George Stover, superintendent of the new public school project is busy getting crushed stone and lumber on he new school site to prepare for building the foundation for the new three room school building. After the foundation is completed the remainder of the building will be of brick construction. The work will be all WPA labor. Adam Adams and Miss Iona Reffner recently sped to some nearby state presumably Maryland and were quietly married. We wish them many happy days of married bliss. On Saturday morning at five o'clock, Mrs. Isaiah (Rebecca) Boob eassed into the Great Beyond. She was aged about 80 years. She leaves to mourn her now sorrowing husband, two sons and two daughters of a former marriage: George Barner, of Cleveland, Ohlo; Robert, of Union county; Mrs. Irvin Stover of Lewisburg, and Mrs. Katie Stikers of Coburn; besides a number of grand-children. Mrs. Boob was formerly married to John Barner, who was shot in the William Ettlinger tragedy here in town in the year 1896. Mrs. Barner was a member of the Woodward Evangelical church for a number of years. Funeral services were held in her late residence in town and conducted by her pestor, Rev. H. A. Houseal. Interment was made in the Woodward Union cemetry in the family plot beside her burn; besides a number of grand-
