

LOCALS

—Miss Ethel Dale returned Tuesday from a visit with friends in Williamsport, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Allison of the Newcomb apartment building, 1010 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh at Aze Man.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoag have as their guests Miss Gertrude Dowell, of Johnston, and Miss Jane Haag, of Tyrone, a granddaughter.

—George Finkbeiner, of the Bellefonte headquarters, State Motor Police, left Friday for the police training school at Myerstown under a three months' course of instruction.

—Mrs. Bert Belight, of Rochester, N. Y., who is spending the summer months at Pine Glen, this county, was a visitor at our office on Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ivan Plubell, of Pine Glen.

—Mr. E. M. Walters, of Williamsport, while spending the weekend in Centre county with relatives and friends, found time Saturday to pay in a visit to Mr. Walters is a native of this county and is a son of the late Mrs. Walters.

—Mrs. Joseph Thomas last Tuesday entertained the Ladies' Bible Class of the United Brethren church at her cottage along Spring Creek. Sixteen members of the class were present at the outing. The afternoon was spent in music and games.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Brown, of Snow Hill, Md., returned to their home Monday after having spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Arthur H. Sloop and family at their home on East Curtin street. Mrs. Brown is a sister-in-law of Mr. Sloop.

—Franklin Schach, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Schach of North Spring Street, Bellefonte, broke his collarbone Wednesday last week, while playing near his home. The child fell down a neighbor's steps, a distance of about 12 feet.

—The Bellefonte Red Cross committee announces that Miss Bertha Rimmey, Red Cross nurse, will be on her vacation until Monday, August 8. No substitute will be provided during Miss Rimmey's absence because of financial reasons, the committee states.

—Councilman and tinmith Harry Badger, of East Bishop street, Tuesday afternoon observed the 46th anniversary of his arrival in Bellefonte from Millburg. Mr. Badger for many years employed by the late W. T. Twimire, of Bellefonte, has been conducting his own shop on East Bishop street since the Twimire shop passed out of existence.

—A group of Bellefonte young ladies, with Mrs. Deborah Dobbeler acting as chaperone, will leave Saturday morning for a ten days' outing at Ocean City, N. J. In the group will be the Misses Carole Caldwell, Mary Louise Johnson, Jean Eckler, Nelma Kocki, Delores Louie Hartsock, Betty Long Merga, Capers, Clara Beatty and Thomazine Curtin.

—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nelson, of the Petrikin apartments, West High street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a fine baby girl, born at their home at 2:46 o'clock Friday afternoon. The little girl, who weighed eight pounds, has been named Beverly Grace. She is the first child in the family and both she and her mother, the former Esther Enist, of Potters Mills, are getting along nicely.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Benford, of Pleasant Gap, became the happy parents of a seven-pound, eight-ounce girl born at the Centre County Hospital last Thursday. The new arrival is the first child in the family and has been named Beverly Grace. She is the first child in the family and both she and her mother, the former Esther Enist, of Potters Mills, are getting along nicely.

—At the 14th annual banquet of the W. T. Rawleigh Company, complimentary to the Wisconsin Rawleigh dealers and held at the Hotel Charles, Marshfield, Wis., Miss Alberta, booked as the "Tyroler Girl," with novelty either and yodeling songs in English and German. Miss Alberta is the stage name of Alberta Krader, of Bellefonte, supervisor of music in the Bellefonte Public Schools, who is now making a concert tour of the far west.

—Charles Baney, of Logan street, Bellefonte's faithful and reliable caretaker of the streets, has been off duty for the past several days recuperating from an operation for the removal of an obstruction in his nose which had been causing him some trouble for some time. When it was reported in Council Monday night that Mr. Baney had expressed concern over the fact that he wouldn't be able to return to work for several days, Council was well on the way to voting him a week's vacation with pay, when it was decided that this was not the proper time for such action, and the matter was postponed until later.

—Charles L. Gates, editor of the Democratic Watchman, and his daughter, Miss Winifred Gates, an employee of the West Penn Power Company, returned to their home on North Spring street recently, from a week's vacation in Philadelphia and Atlantic City. It was Mr. Gates' first visit to Philadelphia in 40 years. He reports that the major changes he noticed in the City of Brotherly Love were chiefly the difference in transportation from the horse cars and trams in use 40 years ago, and the vast change in the appearance of the mansions on Walnut street. Most of the fine old homes on that street are boarded up, or are for sale or rent, he declared. His visit to Atlantic City last week was his first journey to that city, and he thoroughly enjoyed the resort and its bracing climate.

—Don't forget you can keep cool with a Westinghouse Fan. DeHaas Electric Co.

—Mrs. C. J. Newcomb and son James are spending some time at the Mabury apartment building, 1010 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa., accompanied by Mrs. Anna Cafaro and son Kenneth, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are Bellefonte visitors on Thursday.

—Robert Bottomfield, of Hamburg, N. Y., a former Bellefonte Academy student, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Thomas Beaver and family at their home on West Curtin street.

—The Misses Catherine and Mary Allison Beaver, daughters of Thomas Beaver, of West Curtin street, returned to Pittsburgh Monday to bring Mrs. Amy Potter, of that city, to Bellefonte for a vacation among relatives and friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Housel, daughter Lillian, of Coleville, and Mrs. Margaret Letterman, of Plains, Montana, have returned home after a week's vacation at Atlantic City and Washington, D. C. They expect to return to the summer with relatives and friends, it being their first trip east in 28 years.

—Mrs. Robert Evey, who makes her home with her brother, J. Will Mayes, at Howard, departed by rail Sunday for Pittsburgh, where she is spending this week with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Willard Mayes, and with her brother, Sheldon Evey, who is residing with the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brady, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sliker, who reside with Register John L. Wetzler, at Central City, Pa., returned to their home in Altoona, Pa., after a week's vacation in the Van Camps while attending the University of Pittsburgh Dental School.

—Baseball fans in this area will have an opportunity to witness one of the best junior American Legion teams in the State in action Saturday afternoon when the Junior Legion team of Altoona, which participated in the semi-final playoffs last year, will meet the Brooks-Doll Post team. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:30 o'clock on the Community Athletic Field. Admission will be 15 cents.

—Byron Blackford and Mac Macdonald, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh at Aze Man.

—The attending First Senior Camp Mensch, Mills, at Alburtis, Pa., from July 11 to 23 are Dorothy L. Kline, Shirley Carner and Dick Hartwick, representing St. John's Evangelical Reformed church school of Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Smeltzer and child, of Scarsdale, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte last weekend for their annual summer vacation with Mr. Smeltzer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Smeltzer, at their home on East High street.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shearer returned to their home in the First National Bank apartments, corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets, last week after having spent a ten days' vacation with relatives and friends in Kentucky. Mr. Shearer is one of the representatives of the Prudential Insurance Company in the Bellefonte area.

—Miss Lella Robb, instructor in schools of suburban Philadelphia, who is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Robb, at the family home on East Curtin street, departed Monday with a group of Philadelphia friends for a tour of the Gaspe Peninsula. They expect to return about the first of August.

—Harry W. Packer, of Beech Creek, a Bellefonte visitor during the weekend, recently was pensioned after having been in the employ of that road for the past 42 years. In addition to being placed upon the pension list, Mr. Packer received a gold watch and a certificate of appreciation from the Pennsylvania Railroad.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Quick and son Brown, and a friend, all of Washington, D. C., spent several hours with the D. Paul Fortney family on East Bishop street, and with other friends here. Tuesday, while on a vacation trip to central Pennsylvania. The Quick family formerly resided here. Mr. Quick having been employed at the Westinghouse Electric plant. They moved to Washington about seven years ago.

—Cars driven by B. Goldman, of West High street, Bellefonte, and W. B. Port, of Howard street, were damaged to a considerable extent in an accident near Zion, Sunday morning. No one was injured. The mishap occurred when Mr. Port was forced to turn out for a third time his machine struck the Goldman car which was traveling in the opposite direction. Total damage to the two machines was estimated at about $160.

—Although no definite action has been taken to dispose of the Weiser service station at the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, it is reported that several groups are interested in the property, among them being the Centre Oil and Gas Company, distributors of Texaco gasoline and oils. It is highly probable that no sale will be effected until the courts have decided whether or not the property may be used for garage or service station purposes.

—Mrs. Ella M. Johnson, of Los Angeles, California, spent last week in Centre county visiting among her relatives and other relatives and friends in this area. Making her headquarters at the home of her brother, C. G. Decker, on East Linn street, Bellefonte. Mrs. Johnson divided the remainder of her time among her brothers, Joseph, T. J., S. W. and D. D. Decker, of Spring Mills, and Edward Decker, of the College. She returned to her home in the west last week, making the trip by rail.

—Mrs. Cecelia Moerschbacher, of Pittsburgh and her nephews, Richard Austin, of Bellefonte, who had been a guest of his aunt, arrived in Bellefonte Monday by plane, having accepted an invitation from a friend to spend the trip here by air. The journey from the western city required just 40 minutes' time. Miss Moerschbacher is spending a two weeks' vacation with her mother, Mrs. Mary Moerschbacher, at her home on South Thomas street.

—The following young folks, members of Mrs. Richard Heverly's Methodist Sunday school class, and invited guests, enjoyed an outing at the Taylor cabin at Spring Creek, Pa., on Saturday afternoon. Present were: Mrs. Edna Taylor, Mrs. Leslie Sherr, Mrs. Phil May, Mrs. Ben Herr, Mrs. James Hartman, Mrs. Richard Heverly, and the Misses Vivian Miles, Carolyn Young, Clara Bingham, Elizabeth Herr, Rheta Geisler, Nancy Shecker, Martha Wilson and Pauline Hampton.

—Yesterday a large truck arrived in Bellefonte bearing solicitors who canvassed the town selling issues of "The Echo" and other newspapers published in New York in the interests of those whose profession is nothing in particular. The newspaper is nicely printed and contains much material of interest to non-hobos, although for the life of us we can't understand why a hobo, who is supposed to enjoy carefree life, should take on the order of work and worry as publishing a newspaper entails.

—File Expense Accounts Expense accounts of candidates in the recent primary election, on file in the County Commissioners' offices are as follows: E. J. Thompson, Phillipsburg, Democratic nominee for State Senator, $250.84; J. C. Treadwell, Bellefonte, Democratic nominee for State Representative, $167.05; Kenneth G. Haines, State College, successful O. P. candidate for Legislature, $101.78. Those whose expenses are shown as being less than $50 are: Harry B. Scott, Phillipsburg, elected Republican state commissioner; John W. Decker, Spring Mills, Democratic nominee for the General Assembly; and Dr. Frank K. White, Phillipsburg, elected Democratic state legislator.

—Next Sunday is a good day to go to one of the churches in Bellefonte and surprise the pastor by dropping in. A $5 bill in the collection plate when it comes your way.

—Miss Cyrene Newcomb is at Girl Scout Camp at Barree, for two weeks.

—Nature's breeze is no quieter than a Westinghouse Fan. DeHaas Electric Co.

—Miss Edna Kilpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kilpatrick, of East Curtin street, departed recently for an indefinite stay in Bermuda, having gone there for a complete rest.

—Miss Joan Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Long, of West Curtin street, will go to Bedford Saturday, for a visit with relatives and friends. She expects to be gone for a week or ten days.

—Mrs. Olive Kerstetter and son, Walter, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte, with Mrs. Kerstetter's sister, Mrs. Mary Geisinger, at the H. C. Yeager family home on North Spring street.

—Mrs. Newell B. Long, of West Linn street, and her sister, Miss Bessie L. White, of Williamsport, will leave tomorrow for a motor trip to the Carolinas, expecting to visit relatives and friends in those states for a week or ten days.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gates and children, John and Barbara, of North Spring street, left Tuesday for a trip to Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., and various places of interest in Maryland. They will be gone for an indefinite time.

—Just so Councilman William W. Sieg can rest comfortably these warm nights we report that so far this year mosquitos have not been troublesome to any degree. This notice, does not wait in the report otherwise later in the summer if Mr. Sieg's pet pests get out of control.

—Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fisher, of South Water street, returned Sunday from Jamestown, N. Y., where they had visited their son, Gorman Fisher and family. The two families spent most of the time visiting points of interest in the Allegheny State Park and along the lakes in that area.

—The label on your paper has a two-fold purpose. It gives your address so that the mail carrier can deliver same promptly, and it also tells you whether your account is in arrears. What you need is attention on the subject, take a look at the label and see how your account stands. It is your cooperation that enables us to publish a bigger and better paper.

—Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz returned to her home on East Linn street, Monday from a two weeks' visit in Niagara Falls with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Clark. During her stay there, Mrs. Kurtz was the motorist of the most beautiful trip she has ever had. She visited various points of interest in Canada, including Callender, the home of the famous quintuplets.

—Mrs. H. L. Price and her sister, Miss Phyllis Evey, of East Curtin street, expect to learn within the next few days that they've inherited a vast fortune. Yesterday, while passing the lawn in front of the Mrs. Sim Baum home, at the corner of East Curtin and Allegheny streets, they happened to spy a large four-leaf clover. When they reached down to pick the omen of good luck, they found 27 others—all four-leafed ones, in a cluster around it.

—Michael Hazel, of Odessa, Texas, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday for a two weeks' visit with his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson of Pine street, his sister, Mrs. Charles Smith, also of Pine street, and his brother, Joseph Hazel, of Blanchard street. Mr. Hazel, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hazel, of Bellefonte, has been affiliated with the Oil Well Supply Company in Odessa since graduating from Penn State about eight years ago.

—Miss Cecelia Moerschbacher, of Pittsburgh and her nephews, Richard Austin, of Bellefonte, who had been a guest of his aunt, arrived in Bellefonte Monday by plane, having accepted an invitation from a friend to spend the trip here by air. The journey from the western city required just 40 minutes' time. Miss Moerschbacher is spending a two weeks' vacation with her mother, Mrs. Mary Moerschbacher, at her home on South Thomas street.

—The following young folks, members of Mrs. Richard Heverly's Methodist Sunday school class, and invited guests, enjoyed an outing at the Taylor cabin at Spring Creek, Pa., on Saturday afternoon. Present were: Mrs. Edna Taylor, Mrs. Leslie Sherr, Mrs. Phil May, Mrs. Ben Herr, Mrs. James Hartman, Mrs. Richard Heverly, and the Misses Vivian Miles, Carolyn Young, Clara Bingham, Elizabeth Herr, Rheta Geisler, Nancy Shecker, Martha Wilson and Pauline Hampton.

—Yesterday a large truck arrived in Bellefonte bearing solicitors who canvassed the town selling issues of "The Echo" and other newspapers published in New York in the interests of those whose profession is nothing in particular. The newspaper is nicely printed and contains much material of interest to non-hobos, although for the life of us we can't understand why a hobo, who is supposed to enjoy carefree life, should take on the order of work and worry as publishing a newspaper entails.

—File Expense Accounts Expense accounts of candidates in the recent primary election, on file in the County Commissioners' offices are as follows: E. J. Thompson, Phillipsburg, Democratic nominee for State Senator, $250.84; J. C. Treadwell, Bellefonte, Democratic nominee for State Representative, $167.05; Kenneth G. Haines, State College, successful O. P. candidate for Legislature, $101.78. Those whose expenses are shown as being less than $50 are: Harry B. Scott, Phillipsburg, elected Republican state commissioner; John W. Decker, Spring Mills, Democratic nominee for the General Assembly; and Dr. Frank K. White, Phillipsburg, elected Democratic state legislator.

—Next Sunday is a good day to go to one of the churches in Bellefonte and surprise the pastor by dropping in. A $5 bill in the collection plate when it comes your way.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undubiously Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisement contains more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Lost and Found

LOST—A baseball fielder's glove for the benefit of the owner, returned to Delian Andrews, Julian, Pa. $20

WANTED—Man to work on the farm. Must have experience. Willard S. Fisher, Wingate, Pa. Phone Bellefonte 730-3.

WANTED—Girl 16 to 22 years old to care for two small children and help in house work. Write Mrs. J. I. Purley, 406 S. High street, Lock Haven, Pa. $20

WANTED—Rawleigh route now open. Real opportunity for man who has "pull" and "grit". Write Rawleigh Dept. PNC-34-K, Chester, Pa. $20

WANTED—Work by day or washing and ironing at home. Inquire of Mrs. Harry Baird, Howard St., Harrisburg, Pa. $20

WANTED—Work as housekeeper, experienced in all kinds of housework. Address Mrs. Christine Weaver, Howard St., Co. Wm. Courter. $20

WANTED—Second-hand oil stove in good condition. Phone 287-M. $20

WANTED—An alternating generator 110-volt, less than 3000 watts. Ray Zeiss, Spring Mills, Pa. R. D. 2. $20

WANTED TO BUY—Tent suitable for evangelistic meetings. Good or poor. Also for tent in size. Paul Mackey, Howard, Pa. $20

WANTED—To buy cattle, calves, hogs and poultry of all kinds. I pay the most for best. R. H. McCaleb, 806 W. 3rd St., Lock Haven, Pa. Phone 629-3. $20

WANTED—I am in the market for hogs, cattle, sheep, calves and chickens. Call Mrs. Christine Weaver, Howard St., Co. Wm. Courter. $20

WANTED—To buy, used mine rails and mine cars. State capacity of cars and weight of rails and price wanted. What have you? Write Clyde Berger, Mohannon, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—A team of bay and brown horses, weight 1450 to 1600 lbs. Also saw of harness, wagon and farm implements. Inquire of W. A. Strouse, State College, Pa. D. 1. $20

FOR SALE—Young sows, Poland-China type, 14 weeks, weight 375 pounds; will have first litter September 23rd. Phone Centre Hall 30-2. $20

FOR SALE—Two Percheron mares with colts by their side, and one black horse with some age. John Jordan, Centre Hall, Pa. Phone 151-10-4. $20

FOR SALE—Any 3 of five good work horses, weight from 1450 to 1600 lbs. Inquire of Clarence T. Miller, near Tusseyville, Centre Hall, Pa. Phone 172-12. $20

FOR SALE—Pure-bred spotted Poland-China pigs, 8 weeks old, registered stock. B. Claude Hoy, Bellefonte, Pa. R. 1. Phone State College 365-3. $20

FOR SALE—A team of buckskin mules, 5 and 10 years old, a good team for a lumber camp. Inquire of W. Mulberger, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 921-R-5. $20

FOR SALE—Team of grey horses 10 and 11 years old, weight 3300 lbs. Price $300.00, a good team, or would sell black three year old colt, broke, weight 1750, Robert E. Muttz, Beech Creek, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—Celery plants, 40 cents per hundred. Frank Eisenhauser, Millsburg, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—Transplanted celery plants: Ford Hook, Empire and Grand Rapids. Frank Eisenhauser, Millsburg, Pa. Phone 500-M. $20

FOR SALE—A three-room bungalow, located along the highway, in Pleasant Gap, Pa. On good lot. Inquire of George Capar, Pleasant Gap, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—Grieb's camp, 5 rooms, spring house, 2-car garage, 2000 watt power house and fish pond. Write J. A. Lose, P. O. Box 136, Punksutsu, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—Four room, two-story frame house, 12 Unionville, Berne, Pa. Electric light and water, large lot with outbuildings and garage. Eva Rowan, Fleming, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—8-room frame house on Main St., Pleasant Gap. All conveniences, 1/2 acre of ground, fruit and berries. Garage and outbuildings. George Magarac, Pleasant Gap, Phone 520-R-3. $20

FOR SALE—8K Bend Cottage, consisting of six rooms, equipped with electric lights, oil and fine well water. Located in Millheim Township, Centre County, Pa. Call on hunting ground. Rev. J. J. Weaver, P. O. Box 86, Rebersburg, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—A 100-acre farm located at Dix Run, Good buildings; well water. Will sell stock and equipment. Inquire of Samuel Hoover, Julian, Pa. Note—This property has no connection with sale recently made by Samuel A. Hoover to G. W. Hall. $20

FOR SALE—Mine with 400 acres of land under, three veins coal, truck, mule, etc. Entire equipment for sale with the mine. Located in Rush Township. Owner would like to sell on account of his poor health. Will sell at reasonable price to quick buyer. Apply Stephen M. Reank Sr., 817 North 9th and Locust St., Phillipsburg, Pa., Centre County. $20

FOR SALE—Store property located in Tylersville, Pa., including full line of general merchandise, size of building 45 ft. x 45 ft. Dwelling and 1/2 acre combined Electric lights. Three acres of good farm land. Good barn. A real opportunity for an industrious man. Reason for selling: advancing years. Alex. S. Greening, Tylersville, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—English Beagle pups, 9 weeks old. Write C. B. Eckenroth, Fleming, Pa. $20

Farm Machinery

FOR SALE—Used McCormick-Deering 12 enclosed gear type rotary silage cutter, complete with blower pipe, distributor pipe and shredder. Inquire of B. B. Bels, Howard, Phillipsburg, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—Grain binders, 3 used, reconditioned at 475 each, guaranteed; 3 used mowers, rakes and loaders; 1 Iron Age 4-row potato sprayer; 3 used manure spreaders, disc harrows, tractor plows and tractors. Special 4-in-one strip shingles, $9.90 square—half price at Losh Supply Co., Jersey Shore. $20

FOR SALE—1929 Studebaker sedan, cheap. Inquire of Albert Miller, Bellefonte, R. D. 1. (Coleville). $20

FOR SALE—Dodge 1 1/2-ton truck, with stake and coil body, in good condition. Can be seen at Edward Spitzer home, 222 E. Logan St., Bellefonte, Pa. $20

FOR SALE—1932 Plymouth sedan. Also 32-volt light plant with batteries, bulbs, iron and washing machine. Also 6-volt lighting system. Steel woodwork frame, with 36-inch blade Smith's Service Station, Tusseyville, Pa. Centre Hall, R. D. 1. $20