

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY

UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Christmas Carols—The Young folks of the Epworth League will sponsor the singing of Christmas Carols in the community on Saturday evening, the night before Christmas. They will meet at the store corner at 10:30 p. m. and proceed from there. Anyone in the community and surroundings, interested, are cordially invited to join in and let your voice ring out in praises of Peace and Good Will toward men, and help gladden the hearts of the shut-ins.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening at the close of which will be rehearsed for the Christmas Pageant. Sunday School on Sunday morning at the usual time, Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 p. m. with a Christmas program, followed by the regular preaching service at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kauffman.

Free Methodist Church Services—Prayer service on Friday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by the preaching service at 10:45 a. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett. Young Peoples meeting at 7:30.

Charles Rowan of Bellowsport spent the time between trains on Sunday afternoon calling on some of his old time friends and neighbors.

The public sale of the Jennie Fisher property and household goods will be held this Saturday afternoon beginning at 12:30 p. m. and continue until everything is sold.

The regular monthly business meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Bullock.

Rev. and Mrs. Garrett attended an old fashioned butchering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Spotts of Union Township on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pratt, who have been visiting extensively with friends and relatives in Pittsburgh and Harrisburg, arrived home last week.

The Sewing Class under the direction of Miss Butler, will meet on Wednesday afternoon December 21st, at the home of Mrs. F. M. Lucas, at 1:30 p. m.

Miss Julia Barton of Union Township was entertained to dinner on last Tuesday evening at the home of her cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Peters.

Mrs. Charles R. Eckenroth and her son-in-law, Mr. Ellis, returned to Toledo, Ohio on Tuesday evening where they will transact some business before Mrs. Eckenroth returns to her home again.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lucas are the proud parents of another daughter presented to them by Mr. Skork last week and they have named her Florence Louise. Mother and daughter are getting along fine.

Our local stores will remain open all day on Thursday, December 22nd, and no, take the half holiday which has been accustomed to the past year. This is for the benefit of patrons who wish to do Christmas shopping.

Another rumor has it that the store which was to have opened up in the community has been called off and that McElwain Brothers have purchased the building, the former Sam Toit store room. Now we are wondering what that was for.

Quite a number of folks from here attended the funeral on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Gordon Ellis, whose body was brought there from Toledo, Ohio that same day. Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church.

Johnnie Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams of this place was unable to attend school for several days last week on account of a severe cold and a healed ear. He is better and was able to resume his studies again on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Nannie Williams was called suddenly to Hollidaysburg on Saturday on account of the serious illness of her brother Samuel Fisher, who is making his home with his daughter in Hollidaysburg. His condition at this time remains unchanged.

Mrs. Margaret Keatley, who has been visiting for some time past with her son and family of Greenwich, Conn., returned to her home in Harrisburg, where she will remain a short time before going with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Blackwood of Ohio for the Christmas season.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson moved this week to Altoona where he is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad. They have been staying with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere, since he was laid off some time ago. He has been called back to work with several others of the community who are working in the Altoona shops.

Our community was shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Gordon Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Charles R. Eckenroth of this place, who died last Wednesday morning at her home in Toledo, Ohio, from pneumonia. She had just recently been married and was the only daughter of Mrs. Eckenroth. Most sincere sympathies are extended to the mother and relatives in their hours of bereavement.

J. R. Williams, who has been farming up Dix Run recently, has some very fine barred rock pullets which he would like to dispose of. They are the very finest breed and are laying lots of eggs every day. Rollie takes a peach basket with him to gather his crop each day. There are 50 pullets in the flock and he will sell them at the price of $1.00 each. Call at his home in Unionville Borough, or call McElwain Brothers store 902-R-12.

J. R. "Rollie" Williams had quite a harrowing experience on his return home from Philadelphia, Pa. Sunday after Thanksgiving, where he and his family had spent the Thanksgiving season with their daughter and husband, when their car skidded on the slippery roads and into a bank, damaging his car to some extent. The car did not upset but came very near it, and was all over that portion of the road before they could get it righted and on its way again. Rollie, who is our Republican Chariman in this district, believes the present administration in care of roads, are getting a little lax since they are about to hand over their tools.

Attendance at Sunday School was some better on Sunday, there being 47 present. A good attendance was also noticed at the Wednesday night service when Rev. Heckart brought the message. William Bloom will have charge of the services which Rev. Byrd is holding a revival at Coleville. Everybody is welcome both Sunday mornings and Wednesday nights.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Charles Bush is on the sick list. Her friends all wish for her a speedy recovery. Was glad to see Miss Florence Lucas back to Sunday School again after being absent so long on account of sickness.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Byrd took supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spotts at Chestnut Grove, last Wednesday evening and brought Mrs. Spotts and daughters along to church. We were glad to see them back to church in the Hollow. Come again.

Rev. and Mrs. Byrd spent Wednesday night at the Roy Spotts home and helped to butcher on Thursday. Others who helped were: Mr. and Mrs. Toner Spotts and son Eugene of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Ouster of Fleming; Mrs. William Monsell and two children Molly and Tommy of Bellefonte; Mrs. Earl Custer of Milesburg; Ruby Davidson of Wingate; Mrs. Joseph Spotts and daughters Nancy and Charlotte of Chestnut Grove, Charles Bush, Mrs. Elina Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and children, Freddie and Janice, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Irvin and daughter Floreheim all of Julian, R. D.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts were Mrs. Ruth Rose and family and Ken Winter, Mrs. Myrtle King and son Edgar and Lona Spotts all of Bellefonte, also Elsie Watson.

Don't forget about the Christmas program at the church Wednesday night, Dec. 28.

MILESBURG

We hope all our readers were able to interpret the last verse of last week's poem. Lines seem to have gotten mixed some how.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wynn have moved into the Mrs. Jane Garman home.

Caution: It has become a habit with most of us to take a short cut across the railroad bridge. We notice a great many children doing this not realizing their danger. Parents it would be wise if we older folk didn't set them an example.

We offer our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Louis Davidson and family in their recent bereavement.

Harry McClincy of Pleasant Gap visited with his sister Mrs. Bruce Peterson, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Weitzer attended a district meeting of the Elks at Renovo Sunday.

An entertainment will be presented by the pupils of the Centre City school, Thursday and Friday afternoon, Dec. 22nd and 23rd. School was dismissed at noon on Monday as a tribute to Mr. L. L. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oswald are rejoicing over the arrival of a lovely Christmas gift, a little daughter, which arrived at the Centre County Hospital on Saturday. Weighing 8 pounds, one ounce and has been named Shirley Diane. Grandma Oswald is very proud of her first grandchild.

Mrs. Mattie Gest has gone to Altoona to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith and Mrs. Frances Gordon of Williamsport called at the George Smith home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Burns and son Jimmy of Phillipsburg were Sunday guests at the F. L. Baird home.

Miss Jennie Adams is on our sick list at this time.

There was a nice attendance at the Christmas party given by the M. Y. W. Class of the Methodist Sunday School, Twenty-six being present. Each girl had an invitation which was presented with a gift. A nice evening was spent, refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee. This is an annual affair of the class. Mrs. F. L. Baird is the teacher.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.
As Christmas day draws near there's much hurry here and there. For everyone is shopping. Putting aside all other care. They shop around from store to store.

With "What's Ahis" exclaiming. Then find the afternoon is gone. And they haven't bought a thing. So it goes on from day to day. Till the very last minute and then, Where do you think they find themselves?

Right back at the five and ten. You forgot to get some dimes. Perhaps a little boy said. But you really must admit. Last minute shopping is fun. —I. S.
