betz spent Thursday with her son Harold and family of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ayle, son Leon and daughter Mildred and Jack Mabius, spent Sunday at the John Schaeffer home at Centre Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harter and daughter Kathleen of State College were Easter Sunday upper guests at the Miles Bartley home.

Elmer Swope and family spent Saturday in Lock Haven.

Sunday callers at the Roy Oyer home were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Omstead and sons Dale, Ray and Ronald of Lock Haven, Misses Christine Burd, Norma Yearick, June Yearick, Rebecca Bartley and Betty Wenzel.

Sunday callers at the James Shaffer home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Genaway and children Kathryn, Lucy, Lester and Harry, Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul, Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph of Bellefonte Misses Mabel Garrett, Louise and Earl Beightley.

Friday evening callers at the William Beightel home were Mrs. Raymond Rogers and children Billy, Mary and Jane of Bellefonte, R. D. Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte, the Dunkle family were accompanied home by Louise and Earl Beightel who spent the weekend in Bellefonte and attended the Pet and Doll parade on Saturday p. m. in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bartley and children Earl, Raymond, Leo, Betty and Marjorie of Zion, were Sunday guests at the E. R. Bartley home.

Miss Geraldine and friend James Lucas were Easter supper guests at the home of his uncle Russell Lucas of Milesburg.

Mrs. Estie Noll, daughters Florence and Betty of State College, Mrs. Annie Bridges of Jersey Shore, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children, Dickey and Estie Jane, spent Sunday in Altoona. Mrs. Estie Noll and daughters and Mrs. Bridge were dinner guests of their sister, Mrs. Russell Stamm and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Stamm and son.

Europe is nearer war, perhaps than for many years and whether you like it or not the same is true of the United States.

HOLTS HOLLOW
Mr. and Mrs. Milford Burd and son, of Bellefonte, R. D. 1, attended church at this place and called on friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley, of Clearfield and Marie Johnson, of Fleming, spent the weekend at the Lee Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and son called on friends at Moose Run and Bellefonte recently.

Mrs. John Pössinger, of Coleville, and Mrs. Edith Burd were dinner guests at the Paul Bennet home at Runville on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robb and family and Mildred Peters visited Mr. and Mrs. John Robb and daughters at Maryland on Sunday, also drove into Virginia.

John Emmerich of Lock Haven was a recent visitor at the Charles Lucas home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffen and cousin of Stormstown attended church at this place visited home folks on Sunday.

J. T. Watson and grandson Nevin, spent two days in the mountains fishing.

Walter Switzer of Bellefonte spent Wednesday at the Watson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson and sons spent Monday evening of last week with relatives at this place.

Arthur Burd spent a few days at the Roy McKinley home near Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas visited relatives in Lock Haven on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Haagen of Yarnell called on Mrs. Edith Burd on Saturday evening.

POTTERS MILLS
Rev. and Mrs. Seth Russell of Spring Mills took supper at the F. P. Palmer home on Thursday evening.

Miss Geraldine Hoover spent Easter with her parents in Altoona.

Miss Laura Bell McCormick from Mercer, W. E. McCormick, wife and son, of Mt. Penn, spent Easter at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCormick.

M. A. Sankey and wife, of Canoe Creek, Mrs. Edith Dale of State College attended a late breakfast Sunday morning and then took dinner at the F. P. Palmer home.

Mr. Almone, wife and two children, from New Jersey, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaffer.

Mrs. F. A. Carson is having her home ready for electric heating.

Clyde Walker and family of Bellefonte visited on Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Palmer.

E. C. Wagner has sold his home to Mr. Bloom, and will make sale of his personal property on Saturday. We all regret seeing Mr. Wagner leave our village.

E. G. Mingle from Aaronsburg, is spending a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. H. McCormick.

LITTLE NITTANY
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harter, and daughter Kathleen of State College were dinner guests at the Willard Harter home on Sunday.

Samuel Sproul spent Easter Sunday with his parents at Hecla.

Elmer and Earl Harter Jr., spent Easter Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shively.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harter and daughter, Kathleen, of State College visited the Earl Harter home on Sunday.

Mrs. Kathryn Furl and children of Runville visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Delaney on Easter Sunday.

William Dolan spent Easter Sunday with his brother George Dolan and family at Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Case, and daughter, Doris, of Millmont, were supper guests at the R. H. Bennison home Friday evening, Mrs. Nellie Diehl and two daughters Natalie and Sarah of Hartleton who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Case, remained over the weekend with her parents and family.

Chief Lone Fox and Princess Des Drop, of Fall River, Mass, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Clark on Wednesday evening.

Fill the Tank, Sir?
Motocists get plenty of attention at filling stations which employed 177,128 attendants in addition to 179,870 active proprietors and firm members, at the last Business Census. The 197,568 filling stations reported sales totaling $1,967,714.

April 30 : : J. S. English
Will offer at public sale at the Littleton percentage, Pine Grove Mills, the following items:
Three piece living room set; full set of dining room chairs; oak leather seats; three Karpen leather rocking chairs; steel dining chairs; bed room suite, complete; Karpen leather couch; dining room table; kitchen cabinet, 12x12; 10x13; bed springs; three porch rockers; large assortment of pictures; clocks with attachments; Feeney dust sprayer; door and table lamps. Sale at 1 p. m. Terms cash. Auctioneer, H. H. Hixler.

May 7, at T. M. Huey Farm
at Fillmore, the following:
LIVESTOCK—A horse, 10 years old, weight about 1200, also an old horse. A Cocker spaniel, 6 weeks.
FARM IMPLEMENTS—McCormick Deering manure spreader, a two-horse Corliss wagon, mowing machine, 2-hoof cut, Paper endgate cutter, Oliver No. 4 walking plow, Syracuse sulky plow, 18-inch spring harrow, harrow, fork, outlays and 110 ft. of new rope, corn cultivator, one horse corn plow, set of harness with 2 new collars and pads, grain drill, butchering tools, oil brooder, two 400 capacity and 2000 capacity, numerous to mention. Sale at 1 p. m. Terms cash. L. F. Mayes, suet. 417