Echoes From the Past

pose they will convert it into a roller and others and the occasion was enmill. The price paid was $14,000.

Parades, fireworks, and bands will William Goodhart, near Farmers be the order of the day and meals Mills. He had been ailing with and refreshments will be served in Brights disease for some time. the Court House yard. You don't was a member of the Centre Hills need to go away from home to have Presbyterian church and was disa jolly good time.

Beaver county sandstone.

place last spring, died in the borough old. 2nd. Cavalry, 48th, regiment.

tographer who had been operating es of Generals Gobin and Taylor. at Spring Mills for the past month.

hart: Farmers Mills, Cyrus Grove; Heckman; Polk Hill, Hiram Cain, lian stabbed the youth. and Beaver Dam, William C. Mc-

the cemetery at Curtin's. He was form of fireworks. opposite the old fair grounds, and praise of Mr. and Mrs. Curtin. within a short distance of their furnace . . . Lucas Hill, a small mining thunderstorm struck this place and ment can be made. bruises. He is now at his home here, the streets.

FIFTY YEARS AGO William M. Allison & Bros. have | Potters Mills celebrated its cenpurchased from Mrs. Barcroft the tennial on July 4th. Over a thoumill at Spring Mills and also the sand people were present. Addressfarm connected with it. We sup- es were made by Hon. John B. Linn livened by a number of brass bands. Bellefonte will not be behind her On last Saturday Mr. John Goodsister towns in celebrating the 5th. hart died at the residence of his son, tinguished for his christian life.

Work was commenced on the First | Newton Williams of Martha Fur-National Bank on Wednesday. The nace, died last week and was buried work of tearing down and rebuild- on Saturday. Mr. Williams aling will be pushed right along and though not in good health, had been when the building is completed it to Gettysburg and on his return sudwill be the finest of its kind this denly took sick and died. He was side of Philadelphia. It is to be of a young man of considerable promise, a son of Joseph F. Williams, Daniel Sampsel, formerly a Gregg deceased, and had been managing township charge, who moved to this his father's estate. He was 32 years home Sunday. He was 70 years of J. I. Condo and daughter, Maggie, age and was well known throughout David Burrell and his daughter, Penn's Valley. He was a soldier in Maggie, and Nathaniel Brown atthe late war and belonged to the tended the G. A. R. Union at Gettysburg. They are all Republicans R. G. Eisenhart has sold one half but they speak in the highest terms of the Spring Mills Creamery to of praise over the fraternal spirit Messrs. Charles A. Krape and Titus which existed between the Blue and Gramley. The consideration was the Gray. They couldn't have list-Mr. Bergstresser, pho- ened to the gush and slobber speech-

Harrison Shope, a young man rehas moved his tent to Potters Mills. siding in Altoona, was stabbed to from a broken shoulder, collar The Spring Mills school board se- death by an Italian. The body of bone, arm, and internal injuries. lected the following corps of teach- young Shope was brought to Miles- Others in the car, with the excepers: Spring Mills, W. P. Hosterman, burg for interment. The Italian is tion of Mr. Albert, were not ser-E. Zeigler and Miss Grise, Penn in jail at Hollidaysburg. Young lously injured. Hall; Miss Mary Runkle; Crossroads, Shope was under the influence of F. F. Hov. Warren S. Krise: Mur- liquor at the time and had been rays, A. L. Ripka; Logan, Will Good- wrestling with a companion and threw him twice. The fellow then Rote, George F. Weaver; and Au- ran away and Shope pursued him. gustus Kennelley; Mountain, J. F. In a mixup which followed the Ita-

Andrew Curtin, Jr., has for the last three years given the little folks Mark Brown, of Milesburg, died of Curtin and the adjoining streets Saturday last and was buried in a grand Fourth of July treat in the Wednesday born January 10, 1838 . . . The Dem- evening last between fifty and a cratic Club room is ornamented with hundred little folks gathered on the a handsomely framed engraving of porch and in the yard to watch the President Cleveland and wife, the display. It was unusually fine and a gift of J. L. Spangler Mr. C. P. happier lot of children could not be Hilder has just completed a job of found in town. "Drew" and Lawpainting 3,632 feet of picket fence rence Brown manage the fire desurrounding the tenement houses partment and doubtless enjoyed the belonging to the Collins Brothers, fun. The children are loud in their On Thursday afternoon a severe town a short distance from Snow the rain fell in torrents for about an Shoe, celebrated the glorious fourth hour, doing considerable damage to by having a free fight; men, women the gardens. The lightning was and even children took a hand in very sharp and the thunder hard, the fracas. Several arrests have resulting in damage to the electric wheres. been made and others are threaten- light station and telephone exed unless some satisfactory settle- change. It took much work to repair both but everything is now in A telegram reached this place on running order again. On Friday Friday morning announcing the sad another storm visited this place, death of David Love, son of Mr. Wil- with heavy rain and much thunder liam Love, residing several miles and lightning. Saturday afternoon from town. Mr. Love had gone to brought a very severe storm with road on 28th. Street, that city, he Rain and hail took their toll among syllable. was struck by a freight train and gardens, and the corn crop throughwas instantly killed. His body was out the county was badly damaged. as in moon, and not joon-i-er. mangled in a horrible manner. The Sunday morning dawned sunny and remains were taken to a morgue to very hot until about 3 o'clock in the ond a unstressed), three syllables, await the arrival of friends from afternoon when the heaviest fall of and not sal-ry. this vicinity. Love was 27 years old rain we've seen this season occurred. and was well known and held in A severe electrical storm accompanihigh regard here. His companion, ed the rain. Bishop Street from C. Thomas McCafferty, who was with Schrock's shop to the corner was him at the time of the accident, was converted into a run, with five inches also thrown under the cars and was of water pouring down the street painfully injured, having received a for its entire width and filling many severe cut of the right shoulder, la- cellars with water. All over town cerations of the head and numerous streams of great size poured down within a few days.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

fishing in the restricted portion of

William L. Hicks, Jr., son of Mr.

sava arta

and Mrs. Howard S. Hicks, of Spruce

The delivery car of the Milesburg | Charles Boone, of near Romola, Store Company was considerably returned from a Saturday night outdamaged when the steering appara- ing with friends at Howard to distus failed and the car left the road cover that a roll containing $125 near Snow Shoe Intersection and was missing from his pockets. He upset. The driver was not injured. was unable to explain the disap-

Harry Neff, employed by H. C. pearance of the money. Reish, on the Bradford farm at Old While en route to his home in Fork, had his right leg injured when Nittany Valley in his new seventhe tine of a fork penetrated the passenger Buick touring car, James member above the knee. Dr. Long- Nolan became blinded by the lights well injected tetanus anti-toxin to of an approaching car near Salona prevent infection.

Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, well over a 6-foot embankment, Nolan known residents of Mt. Eagle, had and a companion escaped injury received word that their oldest son, but the car was badly damaged. Private Clair Butler, had been The Bellefonte Central Railroad as, "to abdicate the crown." drowned in a river near Camp Funs- Company had received three seventon, where he was training as a passenger Cadillac automobiles lifelike mental images. "I have a be lengthened if they are washed im- lard or grease, and then packing member of the National Army. Pri- which were to be put in service be- vived recollection." "It was a vivid mediately when removed from the hem in bran. vate Butler was 31 years old and tween Bellefonte and State College. was survived by his parents, his The cars were large and roomy. wife, a small daughter, four bro- and when necessary could accomothers and seven sisters.

Sergeant Edwin Grove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Grove, of Bellefonte, a soldier in the World War, had been informed that he had Bellefonte and under the cover of made such a favorable impression darkness angled for Bellefonte's famous trout below the falls on Water upon his first commanding officer, Captain Harry Henderson, a bach- street. They were seen by Police elor, of Nashville, Tenn., that the Officer Elmer Yerger, who arrested officer, who had died suddenly, had the trio and lodged them in jail left Grove the income from 200 to await a hearing. The fine for acres of bituminous coal land in Tennessee, for a period of thirty the stream was $100. years, and after that time the income is to go to the YMCA.

Creek, was saved from drowning by Lightning, thunder, hail, rain and wind combined in one of the most While playing along the creek the severe storms to strike Centre coun- lad toppled into the water and was ty in some years. The storm broke late Friday night and crops were by his father who was attracted by badly damaged. A stroke of lightning shattered a half dozen telephone Quick remedies applied by his mothe cries of his son's playmates. Cartwright, of Milesburg, was walking toward his home when a bolt, striking a nearby house, stunged Marriage licenses were issued to feeding the grain liberally. Oats him. The bolt then followed a wire the following couples: Walter H. may be left before the birds at all across the street to the Edward Shearer and Theresa M. Cavey, both times with satisfactory results after Quick residence, where some slight of Baltimore, Md.; W. D. Orndorf they are accustomed to them. Howdamage resulted. At Lewistown it was reported that lightning struck a locomotive, rendering the enging a E. Nettleblad, of Lanse; Maurice grit to aid in grinding the oat hulls.

The period between July 1 and 13 mid-summer seedings is the lack of mid-summer seedings is the lack of moisture during germination and grit to aid in grinding the oat hulls.

Agent R. C. Blaney. eer, Samuel Gordon, unconscious.
Railroad men said it was the first man, both of Bellefonte; Samuel P. Broderick and Helen B. CrissRailroad men said it was the first man, both of Bellefonte; Samuel P. sen picking problems. If the birds removed early seeded lettuce, spinting the oat nuits.

By July, most gardenen, will have removed early seeded lettuce, spinting the oat nuits.

By July, most gardenen, will have removed early seeded lettuce, spinting the oat nuits.

By July, most gardenen, will have removed early seeded lettuce, spinting the oat nuits.

By July, most gardenen, will have removed early seeded lettuce, spinting the oat nuits.

By July, most gardenen, will have removed early seeded lettuce, spinting the oat nuits. tive being struck by lightning. They Musser, Spring Mills; Charles F. before layers, a practice which ap- used their early cabbage, beets, mination to keep the soil moist or reported the engine was raised near- Snyder, Sunbury, and Bertha M. parently has considerable merit, carrots, and onions. Late cabbage, at least damp at all time. Dry conly three feet off the rails, and this Deitrich, Bellefonte; J. Wilbur The amount of oats fed breeders celery, and broccoli can be planted ditions for a day may be enough to was believed to be accurate since Dashem and Grace R. Bower, both should be controlled so that the in their place about the first week kill the seedlings. two front springs and the train line of Spring Mills; Charles O. Miller birds will eat adequate amounts of in July. About July 15, Chinese pipe of the engine were broken. The and Emma V. Seyler, both of Belle- mash to give good hatches and pro- cabbage, endive, beets, carrots, and same flash struck a girl carrying fonte; Carl Grimberg, of Lanse and duce strong chicks, an umbrella. The umbrella is re-ported to have "gone up in a puff George A. Kelley, Snow Shoe, and then driven in again.

The locomotive hauling the passenger train over the Lewisburg and Tyrone branch broke down near Lemont and had to be hauled to Bellefonte for repairs. The engine broke down when the cylinder head on the left side of the engine blew off and at the same time pins holding the driving rods gave way. Another engine was sent here from Sunbury to haul the train on its the average length of life has inrun in the afternoon.

A team of young horses owned by Jacob Lee, on the Weaver farm west Spring Mills, ran off while attached to a rope operating a hay fork, resulting in injuries to several persons. In running away the horses tore off two pulleys over which the rope passed. One of the pulleys struck Mr. Lee on the head inflicting a deep gash. George Huss. a passerby, attempted to stop the runaway horses but was thrown forcibly to the ground splintering the bones in his leg. The horses finally came to a halt of their own accord, with no further damage. Raymond D. Albert, aged 27, son of Jesse and Mollie Albert, of Pine Grove Mills, was fatally injured when the car in which he was a passenger overturned on a curve about two miles from Pine Grove Mills. In the car were Mr. Albert, his aunt, Miss Margaret Reed, of Pine Grove Mills; another aunt, Mrs. Sarah Burwell and her son, George George Burwell was driving at the time and in rounding the curve at considerable speed he turned the wheel too sharply and the car overturned. The occupants were pinned beneath the machine. Miss Reed was in serious condition at the Bellefonte Hospital, suffering

Our Weekly English Lesson

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "I have not seen him but a few times." Omit not. Not and but form a double negative. Do not say, "He laughed out loud."

Say, "He laughed aloud (or loudly). Do not say, "However did you manage it?" Say, "How did you manage it?"

Do not say, "At what hotel are you stopping?" Say, "At what hotel are you staying?'

Do not say, "We hope you will still Do not say, "Those conditions exeverywhere." Say, everywhere. everywheres." Say, everywhere. There is no such word as every-

Words Often Mispronounced Homage. Pronounce hom-ij, o as in of (not as in home), i as in ridge (not age).

nounce the a as in ape, not nap. Pittsburgh to seek employment, and lightning flying in all directions mus, i as in big, o as in no, a as in dryness of the soil. Progress whose secretary is J. Ernesi cross the rail- and almost continuous thunder ray (not as in ram), accept third Grange, whose secretary is J. Ernesi while attempting to cross the rail- and almost continuous thunder, ray (not as in ram), accent third Grange, whose secretary is J. Ernest > Junior Pronounce joon-ver. Salary. Pronounce sal-a-ri (sec-

Lithe. Pronounce the i as in lie, the th as in this, not as in thin.

Words Often Misspelled

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each Words for this lesson: day.

CONDUCE; to lead or tend, especially with reference to a desirable result. "Moderate labor of the body conduces to the preservation of health, and cures many initial diseases."-Dr. W. Harvey.

LUDICROUS; adapted to excite and his car shot off the road and laughter; ridiculous. "I was in a ludicrous predicament."

ABDICATE; to give up or relinquish formally, as sovereign power; longer if they are washed before description. CHARACTERISTIC; distinctive; date ten persons each. They were istic courtesy."

scheduled to begin regular trips SANGUINE; disposed to be hopeful; anticipating the best; as, "san-Three Philipsburg men came to guine of success.

LARGE BODIES ARE DESIRED

following various systems of feed- hours without harm. ing growing stock, reports County Agent R. C. Blaney. The thought behind most of the methods used, he explains, is to de- outer edge of each nostril will very plan that is giving satisfaction is to piece of ice rolled in cotton, or cotfeed the birds on range only enough ton soaked in ice water, may be inmash in the morning to last until serted in the nostril and pressure late afternoon. The hoppers are applied from the outside; this also left empty for the remainder of the proves effective. Another method feeding of grain in the evening.

A number of poultrymen started slightly. ther, a former nurse, revived him feeding oats when their chickens were six weeks old and are now

-Read The Centre Democrat. lettuce, spinach, and radishes. Barbara M. Rosenhoover, Bellefonte. $1.50 in advance, Spitchester enster to trop the Meswer

Health and Beauty

LIVES CAN BE PROLONGED

In civilized countries we learn from the records that are kept that creased from ten to fifteen years in recent times. However, this is enand typhoid fever are almost if not quite stamped out. Diabetes and tuberculosis are not the fatal maladies that they once were, and infant mortally has been greatly diminished.

Death from heart disease actually seems to be increasing. Physicians specially are the victims of this malady

Every year the Journal of the American Medical Association pub-United States. In this country, 3, 142 physicians died during the year 1932. Of these, 1,101 died of heart 35 per cent. of the whole number. The medical profession, as a whole, They work in season and out of sea- exertion.

genarian class.

Few physicians reach the octeamong all classes.

ways an indication that all is well, they should walk. Their muscles, mature deaths. More often than loose and flabby. Their bodies denot the prolongation of life rests teriorate. They cannot stand exerwith the individual himself.

which to meet emergencies. man after forty should go a little slower than he did at twenty and the man beyond fifty should be careful to conserve his strength. A midday rest is helpful whether he feels fatigued or not. A short nap is very refreshing, especially in warm tirely due to the fact that small-pox weather. Overeating, together with consequent overweight puts a great burden upon the heart of the man or woman beyond forty. The added pounds require much extra work for the heart for it Is obliged to labor harder to supply blood to the unnecessary bulk. The fat crowds the organs of the body, especially the heart, and embarrasses its movements. After a little exertion the obese person is usually breathless and uncomfortable. It is not unishes the statistics of the causes of common for a person with a heart death among the doctors of the disability to bring on an attack of pain, or sudden death, after an un- in cocktail glasses with usual exertion.

There is much reserve power in disease at the average age of 64 the heart, and one that is not damyears; this was a little more than aged can stand a great amount of stress and strain and feel none the wo:se for it, while one that is not leads strenuous and anxious lives. sound will break down under extra

We are nearly all born with much They are at the beck and call of the public (often an ungrateful reserve heart strength. This is inand unappreciative public) night creased in childhood and youth, by and day, in storm and in fair weath- suitable exercises.

It is a mistake for people to give up activities after forty. The aver-Not only among physicians is heart age person is far better off either disease a leading cause of death, it to do a certain amount of manual becoming increasingly common work daily, or to take a physical culture of some kind. Exercises both After the age of 40 everyone mental and physical should be suitshould have his physician check ed to individual tastes and needs. him over at least once a year. If There is no better all-round exertrouble is beginning it can often be cise than walking. The constant detected and adequate measures use of automobiles is a detriment to taken either to affect a cure or to the health of our people. Men and women who work in offices all day Because one feels well is not al- are riding to and from work when Today there are far too many pre- both external and internal, grow tion and any sudden mental or phy-A sensible person takes care not sical strain may bring on a serious to spend so much money that he is breakdown, which could have a left without a bank balance with fatal result in case of an already The damaged heart ontinue to be our friends." Omit Top, Friday evening, June 24, 1938, making fine progress, we feel assured was a delightful occasion in spite of that we can expect great things of s.orm and heat. At the count, 247 them in the future. patrons were found to have assembled at this lovely spot on Bald Eagle dered: Song: The Grange is March-Mountain top, many arriving un- ing On; "Co-operation" Martin usually early to enjoy the view.

POMONA GRANGE NEWS

and conducted all grange procedure Henrietta Clevenstine; Monolog Progress Grange filled the chairs in a creditable manner. All items of business were transacted regardless of a number of interruptions Nape (the back of the neck). Pro- caused by the severe storm. Rain was very welcome to most farmers Ignoramus. Pronounce ig-no-ra- at this season due to the present grange of our county and has stood the test for many years; may they go Entail; en, not in. Inter (to bury); in the plans of the year that we feel master. distinguish from enter. Endorse or deeply grateful to each and every- Announcements of future meetings indorse; both spellings are correct. one. Walker Grange is the young- will be in next issue.

Neighbor Night meeting at Sky est order in our county and has been The following program was ren-

Deitrich; Playlet: "Jemima's Ped-Solo, Neopolitan Nights, "Me and My Downtrodden Sex" Bertha Guiser; Playlet: "Catching the Train to State." Our State Lecturer, Mrs. Iva Gross, of Johnstown, with her son, David, who is Master of Penn State Grange. Wagner, Centre Hall, is the oldest dress on the types of co-operation grange in this respect. We certainly forward as fakhfully in the years Gross to the extent of a long drive in order to be with us in these meet-A fine program with co-operation ings and do appreciate such interest as the theme, was very ably pre- by a hosts, had the large hall desented by the Walker grange of corated in chosen colors of pink and which Miss Clara Dunkle, Belle- white with the ring emblem emphafonte, R. D., is lecturer. These sized. Refreshments of variety Pore (to gaze intently). Pore (a members demonstrated unusual dis- wafers, cookies, pretzels and iced tea minute opening, as in the skin). Pour tinct speaking in their effort to be were selved with unusual promptness (to cause to flow). Endeavor; ob- heard above the noise of the storm to this crowd and fine hospitality serve the ea and or. Transfer, fer; This theme of cooperation is being so was shown by this grange of which dressing. transferred and transferring, ferr, well demonstrated by all our grange, Fred Davidson, Warriors Mark, is

The Household Scrapbook

If the long, slender flower vase all discoloration will vanish.

Stocking Hints

New silk stockings will wear much using them. Be sure that no soap is VIVID; sharp and clear; evoking left in the silk. Their life will also feet, as perspiration rots the silk very rapidly. White silk stockings typical. "He spoke with character- should be dried in the dark to prevent turning yellow.

White Silk

It is rather difficult to keep white silk from turning yellow when washed, but rolling the white silk garments in a Turkish towel as soon IN THE RAISING OF CHICKS as washed will usually prevent their turning yellow. They may be ironed Centre County poultrymen are in half an hour, or can be left for 24 ly fitted into it, it is dipped into rounds, 2 inches in diameter. Ar-

Nosebleed |

Pressing on the upper lip at the velop birds with large bodies. One often stop bleeding of the nose. A The birds are given a heavy is to sit erect with arms raised above floor that is to be used for dancing, the head, and the head thrown back powdered borax may be used, and

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS FOR

August is the time for sowing fall to put trucks on high wheels and August is the time for sowing fall to put trucks on high wheels and often becomes possible today let other automobiles pass under often becomes possible tomorrow, During July and August vegetable them.

If you are troubled with waterhas become discolored, soak a few bugs gathering around the sink, try tea leaves in vinegar and put them pouring a cup of kerosene once each in the vase. Shake awhile and soon week down the drain, and do not run the water until about a half hour afterwards. The bugs will disappear very quickly.

To Preserve Eggs. Eggs may be preserved for many months by first coating them with

Rusted Bread Box

to dry thoroughly before using.

Leak-Proof Bottle Picnic parties will appreciate this suggestion. Any bottle can be made leak-proof if, after the cork is tight-

it even more secure. Falling Hair

A cut lemon rubbed into the roots dry, add 4 rounded tablespoons of Dear Louisa: of the hair and followed by a wash sugar, beaten in gradually. Put in I am engaged to be married this in warm, soft water, will strengthen a very hot oven for 2 or 3 minutes to summer but while going through the the hair and prevent its falling. Wax Substitute

When wax is not available for a seeds germinate in a short time and 14 SUMMER VEGETABLE GARDEN the plants grow rapidly, provided lengthwise. Toss all together light sufficient moisture is present. The ly, pile in sherbet glasses and chill. The period between July 1 and 15 most frequent reason for failure of Garnish with green cherries, will prove a good substitute.

If conditions on the highways get gold and white. turnips for storing may be seeded. much worse, it might be a good idea

Not everyone is born with the a wedding ceremony? spark that draws people to them, 2. Does the "Jr." after a man's 8. When meeting a woman acbut we can all learn the secret of hospitality. A gracious home atmosphere, an unruffled hostess de-

Sarah Ann's

Cooking Class

icious food served with simplicity and diplomacy in inviting congenial guests, all of these leave pleasant memories of a charming hostess in the minds of your guests.

Vegetable Cocktail

½ cup cooked asparagus tips. 1/2 cup finely chopped celery. 1 tablespoon finely cut chives cup cucumbers, diced. 11/2 cups tomato sauce-salt. 11/2 teaspoon lemon juice.

Mix and chill thoroughly. Serve

Glazed Individual Ham Loaves

1/2 lb, smoked ground ham. 1/2 lb. fresh pork, ground. 1/2 cup cracker crumbs 1 small onion, chopped.

egg beaten. cup milk. ¼ teaspoon salt—pepper.

ingredients together Mix all horoughly. Pack lightly in large size muffin pans. Shape the meat so it rounds up well, but doesn't come clear to the top of the pan, around the edges. Bake in an oven 350 degrees for about 20 minutes. the following mixture:

1 cup of brown sugar. 3 tablespoon vinegar.

Serve with mushroom sauce.

1 teaspoon dry mustard. Pour some of the syrup over each meat loaf. Return to the oven 350

Baked Fritters.

cup of flour with 1/4 teaspoon of salt and 2 teaspoons of bak- Greek language it was spelled "Je'- unqualified loyal y and obedience to ing powder. Beat 1 egg, add 1/2 cup sus, the name of our Saviour. Josh- Jehovah, their God. milk and add to the flour, beating ua in many ways is a type of Christ. After about twenty-five years of until smooth. Add 4 tablespoons of He led God's chosen people out of leadership, Joshua, who was about melted shortening. Fold in cup of the wilderness into the Land of 110 years old, realized that he was diced apples, spread the mixture in Promise, defeating their enemies; about to die. Before going, howa greased shallow pan having it %- Jesus leads those who will follow ever, he was anxious to give a fareinch thick, and bake in an oven 350 him out of the wanderings of a life well charge to the children of Israel. degrees. When done, brush the top of sin out of the bondage, out of the First, he summoned the elders of the with melted butter and springle with darkness, out of the death that people to him, recounted to them the sugar. Serve hot in squares with comes as a consequence of sin, into protection and care which God had

Cassolette of Chicken

Use 2 cups of cold chicken put through the food chopper. Left- God in the Wilderness of Zin, God away from them the thought of may be substituted for some of it. lowed to actually lead the Children the people around them. Joshua re-Use only such ones as peas, string of Israel into the Promised Land. minded them that the people must beans, carrots, celery and the like; Instead of pleading with God for make a choice—they could either add I cup of milk to which I tea- him to change his mind. Moses prays serve Jehovah, or they could serve spoon of salt, I teaspoon of onion for a worthy successor and God the gods of the Amorites, in whose uice, pepper, I tablespoon of chopp- points out Joshua, who had been land they dwelled, but they must ed parsley and 4 well beaten eggs. born in Egypt, had followed Moses' make a choice. Pour this into well-buttered indi- leading throughout the wilderness As for himself Joshua announced water and bake 30 minutes at 400 de- who had been sent to spy out the to us in ringing tones "But as for me room sauce and boiled rice. A true report of conditions. fresh fruit salad and a beverage complete the meal.

cooked asparagus tips that have to the children of Israel." This was made. Therefore, he could counsel been well chilled and dipped in no easy task to which Joshua had others to do likewise. 1 tablespoon of chopped green pepper and 14 cup of chopped walnut and to go up to fight against so great you choose for time or for eternity? meats. Roll into balls the size of walnuts. Place 4 to each serving. Serve with mayonnaise or French

Coffee Jelly.

2 cups strong coffee. 2 tablespoons gelatin. 1/2 cup cold water.

cup boiling water. % cup sugar-vanilla to taste. Soak gelatin in the cold water. dissolve in the boiling water and add replied that I could, but when that Maybe, Ky. sugar. Stir until dissolved. Add a time came it was impossible for me little vanilia. Add coffee. into mold which has been rinsed in apologizing and asking for another cold water. Serve with boiled cust-cup apricot juice. I cup apricot pulp. % cup water.

Apricot Sherbet

1 1/2 tablespoons lemon Juice. 2 egg whites. ¼ cup sugar. 16 cup coffee cream.

and finish freezing.

Pinch of salt. It is rather difficult to remove rust cots through a strainer, add lemon ing your absence, I am not surprised think that the girl did the filting or from the inside of a bread box. The juice and syrup. Chill. Pour into that she refused to give you another that you both decided to call it off best thing to do is to paint it. Two tray and freeze firm. Remove mix-date. coats of flat paint should be used ture to a cold bowl, beat with rotary. The with one coat of enamel. Allow it beater until light. Add beaten egg is to sit down and write another letwhites and cream. Return to tray

Cut slice of sponge cake into melted paraffin. Then tie a piece range on a paper spread on a board, of heavy paper over the top to make Place a ball of ice cream in each round of cake. Cover the ice cream and sides of cake with meringue made of the whites of 4 eggs beaten brown the meringue.

Angel Dessert

Whip half a pint of cream stiff, then fold into a cup of angel cake torn into very small pieces, 1/2 cup of marshmallows quartered, 34 cup of green mint cherries quartered and cup blanched almonds shredded

Band Wins First Prize

The East Centre County Band. under the direction of Paul Bartges. of Aaronsburg, last Wednesday night was awarded a prize for being the best band in line at the with the fingers. Mifflinburg Firemen's Parade, Last Wednesday was the first time the lion is served in a one-handled cup. band has appeared in competition in their new uniforms of royal blue, be taken with a spoon.

Modern Etiquette

"Mr." 3. What is the proper way to eat an open-face sandwich? 4. When buillon is served in a two-handled cup, is it permissible to take it directly from the cup?

5. Is it all right for a man to merely touch the brim of his hat the wedding breakfast or reception when greeting a woman acquain- following the church ceremony be sent?

6. On which arm of her father 12. When being introduced to an does a bride proceed up the aisle? elderly woman, should a young per-7. What does cafe au lait mean, son offer a hand?

1. What are the proper hours for and what is the correct pronuncia tion?

name on his cards take the place of quaintance on the street, should man offer to carry any package she may have in her arms? 9. When dancing is to follow a reception should it be mentioned in the invitations? 10. Is it good tayle for a weekend guest to bring the hostess a gift? How should the invitation to

Answers at bottom of selumn

Sunday School Lesson

JOSHUA: A CHOICE OF LOYALTIES

GOLDEN TEXT: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."-Joshua 24:15.

Lesson Text: Numbers 27: 15-23; Joshua 1: 1-9: 24: 1-31.

consisting of thisteen lessons, each their fathers to give them." (Joshua Take them out of the oven. Blend one of which takes up some out- 1:5-6.) ntil smooth and boil one minute standing leader of Israel, whose life While Joshua was very unlike his was successful or a failure insofar predecessor, Moses, he knew that as he followed the commands of he had a God-given task to perform God and had fellowship with him, and he went about to accomplish it. The aim of this series is to furnish It was Joshua's lot to be a religious guidance and enrichment for pres- warrior, to make a conquest for ent-day living by following the ex- God's chosen people and to provide degrees and bake 20 minutes more. these leaders as the case may be. the fact that the name "Joshua" of Israel to commit themselves deepmeans "God's salvation" and in the ly and irrevocably, to a position of a life of plenty and peace, and pow- provided his people ever since the er and joy and freedom as provided time of Abraham, and because of by God in Christ Jesus.

vegetables as much as % cup decreed that Moses would not be al- worshipping any other gods, as did an enemy as the Canaanites required all the courage a man could possess But Joshua was not afraid, for had not God declared: "There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee; I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. B strong and of good courage; for thou shall cause this people to in-This lesson begins a new course herit the land which I sware unto amples of avoiding the pitfalls of for them a permanent place of abode where they might grow into a united Our lesson for this week is a study God-loving and God-serving nation of the life of Joshua. Significant is It was his ambition to get the people this they owed him their service. Because of Moses' rebellion against their loyalty and their love, putting vidual ramekins stand in boiling journey and was one of the two spies his choice in words which come down grees. Serve piping hot with mush- land of Canaan, to bring back a and my house, we will serve Jehovah." He realized as we should After the death of Moses, Joshua realize, that he could not ask others heard the words of the Lord, saying: to do what he was not willing to do "Moses my servant is dead; now himself. He had long before made Cream Cheese Asparagus Salad | therefore arise, go over this Jordan, his choice, had remained true to Arrange crisp lettuce heart leaves thou, and all this people, unto the it during his long lifetime and was on individual salad plates. Place land which I do give to them, even satisfied with the choice he had

French dressing on the lettuce. Mix been called. To lead so great a "Choose you this day whom he cream cheese with 1/2 teaspoon salt. throng of people to try to take the will serve." As your choice is made, place of so great a leader as Moses, so will your destiny be shaped. Will

Louisa's Letter

Dear Louisa: I am a boy of 19 and I am in love to think that is too young for a with a girl near my own age. I boy like me to be married. What have written her a letter asking if I can I do? might go with her. In a letter she

I do in the future? Your friend evidently thought that than a physical one. you were "standing her up" to use the slang phrase of today, which written this letter as a joke, let me keep the engagement? In your letter you say that you harm as you do yourself. Cook an loot fulce, water and wrote her the next week but if that If you break the engagement it is ugar 10 minutes. Cool. Run apri- was the first word she had, explain- the gentlemanly thing to let people

> The only thing I see for you to do ter explaining again why it was impossible for you to be there. Then force people, or nations, to agree. tell her that you realize that it was very inconsiderate of you not to let her know at once why things happened as they did but, that if she will give you another chance, you will not let it happen again. Good luck, LOUISA country I have found another girl which I like best. I am very much puzzled whether to marry the girl that I am engaged to or the one I like best.

I am only 40 and mother seems

GROOM-TO-BE.

Pour to go. The next week I wrote her ANSWER: I think that you must have gotten date but she refused. What should our space mixed up with the F. L. column, "Groom-to-Be"-Maybe. Perhaps your mother is judging your age from a mental standpoint rather

However, in case you have not means deliberately breaking a date, say that it is never wise to marry Did you let her know as soon as pos- one girl, if you like another better, sible that you would be unable to even if you are engaged to the first one. You will be doing her as much > after a mutual understanding. LOUISA There is no law in the world to

ACHES AND PAINS GO LIKE MAGIC

Luebert's Ka-No-Mor Capsules girts or by mail.

A 30c package mailed to any suffered from PAIN (ONCE ONLY) for 15c to, cover mailing expenses.

A. G. Luebert, P.D., Coatesville, Page

Answers to Modern Etiquette is desired, but the most popular o-le, first a as in ask, second a as in hours are high noon or in the late day, o as in no, e as in let, accents on

2. No; his card should be engraved "Mr. Paul Reid, Jr." and his to do, unless the parcels are quite wife's "Mrs. Paul Reid, Jr." 3. With the knife and fork, never

4. Yes. However, when the builor in a cup without handles, it must a card that matches the paper of

The hat should be lifted.

6. The right arm.
12. Not unless the 7. It is a French phrase meaning, offers her hand first.

tanon and of guides small 10. Yes, it is customary to bring some gift, not valuable, but showing some care in selection

8. Yes; it is the courteous thing last syllable of each word.

11. This invitation is engraved on the church invitation and is the size 12. Not unless the elderly woman

5. No; it is unmannerly and lazy. of the latter when it is folded for the envelope.

mond, or striking at the Union of of the marched into marched into consultante, leaving total one and demine of the total state of

1. Any hour may be chosen that coffee with milk. Pronounce ka-fa