

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mae Fry)

Farmer William Dreibelt of Houseville was within our gates last Friday p. m. Reports are that James Guyer is preparing to erect a new modern dwelling house on S. Water Street. Prof. Paul I. Wrigley of State College, was a business caller Saturday p. m. at the D. S. Peterson home. Clark Harpster of Bellefonte was a caller Saturday evening at the L. H. Harpster home on E. Main street. After April 1st, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Trosble will retire to a well-garnished home at the well-known Glenn home at Bellefonte, now the property of C. E. Frank. The Robert Barto family recently flitted from the Carl Gates house to the Richard Fye farm home on Tadpole. Mr. Barto is one of contractor Arthur P. Stephens' boss carpenters. Mrs. Ida Williams celebrated her natal day last Friday by being honored as a chicken supper at the home of her niece, the Miller sisters on the Glades farm. Drovers-farmer, Guy A. Kocher, was a business visitor in Clearfield last Wednesday where he purchased a fine sorrel gelding for the Penna. State College experimental farms. Guy knows a good one when he takes a look. Well known Realtor Lester Gohben of Jacksonville, Fla., with his wife spent their annual 10 days vacation at his mother's home, Mrs. Belle Gohben in Bellefonte. Lester shows Florida's climate and eats do really cherish his liking as he tips the scales on the fat weight. Mrs. John Dale of State College well known in this section, returned last Friday from a four weeks across the continent, attending the National Grange annual meeting at Portland, O., and visiting in Washington, with the daughters, her niece, of the late Mr. and Mrs. Asher Sankey, also spending some time with friends in California. YEAGERS GROWING GIRLS' BLACK AND BROWN SUED OXFORDS Were $2.50 NOW $1.79 BELLEFONTE, PA.

The W. A. Schilling family were entertained to a sumptuous Sunday dinner at the West home in Bellefonte. R. W. Reed and Rev. Albert Green-dyke motored to Philipsburg Monday to call on friends at the State Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dodd attended the annual chicken supper and bazaar at the Graysville church last Friday evening. The West Penn electric is soon to serve new patrons in W. Ferguson, Herl Poust, David Harpster, Harry Eyer, and George Gamm. DIX RUN The Cherry Grove school of Upper Dix Run is having an entertainment will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 22. Everybody welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Stellard White called at the J. I. Parsons home Sunday afternoon. W. J. Eminhizer had the misfortune of losing a valuable cow last week. Miss Marian Witherite is on the sick list. "Bill" and Paul Parsons spent Sunday afternoon with Albert and Clair Hall. The majority of the butchers are out in this vicinity. John Wilson butchered Wednesday and Fred Tice on Friday. Mrs. John T. Hall and also Martha Jane Parsons were on the sick list this week. W. J. Eminhizer called on A. Y. Williams on Sunday. Callers at the "Shem" Beatty home on Sunday were Mrs. T. A. Hogencamp, Kathryn Hogencamp, Bill and Paul Parsons, Wilbur Burns, Albert and Clair Hall. The Christian Endeavor was very well attended on Sunday evening. Miss Bessie Witherite was singer. Had special singing by Mr. and Mrs. Stellard White. Come again everybody. J. T. Hall butchered on Tuesday, those who helped were Leroy Hall, Fred Tice, Clarence Hall, Mrs. Stellard White and Mrs. Sherman Beatty. John Wilson and Lemore Lendimouth ate on the jury at Bellefonte. CENTRAL CITY Our community, especially Central City school, was saddened by the death of Louise Davidson. Mr. Davidson had been driver of Central City school bus for almost a score of years. In those years he proved himself a very competent, careful driver. The children were always delighted to see the "gray bus" home into sight, they knew he always had a friendly, cheerful greeting for them. Many times he put himself out to take them on special trips. The teachers and pupils all join in extending their sympathies to the sorrowing family. A X-mas entertainment will be given at the Central City School on Thursday and Friday afternoon, Dec. 22nd and 23rd. Starting promptly at 1 o'clock. No admission will be charged, but X-mas greetings will be given at the entrance and a box placed there for any offering you might wish to give. A generous offering is solicited this year, the expenses are a little heavier than usual. Everybody welcome. James Gatherman, who has been absent from school several weeks with a sprained ankle is back again. Edna Quick one of the seventh grade pupils is confined to her home on account of illness. YARNELL Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker of Barree, called on his sister, Mrs. H. O. Miller one day last week. Mrs. Raymond Coakley, who has been sick this past week with a bad cold, is back teaching again. Mrs. Lawrence Shawley was her substitute teacher. Miss Florence Miller spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller. Mrs. Dennis Watson of Bellefonte called at the Shawley homes on Sunday. JULIAN Mr. Aaron Donley was taken to the Philipsburg hospital on Friday evening. He is said to have bronchial pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mock were Sunday visitors at the Aaron Donley home. Miss Violet Donley and friend Charles Williams were visitors at the Donley home also. HAWAII Yule Greetings Broadcast to Islands In Pacific Territory HONOLULU.—For the past three years Hawaii has broadcast Christmas greetings on December 24 to several lonely islands which have become potentially important along aviation's equatorial Pacific area. The messages, from station KGU, go out to the dozen or so young Americans who for three years have been keeping the Stars and Stripes flying on Howland, Baker, Jarvis and other tiny Pacific islands. Hurry, Pop! What's the Reason For All These Fake Whiskers?

Peggy Hopkins Joyce plays hostess to all the Santa Clauses in New York at a luncheon in the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria. Lucky no youngsters were around or there might have been trouble!

What will you answer this Christmas when starry-eyed Junior raises his face and asks: "Daddy, how come I saw three Santa Clauses down town today?" Or: "Mother, why was Santa Claus riding in an automobile today? Are his reindeer hurt?" "Or, looking at a newspaper: "Why was Santa Claus so thin when I saw him on the corner today? He's fat in this picture!" This is the season when harassed parents must think up quick answers or destroy Junior's faith in St. Nicholas. For Santa Claus, though a messenger of joy, can also be a pest. In Omaha a sympathetic mayor last year ruled that the army of fake Santas must leave the streets, thereby bringing sighs of relief from Mother and Dad. 'Abductors' Plead Guilty patrons, James Conifer, 21, Kenneth Boone, 21, and Walter Nyman, 29, were placed under probation for two years upon payment of the costs.

Entering a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and battery, Thomas K. Hosterman, of Coburn, was sentenced to post a bond in the amount of $500 to keep the peace, and to pay $10 per month toward the support of his family.

Charles Luther Sunday, of State College, entering a plea of guilty to a charge that he violated the liquor laws, was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and to serve three months in the county jail.

The case of Clyde Corman, of Bellefonte, charged with a violation of the vehicle code, was cleared from the trial list when the defendant made arrangements to enter a plea of guilty at a later date.

A jury found Calvin Albright, of State College, guilty of a charge of being the father of an illegitimate child, but sentence was withheld until Albright indicated he would seek a new trial. Similarly in the case of David S. Casper, of Bellefonte, R. D., charged with a similar offense, Casper's sentence was withheld pending an expected plea for a new trial.

Joseph Nyman, of Howard, went before a jury on a charge of drunk driving, and when the jury had considered the matter Nyman was found not guilty and the costs were placed on the county.

George Bancy, of Bellefonte, was tried by a jury on a charge of violating the vehicle code and was found not guilty, but the jury placed the costs upon him.

A hold-over case which originated from a motor mishap in 1926 went before a jury, and the defendant, P. J. Gemel, of New Castle, was acquitted. The jury, however, placed the costs upon the defendant.

In the absence of the regular Centre county Court Reporter, Samuel Hayes, of Lewistown, who was serving in another court this week, Miss Mary Hartle, stenographer in the offices of Judge Ivan Walker, ably substituted as official court reporter.

Although his case was not scheduled for trial this week, Harrison Yarnell, of near Zion, arrested last week on two charges of passing bad checks, appeared before Judge Walker and entered a plea of guilty. He was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, make restitution of the checks totaling about $45, and to undergo probation for three years.

The Zion man was arrested upon information filed by Marion Meyer, State College, and the State College Fuel and Supply Co. Meyer held a worthless check for $20, and the Supply Company one for $25. It is reported that Yarnell used several aliases in passing the checks.

A YULE STORY

queer little man inside the counter waited while Dan weighed the important question. The hamburger was. While it was being cooked to order, Dan dug into his pocket and took the dime from the battered purse. Hungry as he was, he handed it over before attacking the food. His voice was a bit apologetic. "It's an old timer," he said, "been in my pocket years and years." The old man didn't seem to be listening. He was peering through his spectacles at the coin. "You're sure you're telling the truth about this dime?" he queried. "The absolute truth," Dan answered. "But, if you won't believe me, you can have your coffee and hamburger."

A shrill laugh ran through the place. "It's a good thing you ran across someone who knew, and better, somebody who was honest," the little man was saying excitedly. "Do you know that you have one of the rarest dimes at large? It's—its worth thousands."

"You mean, this thing I've held on to for years is worth money?" "It's worth big money," the cafe owner was waving his hands in the air, the dime clasped between his thumb and first finger. "I've been looking for one of them all my life!" "Hand me that menu!" Dan Driscoll cried commandingly. "I'm going to have a Christmas dinner right now. I'm going clear down the line, from soup to mince pie."

Dahomey in French West Africa Dahomey is one of the colonies or provinces of French West Africa. It embraces the former native kingdom of Dahomey and some other territory, with a coastline of about 70 miles, between Togoland and Nigeria, on the Gulf of Guinea. The colony has an area of 41,302 square miles and a population of nearly 1,122,000, of which the Europeans number about 900. The town of Porto Novo is the capital and principal business center.

Ballbus Halves Train Cost. A railbus in Sweden is a novelty in railway transportation. Copenhagen reports it attained 50 miles an hour in tests and is so constructed that no vibration was felt. It accommodates 44 passengers and can be run at half the cost of an ordinary train of similar capacity.

Christmas Toys

KEENE, N. H.—This community is teeming each Christmas season as workers in the toy factories rush to put last-minute touches on miniature locomotives, automobiles—and even auto trailers!

American Turkey Has Foreign Name

You'll eat your turkey and like it this Christmas, but do you know where this festive bird got its name? The turkey is the only species of poultry native to this country. Its name is attributed by some to its call notes, "turk-turk-turk"; others believe that its head ornaments, resembling the fez worn by natives of Turkey, gave rise to its name. Another explanation is seen in the fact that the first turkeys from America were sold in Spain, largely by Hebrew merchants. Since the bird was frequently confused with the peacock, it is said that the Hebrew traders called it "tukki," their name for the peacock. With the widespread use of this name in English, it easily became the present "turkey."

Christmas Celebration Dates Back to 354 A.D., Roman Records Show

The earliest celebration of the birth of Christ, December 25 of each year, took place in the Fourth century, and the custom spread from the western to the eastern church.
