

ply Company which rented the basement and first floor of the Pro-

lott, 6, also is be ing u raiding a fund, has an entirely dif- consequently he spared no effort

First Arrest

Doctor Dies

Stricken while operating on a woman patient, at Erie, Dr. Frank B. Krimmel, well known Elie surgeon, a daughter of John and Mary Hill. metioned to colleague to take charge, For 52 years she lived in Morrisdale titions the fire roared through the staggered from the operating table where she was widely known and re-

'Dead' Snake Bites

Deciding to get the rattles off a snake he had killed to use as a good luck charm. Floyd Martin, of Martinsville. Ind picked up the "dead" snake. which around and bit him on the hand.

information: King Leopold. of Belgium, still believes in the force think they have a mission in the of public opinion. world.

Mrs. Scott's death marks the 24th death on Centre-Clearfield roads since the beginning of the year. Mrs. Scott was born in Houtzdale, Butler.

and collapsed. He died a few min- spected. She was married in Brockutes later while the operation con- wayville 28 years ago to William Scott, who survives her.

also survive the deceased. They are:

of Morrisdale. Funeral services were held from at the time of the accident. Few men over fifty years of age

One daughter and three brothers

Mrs. Gilbert Watson, Pleasant Hill; John, William and Gilbert Hill, all the home of her niece, Mrs. Ralph promptly wriggled Corby, whom she was going to see ed a big headway on the firemen be-> original frame building was brick encased. All occupants of the building escaped uninjured.

Trailing the By-Paths of Local History

THECAPTURE OF LEWIS & CONNELLY A Robber Pair Who Once Terrorized Centre County

The story of Lewis and Connelly. man, worked at the Milesburg Forge. compelled them to stand by while two highwaymen who terrorized He was a common laborer for Jos- they took what they wanted. The Centre county in the year 1820, fur- eph Miles and Joseph Green, then trio then started for Potter's Mills nishes an interesting chapter to the proprietors of the works. Thomas with the intention of robbing Potsparsely chronicled history of local Lewis, the other brother, a civil and ter's store, but John Carr observed incidents, and although known to harmless man, lived in a stone house them at the shutters, and they fied. the older citizens, its repeating will near Roopsburg.

be ever new to those who are a part of the present generation.

was described as vicious, savage, David Lewis and Dan Connelly and vindicative. He would not hesiwere the directing force of a band tate to kill, and although he was of robbers whose principal prey was never known to commit murder, he cargoes of merchandise that had to was probably prevented from doing be brought into Bellefonte over so many times through the interlonely wagon trails. Sometimes the vention of Lewis.

pair worked alone, depending upon the size and importance of the un- their downfall and capture was the week later were heard from in the dertaking; on other occasions they plundering of several wagons loadbanded with others of evil repute. ed with store goods for Hammond Their favorite haunt was to be & Page, merchants in Bellefonte. found in the wilds of the Seven The robbery occurred in the Seven trail and capture them if possible. Mountains. Mountains and the party consisted

Lewis was a son of Lewis Lewis, of Lewis, Connelly, and a small man who was a surveyor in Nittany Val- named Jeffries, whom Lewis said ley as early as 1771. In spite of the was an expert, a perfect ferret and evil vocation he followed Dave Lewis weasel.

was regarded as a remarkable man. It has been said of Lewis and He is said to hav been very pleas- Connelly that they intended to ant and agreeable in manner, and make a clean-up in a series of robwell proportioned in build. His arms beries this night and then leave possessed the yeculiarity of being Centre county for other fields where tapered from he shoulders to the they could carry on their nefarious ends of his ingers, so that it was work. Whether this is true or not, almost impossible to keep handcuffs it proved to be the final act that upon hind. He was very agile and brought to an end the terrorism swift of foot. Mild in disposition, he they had inflicted on law-abiding often restrained his companions in citizens.

crime from excesses and murder. On the night of the robbery the Like the well known "Robin Hood," Bellefonte merchants were receiving he frequently took from the rich a stock of goods that were being and gave to the poor. hauled by three teams across the

This attempt at describing the Seven Mountains. One in particular, personal attributes of Lewis is not being loaded with the costliest intended to place him in the role goods, broke down on the mountain of a hero, but rather to prove that and it being late, the men in charge had he pursued a different course drove on to John Carr's Tavern at of life he might have been a valuable citizen. He had two brothers, wagons.

who lived quite different lives from Lewis and his party held up the that of Lewis. Caleb Lewis, a single drivers with drawn revolvers, and Making its way through the parsecond and third floors of the building ruining two doctors' offices, three apartments and a beauty shop operated by Miss Betty Thompson Bigler. Several hours later the roof Jumping the gap separating the Beech Creek and Blanchard Many Trade Unions Favorable of the building caved in.

buildings the fire spread into the Ziff property where two apartments and a garage office were ruined. The fire started at 1:30 and gain-cause of the air chamber created in the Professional building when the

the first year.

A small posse followed them, among whom was Paul Lebo, who outran STEEL WORKER ESCAPES Dan Connelly, on the other hand, the rest so far that Lewis and Connelly, who had secreted themselves, captured Lebo. Connelly's savage instincts prompted him to kill Lebo and had him nearly choked to death when Lewis intervened and persuaded Connelly to let him go. In spite of the intense search for

Their last robbery which led to the robbers they escaped and a last Wednesday afternoon when he fell from a girder to the basement. a distance of about 15 feet. vicinity of Lock Haven. Word was immediately sent to Bellefonte and searching parties were organized to started down Nittany Valley to col-(Continued on Page 6)

H'M -- WE'LL BRUSH

A LITTLE TODAY

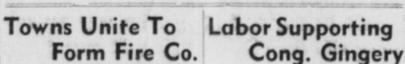

TOA

HOW MANY INCHES

FOOT

sent home.

fessional building. Also damaged on tion that television field tests con- pany has offered a kit of parts for fered bruises. All were treated at the first floor was the women's ap- ducted in the New York area by slightly under $100 and another has the office of a Martinsburg physician. parel shop recently opened by Mrs. RCA and its associate, the National announced complete receivers with-Broadcasting company, had "con- out sound units at from $125 to $175.

Effect Temporary Orto Candidate's Re-

election

The International Brotherhood of A temporary organization of a community fire company was made Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpat a meeting in the school building ers have endorsed Congressman Don at Snow Shoe Sunday of last week. in the Motor Fund to build roads in at Beech Creek, Tuesday evening, Gingery for re-election, this week, in Joseph Allen, of Newbrity, was attended by men from Beech Creek the following letter: and Blanchard. "We do not attempt to dictate to made are David M. Packer, presi- in the districts where candidates dent; Lester H. Stephens, vice presi- have been endorsed and recommenddent; George F. Hess, secretary; ed for support, that our members will chairman of membership committee. and made effective Organized Labor's William H. Vonada, Blanchard, Leonon-partisan principle of 'elect your nard J. Robb, Beech Creek; chairfriends and defeat your enemies." man of committee on bylaws, Thomas F. Kessinger. With respect to the endorsement

ganization

The next meeting will be held in of Don Gingery, the organization the Beech Creek school building at 7:30 p. m., Friday, Oct. 28.

Opportunity to join the voluntee:

said. "Don Gingery, Democrat, incumbent, served in 74th and 75th Congress, with a good labor record. We recommend that he be supported fire company is being given the men in the coming election." of both towns and already a large

Another endorsement comes from number have signed up. The dues were fixed at ten cents per month the International Brotherhood of Boiler Makers, Iron Ship Builders and Helpers of America.

> olas, International Vice-President of SERIOUS INJURY IN FALL the Brotherhood, officers and members of Pennsylvania lodges in the General State Authority building Endorsements were based on past program at the Pennsylvania State records of candidates with respect to College, escaped with minor injuries their vote on social and labor measures

50 YEAR OLD SUIT The accident happened on the new Chemistry-Physics building. Yarnell landed on his feet and suffered bootblacks, died he was buried in Baltimore American. On sale at all from a heel contusion, a sprained the black trousers and long black newsstands. William Alexander, ex-sheriff, ankle, and from shock. After re- coat he had been saving for the past ceiving medical treatment he was fifty years to be used for the occasion.

Mrs. Allison and one of the children were thrown from the car by the impact with the train. The crew of the freight, the SK extra, apparently had no knowledge of the pleted and operations of the Highaccident, proceeding to the Pittsway Department curtailed, the preburgh division by way of New Portage Junction.

The car was completely demolishprovision for its repayment. This sum was part of a deficit of more ed after being thrown over the embankment. Allison, the operator, esthan $30,000,000 inherited by this caped unscathed. Administration.

out providing a cent to feed the MOTORCYCLIST HURT IN MISHAP AT SNOW SHOE unemployed in the first six months

Injured in a motorocycle accident found upon X-ray examination at highway construction program-or the Williamsport Hospital. last to save the needy from starvation. The temporary officers to serve our members whom to vote for or Wednesday, to have suffered a fracintil a permanent organization is against, but it is sincerely hoped that ture of a bone in the foot in addi- tion had repaid every cent it had tion to a shoulder intury.

> Allen, employed in the mines at and in addition repaid the $5,000,000 Snow Shoe was starting out for a which its predecessors had taken lend their aid to those candidates trip to Williamsport on his motorcycle when his machine struck a deback. pression in the road and went out of control. His foot was crushed beneath one of the wheels. Ligaments in the right shoulder were torn.

> > Pleasant Gap Man Wrecks Car. Russell O. Spicher, 20, of Pleasant Gap, escaped with a chin laceration last Thursday afternoon when his building purposes. automobile skidded and crashed into a street car at First avenue and Lloyd street, Altoona. Spicher told at the same time were instrumental police he was nearing the intersec- in helping the state through a pertion when he applied the brakes, iod of financial stress to give aid the car going into a skid and crash- to those in need. ing into a Third avenue street car. Total damage was placed at $360, of Fence Prevents Wreck. which $350 represented damage to The safety fence along the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Hyner vented a probable wreck when i Series of fascinating paintings by stopped a large tree that toppled Henry Clive, distingushed American down the mountain side. When the artist, with caption lines by Carolyn tree struck the fence it set signals to half trains in the area. A power Wells, distinguished poetess. Every line was broken as the tree fell down Sunday in The American Weekly the When Joe Vacca, dean of Newark's big magazine distributed with the the mountain.

"A Girl in Every Port."

Nothing upsets a man's work worry about getting mixed up in schedule like the idea of a holiday. European wars.

ferent meaning from loans. Under to keep the loss as low as possible the previous administration the mo- He was one of the organizers of the tor fund was tapped for non-high- Firemen's Relief Association, and way purposes with no provision was always prominently identified with any movement directed toward made for repayment. When this Administration took office it found its Motor Fund dethe conservation of fish and game. There are hundreds of other persons deeply interested in such matters, but it was Mr. Bower's personceding Administration having taken al concern that made him of ines-$5,000,000 from the fund with no timable value as a leader.

WHY NOT PARK YOUR CAR IN THE BASEMENT

Our predecessors left office with-Another of the up-to-the-minute features which have been introduced at Rockefeller Center in New of 1935. We were faced with the York is an office building which will choice of holding remaining cash contain a six-story garage.

So unusual is this combination the Spring-the start of each year's that a special permit had to be secured before the structure could begin. It is said to be the first By August, 1937, this Administracombination office building and commercial parking space in New borrowed from the Motor Fund-York and one of the few of the kind in the country

In the building as now planned without any provision for paying it will be space for parking about eight hundred cars on six floors. The Federal Burea uof Public Three of the levels will be under-Roads, which has power to penalize ground, one on street level, and two states which divert such funds, has above, each to be reached by spec-not found it necessary to take any ial ramos. punitive action against Pennsyl-This is a new idea in office buildvania as it has done with some ings, but it is indicative of the other states. This takes the form of trends in modern building construcwithdrawal of Federal aid for road tion. No business can proceed far without taking cognizance of trans-Thus, under the present policy, portation and traffic problems. the motorists suffered no loss and

> CONGRESSMAN ANNOUNCES TWO NEW WORK PROJECTS

Congressman Don Gingery announces Presidential approval of the following Works Progress Administration projects, the amounts shown representing federal funds granted $15,597.00-Altoona. Blair county to improve grade school buildings and grounds throughout the city of Altoona, Blair county. City School District owned property, in addition to projects specifically approved. onsor: Altoona School Board.

$142,785-Black Moshannon State We often wonder, in this day of the Forest in Rush township, Centre gogetter, whether anybody thinks to county, to complete and expand Inand Ritchie, in Clinton county, pre-

By POP MOMAND

termediate Emergency Airport in Black Moshannon State Forest. including clearing, grubbing, grading, draining, paving, installing lighting system, extending runways, seeding, and performing incidental and appurtenant work. State-owned property; in addition to projects specifically approved. Sponsor: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Revenue. Bureau of Aeronautics.

Coffee to Spain. The American Red Cross announced its acceptance of the offer of more than 1,000,000 pounds of coffee by the Brazilian Government for starving Spanish civilians. The colfee will be transported to Havre by the Maritime Commission, where it will be sent overland to Spain to be distributed behind both the Insurgent and Loyalist lines.

There are some people who cannot imagine that a patriot can sit down while the band plays the national

WHAT ? YOU'RE WAY OFF!! HOW DO YOU FIGURE ABOUT FINE !! HOW YOU FIGURE TWO PHOOEY !! YEAH! MAMA'S UP ON OUR ARITHMETIC MANY FEET THAT LOOK AT HAVIN' A LAWN ASU TO A THAT'S AIN'T THAT OUR PARTY FOR A YARD? US NOT SO TOUGH! RIGHT, YOWSAH! BACK HUNDRED SUME'PIN YARD! WOMEN HARD NO-TWELVE, TODAY! SOUR-BUT IT PUSS! WILL TAKE SOME FIGURING!

In a letter signed by Harry Nichthe automobile

Jack Yarnell, 21, of Aitoona em-23rd Congressional district were askployed as a steel worker on the PWA ed to support Don Gingery.