

PERSONALS, ANNOUNCEMENTS, CHURCH NEWS, OF

UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Methodist Church Services: Prayer service this Thursday evening...

Class Meeting: The members of the Ladies Bible class of the Methodist church held their regular monthly business meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Showers up the Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McElwain and daughter Betty Ann, left last week by auto for a vacation and spent the time visiting with friends in West Virginia and the southern part of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Nettie Rodkey, of McKeesport, spent several days the latter part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Julia Parsons. She returned to her home on Saturday afternoon.

Tennis Club News: The progress of the Tennis Club in the community has been somewhat at a standstill on account of lack of funds with which to finish the work. On last Saturday evening they held an old-time festival on the school lawn which netted them a nice sum and they expect to have the court ready for playing in the near future.

Mr. Ralph Smith left last week with Rev. and Mrs. Garrett to attend the camp meeting being held at Fort Allegany. The meeting returned to their home on Friday while Ralph remained with friends for a few days, and looking for employment in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Van Valin, of Philadelphia, were over night guests of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Smith, of this place. Raymond is one of our former town boys who is employed in the Witherspoon Building at Philadelphia.

Mr. J. H. Finch in company with Mr. and Mrs. William Summers and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell of this place, spent the weekend visiting with the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Miller, at Sharon.

Mrs. Almeda Steg and granddaughter, Rhea Henderson, spent last week visiting with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Miller, of Sharon. They returned to their home on Saturday.

Mrs. M. M. Ryan, of Osceola Mills, was a Tuesday afternoon and evening guest of Mrs. H. J. Keenan and called on other friends in the community while here. Mrs. Ryan and her family were former residents of this community.

Some unknown but suspicious persons politely relieved Roy Calhoun of a new battery which he had recently placed in his truck and which was parked along the side of his property here, one evening last week. They also took one of Rev. Naylor's pigs. Investigations are being made and the guilty parties will be brought to justice sooner or later unless restitution is made promptly.

Miss Eva Rowan is quite anxious to dispose of her property here in town and which can be purchased at a reasonable price. A two-story frame house with large lot, out-buildings including a nice garage, electric lights and city water in the house. Call on her at any time and see for yourself.

Mr. Roy Calhoun has been busy recently cutting out logs on the farm of Miss Ida Williams at Martha with which he is having lumber made to build an addition to his property here. He expects to build a kitchen with a garage underneath.

Mr. J. E. Brink with some assistance is painting his property here with a fresh coat of white paint.

Free Methodist Services: Unionville—Church, prayer service Friday evening in the church. Sunday school on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m., followed by class meeting. Preaching service in the evening at 7:30, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett. Bellefonte—Prayer service Thursday evening, Sunday school on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, followed by the preaching service at 11 a. m., with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Paul Resides went to Philadelphia last week and took an examination to enter the Williamson Trade School at Media. We trust he will be successful in his efforts.

Mr. Cleveland Holtzworth arrived in town the latter part of last week and is now staying with his father, J. Blair Holtzworth, at the Holtzworth home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams left last Saturday by auto for Philadelphia, where they picked up Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nason and son, John Roland, and Miss Nell Williams, and proceeded on Sunday morning for Canada where they are spending a couple weeks vacation visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nason, parents of Mr. Charles Nason.

Mrs. Leon Durst and children, of Clearfield, are spending a couple of weeks at the J. R. Williams farm up the Dix Run and taking care of the stock while Mr. and Mrs. Williams are away.

We were sorry to learn of the death of one of our former residents, in that of Mr. John Rich, who has been in the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown, Pa. for the past several years. Death occurred on Monday morning after Mr. Rich had been ill for some time prior. Interment was made in Elizabethtown, Tuesday.

Our community was again saddened on learning of the death of Mr. Lincoln Miller, husband of the former Florence Finch, sister of J. H. Finch, of this place. He was a resident of Sharon, Pa., and had been ill for some time past. Mr. Finch and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Summers, were at the home at the time of the death. The body was brought to the Wesley Funeral Parlor on Tuesday where it remained until Wednesday when the funeral was conducted from the parlor and interment made at Curtin. Most sincere sympathies are extended to the family and friends in their hour of bereavement.

Another death occurred on Saturday evening of one of our esteemed residents, in that of Mr. William Sheets, who had been ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Cartwright, at Philipsburg. Mr. Sheets was a member of the Methodist church of this place and a faithful attendant of the Young People's Epworth League. We extend our most sincere sympathies to the friends and relatives at this time.

Medical Contest: A "Declamatory Silver Medal Contest" will be held at this place in the Methodist church, on Monday evening, July 25th, at 8 o'clock, under the supervision of the W. C. T. U. of this place. The young people need your encouragement, come and hear them. Speakers from out of town are expected to enliven the occasion, and with singing and music it should be a most enjoyable affair. Mr. Donald McElwain, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McElwain, of this place, accompanied his uncle, J. Ward Tate, of Salona, on a business trip to Harrisburg on Tuesday.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McElwain on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward and son Paul, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Woodring and sons Johnnie and Howdy, and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Miller and daughter Marylin, all of Tyrone.

Class Meeting: The members of the Young Ladies' Sunday School Class of the Methodist church will hold their regular monthly business meeting next Tuesday evening, July 26th, at the home of Mr. L. C. McElwain.

Miss Marion Flick returned home last week end from Pittsburgh where she had been visiting with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowser, she having gone to Pittsburgh with them after they had spent the Fourth here with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flick of Uniontown.

Mrs. Margaret Grove and two daughters, Margaret and Frances, of St. Augustine, Florida, arrived in town on Tuesday of this week, having been visiting with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Russell DeLong, of Bristol, Pa. They are guests at the Holtzworth home.

We are sorry to report the condition of Miss Sara Kate Resides in the Centre County Hospital is not improved at this writing. She is in a very serious condition from which in many friends hope she will recover.

A number of folks from here attended the picnic at Moshannon Dam on Wednesday afternoon, sponsored by the Republican Council of Women of Centre County.

Those who attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Hershey from July 11 to 16, were Anna Davidson, Loraine Miller, Ellen Emehiser, Elizabeth Jodon, Mary Tomb, Gladys Bathurst, Phyllis Sholl, Elizabeth Sheetz, Rhoda Sheets, Mrs. Lizzie Sheetz, son Paul and Mrs. Flora Walker.

We understand the Highway Market is to change hands. The new managers will be Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rifer.

Mr. Harry Peters and daughter, Lois, of Renovo, were visitors here Sunday. Going from here to Philadelphia to visit Mrs. Peters, who underwent an operation in a hospital there. Reports are that she is getting along nicely.

Mr. Bruce Peters spent Sunday in Pleasant Gap with her brother, Harry McClellan, and niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Corman.

Mr. L. G. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gillen, of Bellefonte, left here Saturday morning for Philadelphia where they picked up Mrs. Peters. The party are now touring the New England States and will return home by way of Canada, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and son Earl, of Bellefonte, R. D., spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. John A. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sheeley and daughters Adeline and Ruth, spent Sunday evening at Tusseyville with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer.

Mrs. C. W. Meyers entertained her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Pardee, and daughters Gloria, Betty and Margaret, of Bellefonte, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McKibben, of Bellefonte, R. D., and his aunt, Miss Lavina Emerick, of New York, who is visiting with them, were callers at John A. Wolfe's one evening recently.

Three families had a nice supper together at Hecla Park on Sunday evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Braucher, Mrs. Sid Neidigh, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Orr and children Anna and Richard, and Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. William Neidigh and sons James and Ronald.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyers and sons Stanley and David, were supper guests at her mother's home, Sunday, Mrs. Hattie Hendershot.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wolfe accompanied by their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and son Earl, took their supper out to Whipple Dam on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodie Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. George Libby spent Thursday evening with the C. W. Meyers family.

Charles Wolfe spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Ernest King, at Wood-ice-crest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shearer and three sons spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. James Kustenberg at Leont.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyers visited at Charles Meyers on Sunday a week ago.

The states have done well in building paved highways for the automobiles. Why don't they give the pedestrian a break and build a paved sidewalk for them?

MILESBERG

Patty Stanley, of Tyrone, spent a week recently with her grandma, Mrs. Della Stanley. This week Mrs. Stanley and granddaughters, Faye and Charlotte, are visiting in Tyrone.

Mrs. William Ekenroth had as her guests on Friday of last week her mother and brother, Mrs. Anna Smith and Robert and her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Smith, of St. Mary's; another brother, Orrin, of Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmer and young daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stopper and three children, of Williamsport, were visitors at the George Smith home Sunday.

Mrs. William Ekenroth, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flick, of Unionville, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ekenroth, of the Beaver farm, motored to Hershey on Sunday where they spent an enjoyable day.

John Sholl and Harry Diehl spent three days of last week at the Sholl cottage near Renovo.

The Smoky Mountain Boys of Williamsport radio station WRAK, will be the main feature at the Grange festival which will be held on the ball diamond on July 30th.

The Sunday school class of Miss Christine Kauffman of the Methodist church will hold an ice cream social on Thursday of this week. These girls are trying to raise money to go to camp. So just patronize and encourage them all you can. Thank you.

Jeese Smith returned to duty at Langley Field on Tuesday of this week after spending a twenty-day furlough with his parents.

We now have a barber shop in Central City which is open the first three days of each week.

Mr. Edwin has gone on a deep sea fishing trip to Baltimore.

Elizabeth Ann Wetzel has gone to a camp for about two weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Kauffman are entertaining Mrs. Kauffman's sister and niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Glenn are the proud owners of a new Ford.

Mrs. L. G. Gill entertained a Sunday school class from Tyrone on Friday evening of last week.

The Junior and Intermediate grades of the Methodist Sunday school held a picnic on Wednesday of this week at Martin's Grove, Beech Creek.

Elizabeth Petzer has been ill for the past week.

Mrs. Howard Nagle visited at Altoona three days of last week with Mrs. C. E. Snyder.

Paul Williams, Jimmy Cosgrove of Ironton, Ohio, were weekend visitors at the L. G. Peters home.

Miss Margaret Wallace, of Boston, spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace.

At the ice cream social on Thursday evening there will be a playground back of the church for the small folks. Older girls of the class will be in charge. Therefore, mothers of little ones will be more able to enjoy themselves.

Fish were on the menu at the Roy Jotjes home during the past week, as Roy was a deep sea fisherman.

Those who attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Hershey from July 11 to 16, were Anna Davidson, Loraine Miller, Ellen Emehiser, Elizabeth Jodon, Mary Tomb, Gladys Bathurst, Phyllis Sholl, Elizabeth Sheetz, Rhoda Sheets, Mrs. Lizzie Sheetz, son Paul and Mrs. Flora Walker.

We understand the Highway Market is to change hands. The new managers will be Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rifer.

Mr. Harry Peters and daughter, Lois, of Renovo, were visitors here Sunday. Going from here to Philadelphia to visit Mrs. Peters, who underwent an operation in a hospital there. Reports are that she is getting along nicely.

Mr. Bruce Peters spent Sunday in Pleasant Gap with her brother, Harry McClellan, and niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Corman.

Mr. L. G. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gillen, of Bellefonte, left here Saturday morning for Philadelphia where they picked up Mrs. Peters. The party are now touring the New England States and will return home by way of Canada, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and son Earl, of Bellefonte, R. D., spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. John A. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sheeley and daughters Adeline and Ruth, spent Sunday evening at Tusseyville with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer.

Mrs. C. W. Meyers entertained her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Pardee, and daughters Gloria, Betty and Margaret, of Bellefonte, for a week.

ORVISTON

There were 128 present at Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Colmbane and two daughters, of Woolrich, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Greninger, of Woolrich, visited at the Frank Ricker home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Emmel and daughter Minnie, and son Milford Eiters, of Yarnell, visited with Mrs. Emmel's sisters, William Oscar and John Packer, on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Leah Thompson returned to her home Sunday after visiting at the Rodger Poorman home in State College.

Miss Louise Confer, who is employed at Rebersburg, visited at her home here over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Confer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hunter and Ben Poorman, of State College, visited at the William Barnhart home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pettigill, of Lock Haven, visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Lucas, on Sunday.

The ball game that was played between Beech Creek and Orviston, on Saturday, was won by Beech Creek, the score being 4-3.

Mrs. Earl Lomson, Mrs. Herb Gray and daughter Gladys, Mrs. Alvie Confer, Mrs. William Gillespie and Mrs. David Confer motored to attend the funeral of Miss Wilma on Wednesday.

Mr. Luther Gardner, daughter Jean, son Clifford, Emeline Butler and Henry Packer attended the base ball game at Williamsport Monday night.

Mrs. Edwin Gillespie's Sunday school class enjoyed a picnic at the Woolrich Park on Wednesday afternoon. All report a very nice time.

Mr. Ralph Arnold, of Johnsonburg, and Miss Flora Van-Camp, of Wilcox, visited at the home of Harry Moore, Friday and Saturday, returning to their home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross Butler and Mr. and Mrs. David Confer left for Buffalo and Niagara Falls, Saturday, where they are spending the week, visiting relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Butler.

Miss Nellie Wyland, of Howard, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Annie Confer.

Mrs. Clair Burd, daughter Emeline and niece Dorothy Gardner, Mrs. David Confer, Doris and John Dancy were Lock Haven shoppers on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. R. Waite and daughters, Marjorie and Nanette, are visiting with relatives in Andersonburg, Harrisburg and Bolling Springs.

Mr. Thomas Croft, of Philipsburg, visited at the home of Roll Peimles over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mann and Mr. Boren, of Beech Creek, visited William Poorman's Saturday afternoon.

Mr. William Poorman, Madeline Gussalus and children and Maybelle Confer attended a dance at Clarence Saturday night.

Mr. John A. Wolfe suffered an injury to his right hand a week ago while at work on the College farms, at which time his hand was drawn into a half inch opening somewhere about the hay loader. Fortunately there were no bones broken and the injured member is responding satisfactorily to treatment.

Master Donald Orr, of Mill Hill, is spending the summer season with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Neidigh. He spent Wednesday with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Neidigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Lyle and family, Anna, Charlotte, Naomi Sarah, Junior and Kenneth, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Jeff Houze, at Leont.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and son Earl, of Bellefonte, R. D., spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. John A. Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sheeley and daughters Adeline and Ruth, spent Sunday evening at Tusseyville with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer.

Mrs. C. W. Meyers entertained her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Pardee, and daughters Gloria, Betty and Margaret, of Bellefonte, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McKibben, of Bellefonte, R. D., and his aunt, Miss Lavina Emerick, of New York, who is visiting with them, were callers at John A. Wolfe's one evening recently.

Three families had a nice supper together at Hecla Park on Sunday evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Braucher, Mrs. Sid Neidigh, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Orr and children Anna and Richard, and Donald, and Mr. and Mrs. William Neidigh and sons James and Ronald.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyers and sons Stanley and David, were supper guests at her mother's home, Sunday, Mrs. Hattie Hendershot.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wolfe accompanied by their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and son Earl, took their supper out to Whipple Dam on Sunday evening.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Stauffer and children and Fred Watson, of Ohio, spent the weekend with friends and relatives in this State.

Clair Burd, of Pine Grove and lady friend, of Bellefonte; Arthur Burd and lady friend, of Fleming; Eery Shope and lady friend were Sunday guests at the Edith Burd home.

Mrs. John Possinger of Coleville, visited home folks on Saturday.

J. B. Poorman and friend, of Johnstown, spent a few days at the Poorman home.

Mrs. Jane Lucas, Mrs. Clyde Watson and son and Mrs. J. F. Watson spent Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Confer and daughter and other friends in Orviston.

Mrs. Roy Wooster, of Maryland, spent a few days with home folks.

Kenneth Lucas called at the Orviston Watson home on Saturday evening.

Fleming and Jim Poorman were dinner guests at the Ellis Powell home at Pleasant Gap on Saturday evening.

A delicious birthday dinner was served to a goodly number of friends and relatives on the beautiful island at Gum Stump on Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Margaret and children, Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Westerfield, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. George Margaret, Jr. and family, and Jimmy Noll, of Pleasant Gap; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheely and sons Ray, Griffin, Mrs. Maime Griffin, of Stormstown; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson and family, John Smith and daughter, Agnes Shawley and two daughters, of Milesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Switzer and daughter, Mrs. Olive Rhoades and children, Ann Taylor, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Stauffer and family, Fred Watson, of Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reese and family, of Gum Stump; Bill Howell, of Runville; Mrs. Edith Burd, Howard Monroe, Clair Burd and lady friend, Mrs. J. J. Fye and sons, of New York; Mrs. Lee Johnson and family, Aaron McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and sons Alfred, Catherine, and Mrs. E. F. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leathers, and family and Lynn Johnson. The day was spent very pleasantly and the children played in the brook.

Mrs. George Margaret, Jr. and family, of Pleasant Gap, entertained quite a number of relatives on Monday to a chicken and waffle dinner.

Francis Poorman was a Sunday visitor at the A. I. Lutz home in Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Poorman of Clearfield, visited at the Charles Poorman home.

John Emmitzer made a trip to Pleasant Gap on his bike on Sunday.

BOALSBURG

Mrs. Guy Stearns and son, of Boalsburg, Mrs. Sterns, of Iowa, and Mrs. Margaret, Perre, of Oak Hill, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hess and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lutz, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Korman.

Mr. Helen Hunter spent a week at Ocean City.

Mrs. Ella Gingrich and daughters, Kathryn and Marie, spent several days with relatives at Milton.

Mrs. John Wagner, of Bellefonte and Mrs. Agnes Neff, of Basil, Ohio, and Miss Hattie Wagner, of Washington, D. C., were recent callers at the Helen Hunter home.

Mrs. Dora Odenkirch and daughter Sara, of Centre Hall, called at George E. Meyer's home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Houze and son, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Houze and daughter.

Charles, of Dumbur, West Va., spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. William Kline.

Albert Hazel, of Unionville, spent several days with his brother, A. J. Hazel.

Mrs. Annie Hibel and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hibel and family, of Oak Hill, and Mrs. Mary Stamm, of Philipsburg, were recent callers at the Gerald Hibel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey and children, of Greensburg, are spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Durner and daughter and son of Huntington, spent several days at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Durner.

Mrs. Charles Corl spent Monday with relatives at State College.

SMULTON

Mrs. Clarence Weber became suddenly ill on Saturday evening. Symptoms strongly pointed to a case of appendicitis but at this writing she is somewhat improved.

REBERSBURG

On Wednesday, July 27, a Donkey baseball game will be featured on the local baseball diamond at 8 o'clock, by floodlight. Admission will be 15 and 25 cents. This game is sponsored by Class No. 5 of the Reformed church, and your patronage will be greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Verus Kambie, of Franklin, Pa., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Royer.

Mrs. William Tarbet, of Manor, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Weaver were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cummings and son Dean, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brungart and daughter Marjorie.

Miss Shirley Brown visited at the L. P. Feldler home in Aronsburg last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and daughter, of Florida, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Frank.

Messrs Harry and William Brungart and their girl friends, of Logantown, were Sunday evening supper guests at the Arthur Cummings home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heller and the latter's niece, of Canton, Ohio, are visiting with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Heiler.

Mrs. W. A. Winters, who lives east of town, has been ill for the past few weeks.

Mr. Aden Garrett and family, of Jacksonville, called at the home of Mr. G. P. Garrett on Sunday.

Those attending the W. M. S. convention at Central Oak Heights West Milton, Pa., from the local Evangelical church include Mrs. E. H. Hosterman, the Misses Elizabeth Page and Gladys Zeigler, and Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock.

Mrs. John Brungart spent several days last week with relatives at State College.

Mrs. Arthur Beale and two daughters, Patti and Donna, of Indiana, Pa., are visiting with Mrs. Beale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Meyer.

Mr. George Muller, of Jersey Shore, spent several days at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Miller.

Mr. S. O. Mallory, who was admitted as a surgical patient at the Centre County Hospital at Bellefonte last Wednesday, was discharged on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller and family visited with the former's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Miller, of Milliflous, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weber, of Tulsa, Okla., arrived at the home of his sister, Mrs. Adah Beery, for an indefinite visit.

Mr. Mahlon Stover returned to his home at Maple Park on Sunday after spending several weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Stover, the former of whom has been seriously ill.

Mrs. Samuel McMillin, son and daughter, of Millheim, visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Small one day last week.

The Misses Phyllis and Maxine Page, of State College, spent several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Page.

Mr. and Mrs. James Corran and daughter were Sunday callers at the home of the latter's parents at Spring Mills.

Rev. R. A. Babcock and Mark Linbert attended the Evangelical Young People's Union meeting at Eaglesmere near Williamsport on Thursday evening. About 150 young people were present and an address was given by Rev. Homer W. Healey, minister of the First Evangelical Church at Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smull and Miss Sara Dummmond, of Mackeyville, were Sunday callers among friends in town.

Mr. Allen Jacobson, of State College, visited with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cummings, on Sunday.

Mrs. Holland Logesdon and three children returned to their home at DuBois last Friday after spending several weeks with Mrs. Logesdon's mother, Mrs. Ella Diehl.

Mr. Arthur Dewey and Mrs. Mabel Smedley and two daughters, of California, were Wednesday evening supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hartman, Miss Pauline Dewey remained for several days at the Hartman home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Royer and Mrs. Alma Hines entertained Mr. and Mrs. Verus Kambie, of Franklin, at "Gravel Spring Lodge" last Friday.

Mrs. Paul Styers' father, Mr. Packer, of Pittsburgh, and her sister and family, of Philadelphia, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Styers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pehl, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Reasick, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wolfe motored to Cogan Station on Sunday where they visited with Mrs. Emma Pehl, who celebrated her 83rd birthday anniversary on Monday.

Mr. W. H. Hackenberg visited at the L. A. Baker home at Muncy on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berktsreiser, of Millheim, and Miss Betty Getzel visited at the home of Mrs. Edith Getzel during the weekend.

Mrs. Savilla Suttler is spending several days with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fiedler, of Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Myles Brown returned to their home in town on Thursday from Hephsibald Heights, Monday, Mass., where they were spending the summer. The following day Mrs. Brown was admitted as a surgical patient in the Centre County Hospital