ANTIQUE They say I'm old fashioned and funny Like an antique on the shelf, But I don't seem to care a bit, I just have to be myself.

They say that I should be modern And some times go out on a spree, But what they mean by that, Is more than I can see.

If smoking and drinking, and swearing, Is what they call being modern, I think I shall stick to my rocking chair.

And at knitting take a turn, I may be old fashioned and funny
