

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mae Fry)

L. H. Harpster was a business visitor in Huntingdon last Saturday.

Mrs. Madeline Harm and two daughters of October meeting Saturday p. m. at the home of the Misses Ethel and Mary Burwell on Church street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles M. Dale returned to their home last Wednesday from a two week delightful visit with their daughter and husband in Chester, Pa. Prof. and Mrs. Ralph Rieker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald A. Struble of Montrose, Pa., are the proud parents of a baby girl born in the Centre County Hospital last Wednesday. Mrs. Struble one of our former town belles Miss Thelma Kline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kline.

The Willis Schilling family moved Thursday from the Reed house in Rock Springs to the A. L. Bowersox house on East Main street. Willis will be much missed in his position as foreman under Prof. Cecil Irwin at State College, experimental farms.

The Lutheran church was crowded to the doors last Friday evening when members from Pine Hall, Pine Grove Mills and Gatesburg churches, assembled for a well reception for the new pastor, Rev. James Fisher. An abundance of canned fruit and plenty of other edibles to supply their larder. A brand new electric range was recently installed in the parsonage for their convenience.

Mrs. Rhelda Frank of Millbrook spent Sunday at the C. E. Frank home in the Glades.

Assessor A. L. Albright is making his usual rounds this week checking up on real estate in Ferguson Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. James I. Reed in their new Buick motored to State College Monday for a visit with friends.

Walter Weaver is covering his house with asbestos weather boarding snow while, he'll be all set for icy winds.

The William Delber family fitted last week from the C. M. Prowley farm to the Prof. P. L. Wrigley farm near Meek's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sunday of Leont, were Sunday dinner guests at the parental home, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sunday on Church Street.

Mrs. Maude Ewing of State College, passed through town Thursday a. m. en route to spend the day with her mother, Mrs. Alice Irwin in Baileyville.

Forester Clark Harpster is boasting of a new boy his home born Thursday p. m. at the Shannon Centre County Hospital Saturday p. m. both mother and babe are doing nicely.

George Ramsey of Germantown, Pa., was here for his annual turkey hunt with headquarters at the John H. Barto home, he returned to his home Saturday with his usual trophy—a large gobbler.

Engineer on P. R. R. Conrad M. Fry of Altoona was a caller in our valley Friday a. m. at the Shannon Center home at Circleville and at the C. M. Dale home, he was accompanied by Mrs. Richey and Mrs. Rutledge of Altoona.

BUSH HOLLOW

Attendance at Sunday School increased some again on Sunday, 48 being present. There is room for many more. Everybody welcome. Attendance at the Wednesday night services are increasing each week. Come and hear Rev. Byrd and you'll be anxious to come each Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas have their three grandchildren visiting them, they are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hasinger, of Hecla. While they are up here they got a new baby brother at their home. We did not learn the new arrivals name.

A good crowd attended the services held in the church Sunday p. m. by boys from the Allentown Bible School. Everyone present enjoyed the talk given by Mr. Howard on "Life in the Bible." A donation of canned goods etc., was given them, also a collection amounting to $4.01 was received and given to the school. We are glad to give the school what we can.

Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts were, Mrs. Rote and children.

Mrs. Myrtle King and son Edgar and Lona Spotts all of Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spotts and children, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Irwin and family took dinner at the Roy Spotts home on Sunday.

Those who walk or drive the Hollow road want to be careful as there is a new licensed driver in the Hollow and a lady at that.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shirey and daughter Martha of Williamsport, motored up on Sunday evening and visited until Monday evening with Mrs. Shirey's mother, Mrs. Edna Spotts and family.

From Last Week Attendance at Sunday School was not so good on Sunday, there being only 38 present, the lowest attendance for some time. We don't know what the trouble is, surely isn't the cold weather that keeps people home from church and Sunday School. Although the attendance at church on Wednesday night was fairly good, there might have been more out to hear the wonderful sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. Byrd, which was enjoyed by everyone present.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Lucas of Unionville were supper guests on Tuesday evening at the Harry Carver home.

Miss Gertrude Carver visited at the S. E. Williams home Tuesday p. m.

Rev. Byrd and wife were supper guests at the Clyde Watson home Wednesday evening, also visited homes in the Hollow Wednesday p. m.

Mrs. Martin Spotts and children visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marlin Moore and family at Port Matilda last Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Carver spent Thursday at the C. H. Bush home.

Mrs. Blair Carver spent Friday at the Harry Carver home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shaffer and granddaughter Florence Shaffer, of Hoversville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman and daughter Dorothy, of Johnstown, visited at the home of Mrs. Shaffer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Custer at Unionville on Saturday. In the afternoon they all visited at the Roy Spotts home. Also visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Custer on Sunday, October 23, were his sister Mrs. Elizabeth Horner and son George, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shultz of Johnstown.

On Monday p. m. the school children and their teacher Miss Lucas visited Earl Bush at his home. Most of the children were made, and Earl was to guess who his schoolmates were. After he guessed them they treated him to peanuts and candy, then the children all returned to the school house to finish out the afternoon with games and Halloween treat.

P. S. Blackford and son and Mr. Bush all of New Castele visited a little while at the Roy Spotts home Sunday p. m.

SMULLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Shem Hackenberg spent Sunday at Northumberland, with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fromm, Mr. Fromm has been in poor health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gilbert spent Sunday at Milesburg with their daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur D. Meyer spent Sunday at Bloomsburg with Mrs. Meyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams.

Shem Hackenberg received word last week of the death of his uncle, Albert Dale of Laurelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kahl and daughter Beatrice spent Sunday with Mr. Ruhl's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ruhl at Tyersville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer and daughter Doris were recent visitors at the home of their son Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weber and daughter and Mrs. Ida Walker were visitors in Lock Haven on Sunday.

Miss Mary DeLong of Centre Hall spent the weekend with Miss Carolyn Bennett.

SUMMIT HILL

Jean Fye, who was a patient in the Bellefonte Hospital was permitted to go home on Sunday. He is as good as can be expected.

Early Thursday morning Mr. S. S. Craf of Windy Hill was seen in town.

Mrs. Mary Spela of Sherry Run did her weeks washing at the Rosie Scholl, her mother's home. Scarcity of water was the reason for a visiting washday.

Brick yards is doing a booming business at present. Maximum output since the depression has recently been acquired. All six kilns are in operation. More men are working more days a week and bricks are being shipped again the first for years.

Mr. Brungard partook of a luscious rabbit dinner at the Rudy farm near State College Saturday.

Schools received 10 per cent of receipts obtained from the sale of school pictures.

End of month reports were done and distributed to pupils of the Hill school Friday.

Pupils in 4th and 5th grades are jubilant over having electric lights in their rooms at last.

This is the happy climax to effort displayed by last year's Fourth grade pupils and a few of the present sixth grade. Ten dollars raised from the sale of seeds and $12.50 realized from an Amateur Hour program staged by this group helped finance this enterprise. Three cheers for successfully campaigning for Better lights at Hill school.

The new campaign we are sponsoring which has the endorsement of more liberal thinkers is a revised school program for lower grades which embraces a more intensive reading program and places less emphasis on such subjects as the arts and writing. We may be English, History and Health are as vital to the education of present day youth as yesterday.

It is not idle gossip that the present system of one teacher schools for upper grades and the abolition of departmental work is a degradation to the former modern trend of up-to-date procedure.

What has happened to our more alive citizenry? It is more radically aggressive teachers needed to post a bill of rights and petition for a return of the old regime. Some banded certainly needed to join these satisfied complacent individuals from their attitude of laissez faire to one of united action. Maybe this paragraph does the trick.

The Emro Drapcho are building an addition to their house to make it more convenient. Two rooms are being added to the east side which will make a new L. Claster's furnished the lumber. Out of town carpenters are doing the construction work.

Clarence members of the Bellefonte Banjo band had their usual

LITTLE NITTANY

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Harter and daughter Madeline and sons Ralph, Nevin and Roy of Zion spent Sunday afternoon at the Earl Harter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pletcher and daughter Marjorie, spent Sunday evening with friends at Bellefonte.

Samuel Sproul spent Sunday with his parents at Hecla.

Miss Mary and Gloria Dullen spent the weekend with their sisters at Williamsport.

CLARENCE

Sixth grade held a Halloween party in their room Monday afternoon. After returning from a parade to the brick yard they found refreshments awaiting them.

Mrs. William Tarman found time Monday p. m. by taking time out from her many household duties to visit schools. If only more parents were as interested in the welfare of their children.

Charles and Harve McCloskey and families were to the Tom McCloskey camp Sunday where they saw Will McCloskey of Lewistown who had been spending the weekend there.

Miss Peters spent Sunday with her home folks at Beech Creek.

J. McGowan local attendance officer was out rounding up truants on Monday.

The Dr. and nurse were still in town during the week concluding medical examination of school children.

Regular meeting for teachers instruction in writing convened Thursday evening. All teachers were present excepting Mr. Duke who had an out of town call to make that evening.

All Saints Day was observed with appropriate offices at Saint Michaels on Tuesday.

Many goody folks attended church Wednesday, Thursday and Friday incident to All Souls Day and the regular monthly confession.

Some of our towns-people were seen in the throngs that witnessed Bellefontes annual mummies parade on Monday night.

Hunting season is in full blast, we don't know of anyone who obtained the seasons limit in any type of small game.

However William Zanella is pridefully boasting about bringing to earth a fine gobbler while hunting Saturday.

Frank Marynak got an immense one at 26 during the week, so there are a few turkeys less, though there must be many alive yet if reports of Johnny McClusak are true, for he missed the whole of a flock of 24 while hunting Renovo ridge.

John Stetcho and Edward Koshing had a cycling mishap Thursday noon when on their way home for dinner. The consultation of an M. D. was necessary. At this writing John, who was the more seriously injured has resumed his studies in grade six.

Showers at intervals Saturday gave hopes of an increased supply of water ere winter arrives.

The advent of Indian Summer was not during the week. A smoky haze, glorious sunshine, and a Fourth of July temperature were all indications of the season mentioned.

Among other teachers who had very important business at the county capital Saturday were Miss Zoe Meek and Miss Myra Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCloskey called on the Sayre family at Yarnell Sunday afternoon.

The Mike Seifchik family of Foundation visited with their relatives Sunday at the Sepel's at Pancake.

Mrs. Ambers Fye and daughter Gladys of Moshannon spent Sunday p. m. at the Gorton Fye home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cole had as Sunday guests Mr. Henry Cole and Mr. Fisher from Lock Haven.

The younger generation of the Anderson and Fye families frolicked during the weekend with Carlson's children, their cousins.

Mrs. Nellie Soits had a business trip to Phillipsburg Wednesday.

P. T. A. scheduled to have a regular monthly meeting this week presumably Thursday.

Early Thursday morning Mr. S. S. Craf of Windy Hill was seen in town.

Mrs. Mary Spela of Sherry Run did her weeks washing at the Rosie Scholl, her mother's home. Scarcity of water was the reason for a visiting washday.

Brick yards is doing a booming business at present. Maximum output since the depression has recently been acquired. All six kilns are in operation. More men are working more days a week and bricks are being shipped again the first for years.

Mr. Brungard partook of a luscious rabbit dinner at the Rudy farm near State College Saturday.

Schools received 10 per cent of receipts obtained from the sale of school pictures.

End of month reports were done and distributed to pupils of the Hill school Friday.

Pupils in 4th and 5th grades are jubilant over having electric lights in their rooms at last.

This is the happy climax to effort displayed by last year's Fourth grade pupils and a few of the present sixth grade. Ten dollars raised from the sale of seeds and $12.50 realized from an Amateur Hour program staged by this group helped finance this enterprise. Three cheers for successfully campaigning for Better lights at Hill school.

The new campaign we are sponsoring which has the endorsement of more liberal thinkers is a revised school program for lower grades which embraces a more intensive reading program and places less emphasis on such subjects as the arts and writing. We may be English, History and Health are as vital to the education of present day youth as yesterday.

It is not idle gossip that the present system of one teacher schools for upper grades and the abolition of departmental work is a degradation to the former modern trend of up-to-date procedure.

What has happened to our more alive citizenry? It is more radically aggressive teachers needed to post a bill of rights and petition for a return of the old regime. Some banded certainly needed to join these satisfied complacent individuals from their attitude of laissez faire to one of united action. Maybe this paragraph does the trick.

The Emro Drapcho are building an addition to their house to make it more convenient. Two rooms are being added to the east side which will make a new L. Claster's furnished the lumber. Out of town carpenters are doing the construction work.

Clarence members of the Bellefonte Banjo band had their usual

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Nov. 13 are as follows: Worship with sermon delivered by the Rev. Ray Dotterer of State College, at 9:30, and Sunday school at 10:30; C. E., 6:45. Topic for discussion "How Young People Can Help Build a Warless World." Holy Communion services has been postponed until November 27 at 10:30 a. m. Preparatory Friday evening, November 25, at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Beightel and daughter Jane, of Philadelphia, returned to their home on Sunday evening after spending a week here with his aunt, Mrs. C. E. Aley and family and enjoying the sport of a nimrod, but sad to relate, his successful marksmanship was not as good as desired.

On Tuesday Charles Long of Nittany, and Edward Bartley, of this place, made a business trip to Tyrone.

Mrs. Guyer Ertley and daughter June Elizabeth, spent Tuesday evening at the Summer Noll home.

Mrs. Robert Conaway and son Harry spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. John Dunkle and family of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gummo and Mrs. Laura Glosser, of Mill Hall, Pa. D. I. were Saturday evening callers at the Cecil Herr home.

Delegates representing our C. E. Society to the forty-sixth convention of the Centre County Christian Endeavor Union, held on November 4 and 5 in the Houserville U. B. church, were Miss Kathryn McCrea, Arthur Bartley and Harry Leathers, and reported it as very interesting and inspiring to the God-loving and fearing people.

Malvin Dixon was a Sunday evening supper guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Munro and daughter Marion, of Lock Haven, and Master Kenneth Ertley spent Sunday afternoon at the Elmer Swope home.

Mr. A. A. Garrett and children spent Sunday afternoon at the G. P. Garrett home at Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph were Tuesday evening callers at the William Beightel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bartley, of Zion, were Sunday dinner guests and spent the afternoon at the Miles Bartley home.

Mrs. C. E. Eley and daughters Mildred and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Beightel and daughter Jane, were Saturday evening supper guests at the C. E. Poorman home at Lock Haven.

Sunday callers at the Roy Wenzel home were Mr. Leonard Wenzel and Mr. Alva Confer, of Mill Hill; Mr. Jason Confer and Mr. Harry Leathers, of Renovo; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Haag, of New Henry; and Mrs. and son Paul of Little Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dickey and Elsie Jane, spent Sunday with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hackenberg and family of Renovo.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shunkwerder of Lewistown, were Tuesday afternoon callers at the E. R. Bartley home.

Mrs. Anna Robb, Mrs. Edward Bartley and son Arthur, attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Martin at Snyderstown on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Beightel and daughter Jane, of Philadelphia, were Wednesday evening dinner guests at the home of his uncle, William Beightel and family.

Callers at the Nevin Yearick home on Sunday were Earl Yearick and family, Ocean Yearick and family, of Hubersburg; Mrs. O. P. Smith, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. N. H. Yearick.

Mrs. O. P. Smith of Pittsburgh, is spending a few days here making preparations for her aged mother to accompany her to her home in Pittsburgh where she expects to spend the cold winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and family spent Sunday afternoon at the Richard McCaleb home in Lock Haven.

Betty, Gladys, Mary and Evaline Harter and Betty Walker spent Saturday evening at the Robert Conaway home.

Miss Geraldine Swope spent the weekend in Lock Haven with her aunt, Mrs. C. S. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Weaver, of State College, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph spent Sunday evening at the A. A. Garrett home.

Mrs. William Beightel and daughter Louise, spent Saturday in Bellefonte and were visitors at the John Dunkle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidigh of State College, were Sunday afternoon callers at the Summer Noll home.

Mrs. C. E. Aley and daughters Mildred and Betty, with Jack MacBelle of Bellefonte as chauffeur, motored to Lewistown on Sunday afternoon and on the return, they stopped and were supper guests at the John R. Schaeffer home, of Center Hall.

Mrs. Anna Robb, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and sons Arthur, Roy, Ralph and Fred, were Sunday afternoon callers at the homes of William Hosterman, Henry Krape and Orvis Hosterman, of Aaronburg.

Most of the farmers of our valley are through husking corn and those who have room in their barns for the fodder have it hauled in and stored and those who enjoy hunting are passing their leisure hours in that sport, but so far the writer has not heard of a single turkey being shot in our valley, but a good number of rabbits and squirrels.

On Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jesse Shaffer, who died on Thursday afternoon at the home of her son Cyrus Shaffer near Curtin, and was buried on Monday at Zion. Services were held in the Zion Lutheran church. The sorrowing children and friends have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

Crane Kills 2. When a traveling crane toppled from a high bridge and tumbled 100 feet into the Allegheny River at Pittsburgh, two men were killed and numbers of others almost drowned.

HOWARD

Rev. F. H. Posa and son Paul of Newport, spent the weekend at the home of Rev. Posa's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Deament.

Mrs. Gilbert Shope, son Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kline, Mrs. Adam Kline and Mr. James Horan drove to Jersey Shore Sunday to help celebrate Mr. John Beck's sixty-ninth birthday. Mr. Beck's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rodde of Allentown were at the Beck home to help celebrate.

The ladies of the sewing circle were entertained at the home of Mrs. George Long Tuesday evening.

The members of the study club of the Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Pletcher Monday evening.

Miss Louise Bryan entertained twelve of her friends at her home last Thursday evening. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robb moved into the Mrs. Fannie Boone property Wednesday. Mr. Robb purchased the property several weeks ago.

Omer Tice spent several days at his home the past week.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical and Reformed church will hold its annual Thank Offering service in the church on Tuesday evening, November 15th, at 7:30. Rev. F. Nelson Schlegel of Millburg, Pa., a former missionary to Iraq will be the speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend.

HOWARD SCHOOL NEWS

The honor roll for the Howard Borough School is as follows: First Grade—Robert D. Arment, Earl Fleck; Second Grade—Dorothy Gardner, Third Grade—Mary Kate Weber; Fourth Grade—Charles Beverly, John Wagner, Evelyn Poomath, Patricia Yearick; Fifth Grade—Albeta Dorman, Ethel Fisher, Susan Hoffman, Frederick Wensel; Sixth Grade—Barbara Gardner, Carolyn Ekdahl, Dorothy Mays, Mary Painter; Seventh Grade—Millard Hinton, Jean Yearick, Nevada Shultz, Sylvia Gardner; Eighth Grade—Lillian Neff, Sarah Fisher, Robert Schenck, Richard Johnson, Harry Ekdahl, Paul Fleck, High School Honor Roll—Freshman—Phyllis Brumshub, June Carson, Emma Gordon, Louise Kingsley, Alice Leathers; Sophomore—Anna Zimmerman; Junior—Doris Amick, Charlotte Jacobs, Marjorie Love, Anna Daughenbaugh.

On Tuesday evening the Dramatic Club of Howard High School had a covered dish supper. This was an initiation meeting for the new members after the supper, and initiation the members played bingo, flash pond and other games.

Little Billy Kemp, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kemp celebrated his fourth birthday at his home last Saturday. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Klevenstein of Bellefonte helped to celebrate their grandsons birthday.

Miss Margaret Kimpfort of State College, spent a day at the home of her cousin Miss Lizze Slack last week.

Miss Kate Fredericks and sister, Mrs. Minerva Hubler from Spring Mills spent a few days last week with relatives.

E. G. Mingle from Aaronburg, visited for a few days last week at the home of his daughter Mrs. G. H. McCormick.

Mr. J. R. Smith, wife and two children visited at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, in Millroy on Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Wilkinson, who had been visiting her daughters in Chicago for the past three months, has come back east and is now at the home of her daughter Mrs. P. P. Henshall in State College.

C. M. Smith and wife of Millheim called at the G. H. McCormick home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McFadden from Butler are spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sweetwood.

Melvin Watson and wife (nee Vesta Blouser) visited over the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blouser.

Edward Post of West Chester, visited on Sunday at the H. E. Post and J. M. Carson homes.

Franklin Shaver and family of Centre Hall, visited on Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Palmer, Mrs. Alvin Sellers and son of State College were callers at the Palmer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Copenhaver and two daughters, of Aaronburg, Mr. Chat Vroman and friend, Miss Amelia Copenhaver of Phillipsburg, took supper at the H. E. Foust home on Sunday evening.

The M. E. church will serve a supper at the Print Shop Thursday, Dec. 1st. More particulars later.

The Christmas Bazaar will be held Dec. 17th by the Ladies Bible Class of the M. E. church at the Print Shop.

The regular monthly meeting of the Official Board was held Wednesday evening in the M. E. church.

Mrs. Clyde Simpson of Pleasant Gap visited at the LeRoy Lewis home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Crownover of Curwensville, and sister Miss Margaret Crownover of Kansas City, Mo., visited at the home of LeRoy Lewis and also called at the J. P. Lucas home.

Mrs. John Cartwright and daughter Geraldine accompanied by Earl Hover, motored to Meadville, Pa. Friday, Mrs. Cartwright was called there on account of the serious illness of her sister, Earl and Geraldine returned home Sunday evening. Mrs. Cartwright remained for the rest of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gotschall of Sunbury, visited this weekend at the homes of Ray Watson, Frank Leader and John Tubdry.

Hope Lewis and Geraldine Cartwright returned to Williamsport, Sunday evening by way of Renovo they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and Mrs. Clyde Simpson.

STATE COLLEGE

Mrs. Maude Ewing of Frazier street visited in Altoona on Thursday.

Mary Kerstetter entertained the members of her Sunday School Class at her home on East Beaver Avenue Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitten of Looust Lane had as their guests on Wednesday, Mrs. C. P. Tait of Millroy.

Mrs. Edna Adams and daughter, Dotis of East College avenue visited in Lewistown on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Keeler of Nittany avenue visited in Lewistown on Wednesday.

The Modern Crusaders Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church held their regular monthly meeting in the social room of the church on Thursday evening.

William Ackerman of Nittany avenue spent the weekend in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Maude Ewing of Frazier street motored to Lewistown on Tuesday afternoon.

The Daughters of America held a booster meeting Saturday evening in the I. O. O. F. on East College avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerns of West Beaver Avenue motored to Lewistown on Saturday.

Sue Baker of East College avenue was the guest of honor at a party in the honor of her birthday at the Boalsburg Tavern Tuesday evening. Those present were: Violet Johnson, Helen Harvey, Alice Plank, Eleanor Black, Mary Harvey, Gertrude Hoffman, Barbara Bower, all of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Parsons of East Beaver avenue attended chicken and waffle supper at Martha Saturday evening.

Mrs. Odille Mott and Miss Pauline Bronell of Bellefonte visited with friends in State College on Wednesday.