

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

Veteran car salesman, Carl Furst, of McClellan's Chevy Co., State College, delivered a handsome new Chevy sedan the past week to Chas. A. Snyder.

The Colonial farm house on the E. A. Homan homestead is being beautified with new coat of white paint. Porter and Weber have the contract.

Prof. A. Brooks and Robert I. Corl with their wives motored to Gettysburg Sunday July 3rd to be among the crowd at the Blue and Gray reunion.

Driver and farmer, Guy Koehler and family were entertained Sunday, at the John Koehler home at Fairbrook.

The members of the Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed their annual picnic last Wednesday evening at Green Lee park, Huntingdon county.

At O'Bryan's house sale July 2nd, the real estate was hammered down to Pay Randolph, the present tenant at $1550.00.

Mrs. Ruth Little of Tyrone and a party of friends passed through our town last Thursday for a week's camping outing at Whipples Dam.

Popular Insurance Agent, Harold Albright and wife of State College, spent the past weekend in Greensburg, guests of the former's brother, Ralph Albright and wife.

Genial 'Sorley' Leich of Shingletown was bright and early Thursday a. m. caller in our town.

Over the wires today from Chambersburg comes the news of Dr. Stork dumping a pair of twin boys at the John Kessinger home. Mrs. Kessinger will be remembered as the former Miss Ada Koch of our burg.

Farmer E. T. Parsons of Tadpole, is re-roofing his barn with corrugated iron.

E. D. Isenberg was discharged from Phillipsburg State Hospital Monday and is now at his Bellefonte home under care of a trained nurse.

Hugh C. Fry of Smethport, motored down Saturday evening to spend the weekend at his parental home, also to spend some time with his uncle Dr. H. L. Fry and family of Nashville, Tenn., who spent several days at the Fry home in Rock Springs, they departed for their Southern home Monday by way of Philadelphia, where the Dr. will visit his Alma Mater, U. of P.

Prof. Ernest Gilliland enjoyed a happy 4th of July vacation by basking in the sands with a party of friends at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gates of State College were Sunday guests at the L. B. Barto home. The family enjoyed their dinner at Tussey Tower on top of 2nd Mountain.

The Roy Lauck family returned the past week from a 10 days fishing outing to the far north. Now all the clerks in the Martz store can tell big fish tales.

Popular thresherman John W. Miller is manipulating the wheel of a new Studebaker sedan.

Miss Mary E. Ripka was an important Bellefonte caller last Monday evening.

Mrs. Madaiene Hawn and two daughters of Petersburg, were pleasant weekenders at her parental home, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland.

Paul Campbell Esq., of Bellefonte, was a business visitor in our town representing the heirs at the O'Bryan sale.

Reports are that David Frank will soon become a resident of State College with a nice position in the post-office.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tate of Pittsburg spent their Independence day vacation in State College, guests of his mother, Mrs. A. J. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess Tate.

Farmer F. Reno Fry is driving a brand new Ford V-8 purchased of the Ford Huntingdon Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Dewiler, Mr. and Mrs. Budd Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nicodemus, Mr. and Mrs. John Lytle, Mrs. Esther Richey and C. Milton Fry, all of the Mountain City are visitors with their friends here in our valley Sunday.

Our good friend Prof. Roy Decker, of State College was a business caller among the granges in W. Ferguson last Thursday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bursell, Misses Ethel and Mary Burwell, and Mrs. Leona Fry motored to W. Va. Saturday to attend the annual Burwell reunion Sunday at Morgantown. They returned to their homes Monday p. m.

Electric storm in the vicinity Monday night turned off electric lights, knocked off two transformers; Willis Weavers telephone was torn to pieces from the wall; the E. D. Isenberg house was set on fire but no damage. All telephone connections were severed.

The Edward Mayes family fitted to their newly purchased farm near Seven Stars. 'The Mayes' were formerly Ferguson Twp. farmers and Mrs. Mayes was the former Miss Nancy Heberling who taught a good many of us the 3's.

Lamar Sawmill Razed by Fire (Continued from page one)

ers to the scene. There was plenty of water available from a cistern and Dry Run nearby but the fire had such a start that it was two hours before it was finally brought under control.

The mill was completely destroyed, the loss being estimated by Mr. Platt at $20,000. He had no insurance. Workmen began to clear away the debris Tuesday morning and the mill will be rebuilt immediately so that operations can be resumed as quickly as possible.

One pile of lumber outside the mill was partly burned, the rest being saved. Firemen were aided by the absence of wind during the blaze.

—$1.89 Sale Yeager's.

MILESBURG

Mrs. Nellie Murphy of Phillipsburg, was a recent visitor at the home of her niece Mrs. Ralph Miller and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Alma Alexander. Fred is attending the six weeks summer session at State College.

Billy Davidson cut his foot quite badly while swimming in Bald Eagle Creek on Saturday. He was taken to the office of a physician where the wound was attended to.

Mrs. Sarah Knarr is slightly improved at this writing.

On Saturday afternoon while sitting on her porch, Mrs. Emma Smith heard a crash, upon investigating it was found that nearly all the plaster had fallen from the living room ceiling. Just lucky no one was in the room at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fochler and young son of Bavaria, were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Fochler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hall.

Mrs. Harriet Zimmerman recently motored to Akron, Ohio, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hanna of Lynnwood, where they had a pleasant visit with Mrs. Lizzie Kibler and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Funk, nieces of Mrs. Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sowers, Sonny, and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Watson left here Monday by motor for a vacation at Atlantic City "Happy Landings folks."

Visitors here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobbs and young son of Oscococ and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hall of Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and son Jesse, motored to Lock Haven, Sunday with J. C. Wensel, to attend the funeral of Edward C. Shade, a cousin of Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Charney York and son Ralph, of Canton, North Carolina are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Alkey of Central City.

A temporary organization of the lot owners of the Trezilyney cemetery was formed on Saturday afternoon last. An annual meeting will be held Thursday July 28th at 8 o'clock in the evening. At this meeting officers will be elected for the ensuing year. All lot owners are urged to be present. Other business of interest will be transacted.

Anne Peters visited part of last week at Unionville with Miss Louise Pike.

Paye Stanley of Baltimore, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley is visiting her grandma Mrs. Della Stanley.

Contrary to current reports the three young ladies who figured in the automobile accident last Friday night are some what improved. Estella Confer and Jane Leitzeil, the two most seriously injured are patients in the hospital. Lillian Thomas escaped with some bruises and brush burns. From the condition of the car we consider them very lucky indeed.

Miss Anna Snyder of Tyrone is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Frank Hall and her son Clarence Snyder and wife in the Knarr apartments, Mrs. Hall had as supper guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall and daughter of Tyrone, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fisher and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hall of Bellefonte.

VALLEY VIEW

William Gherrity had a very nice surprise last week, when his sister, whom he had not seen for a number of years, came to pay him a visit.

Master Cyrus Wion is home to spend the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wion.

Miss Dorothy Miller, her brother and his wife of Ford City, spent a day with Mrs. Forest Eckley.

Miss Hilda Corman who had been ill is able to be about again, and will return to work in the Commissioners office.

The Sunday School teacher served ice cream and cake to their classes on Saturday evening. Music was furnished by Andrew, Jacob, and Willis Houser, Earl and James Wion and Paul E. Eckley.

Pauline Houser and Lorena Rider spent Sunday with their grandfather, Mr. Thomas King.

Those who spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wion were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gardner and two children, Mrs. Andrew Houser and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Wion, Marlin Houser, Paul E. Eckley, May and Marjie Hampton.

Mildred and Gladys Behers spent Sunday with their sister Mrs. Bruce Corman.

Morris Houser spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Houser.

BOALSBURG

Dorothea Noll of Linden Hall spent Sunday with Jane Hazel.

Mrs. J. O. Norris of Altoona, was a recent visitor with her sister Mrs. Nell Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Meyer spent Sunday with relatives at Penn Hall. Charles Segner left Saturday for Wisconsin where he will spend some time with relatives.

Betty Lou Goheen of Indiana, spent several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Myers.

The Live Wire Class of the Boalsburg Lutheran church will hold a festival at Boalsburg Wednesday night July 20. Music will be furnished by the Troseville Band.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brouse and sons of Norristown were recent guests of Mrs. Emma Brouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smetzer and son spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Ella Gingrich.

Miss Mary Reish and Nora Miller spent Sunday with relatives at Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Graham announce the birth of a son James Irvin at the Centre County Hospital, Friday July 8. Mrs. Graham was the former Maude Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline, Misses Nellie and Annie Holter, of Howard, were callers at the George Matherbaugh home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patterson and children and Kathryn Gingrich spent Tuesday in Williamsport.

Er. Hugh L. Fry and family of Nashville, Tenn., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kimpfort.

REBERSBURG

The Woodstock Typewriter that was changed off on July 4, 1938 by the Rebersburg Athletic Association was won by Mr. Roy Frankhouser, 207 Park Ave., Ephrata, Pa.

Miss Lorna Jane Hosterman of Coburn, spent several days last week with her friend Miss Marjorie Brungart.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock attended the Booneville Camp ground special services on Monday night of this week where the former was speaker on that occasion.

Mrs. Rose Gramley visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Steward Wolfe of Jersey Shore during the past week.

Mahlon Cummings, who is employed at Morrisdale, spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hartman and daughter Jean, were Sunday callers with friends and relatives at Ingleby.

Mrs. Roy Brungart and daughter Marjorie spent several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Meek of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wolfe visited with Mr. and Mrs. Rube Musser of Woodward on Sunday.

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller were, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller and Leonard Ard of Brackney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Jr., and family, of Jeannette, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Miller and three children of Ambridge, Pa., and Mary Miller of State College.

Mrs. Harry Fryer of Wilkingsburg, spent several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory.

Miss Peggy Lou Benson of Lansing, Mich., arrived on Monday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Adah Bierly, where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. Jennie Weber of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary Louise Kelley of Philadelphia, visited with the latter's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Kelly, several days this week.

Mrs. Eugene Smull and two daughters, Katherine and Phyllis, and son Charles, returned to their home at Pittsburg, on Friday after spending two weeks at Gravel Spring Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings attended the funeral of Mrs. Marie of Tusseyville on Saturday.

Mrs. George Brown and daughter Bessie Brown of Elkhart, Ind., visited at the home of Mrs. Emma Corman during the weekend. Mrs. Brown will be remembered as Clara Hackman, who formerly resided in this town.

Miss Betty Miller returned to her home after spending several weeks with friends at Hummelstown.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart and family, Melvin Bright, Lester Westans, and Dean Cephaat were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Merrill Brungart and family of Coburn.

Miss Ruth Bierly left Saturday for an extended visit with friends at Carlisle.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno Lopley and the latter's daughter Helen Reish, and Miss Anna Elizabeth Homan, and Mrs. Charles H. Wolfe of State College, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Reish.

Miss Jeopetie Hackenberg and Master Robert Hackenberg of Penna Creek visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, who live east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Weiser of Thompsonstown, and Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz and Mr. Lee Swartz of Millheim, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Helen Shultz.

S. O. Mallory is suffering from an infected arm, due to a minor injury received some time ago while doing some carpenter work at the Halfway CXC camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Diehl and family of New Stanton were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Ella Diehl.

Miss Marion Reiff of New Cumberland, spent several days last week at the Rev. A. J. Miller home.

Miss Eleanor Knopp of Millfennsburg is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Arbogast and family.

Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg returned to her home on Monday after being a medical patient in the Centre County Hospital for some time. Her two daughters Mrs. Russell Zacharis of Altoona and Mrs. C. F. Callerman of Hancock are at the Hackenberg home taking care of their mother.

Mrs. Alice Crouse spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Housman of Millheim.

The Misses Edythe and Lois Bierly were business visitors at State College on Monday. Master Donnie Lee returned to Rebersburg with them where he will visit at the S. A. Bierly home for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weaver of Lemont, were Sunday callers at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Jr.

Miss Beth Harbo of Williamsport, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harbach last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rahan and son Larry of Bellefonte, were Sunday guests with the latter's mother, Mrs. Edith Gentzel.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Meek and family of Bellefonte visited among relatives in town Sunday.

The Misses Gladys Ziegler and Jean Hartman spent Thursday of last week with friends at Millheim.

Guy Ostrando of Lewistown, visited several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Page.

William Burd, who lives east of town, had been on the sick list but is improved at this writing.

The Mench family and Miss Lodie Winklebeck of Millfennsburg, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Guisewite.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arbogast and four daughters attended the Arbogast reunion which was held at Hecla Park on Sunday.

Mrs. E. J. Weaver's mother from Orbisonia is spending some time at the former's home.

YEAGER'S SHOE STORE

Nothing Over $1.89

MEN'S White Oxfords

BELLEFONTE, PA.

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY

JACKSONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Church services on Sunday, July 17 are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 6:40. Topic for discussion How to Choose good Hymns.

Wednesday visitors at the Miles Barley home were Philip Neff of West Chester, Mrs. Harry Coder and children Chester, Alta and John of Mill Hall and Mrs. C. L. Neff and daughters Sara Jane and Lillian of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy Lou of Centre Hall were Monday evening supper guests at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ueber of Coldwater, New York spent a few days last week at the home of the latter's father Mr. Elmer Swope and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harter and children of St. Louis, Mo., spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harter's brother William Beightol and family.

Mrs. N. H. Yearick is spending some time at the home of her son Nevin Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Weight and daughter Elhona of Howard, spent Thursday at the E. R. Bartley home assisting Mrs. Anna Robb in quilting a fancy quilt, afternoon participants were Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. Cecil Hery and son Robert of Bellefonte, R. D. 2 and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher of Little Nittany and evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Haagen and daughter Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vonada and son Paul of Little Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeland and children Doris and Duane of Pine Grove Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McGhee and daughters Eleanor and Barbara of Port Matilda, spent Sunday with their sister Mrs. Sumner Neill and family.

Majorie Delz of Lock Haven, spent the weekend here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Delz.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Munro and daughter Marlon, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller and Miss Edith Swope, all of Lock Haven spent Thursday evening at the Elmer Swope home.

Misses Cyrene Newcomb, of Bellefonte and Mildred Aley and Jack Mabus of Hecla Park spent Tuesday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mrs. Robert Conway and children accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter and daughters to Beech Creek on Thursday evening and attended the Old Home Week Festival at which time the Smokey Mt. Boys were the musical entertainers and sure did their part well, to a very large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager and son Arthur of Mt. Eagle, spent Saturday evening at the E. R. Bartley home.

Philip and Carl Bartley spent Monday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Neff of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harter and children of St. Louis, Mo., accompanied by Mrs. Lula Aley spent Wednesday evening at the home of the latter's brother Charles Beightol of Howard.

Mrs. Florence Rossman and daughter, Mrs. White and husband, were Sunday evening visitors at the John Dietz home.

Mrs. Rebecca Bartley, accompanied her uncle Philip Neff and grandfather C. L. Neff and daughters Sara Jane and Lillian, early Tuesday morning on a motoring trip to the Ocean then back through up through the New England states Canada and to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, expecting to return home by next Saturday night, the motorist have our best wishes for a very enjoyable trip and safe return.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller of Lock Haven, spent Sunday at the Elmer Swope home.

Mrs. Ruth Walker and daughter Betty spent Saturday evening at the William Beightol home, Sunday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Anna Robb called at the Jacob Fry and John Zeiler homes on Sunday afternoon.

The sweltering heat of the past week and the local showers which we are receiving are making the corn crop look far more favorable but very uneven.

A very pleasant surprise birthday dinner was held at the William Beightol home on Sunday, July 10, in honor of Mrs. Boone's 64th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Boone and sons Jim, Boyd, Edward and Dean, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers and children Dean, Irvin, Lee, Lloyd, Paul, Harold and Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rogers and daughter Fern, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hery and son Robert of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, William Rogers of Nittany, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Poorman and children Mary, Junior, Erdine and Stanley, Mrs. Mary Poorman of Romola, Wilson Boone and son Grant, of Marsh Creek, Miss Elizabeth Boone and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carner and daughter Natalie of Zion, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCaleb and daughters Ethel and Ruth, George and Daniel Boone and Miss Esther Heck of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children, Billy, Ronald and Elaine of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Dolan and daughter Shirley of Fox Hollow.

Mrs. Boone received some very nice and useful gifts. Every one present spent a very enjoyable day especially at the noon hour when the table was heavily laden with the good things that satisfy the inner man, all departed wishing Mrs. Boone many more happy birthdays.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.

On Monday of this week William Weaver stood on some round pole wood and to his misfortune the wood gave away throwing him against the bumper of his car and as he is pursuing three cracked ribs.