

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY

UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

William P. Fisher—A complete account will be found in the obituary column of this issue.

Group Meeting—The Fall Rally of the group of the Young folks of the Methodist church, will be held this Friday evening in the church at Bellefonte. A good attendance is desired, as there will be the annual election of officers.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning at the usual hour. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. followed by the preaching service at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. Kaufman.

Free Methodist Church Services—Unionville: Prayer service on Friday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by class meeting. Young peoples meeting in the evening at 7:30 p. m. Bellefonte church: Prayer service on Thursday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 10 a. m.

Kitchen Showers—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burd of this place held a kitchen shower at their new home one evening last week. They received many useful gifts which were very much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who have been living in the old Post office building owned by Mrs. Orrie Holt, moved last Thursday to Port Matilda, where they originally came from.

Callers at the home of Mrs. Allie Hall and sister Minnie Sensor on last Friday, were relatives, Mrs. Charles Kellerman, of Pittsburgh and her daughter from New Kensington.

Ladies interested in a Sewing Club in the community will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph Spotts on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. in Sept. 28th. Miss Butler will be the director.

Miss Anna Rich of the Friends Home in Baltimore, arrived in town last Friday and is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McEwain and visiting with friends and relatives in the community for a time.

The Young Women's Sunday School Class of the Methodist church will hold their regular monthly business meeting on Tuesday evening, September 27th, at the home of their teacher, Mr. Herbert J. Finch.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calhoun attended the Flower show and entertainment in the church at Martha on Saturday evening. They reported a wonderful display of flowers but not so well attended on account of the inclement weather.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold their regular monthly business meeting on Monday evening, Sept. 26th, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Spotts. Time of the meeting will be 7:30 p. m. A good attendance is desired.

Miss Jean Saxton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Saxton of Union Township, has recently entered as a student at the Hammond School of Beauty Culture, at Altoona. Jean is getting along fine with her new work and her many friends hope her new career will be successful.

Rev. G. A. Garrett, and wife, of the Free Methodist church, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spotts of Union Township and Miss Katherine Smith, of this place, left on Wednesday morning early for Warren where they are attending the annual conference of the Free Methodist church.

Mrs. Paul Immel in company with Mrs. Forrest Homan motored to Washington, D. C. leaving on Sunday afternoon, and visited with the former's husband, who is in the hospital in Washington, having met with an accident a couple weeks ago and had his eye injured. He is recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

The W. C. T. U. meeting which was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clark Williams, was well attended and enthusiastic, being the last meeting of the year. Plans were arranged for the new year, also for attending the State Convention which will be held in Williamsport on October 6 to 10. A wonderful time is in store for all who plan to attend this convention.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams last Friday afternoon, were their cousins, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ella Plack, of Baltimore, and also Miss June Robinson of Martha and Mrs. Nannie Williams of this place. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Sunday visitors at the home of Aaron Hall were Mrs. Arthur Burd of this place and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Miller of Milledale, LeRoy Conner and Cam Hoover of Clearfield.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall in Union Township, were Mr. H. E. Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holsoppe of Williamsport, and Miss Clara Hall of Union Township.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams last Friday afternoon, were their cousins, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ella Plack, of Baltimore, and also Miss June Robinson of Martha and Mrs. Nannie Williams of this place. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams last Friday afternoon, were their cousins, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ella Plack, of Baltimore, and also Miss June Robinson of Martha and Mrs. Nannie Williams of this place. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams last Friday afternoon, were their cousins, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ella Plack, of Baltimore, and also Miss June Robinson of Martha and Mrs. Nannie Williams of this place. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams last Friday afternoon, were their cousins, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ella Plack, of Baltimore, and also Miss June Robinson of Martha and Mrs. Nannie Williams of this place. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams last Friday afternoon, were their cousins, Mrs. Ella Johnson of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ella Plack, of Baltimore, and also Miss June Robinson of Martha and Mrs. Nannie Williams of this place. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all.

HOWARD

The Howard Fire Company joined in the parade at Bellefonte Friday night.

Miss Helen Weber left Friday to resume her work in Philadelphia after visiting at her home for several weeks.

Harry Diehl and two children of Sterling, Ill., visited last week at the home of Mr. Diehl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl.

The following ladies served at the Eberly Slap lodge in Bellefonte, Monday evening: Mrs. Kate Weber, daughter Nelia, Mrs. Girard Altenderer, Mrs. Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. A. W. Wagner, and Hilda W. Leathers.

Guests at Camp Wateredge along Bald Eagle creek Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, three children, of Sunbury; Mrs. Emma Deltish, son Carl and Emma Harrison, of Bellefonte; Miss Jane Evans, Pikeville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wagner, Hilda and Eleanor Leathers, Mr. James Horan, Jr. Heverly, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kline and son Harold.

Mrs. Ruth Weber of Centre Hall and Richard Wolf were married. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed, on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Lester Wyland and children spent the weekend at the Boy Scout Camp near Renovo.

Mr. W. W. Dreese of Beavertown, Pa., visited his brother Mr. C. C. Dreese and Mrs. Dreese, several days this week.

Rev. G. A. Schoonby returned missionary from Africa will preach at the Highland Holiness church at Howard on Wednesday evening, 28th. Everyone will recall that Schoonby is the husband of Arvilla Gardner who went to her reward from the mission fields of Africa a few months ago. Everyone is invited to this service.

The classes of the Howard High School have organized and have elected the following officers: Freshmen have not elected yet; Sophomore—President, John Lyons; vice president, Martha Pichon; secretary, Bette Schenk; treasurer, Robert Long. Junior—President, Anna Daughenbaugh; vice president, Clair Miller; secretary, Charlotte Jacobs; treasurer—William Wyland.

Seniors—President, William Lyons; vice president, Nellie Wyland; secretary, Geraldine Ishler; treasurer, Virginia Schenk.

The faculty of the Howard Borough Schools for the 1938-39 term consists of the following members: Miss Lulu Schenk, primary; Miss Bertha Wolf, intermediate; Mr. Perry Mann, grammar; High School—Miss Grace Cornish, Miss Mildred Deppie, Mr. L. H. Kemp, principal; Mr. M. J. Weikert, the teachers who instruct special courses in our school once a week are: Miss Ellehute, music; Mr. Tucker, Agriculture, announced at a later date, Home Economics.

On Tuesday night, Sept. 19, 75 of the Howard High School students had a picnic supper at Hecla Park which was followed by a roller skating party. Although there were a few beginners who had several falls this was a most enjoyable evening.

Howard High School's football team opened its season, Friday 16, with a victory of 5-0 over a large Lock Haven varsity at Howard. The lone score coming shortly after the beginning of the second half as Richard Wolf, Captain of the team, and being Howard's Quarterback, evaded tackle from the 15-yard line.

Howard outplayed the visitors consistently recording 18 first downs to 9. Twice they matched scoring chances by fumbling with in the 10-yard line. The end of the game found Howard possessing the ball on the Lock Haven 1-yard line. Robt. Wolf and Miller, fullback, bore the only bruises of the Howard game.

The Howard team has been built by Coach N. J. Weikert around six veterans from last year's squad, Wolf, captain and quarterback, DeLong guard, Masden, end, Yearick, center, Gallagher halfback. Miller being converted from a tackle to a full back this year. Newcomers to the squad this season: Trostle, Wyland, Fisher, Eike, Conifer, backs; Gardner, tackle and center; Robt. Wolf, tackle and end; Butler, Wagner, Bathurst, all tackles, N. Schenk, Lyons, Mann, ends; W. Schenk, R. Conifer, McClure, guards. Although the team is small and light Coach Weikert hopes to win no less than half the games. Last year's team won three, tied one, lost two. The rest of this season's schedule follows:

Sept. 25—Avis, away.
Sept. 30—Mill Hall, home
Oct. 7—State College (night game) away.
Oct. 14—Avis, away.
Oct. 21—Altoona, J. V., away.
Oct. 28—Mill Hall, away.
Nov. 4—Lock Haven, J. V. away.

MOSHANNON
Paul Culver Jr. of Harrisburg, is visiting at the home of his uncle Frank Culver.

Mrs. Nicholson of Morrisdale, at this writing, is visiting at the home of her son, Oscar Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fye motored to Clearfield Sunday afternoon, and Mrs. Judson Guenot, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Guenot, and two children of Karthaus, were Sunday visitors at the Charles Guenot home.

Mrs. Catherine Lucas has vacated her home for the winter, and at this writing is with her daughter Mrs. Gregg Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and daughter Hope visited friends in Brinsbin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas and Mary Ann Lucas R. N. were at the John Lucas home Saturday and Sunday.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watson received the rites of baptism, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClusick and children, visited at the McClusick home in Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yeager of South Dakota, are visiting at the H. L. Yeager home.

The Harvest Home service will be observed at the M. E. church Sunday morning at the preaching hour 10:30.

BLANCHARD

Due to the death of his aunt, Mr. Scott McLean did not report for school on Monday. In his absence Mr. Harold Carter of Mill Hall instructed the pupils of Junior High.

Samuel Workman of Lock Haven was interred in the Baptist cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, possibly two months after his sister Lizzie had passed away.

Mrs. John Davy of Howard, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Annie Ridge and Mrs. Victor Ridge.

Guard Courser of Westport has been spending some time here with relatives and renewing acquaintances of long standing.

Robert Bechdel made a business trip to Harrisburg last Thursday. Mrs. E. T. Bechdel and her family are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their first child, a son, born Sunday evening.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxon on Sunday were Kenneth Lewis, Mrs. Dorothy James and children of Lock Haven, Dretta McCloskey, of Mount Pleasant, Virginia Fravel and Ernest DeHaas of Beech Creek and Mr. A. Lytle of town.

Mrs. Allen Pletcher had a birthday supper for her mother, Mrs. Hugh Glosser of Mill Hall on Sunday evening. Guests other than the Pletcher family were Hugh Glosser, Clair and Henderson Glosser, Mr. Robert Kunes and two daughters of Lock Haven and Miss Helen Johnston of Flemington.

Additional guests at the home of Mrs. Annie Ridge this week are her brother, Mr. Purdy of Ohio, and Mrs. Clara Ridge of Bellefonte.

Mrs. E. T. Bechdel entertained her sister, Mrs. Harry Ebbs of Port Matilda, during the weekend of September 18th.

Miss Louise Courter, a student nurse at a Pittsburgh Hospital is vacationing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Courter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Spangler and two daughters spent the weekend attending the McClure Bean Soup, an annual event of Snyder county.

When word was received last Tuesday of the death of Summington Lingle of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Clon Bathurst, Mrs. Kate Bathurst and Gaylord Gahmuth motored there for the funeral, which was on Saturday.

Mr. Lingle was 7 years old and a native of Blanchard during his boyhood.

Carl Maxon of Curtis Bay, Md., and Bertha Lomax, of Baltimore, Md., spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxon. Mrs. Maxon has been on the sick list for a couple days.

Mrs. Irvin Fravel spent Wednesday with Mrs. Raymond Maxon and family.

Vivian Fravel of Beech Creek was surprised on Friday evening when a crowd gathered at her home to help celebrate her 16th birthday. She received many lovely and useful gifts. Games and 500 were played. Refreshments were served at a late hour, her friends leaving wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Those present were: Mark Kessinger, Bobby Weaver, William Eyer, Edith Miller, Lynn Heverly, Fred Hunter, James Kephart, Mervin Johnston, Lee Waite, Geo. Murray, Ross Beschler, Kay Huff, Jane Heverly, Beatrice Heverly, Kathryn Yaggle, Betty Eyer, Peg Coffey, Jane Swartz, Louise Swartz, Lois Kephart, Betty Kephart, Jean Kessinger, Gertrude Holter, Ernie Holter, Faye, Violet and Martha Peters all of Beech Creek; Jane Peleto, Betty O'Connor from Renovo; Virginia Durkin, Beatrice Packer and Mrs. Raymond Maxon, Blanchard; Mrs. Delmas McCloskey and family of Mount Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Merriman and family; Mrs. Harry Peters, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Fravel.

Word has been received that if Mr. E. T. Bechdel continues to improve as favorably as he has that he will soon be able to leave the Bellefonte Hospital and return home.

Mrs. George Davy and Mrs. Nicholson were both ill at the present. All hope for their speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis DeHaas and family motored to Winburne on Sunday to visit with friends there.

Clifford Kunes celebrated his ninth birthday on Monday, when his family invited the following guests: J. Eck, Dave Miller, Byron Richards, Johnnie Williams, Dick Heichel, Eddie Bechdel, Eddie and Russell Rapert, Clayton Kunes, Paul Bennett and Jack Packer. Ray and Sheldon Dietz for a party from 4:00 to 6 p. m.

SMULLTON
Roy Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe was rushed to the Centre County hospital last week where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Helen Zeske and friend from Georges' Valley, were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weber, in the afternoon they all accompanied Mrs. Ida Walker in her car for a lovely long ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyer and niece Miss Pearl Williams, spent Sunday afternoon at Lock Haven.

Dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shem Hackenberg, were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Leight from Tyrone, Mr. and Mrs. William Braucher from State College and their son Charles Hackenberg, wife and two children from Rmville.

Miss Pary Auman underwent a tonsil operation at the Centre County hospital last Friday and glad to state she is getting along nicely.

Harold N. Brunhart had a new hardwood floor put in their kitchen last week, our Smullton contractor and builder John W. Bright did the job.

Mrs. Annie Smill has returned home after being away nursing for a couple of weeks, near Mifflinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olibert were visitors on Sunday at the home of their daughter and family at Milledale.

Church To Hold Dablia Show
The First Lutheran church at Watsonstown, of which the Rev. Eugene S. Keller is pastor, will hold its annual dablia festival on Sunday, Members and friends of the church are asked to bring dablias, regardless of type, color or size. The request is that only dablias be brought at this time.

PLEASANT GAP

Miss Belle Ross returned home recently from Niagara Falls where she had been visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vangunden spent a Sunday recently with friends at Mingoiville.

The condition of Perry Krise who had been very ill and bedfast since May remains about the same.

Recent Sunday guests at the Geo. Margaret St. home were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hazen of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Snyder and children of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fulmer of Danshore; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Boatman, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Springman and daughters, Miss Bertha Hazen, G. L. Book, Willard Hazen, Miss Irene Adams, Mrs. S. W. Stewart, Mrs. Dorothy Radell, and Robert Radell of Williamsport; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woolver of Mountoursville.

The greater part of the day was spent at Roosevelt Dam in the Seven Mountains where the crowd had dinner in the large OCC camp at that place.

William Crumlish who is a Senior at State College returned home recently from Ohio where he spent the latter part of his vacation.

The Harvest Home services held in the Lutheran Church last Sunday were well attended and very much enjoyed and appreciated by the congregation.

On Friday evening of last week another class was given the second degree at Logan Grange.

Recent guests of the Phillip Barrs were: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Neff of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Emery White of Aze Mann, and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pletcher of Howard.

Mrs. Koons of State College is making her home with Mrs. William Ross since the latter's recent bereavement as Mrs. Ross due to poor eyesight is unable to manage alone.

W. F. Westerfeld left last week for State College where he will make his home while completing his college course.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Millward and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Millward returned last week from a week's vacation spent in Canada, Niagara Falls and at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Elmer Wilson in Pittsburgh. Little Miss Donna Lee Millward who has been visiting the Wilsons returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Evey left Friday for a week's vacation to be spent in Pittsburgh, Wilmerding, Pa., and in Virginia and West Virginia. Miss Joanne Decker of Bellefonte accompanied them as far as Pittsburgh where she remained with friends until Monday.

Mrs. H. T. Noll was hostess to her Bridge Club at her home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun of Renovo, were guests at the H. T. Noll home Monday.

We are sorry to note the death of Miss Mildred Foss at her home in Carlisle last week. She was a sister of Thomas Foss of this place. Mr. Foss and daughter spent Wednesday and Thursday at the bereaved home while Mrs. Foss remained until Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hile, Terry Noll and Mrs. Charlotte Heim accompanied Samuel Noll, Jr., to Altoona Sunday to attend a Model Airplane Meet that was being held at that place.

Leslie Miller left Monday for his home in Alliquippa after spending a week with his mother Mrs. John Noll.

His sons Dean and Jack accompanied him here. Dean, to return to State College where he is a student and Jack to Whitecroft where he secured employment.

Mrs. Edna Kirkwood who spent a number of months with Mrs. Rachel Noll caring for her after she had the misfortune of breaking her hip last Fall and then visiting her sister Mrs. J. T. Noll left about two weeks ago for her home in New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cori and children and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bohn and daughter spent Sunday with the Harry Bliger's.

Misses Esther Noll and Betty Sommers were home over Sunday from Altoona, where they completed their first week at Business College.

Miss Betty Keller left Sunday for her home in Philadelphia after a week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Noll.

OAK HALL
Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bell of Harrisburg, were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Morrison's sister, Mrs. Calvin Trostle.

Misses Eliza and Alice Gilliland visited the J. K. Alexander family at Unionville on Sunday.

Albert Lightly of Portsmouth, Mass., and Winifred Nolan of Rochester, N. Y., were married on Saturday and motored here on their honeymoon to spend a few days with Mrs. Lightly's mother, Mrs. Frank Powell. They returned to Portsmouth on Tuesday when his leave of absence from the navy expired.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Korman and children, Joan and Donald of Leomont, called at the Grant Kline home on Sunday.

Read the Classified ads

HOWARD SCHOOL NEWS

The classes of the Howard High School have organized and have elected the following officers: Freshmen have not elected yet; Sophomore—President, John Lyons; vice president, Martha Pichon; secretary, Bette Schenk; treasurer, Robert Long. Junior—President, Anna Daughenbaugh; vice president, Clair Miller; secretary, Charlotte Jacobs; treasurer—William Wyland.

Seniors—President, William Lyons; vice president, Nellie Wyland; secretary, Geraldine Ishler; treasurer, Virginia Schenk.

The faculty of the Howard Borough Schools for the 1938-39 term consists of the following members: Miss Lulu Schenk, primary; Miss Bertha Wolf, intermediate; Mr. Perry Mann, grammar; High School—Miss Grace Cornish, Miss Mildred Deppie, Mr. L. H. Kemp, principal; Mr. M. J. Weikert, the teachers who instruct special courses in our school once a week are: Miss Ellehute, music; Mr. Tucker, Agriculture, announced at a later date, Home Economics.

On Tuesday night, Sept. 19, 75 of the Howard High School students had a picnic supper at Hecla Park which was followed by a roller skating party. Although there were a few beginners who had several falls this was a most enjoyable evening.

Howard High School's football team opened its season, Friday 16, with a victory of 5-0 over a large Lock Haven varsity at Howard. The lone score coming shortly after the beginning of the second half as Richard Wolf, Captain of the team, and being Howard's Quarterback, evaded tackle from the 15-yard line.

Howard outplayed the visitors consistently recording 18 first downs to 9. Twice they matched scoring chances by fumbling with in the 10-yard line. The end of the game found Howard possessing the ball on the Lock Haven 1-yard line. Robt. Wolf and Miller, fullback, bore the only bruises of the Howard game.

The Howard team has been built by Coach N. J. Weikert around six veterans from last year's squad, Wolf, captain and quarterback, DeLong guard, Masden, end, Yearick, center, Gallagher halfback. Miller being converted from a tackle to a full back this year. Newcomers to the squad this season: Trostle, Wyland, Fisher, Eike, Conifer, backs; Gardner, tackle and center; Robt. Wolf, tackle and end; Butler, Wagner, Bathurst, all tackles, N. Schenk, Lyons, Mann, ends; W. Schenk, R. Conifer, McClure, guards. Although the team is small and light Coach Weikert hopes to win no less than half the games. Last year's team won three, tied one, lost two. The rest of this season's schedule follows:

Sept. 25—Avis, away.
Sept. 30—Mill Hall, home
Oct. 7—State College (night game) away.
Oct. 14—Avis, away.
Oct. 21—Altoona, J. V., away.
Oct. 28—Mill Hall, away.
Nov. 4—Lock Haven, J. V. away.

MOSHANNON
Paul Culver Jr. of Harrisburg, is visiting at the home of his uncle Frank Culver.

Mrs. Nicholson of Morrisdale, at this writing, is visiting at the home of her son, Oscar Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fye motored to Clearfield Sunday afternoon, and Mrs. Judson Guenot, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Guenot, and two children of Karthaus, were Sunday visitors at the Charles Guenot home.

Mrs. Catherine Lucas has vacated her home for the winter, and at this writing is with her daughter Mrs. Gregg Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and daughter Hope visited friends in Brinsbin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas and Mary Ann Lucas R. N. were at the John Lucas home Saturday and Sunday.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Watson received the rites of baptism, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClusick and children, visited at the McClusick home in Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yeager of South Dakota, are visiting at the H. L. Yeager home.

The Harvest Home service will be observed at the M. E. church Sunday morning at the preaching hour 10:30.

Church To Hold Dablia Show
The First Lutheran church at Watsonstown, of which the Rev. Eugene S. Keller is pastor, will hold its annual dablia festival on Sunday, Members and friends of the church are asked to bring dablias, regardless of type, color or size. The request is that only dablias be brought at this time.

making her home with Mrs. William Ross since the latter's recent bereavement as Mrs. Ross due to poor eyesight is unable to manage alone.

W. F. Westerfeld left last week for State College where he will make his home while completing his college course.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Millward and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Millward returned last week from a week's vacation spent in Canada, Niagara Falls and at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Elmer Wilson in Pittsburgh. Little Miss Donna Lee Millward who has been visiting the Wilsons returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Evey left Friday for a week's vacation to be spent in Pittsburgh, Wilmerding, Pa., and in Virginia and West Virginia. Miss Joanne Decker of Bellefonte accompanied them as far as Pittsburgh where she remained with friends until Monday.

Mrs. H. T. Noll was hostess to her Bridge Club at her home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun of Renovo, were guests at the H. T. Noll home Monday.

YOUR HAT is Here!

LADIES' Full-Fashioned HOSE 69c pr. Pure silk, ringless.

LADIES' & MISSES' 2-Pc. PAJAMAS 79c & 98c

LADIES' Flannel Gowns 59c & 79c Assorted colors.

LADIES' Fabric Gloves 59c pr. Made of chamois suede, with double overseam. Colors, black, brown, navy.

LADIES' HAND BAGS 59c ea.

LADIES' SILK STRIPE Vests - Bloomers 25c ea. Sizes 36 to 44.

LADIES' SILK STRIPE UNION SUITS 39c

CHILDREN'S BLOOMERS 10c

LADIES' BLOUSES 98c ea. Made of crepe and satin. Latest styles.

LADIES' & MISSES' SKIRTS $1.95 Made of Parker-Wilder flannel. All wool. All sizes.

LADIES' Rayon Undies 20c & 25c Extra Size—30c

LADIES' SNUGGY Vests, Panties 20c ea. Children's Silk Stripped BLOOMERS — 15c

70x80 Cotton Plaid Blankets $1.00

Visit Our Basement Department. We carry a complete line of House Furnishings, Electrical Appliances, Rugs, Etc.

A. C. TURNER CO. 5c to $100 STORES

Allegheny St. Bellefonte, Pa.

STORE HOURS—Week Days, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.; Saturdays 9-11 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Horner and family and Mr. Horner's mother, Mrs. Della Horner visited the Richard McAlevy family and Miss Harriet McAlevy recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Homan of Millbrook, were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gilliland.

William R. Farree enjoyed an outing at his mountain camp with a group of his friends over the weekend.

Miss Francis Whiteman and Miss Ruth Kauffman of Lewisport were weekend visitors with Miss Whiteman's mother, Mrs. Elen Whiteman.