

PERSONALS, ANNOUNCEMENTS, CHURCH NEWS, OF

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Genial Ford Agent of King Motor Co. State College, Donald Sunday, was a business caller in Bellefonte last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albright entertained a number of their friends to Sunday supper at their Alberta cabin on Tadpole.

At recent funeral services for E. D. Isenberg some one lost a pair of black gloves in Bellefonte church, owner can claim them at the church.

Farmer Alvin K. Cori was a State College visitor last Friday a. m.

Recent contributors to the Centre County Hospital, solicitors: Esther Cori, Helen Kline, Mrs. Mary Glenn, Mrs. Ella Auman, received from the following: L. O. F. Lodge, Lady Ferguson Rebekah Lodge, J. H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Miller, Sallie Barr, Mary Glenn, Etta Keller, Kathryn Koch, Geo. Burwell, Burwell sisters, Ellis Auman, J. I. Reed, G. E. Dunlap, J. E. Elder, Henry Elder, Jessie Elder, Donley sisters, J. C. Gates, E. C. Martz, Mrs. G. H. Woods, and Miss Mary Woods.

Miss Phyllis Hess and brother, Daniel enjoyed their annual week's summer vacation in Selinsgrove last week, guests at the Grandpa Forsythe home, they returned to their Branch home Saturday.

Farmer Chester Lightner of Charter Oak, Huntingdon Co., purchased recently the Mrs. Anne Kecher farm east of town and will with his family occupy it in the near future.

Mrs. Lizzie Ward Kline is enlarging her home just west of town with new two car garage. James Hoover is the boss carpenter.

Master Jimmie Cori spent the past week recuperating from a recent injury with a pitch fork with his grandmother, Mrs. Etta Cori on Wall street.

Shoemaker daily express driver C. L. "Dick" Irvin, is handling out dandy cigars, is a grandpappy and a boy at the Andrew Madrik home in Conn. Mrs. Madrik is remembered here as Miss Geraldine Irvin of Bellefonte.

Rev. Ralph W. Illingsworth and family enjoyed a motor trip recently to Lancaster and New Jersey, sight seeing and visiting friends.

Retired farmer of State College, Thomas Fishburn and wife, were short callers in our town Sunday evening.

One of Huntingdon Co.'s foremost tillers of the soil, Reuben Behrens purchased a brand new power potato digger from Johnston Bros. agency at Rock Springs.

Popular general agent for B. and B. Feeds, E. M. Archey of Mill Hill, was a dinner guest in town Friday looking for his share of orders for early fall feeders.

Rev. James Glenn and wife of Carlisle, Pa., are spending their annual vacation among their many relatives here in the valley they were supper guests last Tuesday evening at the John Wason's home.

Mr. John Wason of the Branch, mingled with his Granger friends last Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Bellefonte grange.

State College experimental farm truck driver, Miles Campbell, was a business visitor here last Thursday evening.

Oscar Witmer and family of Shiloh, passed through town last Thursday, enroute to Altoona, to visit his nephew Donald Reish in the Altoona Hospital, who is in a critical condition from a recent auto accident. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Reish of Williamsburg, and is slightly improved at this writing.

Our merchant E. C. Martz was off duty a few days the past week because of the summer gripe, but is back of the counter as usual at this writing.

Robert W. Reed motored to Centre Hall, Saturday evening to attend Grange Fair Committee meeting, where plans for coming fair were almost completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eilenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rankin, all of Butler, Pa., motored in Saturday for a few days visit the L. E. Barto home. They enjoyed a visit Monday to former Iron city—Scottia.

Mrs. Isabelle Musser and Mrs. Bertha Schilling were shoppers and business visitors in State College last Friday p. m.

The annual Archey clan reunion will be held Sunday, Aug. 7 at Black Moshannon Park near Julian, Pa. Mrs. F. Warren Bailey of Mill Hill Gas & Oil Co., was in our midst last week getting his customers loaded with his goods for threshing and plowing.

The Rev. Albert Groendyke and bride departed Tuesday for Michigan where they will spend their vacation among their home folks the next two weeks.

Master Paul Reed celebrated his 8th birthday last Wednesday evening by entertaining five of his close friends at his home. Choice refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy were served and his guests were Doris and Lois and Edna Schilling, Evelyn Fry and Francis Hoy.

State College callers Saturday evening, they were accompanied by Mrs. Estella Isenberg who is spending this week at the Mrs. Gladys Watson home.

Farmers Allen Welland and E. T. Pasanen attended an important meeting in Tyrone Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Harper former residents here, now of State College, spent the past week in the City of Brotherly Love, guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Harper, they also visited in Harrisburg.

Mrs. J. Fred Roseman and a party of friends are camping at Lakemont Park, Altoona, where they are attending the annual Bible conference.

Mr. and Mrs. George Musser entertained some of their friends last Monday evening to a party in honor of Mrs. Ernest's natal day.

Miss Etta Keller has returned home after 6 weeks at the John Kesinger home in Chambersburg assisting in caring for the twin boys, John County Capital, Monday.

Mrs. Walter Johnson was an important business visitor in the County Capitol, Monday.

Cards from the popular Chevy agent, Clair Frank, from the picture on the card, tells us that he and his wife are thoroughly enjoying their two weeks vacation at Long Branch, New Jersey.

New baby girl, No. 1 at the Carl Koehler home, Shirley Pauline, both mother and babe are doing nicely at Mrs. Koehler's home in Tyrone, Mrs. Allen Burwell.

Gertrude returned to the Mayer home Sunday evening and will spend a week with the Mayer family.

Sixty-four little folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Balser Weber, Saturday afternoon to help celebrate the fifth birthday of their son Baxter.

Mr. Charles Wetzel and daughter Mary spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Wensel.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rader of Altoona, are visiting at the homes of Mr. H. A. Kline and Mr. Gilbert Spang.

Rev. Charles Robb and family of Toms Brook, Va., arrived Sunday evening to spend several weeks at the home of Mrs. Robb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Orr.

The following ladies motored to Williamsport last Thursday to help celebrate Mrs. Warren Carson's birthday, Mrs. Chester Neff, Mrs. William Lucas, Mrs. L. E. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. DeArment and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dreese of Beaver town and Mrs. Morris H. Emory, Glenn and Cecil, Mrs. William Neidigh and sons James and Ronald attended the community Sunday School picnic at Hecla Park on Wednesday July 27.

Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, George, Dora and Mrs. Aaron Wells of Julian and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Weaver of State College were callers at the home of Alvin Krebs.

Mrs. John Poorman and children, John and Margaret, visited recently with her sister Mrs. W. C. Tressler at Millbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shearer and sons Emory, Glenn and Cecil and Robert Wolfe spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wolfe in Lock Haven.

HOWARD

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Welch of Philadelphia are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Welch.

The three sisters Mrs. William Bradford, Mrs. George Dones and Mrs. Shannon Boser of Centre Hall called at the Mr. John H. Wagner home Thursday evening.

Mrs. N. J. Weikert son James and Hilda W. Leathers shopped in Lock Haven, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Regal, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wyland drove to State College Thursday evening and spent the evening at the home of John Tressler.

Mrs. Richard Zeigler of York, is visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. Lewis Dorman.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mayer and two children of Millburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fletcher, Mrs. Fletcher and daughter

PLEASANT VIEW

Mrs. Elsie Emich and two daughters Patty and Dolores of Nanty Glo, spent Wednesday at the home of Alvin Krebs.

Mrs. John Groves of Strubles Station spent last weekend at the home of Alfred Lykes.

Tuesday callers in the afternoon and evening at Charles Shearers were Miss Edna Packer, Miss Mary Ellen Garbrick, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wolfe and son Bobby of Lock Haven.

Callers at the home of Mrs. Alvin Krebs Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. David Neardhood and daughter LaRue Miss L. Rue Frazier, of Stone Valley and Mrs. Edna Roan and Miss Jean Walk.

Miss Anna Lyle is spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Groves of Struble Station.

Mrs. Blanche Garner entertained her sister Miss Maude Gearhart on Friday.

Robert Wolfe of Lock Haven, spent from Tuesday until Sunday at the home of his uncle, Charles Shearer.

Mrs. Charles Shearer and sons Emory, Glenn and Cecil, Mrs. William Neidigh and sons James and Ronald attended the community Sunday School picnic at Hecla Park on Wednesday July 27.

Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, George, Dora and Mrs. Aaron Wells of Julian and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Weaver of State College were callers at the home of Alvin Krebs.

Mrs. John Poorman and children, John and Margaret, visited recently with her sister Mrs. W. C. Tressler at Millbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shearer and sons Emory, Glenn and Cecil and Robert Wolfe spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wolfe in Lock Haven.

The three sisters Mrs. William Bradford, Mrs. George Dones and Mrs. Shannon Boser of Centre Hall called at the Mr. John H. Wagner home Thursday evening.

Mrs. N. J. Weikert son James and Hilda W. Leathers shopped in Lock Haven, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Regal, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wyland drove to State College Thursday evening and spent the evening at the home of John Tressler.

Mrs. Richard Zeigler of York, is visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. Lewis Dorman.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mayer and two children of Millburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fletcher, Mrs. Fletcher and daughter visit his nephew Donald Reish in the Altoona Hospital, who is in a critical condition from a recent auto accident. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Reish of Williamsburg, and is slightly improved at this writing.

Our merchant E. C. Martz was off duty a few days the past week because of the summer gripe, but is back of the counter as usual at this writing.

Robert W. Reed motored to Centre Hall, Saturday evening to attend Grange Fair Committee meeting, where plans for coming fair were almost completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eilenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rankin, all of Butler, Pa., motored in Saturday for a few days visit the L. E. Barto home. They enjoyed a visit Monday to former Iron city—Scottia.

Mrs. Isabelle Musser and Mrs. Bertha Schilling were shoppers and business visitors in State College last Friday p. m.

The annual Archey clan reunion will be held Sunday, Aug. 7 at Black Moshannon Park near Julian, Pa. Mrs. F. Warren Bailey of Mill Hill Gas & Oil Co., was in our midst last week getting his customers loaded with his goods for threshing and plowing.

STATE COLLEGE

The many friends of Mrs. Lillian Edmonds of West College avenue will be glad to know that she is improving rapidly having had a second operation. Mrs. Edmonds is a patient in the Centre County Hospital in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kerstetter of East Beaver Avenue had as their recent guest Mrs. Verna Hope of New Jersey.

Mrs. Dora Meredith of Atherston street who had been confined to her home because of illness is able to be about her home.

Mrs. Edwood Parsons and daughter Janice Ann of McAllister street spent Thursday and Friday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaw in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Markle and daughter Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Edwood Markle all of North Patton street left Saturday for Illinois where they will visit relatives for a week.

Russell Anstead of Heister street spent Sunday visiting at his home in Cresson.

The condition of Miss Sadie Gast of West College avenue who has been confined to her bed for some time is not improved at this writing.

Mrs. Sara Erb of Heister St. has as her guests for several days her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lanker and two sons Edward and Donald of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwood Markle and family of North Patterson street visited friends in Howard on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Della Williams of East College avenue is visiting friends in Harrisburg and also will spend some time with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sunday of Hershey.

Julia Garner of East College avenue, was entertained to dinner at the home of Carrie Belle Emerick of Centre Hall. Other guests were Annie Sweeney of Boalsburg and Margaret Jacobs of Centre Hall, on Friday evening.

Charles Evey who was a victim of an auto accident and who is a patient in the Centre County Hospital is not much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fulton and daughter Jean of West Beaver ave., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kanaster and family of East Beaver Avenue and Mrs. James Fulton and family of East Foster avenue visited in Tyrone on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Garner of McAllister street, accompanied by their sons Bruce and John and daughter Anna Mary, also by Joel Yeager of Hubersburg and Jane Cleveantine of Zion, spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Garners son William in Cayuga, New York.

John Henzry of Hamilton avenue was a business visitor in Harrisburg on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clark and daughter Jean of West Beaver ave., left Monday for Dimock, Pa., where they will spend some time visiting their relatives.

Richard McCord of Locust Lane returned to his home Saturday having attended the Merchant Marine Training School on a Marine ship in New London, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Buchan of Holmes street and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Reed of North Allen street returned on Friday from a several weeks motor trip through the western part of the United States and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Henninger and son of East College avenue visited friends in Altoona on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harper of West College avenue were expected to return to their home Monday after spending the past two weeks in Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wagner and son of Lewistown and Mr. R. K. Digney of State College left Sunday for a several weeks tour through the northern states.

Mrs. Ronald Robinson of South Garner street and Mrs. Hugh Wilhams of Prospect avenue spent the weekend in Seagirt, New Jersey. They were accompanied here by Mrs. Robinson's daughter Jean, who has spent the past two weeks in camp in Seaside Park.

ZION

Sorry to note Mrs. George Vonada is a patient in the Centre County Hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Witmer entertained relatives Monday in honor of their daughter Aileen's 10th birthday.

Mrs. Condo returned to the Williams smth home after spending several weeks with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harnish and family spent last week with Mrs. Harnish's parents in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Owens spent an evening last week at the H. A. Kauffman home.

Miss Margaret Kane a student nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital Philadelphia is spending three weeks vacation with her father and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Minnich of State College, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Riss of Williamsport spent Saturday at the C. F. Cleveantine home.

Miss Mary Boone, R. N., was on night duty last week caring for Mr. Schad.

Miss Dorothy Betz of Jacksonville, spent last weekend with Miss Josephine Armstrong.

Miss Doris Dale of State College is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Hoy.

Miss Betty Hockman of Hecla, spent Sunday at the Joel Cleveantine home.

Recent callers at the H. A. Kauffman home were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Kauffman, Mrs. Edna Dorman, Pittsburgh Mrs. Malcolm Baird, Miss Rachel Long, Messrs. Ella and Charles Smith of Williamsport, A. C. Kauffman, remained at the H. A. Kauffman home from Tuesday until Thursday.

Mrs. Lester Bartley entertained the members of her Sunday School Class Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Yearick and family spent Sunday at the John Yearick home.

Mervin Kuhn of Conn., is visiting at the Sharer-Emerick home.

The biggest gambling proposition in the United States is the effort of the average citizen to get rich without working.

BENNER TWP.

Russel Glasgow and wife autored to Centre Hall and spent Sunday at Russel's parental home.

Mrs. Edna Garman, cousin of Mrs. Ira A. Benner, from Washington, D. C., expects to arrive here this month.

Kenneth Thompson and lady friend, Jean Bottorf and sister Hilda Thompson, from Altoona, visited at the home of Ira Benner on Sunday.

Some one should solicit money to put a new roof on the Presbyterian church at Myers cemetery; also to repair the church. I think every person would help. The church should be kept in repair as the water has been coming through the roof and causing considerable damage to the plaster.

Sorry to note the death of Paul Emmerhizer.

Wilbur Orndorf, wife and daughter, Sarah and son James motored to Glen Iron where they joined with Wilbur's father, William Orndorf and other friends of his father where they all motored to Hershey Park with their lunches to spend the day.

Francis Benner and lady friend Thera Hicks, and Glen Glasgow and lady friend Sophia Hicks, motored to Smithfield and spent Saturday afternoon and evening at the young ladies' parental home, the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall and son James spent Friday evening at Hecla Park.

Lester Marshall is fixing his road tax out on the road to Red Hood. Mr. B. is on account of the pretty ladies down there.

Sorry to note the death of Mrs. Frank Crust of Spring Mills, nee Helen Benner, who was buried at Myers cemetery on Wednesday.

John Kline, wife and daughter Thelma spent Wednesday evening at Hecla Park.

COLEVILLE

Quite a number of folks from our town attended the Union picnic last Thursday at Hecla.

Mrs. Martha Eider is visiting relatives in Youngstown, Ohio.

Mrs. Lulu Thompson of Bellefonte, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stover.

Mrs. William Bellelet, who has been seriously ill, was admitted to the Centre County Hospital last Friday. Her condition at this writing remains about the same.

Miss Nellie Hockmerry, who makes her home at Pleasant Gap, spent the weekend with her father here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wion are spending some time at Valley View.

Mrs. Homer Justice and daughter, Mrs. Marie, who were visiting in New York, were called home on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Billett. They were accompanied home by another daughter, Violet, who makes her home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Everhart and family, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at the Guy House home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frouger and family and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billet spent Sunday evening at Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rote and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leis attended a supper on Monday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Riders at Valley View.

Billie Lee, is receiving treatments at the Centre County Hospital for an injured leg which he received sometime ago in a bicycle accident.

Mrs. Jennie Tressler of Valley View is in our town Monday to see some of her sick friends.

Mrs. Thomas Martin visited at State College on Monday, consulting a doctor, also with her brother M. L. Billett.

The stork left a baby girl at the home of Harry Shaffer's on Monday.

MOSHANNON

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Dixon and family of Colver, visited at the William Maurer home Sunday. Mr. Maurer returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas, of Emporium, spent Saturday and Sunday here and at Lanse.

Mr. and Mrs. Rimsnyder and family, of Williamsport, are spending their vacation at the home of Mrs. Dilly Craft.

Miss Geraldine Cartwright, who is a patient for appendicitis, recently returned home Tuesday. She has our best wishes for a speedy recovery.

A birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. Minnie Fye, on Friday evening in honor of her daughter, Evelyn. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Boyer, Herman and Bill Berger, Vivian Carlson, Maxine Schnars, Maxwell Fitzsimmons, Mahlon Kieck, Thoral and Delphine Martin, Katherine Guent, Beatrice Powell, Mildred Fye, John S. Krepick, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fye and daughter Alice, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas, children, Edgar Fye, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schmoke, Evan Beals, Bill Meeker, and Mrs. Fye, daughters Fern and Bessie and sons Forrest and Lewis. Refreshments were served. The guests returned home at a late hour wishing her many happy birthdays.

Mrs. Ella Lewis of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with Miss Nannie and Frances Lewis.

Ira Lewis formerly of this place but now living in Philadelphia, has announced the arrival of a little daughter, which has been named Mary Lee.

John Crain and Mrs. Wilbur Woodring, attended the funeral of their cousin Miss Minnie Lewis at Dix on Friday.

Many from around here attended the Cover Farm picnic.

Don't forget the annual Reese reunion which will be held at Shady Nook or now known as "Elk Haven" Park on Saturday, August 13th. All are cordially invited.

MARTHA FURNACE

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. M. E. Williams on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Members are urged to be present.

The W. C. T. U. festival held in the basement of the M. E. church Tuesday evening was quite a success and the ladies cleared a nice little sum of money for their good work.

Mrs. Nannie Richard spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Alice Harshbarger at Port Matilda.

Miss Grace Bucham and friend from Barnesboro are spending some time at the C. E. Spackman home.

Robert Long and daughter Vivian, attended the Long reunion at McVeytown Saturday.

Miss Vivian Long, is spending this week with her aunt at Lewistown and attending the Fair there.

Mrs. Charles Korman, daughter Dorothy and son Richard are visiting at the home of Mrs. Chester and William Hassinger.

Glen Williams, made a business trip to Lock Haven, Monday.

NITTANY

Church notes Sunday Aug. 7, Sunday School 9:30.

There will be a festival held on the school lawn Saturday, Aug. 20, by the Evangelical church. Music furnished by a good band. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments will be on sale. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Albert Thompson, who has been ill the past two weeks was moved Sunday to the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson of Bellefonte. We all wish for a speedy recovery and hope to see her back home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sellers and daughter Donna Gayle of Lock Haven, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Sellers' mother, Mrs. Emma Dorman.

Mrs. Emma Dorman spent Friday with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tressler of Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf of Williamsport, spent one day the past week with the latter's sister, Mrs. Glenn Rogers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Escar Emerick of Avis, visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Sherd Gummo.

Mr. and Mrs. Loulan Button and daughter of North Bend, spent the weekend with Mrs. Button's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schreckengast.

Mr. C. W. Casener of Juniata, spent the weekend with his family, who is spending some time here at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Loulan Button and two daughters, Bettie and Jean and Miss Molly Yost of Juniata, who is spending her vacation with the Casener family, visited Sunday afternoon at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John and Mike Delaney of Centre Hall.

Mrs. Minnie Clark of Andubon, N. J. is visiting with her niece, Mrs. C. W. Casener, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Winkelman and son, of Avis, visited Sunday afternoon at the same place.

Mrs. Levinia Peters visited last week with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimmerman of Mingo-ville.

Miss Jaze Kimick visited last week with her mother Emily Kimick of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Igen and daughter of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hught of Milton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rossman.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Emerick and sons of Harrisburg, spent the weekend with Mr. Emerick's mother, Mrs. Josephine Emerick.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Kerstetter of Coburn, called on their sister-in-law Mrs. Bell Wingard.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sunday of State College, called on their aunt, Mrs. Belle Wingard on Sunday.

Ida Holms of Flemington, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Tiffie Peck and family.

Kathryn and Carol Martin, Miss Marion and Miss Helen Guiser all of State College, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher and a lady friend of Emporium, were in town on Sunday.

Yeagertown, all visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peck.

Mr. Lott Neff and Mrs. Kathryn Swartz, of Howard, spent Friday evening with Mrs. Swartz's mother, Mrs. Emma Harpster.

Margaret Yearick called on her sister, Mrs. Mike Delaney at Centre Hall one day the past week.

Miss Betty Dorman of Lock Haven, visited with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Barber.

Sunday visitors at the Barner home were Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCallister of Bellefonte.