The hostesses were Mrs. Hipple and Mrs. Morton Smith.

—Paul Brooks, five-year-old son of County Treasurer Raymond H. Brooks and Mrs. Brooks, of East Curtin Street, is recovering nicely from an injury suffered last Thursday morning when he was bitten by a puppy owned by a neighbor. The dog's sharp teeth pierced the flesh of the little finger and back of the left hand. The following day the wounds became infected and a physician administered serum to prevent tetanus. Since then the injuries have been healing nicely, and the youth, who had been in bed until Sunday, is now able to be around once more.

—Up until yesterday the John Bullock family residence on Curtin street, which is being offered for sale, has not been sold.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale and Mrs. John B. Dubbs spent yesterday in Cumberland, Md. Mr. Dale and Mr. Dubbs having gone to that city to visit the new million-dollar Fort Hill High school.

—The First National Bank at Spring Mills and the First National Bank at Howard both show slight increases, while the Community Bank at Port Matilda reports a slight decrease. All banks carrying Christmas Savings Funds this year expect to open funds for 1939 within the next month.

—The First National Bank of Centre Hall, the Rebersburg Bank and the Farmers' National Bank at Millheim, do not conduct Christmas Savings Funds. The People's National Bank, at State College, calls its fund a "Thrift Fund," but since it is similar to a Christmas Fund, the figures have always been included in the Christmas Savings summary. All banks, with the exception of one, mail out checks to depositors. The exception is the People's National of State College, where payments are made at the bank.

—Following is a comparative table showing Christmas Funds in the various banks for 1936, 1937 and 1938. All figures are given approximately.

—Jack Spangler and his brother, Reuben, of North Spring street, spent last week in Philadelphia as guests of their sister, Mrs. William Trear, of Upper Darby, and her brother, James, who is student at the University of Pennsylvania. While in Philadelphia they attended the Penn State-Penn football game Saturday.

—Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh, at Axemann, during the weekend included Mrs. George Vetter, of Pittsburgh, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barron, of Altoona, and Mrs. F. P. Barron, also of Altoona. Mrs. Vetter, Mrs. Barron and Mrs. Johnstonbaugh are sisters.

—Major H. Laird Curtin, who has been undergoing medical treatment at the Centre County Hospital for the past eight weeks, is recovering from a severe cold, and is expected to leave the institution in the near future. Major Curtin takes this means of expressing his thanks to his legion of friends for his prolonged friendly acts during his protracted illness.

—Bellefonte High school lost the last home game at the Community Athletic field here on Armistice Day, when the Red Raiders bowed in defeat to a powerful Jersey Shore High team by a score of 12 to 0. Bellefonte will close the season on Thanksgiving Day with the traditional holiday contest with State College High at State College. Invariably both teams appear at their best for this clash.

—Subscriptions to magazines make enjoyable Christmas gifts. I have special prices for gift subscriptions at this time of the year. Try my Club Plan. For example, you can get a year's subscription to the Cosmopolitan and Good Housekeeping magazines, for 1 year, for only $4.25 for the two. Many other club bargains. Subscriptions taken for any length of time. Mrs. Gordon Lewis, East Curtin Street, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 104-R.

—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Thompson and daughters, Mrs. Ralph McKibben and Mrs. William McKibben, all of Cleveland, Ohio, motored to Bellefonte, Friday, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moerschbacher, at their home on East High street. Mr. Thompson returned to Cleveland, Sunday, leaving the others here for a long visit. Mrs. McKibben is the former Jane Thompson and Mrs. McKibben will be remembered as the former Gussie Thompson.

—Don't take any hunting tales told by Frank Sasserman, clerk at the lower Shaffer store, too seriously. Early this week while hunting near Port Matilda, Frank chuckled with delight when a group of hunters walked under a dead tree without knowledge a large bear had sought refuge there. After the hunters had disappeared, Frank edged up to the tree, took steady aim and fired. The bear looked around, sniffed the air, clambered leisurely from his hiding place, and ambled up the mountain, unhurt. The hunter, who hasn't missed a bear for many a year was too dumbfounded, apparently, to do anything about it.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Miller entertained at their home on Willowbank street, Saturday night, in honor of the 21st birthday of their daughter, Sarah. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Gingham, Mr. and Mrs. James Saylor and daughter, Sally, Mr. and Mrs. David Miller and children, Margaret and Ralph; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller and sons Wayne and Jimmie; Mrs. McMullin, Pauline Myers, Dorothy Wright, Margaret Harter, Norman Grove, Paul Ripka, Robert A.
