Page Four

THE CENTRE DEMOGRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

December 22, 1938.

Over The County News

meeting of the Centre Hall Wom-

from the shock and injuries.

to Spring Mills. When the present

it will become an important link

Thieves gained entrance to the Albert Thompson garage at Nittany.

Walker township, near the Centre-

Clinton county line, early last Fri-

The

The

Last week's rain was the first John M. Boob, who was given this fall that affected the water treatment in the Lewistown Hosin Spring Creek. It became quite pital, for a serious sinus infection, is muddy and was up about three now convalescing at his home on are cut mostly from locust trees, inches, evidence that the ground is East Main street, Millheim. He has say Penn State foresters. A locust on their church calendar Thursday becoming pretty well saturated. been much benefitted and is getting Charles Frazer, tenant on the along satisfactorily.

Fisher farm in upper Brush Valley, A regular meeting of the Centre next spring will make his home with Hall W. C. T. U. was held last his son-in-law and daughter. Mr. Monday evening at the home of and Mrs. Robert Neil, in Buffalo Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wert, Sr. Run Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Neil pur- and in connection with it showered chased a farm from a Federal agen- Mrs. Hamil Kline with an array of cy and are living on it. It is well useful and valuable gifts. The newlocated and is being wired at this lyweds expect to live at State Coltime for light and power. Other lege. improvements have also been made About thirty members attended a during the past year.

A street letter-box was erected at an's Club on Tuesday evening at the front of the post-office in Cen- the home of Mrs. G. O. Benner, tre Hall by the U.S. Post Office De- who had decorated the rooms appartment, a few days ago, which propriately for the occasion. will prove a great convenience, and refreshments were in the form of a especially to strangers who at night covered dish supper. The more imhave been having difficulty in locat- portant feature of the program was ing the small "drop" in the win- the preparation of Christmas basdow. The box is of the type which kets to be presented to the needy takes care of small parcels as well at the approaching season. as letters. It should be remembered baskets were filled with articles of ceived.

William N. Duck, teacher of the paring them for presentation, fifth and sixth grade pupils in the Although she fell down eight Millheim grade schools, faced steps to the cellar, Mrs. A. H. Spayd charges of improper treatment of of Centre Hall, last week escaped a student, preferred by Paul R. By- with no serious injury, other than ers in justice court before 'Squire a general shaking up, cuts and J. R. Miller last Friday evening. bruises. She was working at the Present at the hearing were the head of the stairs and for some unprincipals and the borough school known reason fell to the bottom. board. Evidence as shown on the She had a butcher knife in her squire's docket indicated that the hand at the time and this teacher acted within the regulations found on the cellar floor. Mrs. laid down by the school code and Spayd was alone in the part of the the case was dismissed.

Four, five and six-hundred-pound hogs are quite numerous in lower Penns Valley, where pride in growing the largest hog in the neighborhood continues. Up to the present time the blue ribbon belongs to Fred Vonada whose largest hog dressed 822 pounds. Harris Stover came second with a hog of 610 east of Penn Hall, from a point Bellefonte. pounds. These weights are not guess close to the W. P. Hosterman propwork, but are verified with great care. In Brush Valley a hog weighcare. In Brush Valley a hog weighing more than 700 pounds was slaughtered by Jesse Day at Madisonburg.

Residents of Centre Hall are complaining because of traps set for giving a reasonably good eastern skunks near their homes killing or outlet to Millheim but none direct maiming the family cat. Only recently such animals were found with traps hanging on them and in Brush Valley road are completed. such condition that suffering from few days to a week must have connecting Penns and Brush Valbeen horrible. Trappers ought to leys. conform themselves to the rules. which prohibit trans being set in inhabited areas, and with a view of limiting the suffering of legal game, the traps are to be examined at specified intervals after being set. Even a skunk in a trap has rights.

about $75. Mr. Thompson, who for Mrs. E. Dubbs Keen received a number of years conducted a garinjuries of the left leg last Thurs- | age in Cherry alley, Bellefonte, disday night, about midnight, when covered the robbery about 6 o'clock struck by a car driven by Claude that morning when he opened up Stitzer, of Millheim. Mrs. Keen was the garage for the day's business. on her way home from the home The articles taken consisted of Locusts For Posts-Did you know rail posts are used along Pennsylvania's highways each year? These of the trip.

soil will often be large enough to Saints. make several guard posts by the time it is 20 years old.

agricultural experiment stations Sandy Ridge.

poults per hen for the season.

former promotes growth and resist- school month against cold winds is necessary if in Class Four at this writing. bees are to be wintered successfully, members of the organization pre- helps encourage brood rearing in the pork.

spring winter months.

Centre County Hospital Notes house she was working and on recovering consciousness called for Mr. Spavd who went to her aid and #### found her on her feet. At this time Monday of Last Week.

the lady had pretty well recovered Admitted Mrs. Hannah B. Kelley. Bellefonte A petilton is before the Centre David H. Woodring, Bellefonte; Mas- was assessed at 50c. County Court to vacate a part of ter James R. Sunday, Bellefonte;

Tuesday of Last Week

Admitted: J. Calvin Girerer, Belle fonte, R. D.; Mrs. Charles Noll, Hubmacadam road from the Brush Vallefsburg. Discharged: A. Y. Weller, ley road eastward by the Peacock Mrs. John I. Sholl, Miles-Julian; farm, provided the petition is acburg; Mrs. Walter Nastalski State cepted, would remain open and College, R. D. I: Edward Mulbarger, continue to be a township road, Bellefonte; Miss Anna P. Zeleznick, Pleasant Gap; William R. Witmer. outlet to Millheim, but none direct

Bellefonte improvements under way on the Wednesday of Last Week Admitted: Miss Betty Jean Stover, Hall. Admitted Thursday, discharged Friday, Mrs. Oliver M. Bitner, man, Bellefonte.

day morning and made their geta-Friday. way with merchandise valued at

Discharged: Mrs. Elizabeth H. State College. Saturday

fonte: Expired; George Lipock, State the November pay is in hand.

Discharged: Master

physician by Mr. Stitzer and her in- tion. uries treated. X-ray pictures were taken of a badly swollen ankle, but no bones were broken. Minor bruises on the body of Mrs. Keen, torn clothing, and many broken dishes of her son-in-law and daughter, candy, tobacco, eigars Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stover, on West ettes, tires and tools. The thieves Sunday Main street street, and had stopped gained entrance to the garage, loat the Hosterman & Stover corner cated about a hundred yards from to allow the Stitzer car to pass. She Mr. Thompson's home, by removing was cartying a large basket of dish- a window in the rear of the buildes. As she then attempted to cross ing. The theft took place some time the street, the Stitzer car was between 12 and 6 o'clock since the Paul A. Ward, Bellefonte, R. D. 3; thrown into reverse and backed proprietor did not leave the garage Robert Shaffer, Bellefonte, R. D. 1; into her at the crossing, carrying until midnight. Members of the Mrs. Andrew C. Jodon, Bellefonte her part way across the street. She Rockview detail of state motor powas taken to the office of a local lice are conducting an investiga-

BELLEFONTE, PA.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

J. Calvin Eyer, et ux, to Harry favors for patient trays. from Union Thanksgiving offering Milesburg Eyer, of Pennsylvania Furnace, R D., tract in Ferguson Twp., $1. churches, $16; From Bellefonte High Roosevelt T. McMonigal, et ux, School Senate, 3 homemade cakes.

and et al, to Clarence Maurer, et of Port Matilda, tract in Port NEW ANAESTHETIC STOPS

John L. Holmes, et ux, to Preston A local anaesthetic, one "shot" of A. Frost, et ux, of State College, which stops pain for two or three tract in State College, $1. Hilbert E. Dell, et ux, to Herbert weeks, has been developed at the E. Dux, et ux, of State College, tract College of Physicians and Surgeons, in New York. in State College, $1. While the wounds of operations W.R. Shope, et ux. to C. Leon Yorks, et ux, of Milesburg, tract in are healing, most of the patients have been able to walk around with-William Musser, to W. J. Harp- out pain. They have not had to daughter Patty of Lock Haven, Mrs. the January 1st issue of The Amerister, et al., of Coburn, tract in Penn stay in hospitals, and economic losses have been further reduced by re-Farmers National Bank and Trust turning them to work earlier. Most of the women who had been Co., to Francis J. Hosterman, et ux. doing housework continued part of of Penn Twp., tract in Penn Twp., their duties. Men and women in regular employment' have resumed Farmers National Bank and Trust work within a week. Co. to Thomas H. Rote, et ux, of These results verified in 194 rectal

AT OSCEOLA MILLS

has the contract for the Star mail trunk. The trunk got away from

Penn Twp., tract in Penn Twp., operations on 181 persons, are desribed in the January of Surgery First National Bank, State Col-Gynecology and Obstetrics by C. V. lege, Exec., to Nan Houser Thompson, of State College, tract in State Burt, M. D., fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and J. Gordon College, $6.000. Alumni Association of Tau Chap- Rennie, M. D., of Richmond, Va. The anaesthetic is neothesol. It ter of Beta Kappa Fraternity, to Hubert Haugh, et al, of State Col- is a mixture of procaine, two other chemicals, and refined French allege, tract in State College, $1. W. S. Walker, et ux, to Clyde M. mond oil. The oil is the secret of Watson, et ux, of Milesburg, tract the long insensibility to pain. It holds and releases the anaesthe in Millheim, $3,600. Annie T. H. Henszey, et bar, to gradually into the tissues. Although Nelson W. Taylor, et ux, of State only one "shot" is needed, the report College, tract in State College, $1,- explains that considerable skill is required to place it properly.

Mary E. Batchler, et al, to James Everly, of Philpisburg, tract in MAIL CARRIER INJURED South Philipsburg, $1. Peter Stout, to James Eyerly, of Howard Templeton, of Tyrone, who Philipsburg, tract in South Philipsburg, $1 route from the Tyrone postoffice, suffered a painful injury Friday af-Nellie Armor, Execr., to Clarence Ja Heverly, et ux, of Bellefonte, ternoon at Osceola Mills station R. D. 3, tract in Spring Twp., $30. while assisting with the loading of a Frank Donovan, et ux, to Clarence J. Heverly, of Bellefonte, R. D. Mr. Templeton, falling flat on his tract in Spring Twp., $120. Wilbur L. Dodd, et ux. to Ollie chest and breaking several ribs. About a year ago Mr. Templeton suf-E. Moore, et ux, of Pine Grove Mills, fered severe injuries in an automotract in Ferguson Twp., $1.

The farmers seldom have trouble in raising crops. What they find extremely difficult is swapping their

Liquid, Tablets,

Salve, Nosedrops

bile accident in that vicinity, causing him to be absent from duty for several months. Lamar Folks Attend Meet. grops for cash Mrs. Marcus W. Randall of Salona, John Best, master of the Lamar Grange, Harry McCauley, Bruce relieves Harris, master of Nittany Grange COLDS and Earl Dotterer, master-elect of Nittany Grange motored to Wash-Fever And ington last week to attend the sestions of the State Grange meeting. Headaches Mrs. Randall also visited friends in due to colds that section of the state. Try "Rub-My-Tism" - a Wonderful

Read the classified ads and profit.

during the past week, annual procedure of preparation to exchange town, died in the Jersey Shore Hos-gifts at the Yuletide.

A clean hands health campaign is R. D. 2; Lester R. Condo, Spring now in progress at the Hill School. Parents please supervise homework Shore

There were 40 patients in the hosfor this project during the next pital at the beginning of this week. month Hospital Contributions: from Girl Miss Smith kept an appointment Scout Troop No. 7, State College, 30 part of a treatment she undergoes by George B. Eyer, Jersey Shore. for a catarrhal condition. Miss Ann McGowan had a 170 mile on the right side of the road with drive away during the weekend. Mrs. John Muithead spent the past told Wilson he was blinded by an PAIN FOR TWO WEEKS there folks

The F. J. McGowans shopped in Philipsburg Saturday p. m. and

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stephens of a murderer calls attention to the were Saturday X-mas shoppers at progress of science in replacing eye-Bellefonte. Among others on similar windows, just like taking a glass lens business at the same place and date of a lamp from a junked car and were Miss Zoe Meek. ere Miss Zoe Meek. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Myers and one. Read this illustrated article in Shore spent Sunday with the home ed with the Baltimore American.

Price Reduction brings cost of new ONLY *Delivered at Pontiac, Michigan. Prices subject to change without notice, Transportation, state and local taxes (if any). optiona equipment and AND UP accessories extra. Take advantage of price cuts up to $92-one of the industry's biggest! Why drive one of the lowerpriced cars when for a difference of only 12c a was struck by a car while walking than they are about protecting our along Route 220 just east of Jersey bird life and pass a law to tax every female cat ten dollars a year, and Coroner Thomas C. Brandon of Lycoming County said an inquest of one dollar for the scalp of every probably be unneceasary. cat shot in the woods or fields with the M. D. Saturday evening as Liberati was struck by a car driven

It is said that the boy was walking HATCHING MONTHLY IS his back to oncoming traffic. Ever week at Bellefonte with relatives on coming truck and did not see the Perhaps nature intended that chicks should be hatched only at boy until his car struck him. one season of the year, but latest methods advocated by many poul-

They Give Their Eyes to the Blind trymen call for hatching chicks every month of the year. Revealing how the strange bequest most a complete change in the poultry program," according to H. H. Kauffman, extension poultry hus-bandman at the Pennsylvania State College. "What it really means is that poultrymen are not 'putting all their eggs in one basket." Joe Cloney and daughter of Jersey can Weekly, the magazine distribut-

On sale at all newsstands.

priced car.

DECKER MOTOR CO.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Let our state Legislature not be afraid of their own shadow and think more about being reelected

Legal Notices ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. In the Master of the Estate of Lulu G. Massey, late of Bellefonte Borough, beauence.

Letters of administration on said state having been granted the under-igned, all persons indebted thereto re requested to make amnediate pay-nents, and those having claims or de-nands against the same, will present hem without delay for settlement to OSEPH GINGERY, Administrator, sellefonte, Pa. Spangler & Campbell, thorners H. A. MCKELVEY. GAINING POPULARITY Attorneys.

> EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. In the Matter of the Betate Charles Powers Brachbill, late Bellefonte Borough, deceased. Detters testamentary in the above

Letters testamentary in the above estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims to present the same duly proven, with-out delay to WILLIAM P. BRACH-BHLL, Executor, Bellefonte, Pa. Spangler & Campbell, Attorney, x50 "Of course, this plan requires al-

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. In the Matter of the Estate of Susan sters, late of Benner Township, de-equipment is considered the chist advantage of this newer method of poultry management. Equipment is used more continuously whereas under the old method of hatching during the spring and early sum-mer months much of the equipment year.

EXECUTRIX NOTICE In the Matter of the Estate of Hugh Laird Curtin, late of Boggs Township, stant supply of new pullets starting to lay," Mr. Kauffman explained. centre County, deceased. Letters testamentary in the above estate having geen granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims to present the same duly proven, with-"They explained that this method is more profitable than that more Mr. Kauffman pointed out, howout delay to THOMAZINE H. CURTIN, Executrix. Howard R. F. D. 1, Spang-ler & Campbell, Attorneys. X3 ever, that some persons have had difficulty with the new system. Once equipment becomes infected with ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. ase germs it is difficult to clean ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. In the Matter of the Estate of Della May Stanley, late of Boggs Township, Centre County, Pa. deceased. Letters of administration on said estate having been granted the un-dersigned, all persons indebted thereto are requested to make immediate payments, and those having claims or demands against the same, will present them without delay for set-tlement to CLARENCE W. STANLEY. Administrator, 423 Garfield Street, Tyrone, Pa. 23 under the continuous use plan. When the equipment stands idle for three or four months disease problems frequently solve themelves naturally No matter what plan the individual poultryman decides to follow. the profit of a flock is determined by the number of eggs the birds lay yrone, Pa. and the period over which they lay them," Mr. Kauffman said. "Results ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

are usually in proportion to correct In the Matter of the Estate of Lewis Davidson, late of Boggs Township, preeding, feeding and management E.

Increased efficiency in the use of

Some poultrymen believe it desirable to have a more or less con-

generally used."

equipment is considered the chief breeding, feeding and management practices." Articles for publication in The Centre Democrat must be signed by the author. If you do not want your name published, tell us so, and we will not print it, but you must sign everything submitted. This rule is strictly adhered to.

REMEMBER When You Want

Anything in Lumber Millwork, Doors, Sash, Roofing

W. R. SHOPE BELLEFONTE, PA. Phone 432

Satisfaction Guaranteed IN EVERY DEAL In Every Particular

To Help You Have A Merry Christmas

For many telephone operators, the twinkling lights of the switchboard will replace-for a few hours-the lights of the Christmas tree. Yet you will still find "a voice with a smile" when you lift your receiver. For your operator knows how much those Christmas calls can mean-to you and to those you call.

And so, on Christmas, se on every other day, we shall be happy to serve you. Low Night Rates will be in effort after seven Christmas Eve and all day Sunday and Monday.

J. M. Keichline Insurance Agency TEMPLE COURT-BELLEFONTE-PHONE 190 Open Evenings

20 Percent Saving