A rather unusual procedure was taken before the hearing of two actions resulting from a motor acident on "Dead Man's Curve," near Hublersburg a number of months go. Because both cases are to be tried separately, and because much the same testimony is to be presented to both juries, two juries were drawn at once, and members of one of the juries were instructed to remain out of the court room until the first case has been .completed, so they will not be prejudiced by the results of the first case.

John H. Bailey is defendant in both cases, while the plaintiffs in Gospel Cumberland, Md., Miss Dorone of the suits are John J. Wenzke and Mildred K. Wenzke. In the other action the plaintiff is Mrs. Wenzke's sister, Miriam B. Beck, of
