

STATE TO PAY MEDICAL BILLS

RULING REMOVES ADDED $30,000 EXPENSE TO COUNTY

Court Decision, if Upheld, Places Burden on State to Provide Medical Aid to All Persons Receiving Pensions or Employed on Relief Projects

Centre County Commissioners, reviewing the Jefferson County decision issued Monday relative to the payment of medical bills for relief recipients, indicated yesterday they would abide by the ruling...

N. B. Spangler, Local Attorney, Dies Suddenly

Newton B. Spangler, Esq., one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Centre County Bar, died suddenly last Thursday morning...

Elks Ready For Parade On Flag Day

Predict Even Larger Turnout Than For Record-Breaking Memorial Day Event

PROESL TO SPEAK FROM COURT HOUSE STEPS

History of Flag to be Presented in Tableau; Parade Moves at 5 P. M.

According to present indications the Flag Day parade to be held here Tuesday afternoon, June 14...

Farmer-Kiwanis Picnic, June 15

Full Day of Sports and Contests Arranged For Annual Outing at Grange Park

The annual Farmer-Kiwanis picnic sponsored by the State College Kiwanis Club will be held on Wednesday, June 15...

D. A. Moves to Free County of Gambling

State Motor Police Ordered to Arrest All Owners of Illegal Devices

WIDESPREAD USE SEEN AS MENACE TO LAWS

Pin Ball, Games of Reserve Chief Offenders, County Official Reports

Acting upon numerous complaints the office of District Attorney Muser yesterday announced the opening of an intensive drive against all forms of gambling...

Sylvia Yearick Named V. F. W. Beauty Queen

Miss Sylvia Yearick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Yearick, of 101 West Curtin street, Bellefonte, Saturday night was chosen 'Miss Bellefonte' to represent Jackson-Crisman-Saylor Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars at the State Convention at Harrisburg June 23, 24 and 25.

WOMAN, STRUCK BY TRUCK, IS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

LADIES OF MOOSE TO BE HOSTS TO NATIONAL OFFICERS Women of the Moose Lodge throughout Central Pennsylvania will gather in Bellefonte Friday evening, June 10...

Miss Sarah Hockman, 72, Steps Into Path of Machine From Rear of Car

SUFFERS BROKEN LEG; HEAD, ARM INJURIES

Driver, Swerving to Avoid Pedestrian, Crashes Truck Against Tree

Struck by a truck as she walked out on the highway from behind a parked car, Miss Sarah Hockman, aged 72, of Millbrook, was seriously injured about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The accident happened at Millbrook, near Miss Hockman's home.

Local Residents Wedded 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haag Honored on Anniversary; Parents of Six Children

Tuesday, for the second time since the turn of the present century, the home on Penn street occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Haag was the scene of a golden wedding anniversary when that honored couple celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

AMERICAN LIME EMPLOYEE INJURED BY FALLING ROCK

In the first lost time accident at the Bellefonte plant of the American Lime & Stone Company in more than two years, Robert P. Kucak, 42, of near Bellefonte, was painfully injured last Thursday morning.

Kucak suffered lacerations of the face and nose, four fractured ribs, a puncture wound of the lung, and bruises about the legs.

P.R.R. to Open $8,000,000 Program in Altoona Shops; All Employees to be Recalled

Announcement of an $8,000,000 equipment building program for the Altoona shops was made yesterday by high officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadelphia.

The building program, calling for one million man-hours of labor, is expected to begin within two or three weeks. Absorption of the lists of unemployed Pennsylvania Railroad workers in the Altoona area is expected to be gradual.

Legion Sponsors New Playground

To Install Sandboxes, Swings, Other Equipment at Humes Woods, Near Town

At a meeting of Brooks-Doll Post American Legion, Bellefonte, Monday night, a move was instituted to secure the Humes woods, just south of the Hughes athletic field, East Bishop street, for use as a children's playground.

Borough Streets To Be Repaired

Council Decides on Move When Budget Report Shows Funds Available

Decision to launch an extensive street repair program in Bellefonte during the coming summer, and further discussion of the proposed sewage disposal plant were highlights of a regular meeting of Bellefonte Borough Council at the Loman House, Monday night.

Pleasant Gap Firemen Buy LaFrance Pumper

The Pleasant Gap Fire Company, long handicapped by lack of adequate apparatus, at a regular meeting Friday night voted in favor of the purchase of a new LaFrance pumper, to cost $5,500.

Rockview Guard Receives Diploma At Penn State

Monday, June 6, was a red letter day in the life of Michael P. Kersavage, of Pleasant Gap, a guard at Rockview penitentiary, for on that day he was graduated from the Pennsylvania State College in the school of mining engineering.

Mission Dorn Summers and Harry Stewart Honored For Outstanding Traits

The Pleasant Gap Community Brotherhood presented prizes to two young graduates last Thursday night at the graduation exercises at the Grange Hall. Miss Dora V. Summers and Harry W. Stewart were awarded the cash prizes presented to the boy and girl selected.

Marine Band Plans Are Now Complete

Final arrangements for two concerts to be given in Centre county, Saturday, September 24, by the United States Marine Band, have been completed, according to an announcement yesterday by David A. Holter, director of the Howard Band, and sponsor of the local appearance of what is often referred to as "The World's Finest Band."

Camp Wapalanne Will Open July 6th

Camp Wapalanne, Bellefonte's popular camp, will open for the 1938 season on Wednesday, July 6, and if the demand warrants it the camp will be open for six weeks for boys only.

Thompson School Plan Endorsed

State President of P. O. S. of A. Calls on Members to Support Senator's Proposal

Edward J. Thompson, State President of the P. O. S. of A., called on members of the organization to support a proposal by Senator Edward J. Thompson for the establishment of a new public school building in the township of Northampton.

Thompson School Plan Endorsed

State President of P. O. S. of A. Calls on Members to Support Senator's Proposal

EDWARD J. THOMPSON

Deeply interested in public school development of Pennsylvania, Harry J. Leary, president of the Pennsylvania Patriotic Order Sons of America, has advised members of his organization to stand squarely behind State Senator Edward J. Thompson's plan for improving obsolete and inadequate school buildings in the state through joint action of the local school districts, Department of Public Instruction and the General State Authority.

Angler Catches 25-Inch Trout

'Moose' Ammerman, Bellefonte, Goes Out Next Day and Gets 23-Inch One

John "Moose" Ammerman, of East Howard street, holds the Bellefonte fishing championship so far this year, with his catch early Tuesday morning of a rainbow trout measuring 25 inches in length, and weighing 5 1/2 pounds.

REPORT RICHARD HOME IS SOLD

According to reports current on the streets yesterday, Mrs. E. H. Richard has sold her home on North Albemarle street to Dr. Paul M. Corman, whose present offices and living quarters are in the Keystone building on East High street.

LEGION WILL SPONSOR CARNIVAL NEXT WEEK

Brooks-Doll Post American Legion will sponsor a carnival to be held on the Witter field, East Bishop street, the week of June 13. It was announced yesterday by Walter Zahmiser, commander of the post.

CRASH NEAR POTTERS MILLS

Damage estimated at about $75 resulted about 2:40 Sunday afternoon when a car operated by Donald Mundy, of Lewisport, and John P. Siegfried, of Allentown, collided two miles south of Potters Mills. The accident happened, police reported, when one of the machines stopped suddenly. There were no injuries.

THREE INJURED WHEN BLEACHER SEAT BREAKS

H. W. Lenberger, of State College, is reported to be recovering slowly from injuries received Saturday afternoon at Boalsburg when a bleacher seat broke as he watched the Bellefonte-State College baseball game.

CRASH NEAR POTTERS MILLS

Damage estimated at about $75 resulted about 2:40 Sunday afternoon when a car operated by Donald Mundy, of Lewisport, and John P. Siegfried, of Allentown, collided two miles south of Potters Mills. The accident happened, police reported, when one of the machines stopped suddenly. There were no injuries.

Sutton Recalls Idle Employees

Predict Upturn in Activities at Local Plant During Summer Months

Sutton Engineering Company, of Bellefonte, which for the past number of months has had only one-half of its regular employees working on a part-time basis, is looking forward to a substantial increase in activity during the coming summer months, according to a statement yesterday by Earl T. Risan, general superintendent of the plant.

WPA to Establish Camp for Public

Former CCC Camp in Clinton County to be Opened For Use of Organizations

A former C. C. Camp will be taken over by the Works Progress Administration and transformed into one of the most outstanding camp sites in Pennsylvania, G. C. Cleaver, Area No. 10, Branch Office Manager for the Works Progress Administration announced today.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

BUNNY BERIGAN AT HECLA PARK

BUNNY BERIGAN

Competitively unknown six months ago, Bunny Berigan, singing trumpetier of swing rhythms topped his sensational rise to nationwide fame a few months ago when he replaced his old orchestra mate Benny Goodman at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York City and later followed Tommy Dorsey at the Pavillion Royal. Recently terminating a sensational four-week engagement at the Paramount Theatre, New York City, the famous swing maestro, (Continued on page eight)

CONDITION OF ACCIDENT VICTIM REMAINS SERIOUS

The condition of Frank Rosenhoover, aged 42, of Sunbury, who is undergoing treatment at the Evangelical Hospital, Lewisburg, for injuries received May 27 in a motor accident, remains quite serious, and physicians are unable to predict the outcome of a fracture at the base of the skull from which he is suffering.

BANKS WILL CLOSE FLAG DAY

In pursuance with a custom inaugurated last year, the Bellefonte Banks will be closed all day Tuesday, June 14, in observance of Flag Day. Patrons are requested to bring the holiday in mind to avoid disappointments.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

State College Man Jailed

Charged with malicious mischief by State College police officer John R. Juba, who claimed he set fire to the borough lock-up, Joe Parker, of State College, at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Harold D. Cowher, in Bellefonte, Monday night, was committed to the county jail in default of $250 bail. Parker was sentenced to serve 30 days on a charge of disorderly conduct, and while in the lock-up is said to have started a fire and broke a window.

Fair Committee To Meet

The Grange Fair committee will meet Saturday, June 11, at 1:30 p. m. on the picnic grounds at Centre Hall.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.

Farmers Unite To Move Buildings for Camp Potato

Friday and Saturday of this week members of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association will gather at CCC Camp F-40, at Ridgway, Elk county, to begin the work of dismantling camp buildings and removing them to a 270-acre tract of land along the Roosevelt Highway seven miles east of Coudersport, where the structures will form the housing facilities of "Camp Potato." The work will be in the nature of a frolic—with liberal portions of labor and good fellowship.