Free Methodist Church Services—Unionville church: Prayer service on Friday evening at 7:30 p. m.; Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by class meeting; preaching service in the evening at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Dr. John B. Becker of Philadelphia is spending this week visiting at the Bruggers home and calling on some old time friends and relatives while here.

The serenaders also visited at the home of Aaron Hall on Monday evening and gave the usual welcome to Elsie Hall who was recently married to a young man from the surrounding community whose name we did not learn. Again we extend congratulations.

Mrs. Ida Grove and her chauffeur of Mochannon, Pa., motored to our town on Sunday afternoon and hunted up Miss Eva Rowan and then motored on to Tyrone where they had their supper in the park, returning in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Emmlinger and grandson, Roddie, of Union Township, Mrs. Rosine Emmlinger and Mr. and Mrs. Laird Korman and son Otis of Mt. Eagle, motored to Gettysburg on Sunday August 14, also stopped in at the capitol at Harrisburg. They took in all the sights at Gettysburg and other places of interest along the way.

The Young Woman's Sunday School Class of the Methodist church, will hold their annual picnic on Tuesday evening, August 23rd, at the park at Port Matilda. Hus-bands and children are invited to attend. Bring your baskets and come to the McElwain store at 3 p. m. All members are especially urged to be on hand.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert J. Keeler, who are spending this month on vacation, have spent the last week in Johnstown at the home of his parents. Mrs. Keeler will return to Unionville this week while Rev. Keeler has been called back to Philadelphia to have charge of a funeral. He expects to return to Johnstown later in the week to officiate at a wedding, returning here at the end of the week to spend the remainder of his vacation with his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hall returned to the Hall home here on Saturday evening about 9 o'clock. They were married last Tuesday and remained at the home of the bride for a couple days and then returned to their home on Monday night. A crowd of about 150 persons gathered, with their cow bell and dish pan music to welcome them into this community. Gene was ready for them with candy and cigars. We wish this couple many years of happiness together and congratulations to "Gene."

The Tennis Club held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Ruth Parsons which was made into a lawn party. The Treasurer's report was given which was summed up as follows: Amount of money taken in by the club since its organization, from Donations, Membership cards, Bake Sales, and Festivals, was $123.93 while the amount of disbursements to date are $121.83 which leaves them a balance in their treasury of $2.10 with a bill on their hands of $10.82 and another small debt of $4.75. The young folks are to be commended on their efforts for they have a real tennis court and it has been constantly in use, morning, noon and night, in spite of the hot weather. They are making plans for some other means of making some money to clear up their debt which will make them all more comfortable. Any one wishing to play on the court, or to join can secure membership cards from the Secretary by paying the usual $1.00. Outsiders are taxed a fee of 10c for each set they play but they cannot gain ac-

Mrs. Margaret Keatley is home again after having spent several weeks with her son Harold and wife in the Pocono Mountains. Misses Alice Louise and Mary Margaret Williams, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, are this week visiting with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hall of Harrisburg. They came up to get their two daughters who had been visiting for several weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall, and upon their return took the Williams girls with them.

Miss Mary Lucas is the guest this week of Mrs. Elizabeth Rand and two daughters of State College. Another old land mark disappeared this week when J. C. Fox tore down the building at the H. R. Pratt residence which was at one time used as an office for the Justice of the Peace of the Borough, being Riley Pratt. The building has not been in use other than for a storage room, for some years.

A variety shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bowman on last Tuesday in honor of Miss Lucinda Heverly of Beech Creek and Franklin Bowman who announced their wedding to take place Sunday morning August 14th at 8 o'clock. Many beautiful gifts were received and refreshments were served to 110 guests.
