

LOCALS

—Miss Betty Bowman, of Clarion, is spending a month's vacation in Bellefonte with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Landis, at their home on East Linn street.
—James C. Bower, employed in the WPA offices in Harrisburg, spent the Fourth of July vacation in Bellefonte with his father, John J. Bower and family, at their home on East Linn street.
—A feature of a Fourth of July houseparty at the Mrs. Mary Gray summer cottage at Hecla Park was the celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mrs. and Mr. Harold Kirk, of West High street, Bellefonte.
—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morris and daughter, Joan, of Villas, Florida, and Mrs. Evelyn Morris, of Blairsville, spent Friday in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thomas, at their home on Thomas Street. Mr. Morris is a ranger in the Appalachian National Forest, Florida.
—Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hemphill and children, Edward and Nancy, of Clearfield, former residents of Bellefonte, stopped here Saturday en route to Bryn Mawr where they will spend a two weeks' vacation as guests of Mrs. Hemphill's sister, Mrs. H. W. Lee. Mr. Hemphill is employed in the office of the Pennsylvania Highway Department at Clearfield.
—The following Bellefonte young women are among a group spending this week at the O. A. Kilne cottage at Hecla Park; Mildred Reese, Margaret Reese, Geraldine Bunner, Alice Dowdell, Mary Messer, Allen Rossman, Margaret Dowdell, Betty Jones, Margaret Hevery and Charlotte Eschner, the latter of New York. Mrs. Eugene Sellers is acting as chaperone.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Bainbridge, of Webster, Pa., are the happy parents of a fine baby boy, born last week. The new arrival is the first child in the family and both he and Mrs. Bainbridge are reported to be getting along nicely. Mrs. Bainbridge, before her marriage, was Mrs. Helen Brown, of Bellefonte. Her husband is employed by the American Wire and Cable Company at Webster.
—Roy Held, of Madisonburg, employed as an enforcement officer for the State Liquor Control Board, at Indiana, Pa., who was a business caller at this office Friday, announced that he will be a candidate for Sheriff of Centre county next year. Mr. Held will seek election on the Republican ticket. Widely known throughout Penn's Valley, Mr. Held was formerly a forest ranger in the Madisonburg area, and is held in high regard.
—The following members of the Wetzler Girls' Band of Milesburg attended the annual banquet of that organization at the Autoport, South of State College, Friday evening. The following were present: Mrs. Mary Bryan, Mrs. Stella McKinley, Stella Bryan, Mrs. Marion Ross, Centre Hall; Kathryn Shope, Lock Haven; Ethel Gilliland, State College; Mawha Beezer, Mabel Houser, Ellen Hassinger and Lucy Watson, all of Bellefonte.
—James J. Letzler, of Milesburg, one of the foremost bass fishermen in the Bellefonte area, looked to his laurels during the weekend and succeeded in catching several nice bass while angling in Bald Eagle creek. Of a total of four bass taken, one measured 18 inches in length and another was 14 inches long. He caught them on grasshoppers. Letzler's companion, James Davidson, also of Milesburg, caught three nice bass. They were fishing in the Howard vicinity.
—The portrait of Governor Curtin, once in the possession of a W. K. McClure and recently sold by his wife at public auction, at the Freeman's auction rooms, in Philadelphia, was bid in by his granddaughters, Mrs. James D. Windsor, of "Hedley", Ardmore, for $225. The portrait was the work of Daniel Ridgeway Knight, who also did the "Burning of Chambersburg," which hung in the hall of the Curtin residence on High street. Ridgeway Knight later became one of the best painters of his time.
—Miss Kathleen Dersine, of St. John's General Hospital, Northside, Pittsburgh, was chosen as one of the nurses the National and State governments selected for duty at Gettysburg during the celebration and reunion there. One hundred nurses, selected from the larger hospitals in the state comprised the nursing staff. Miss Dersine was one of ten chosen at Pittsburgh. She is a daughter of the late John and Mrs. Catherine Dersine and was born and grew to womanhood here. After graduating from St. John's Hospital, Pittsburgh, she spent three years on the Pacific Coast. Eighteen months ago she returned to Pittsburgh.
—L. C. Heineman, secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., was called to Pittsburgh Wednesday of last week owing to the critical illness of his brother, Charles C. Heineman, of "Hitzburg," who was injured sometime ago in a motor accident. Mr. Heineman departed immediately for Pittsburgh but upon arriving at the Sewickley Valley Hospital, where his brother was under treatment, he learned that death had occurred just short time before. The funeral of the man was 57 years old last October and was employed as sales manager for a manufacturing company in that city. Mr. Heineman and his wife were injured when their car was struck by another machine near Pittsburgh some weeks ago. Mrs. Heineman had both legs and one arm fractured and is still under treatment at the Sewickley Valley Hospital. Mr. Heineman suffered a fractured leg, and his death resulted when an infection developed under the cast which had been placed on the member. The funeral was held Friday with interment in the Allegheny County Memorial Park. Surviving, in addition to the local Y. M. C. A. officials, are three other brothers and a sister.

—Last Thursday was the 51st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cassidy, of East Bishop street.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Blair, of Enola, spent the weekend in Bellefonte and vicinity as guests of relatives and friends of Mrs. Blair, who before her marriage was Miss Rosalie Yearick.
—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Sweeney, of Lemont, are the proud parents of a baby girl born to them yesterday morning at their home. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.
—Mrs. F. W. Wetzel and granddaughter, Elizabeth Ann Wetzel, and John Weaver, all of Milesburg, spent the Fourth of July weekend at Centreville, Md., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mingle and family.
—The July meeting of the Bellefonte Garden Club will be a basket picnic held at the cabin of Mrs. H. A. Rossman near Curtin, on Wednesday afternoon, July 13. The program includes a tramp through the woods for identification of wild flowers.
—Miss Marion McCloskey of Lock Haven, was a holiday guest of Harry E. Vonada at the home of his parents, Boyd C. Vonada and accompanied them to Gettysburg on Sunday, July 3, to witness the dedication of the Eternal Light Peace Movement by President Roosevelt.
—Jack Montgomery, of Rochester, N. Y., spent the Fourth of July season in Bellefonte with Mrs. Montgomery and their son, at the M. B. Runkle family home on North Spring Street. They had as their guests on the Fourth Mr. and Mrs. William Grimberg, of New Jersey.
—The festival committee of the Logan Drama Club met Tuesday evening, July 5, to discuss plans for their festival to be held in Noll's Grove at Pleasant Gap, August 11. The music will be furnished by Jim and Jane and their Western Vagabonds of radio station WRAC. The place at which the next meeting, July 11, is to be held, was changed from the State Park to the Seven Mountains to Hecla Park. Supper to be at 6 o'clock.
—Sunday visitors at the Harold Walker home at Bellefonte, R. D. were Mrs. T. W. Laird and daughter, Miss Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laird and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Laird and son, all of Sharrow, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Laird, and son of Lock Haven; Mr. J. S. Yearick, of Bellefonte, R. D.; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Walker and three children, of Yarnell, and Mrs. Austin Walker, of Bellefonte.
—Friday and Saturday only the following specials are on sale: your choice of any ladies' hat in our store for only 95c each. All bathing suits reduced to $2.00. All ladies' silk full fashioned hose, regular 79c quality for only 59c pair. Men's Blue Buckie overalls for only $1.00 a pair; men's summer-weight work suits, 8c pair; men's athletic union suits at 49c. The Lints Store, Bellefonte, Walter Cohen, manager.
—John Luther Dale, who will be known familiarly as "Jack," made his appearance in the world at the Centre County Hospital at 1 o'clock Saturday morning, to become the first child to be born to a member of the Bellefonte High School faculty in many a year. Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale, of East Bishop street, and tipped the scales at 8 pounds 3 ounces at birth. He is the first child in the family and both he and Mrs. Dale are reported to be getting along nicely.
—James R. Coxe, of Altoona, and William Moorhead of Indiana, Pa., were among those out-of-town who came here Tuesday for the funeral of Mrs. Ella Rothrock. Enroute to Bellefonte, Sunday, Mr. Coxe, who is related to the W. C. Coxe family of Bellefonte, and who is a licensed photographer in Altoona, stopped at Unionville to take several photos of Richard C. DuPont and the sailplane he landed on the Edward Flick farm there early Sunday afternoon after a motorless flight from Elmira, N. Y., where the national soaring contest is taking place.
—Friday marked the 21st anniversary of the arrival of the Rev. William E. Joyner in Bellefonte as rector of St. John's Catholic church. He came here from St. Thomas church, Bedford, to take charge of the parish made vacant by the sudden death of the Rev. Father P. McArdle. During his more than two decades of service in the community Father Joyner has become widely known and well liked, for his qualities of sportsmanship, broadness of view and his amiable disposition make him a welcome member of any group, regardless of religious affiliations.
—Winners of a period design contest sponsored by the Wolf Furniture Store, Bellefonte, were: 1st, $150 living room suite, Mrs. J. E. Taylor; 2nd, $125 dining room suite, Mrs. Samuel Tresler, East Curtin street; 3rd, $85 bedroom suite, Mrs. Lillian Crow, 118 Ahernost Street, State College; 4th, $49.50 oil range, P. M. Dubbs, E. Linn Street; 5th, $35.50 mattress, Mrs. Charles P. Smith, Pine Street; 6th, secretary desk, Dora E. Henninger, 429 E. College Ave. State College; and 7th, $25 lounge chair, Lenora Morgan, 303 E. Howard St. In addition 300 consolation prizes were awarded by the judges, Mayor H. P. Harris, and Thomas H. Mensch, Bellefonte, and William K. Uerich, State College.
—Local friends of the Haswell family of Williamsport, formerly of Bellefonte, will regret the loss of the death of Fred E. Haswell, aged 72, who passed away at the Williamsport Hospital at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Haswell was the father of Earl A. Haswell, and made his home here with his son until he died. He was a representative of the Prudential Insurance Company, was transferred to Williamsport from Bellefonte. In addition to the son, Earl, Mr. Haswell is survived by another son, Alfred, and a daughter, Mrs. Willard Foster, both of Williamsport. He was the last surviving member of his immediate family. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Bastian Funeral Home in Williamsport, and interment will be made in the Wildwood cemetery, that city. During the time the family resided in Bellefonte, they became well known and well liked throughout the central part of the county.

—Mr. D. R. Rumberger, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend in Hublersburg with relatives. While in town Saturday Mr. Rumberger took the time to call at our office.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bickett motored to Niagara Falls to spend the weekend and the Fourth as guests of their daughter, Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull and family. Upon their return to Bellefonte they were accompanied by Miss Erma Sloop, who had spent a week's vacation in that city as a guest of Miss Bickett.
—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lewis and family, who for the past four years have occupied one side of the G. Edward Haupt house on East Linn street, will move to the new Mrs. R. N. Mull house on West Curtin street. The Mill property, present tenants of the Hill family, are reported to be planning to move into an apartment.
—Charles L. Gates, for the past 34 years an editor of the Democratic Watchman, is taking his first vacation in that time this week. He and his daughter, Winifred, an employee of the West Penn Power Company, went to Philadelphia, Tuesday, and from there expected to go wherever their fancy dictated for the remainder of the week.
—Mrs. Joseph Lannan, of Lock Haven, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith, of Alliance, Ohio, spent the weekend and the Fourth at the old Smith homestead near Bellefonte. G. W. Smith and family are the present occupants of the homestead farm. Mr. Smith, E. H. Smith and Mrs. Lannan being brothers and sister.
—Louis H. Brown and daughter Nancy and son-in-law, Richard and James departed yesterday for their home on Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, after having spent a month or more in Bellefonte as guests of Mrs. J. M. Bricker, at her home on Reynolds avenue. Mrs. Brown will remain here until another daughter, Mary, returns from the trip to Europe. Which was given her as a graduation present.
—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tresler, of Bellefonte, with the former's sister, Mrs. H. C. Burkett, of Warriors Mark, last Tuesday motored to Atlantic City, having been called there owing to the death of Walter B. Kauffman, a relative. They attended the funeral services Friday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Miles Wetzel and two children of Gosden, Ind., are visiting at the home of Mr. Wetzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetzel and Mrs. Wetzel's home, the Clara Barnhart family at Pleasant View. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Wetzel, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetzel and Miss Mary Wetzel are planning a trip for this weekend that will take them through the Shenandoah Valley with headquarters at the Weasel-Parrow home near New Market, Va. to see the Chunchills.
—Mr. and Mrs. Cordes Snyder, of Scranton, well known former residents of Centre county, were guests at the home of Thomas Beaver and family on West Curtin street during the weekend, going from here to Philadelphia where they were joined by their son, now a resident of Pittsburgh, for several days vacation. Saturday a motor party consisting of Mr. Snyder, Mr. Beaver, Newell B. Long, L. Frank Weaver and John McCoy motored to Gettysburg to spend the day attending the festivities in connection with the Blue and Gray reunion on the Gettysburg battlefield.
—Miss Cecel A. Walker and young daughter, Margaret, of the Driscoll apartments, departed Tuesday for Pittsburgh where the little girl will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ed. Walker, at the home of the latter, 906 W. 3rd St., Lock Haven, Pa. Phone 629-3.
—Wanted—I am in the market for hogs, cattle, sheep, calves, and chickens. Write to R. H. McClellan, 307 W. 3rd St., Lock Haven, Pa. Phone 629-3.
—Articles for Sale
FOR SALE—Trespass and no Sunday Fishing signs at the Centre Democrat office. 10¢
FOR SALE—Black cap M. Respiration, ready about July 1st. 27¢
FOR SALE—White Leptorn cookstove, Nine weeks old, William H. Bechtel, Blanchard, Pa. Eggsville Station. 27¢
FOR SALE—Delco light plant and battery, complete, 32 volt, 32 watt generators. P. A. Humpton, Lane, Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—Modern Electric Brooder, One year old, 300 capacity, Cost $40.00. Bargain. Beck Farm, York, Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—Red and Black raspberries, Start picking July 1st. Pick every day except Sundays. Edward T. Walker, Wingate, Penna. Box 35. 27¢
FOR SALE—A chick brooder 250 capacity with chicken and I do not intend to raise any more day old chicks. W. H. Baird, Bellefonte, R. D. Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—2 story frame barn 24x34 ft. galv. roof contains 13 squares, 1st floor dining room, 2nd floor, flower plants, Geo. J. Bohn, Lemont, Pa. Dial 3633. 27¢
FOR SALE—One 750 watt automatic Delco light plant with 32 D. C. volt motors and 10 light bulbs. Price $60.00. Inquire G. W. Tresler, 222 Willowbank St., Bellefonte, Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—Lucas post, wire fence, posts, 6 1/2 and 7 feet, price 20c. Delivered anywhere in Centre and Clinton counties. Also saved posts, Fred Wheland, Alexandria, Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—Sort or hard coal, while the price is down. Also wood, building material and top soil. Or phone for a lumber camp. Write to Sam Capperelli, Coleville, Pa. Phone 347-7. 27¢
FOR SALE—Hundreds of used tires, all sizes from 15 to 26 inch rims. Backed by written guarantee. Price $1.00. Inquire G. W. Tresler, Willowbank St., Bellefonte, Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—Federal Power Plant, approximately 40 H. P., 2 bag stens like new, 1-36" Band Saw, and 1-20" Pony Lumber Co. Good as new. O. W. Housley Lumbar Co., State College, Pa. 27¢
FOR SALE—Used McCormick-Deering No. 12 enclosed gear type tractor, 1000 lbs. net weight, 1-36" Band saw, distributor pipe and shredder. Barn. M. H. Beis, Howard, Pa. Phone Howard 3791. 27¢

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McGinnley, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. McHenry's brother, Raymond Leitch, of Howard, motored to Crystal Beach, Canada, where they spent the weekend and the Fourth.
—The Misses Kay Yost, Sylvia Hutton, Eleanor McDonnell and Lona Hunson, nurses at the Geisinger Hospital, Danville, spent the Fourth with Miss Janet Lyons at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lyons, on Willowbank street.
—A penny used to replace a blown-out fuse was assigned as the cause of a slight fire in the P. M. Blair apartment in the "Little Bush Arcade" building, West High street, last Saturday night. Total damage was estimated at about $5. Both fire companies responded to a general alarm.
—Mr. Joseph Cook and son Richard, of Clearfield, arrived in town Sunday for a visit with Mr. Cook's father, Charles F. Cook and daughter. Charles has been a resident of Clearfield since 1914 and is employed by the McWilliams Letter Service Company.
—Dr. Paul Gorman, George Harvey, George GIBBNEY and Dr. Richard Hoffman, will leave Saturday for Lake Batiste, Canada, where they will spend a week fishing for bass and pickerel.
—Mrs. Rosie Ward, and daughter, of Prossertown, departed Tuesday for Philadelphia where they are spending a week with Mrs. Ward's sisters, one of whom, Mary, will sail for Europe today.
—As a result of a golf match at the Nittany Country Club, Sunday, between teams made up of players from Linn and Curtin streets, the Linn street outfit defeated their Curtin street opponents by a score of 37 1/2 to 19 1/2. Consequently the losing team will entertain the Linn street team at a buffet supper to be held at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening, July 10, at the club house.
DEAD STOCK—Removed promptly. Call anytime at my expense, phone 676-3, Lloyd L. Smith, Milesburg, Pa. 14¢
FIRE INSURANCE—At a reduced rate twenty percent less than the premium. J. M. Ketchum, Temple Court Bellefonte, Pa. 25¢
GLASSES REDUCED—Having lately installed new lens grinding machinery am prepared to furnish glasses at very attractive prices. Also ear glasses just out for those who desire effective hearing. Large and complete stock German Artificial Eyes. You can do better here than elsewhere. Tribbins' Pharmacy, Clara M. Tribbins, Druggist & Optical Goods, The Sight and Hearing Aid Store, Beech Creek, Pa. 25¢
E-ZINE—Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. The new "E-ZINE" remedy for Asthma, Hay Fever, Catarrh, Sinus Infections, and shortness of breath in general. Guaranteed to make you breathe E-Z as well as any other remedy extant. No money refunded. We import this remedy direct from the manufacturer. Prepared in the laboratories of THE TRIBBINS PHARMACY, Beech Creek, Pa. Price 60c. via prepaid mail 65c. One whole month treatment. See what you buy E-Z will give you. 14¢
FESTIVALS
FESTIVAL—The Advent cemetery Association will hold their annual festival on Saturday, July 23rd. Place not published. 22¢
FESTIVAL—The annual festival of the Hubbers Cemetery Association Inc. will be held in Hubbersburg Pa. Saturday July 16 in Hubbersburg 22¢
FESTIVAL—The Fairview cemetery Assn. will hold a festival on the school grounds of Hubbersburg, Pa. of Curtin, Pa. on Saturday, July 9th. Music and entertainment. 22¢
FESTIVAL—Marion Grange No. 223 will hold a festival on Saturday, August 13, at Jacksonville, Pa. will be furnished by "Jim and Jane" and their Western Vagabond radio artists. All the delicacies of the season on sale. Come one, come all. 22¢
FESTIVAL—Walker Grange No. 2007 of Hubbersburg will hold a festival on the school grounds, Saturday evening, July 30, 1938. Music will be furnished by a good band, games of all kinds, all delicacies of the season on sale. 22¢
FESTIVAL—The P. O. S. of A. will hold "Ye Old Time Community Festival" at Salona, Saturday evening, July 23rd, 1938. Music will be furnished by the Hubbersburg Community Band of Lock Haven. Entertainment for young and old. Refreshments of all kinds will be for sale. 22¢
FESTIVAL—The Trinity Reformed church school of Hubbersburg will hold a festival at the High School building on Saturday evening, August 13, 1938. Music will be furnished by "Jim and Jane" and their Western Vagabond radio artists. All of the usual refreshments and entertainments will be available for your enjoyment. 22¢
ANNOUNCEMENTS
TEST MEETING—At Mann's School House, beginning July 9th, by the Brethren in Christ. Come one, come all. Free will contributions along. Everybody welcome.
MEETING—The Snydertown Cemetery Association will hold a meeting on Thursday evening, July 14, in the basement of the church. All business to be transacted. All parties interested are asked and urged to be present.
SHAWLEY REUNION—The Shawley reunion will be held in Miller's Grove, near Yarnell, on Sunday, July 31. All friends and relatives of the Shawley clan are invited to bring your own basket and enjoy a real day's outing.
WALKER REUNION—The 1938 Annual Walker Reunion will be held on Saturday, July 23rd, 1938, at the home of Plummy Wilson, one mile east of Warriors Mark on the Center Line Road. All welcome. If you cannot attend, we would be pleased to receive a line from you. Rev. H. N. Walker, Secretary, Bellefonte, Pa. 22¢
PERSONAL
NOTICE—Party is known who took parcel from car parked at side of Court House Saturday night. Return to Shamus Allegheny street, or to questions will be asked. Mark parcel J. S. L. 22¢
PUBLIC SALES
THURSDAY, JULY 7—The First National Bank of State College, Pa., Executive Room, will have public sale of second hand automobiles, tools, accessories, and other equipment. Sale starts at 9 o'clock. For more advertisement elsewhere in this issue for the public sale where the various items will be sold. Terms cash. E. M. Smith, auct. W. Harrison Walker, attorney.
SATURDAY, JULY 9—Mrs. S. M. Hindman, auct. at public sale at her home 1 mile east of Alexandria, Pa., a full line of household goods. Sale at 1 p. m. Terms cash. H. L. Harpster, auct.
POSTPONED—The Administrator's sale of the John Walker estate, which was to have been held on the premises near Rumlun on Saturday, July 9, has been postponed indefinitely. W. Harrison Walker, attorney for the estate, announced yesterday.
FOR SALE!
New Brooder Houses, Laying Houses, Corn Cribs, Silos, Garages & Storage Sheds (Free and Frost) Will Deliver WAYNE LIGHT, ANNVILLE, PA.
FREE MOVIES!
—AT—
HECLA PARK
Sunday Night
WANTED—Dead, old and disabled cows, horses and mules, removed free. Vets Rendering Works, Clearfield, Prop. Centre Hall, Pa. Phone 55-3-4 at our expense. 14¢
NOTICE TO FARMERS—We pulverize your lime-stones and lime on your farms, and sell you pulverizer lime-stones of the highest chemical analysis. Write or see at once E. S. Bly, West Main St., Harrisburg, Pa. 24¢
TO RHEUMATICS—Send for free booklet on Rheumatism. Try Tribbins Triple Remedies for Rheumatism, Rheumatoid, Gout, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Migraine and Aikalis $1.00. Mentrol (Rheumatism Drops) 50c. Knead Oil Rubbing 75c. Oil or Electric and acetylene welding, power mower knives sharpened while you wait, cap bolts, set screws, roller steel in stock. Swartz Machine Shop, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 32-38. 24¢
Garden Plants
FOR SALE—Disease proof late cabbage plants, also cauliflower plants. Frank Nelson, 22 E. Lamb Street, Bellefonte, Phone 600-A. 24¢