dren of Coburn called at the M. W.

ton Brungart home Thursday.

Mrs. Gale Swartz at Millheim.

Lavand Bierly was injured to the

UNIONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Kuhn and fam-

Mrs. Homer Hall of Altoona and

School Entertainment-The School

Free Methodist Church Services-

Several persons from here attended the Christmas services in the morning. Some who attended were

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McElwain, Mr.

The students of the Bellefonte

High School are having their hollday vacation at this time, having started on Wednesday and will continue until January 3rd. Pupils in the Borough will enjoy all next week,

The past few days of cold weather

Miss Margaret Lucas returned have made loe on the creek and the young foiks of the community are free from school worries.

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

Choice refreshments were served by proved at this writing.

was a pleasant caller last Saturday caller at the John Bressler home last at the Mrs. A. C. Kepler home in the Wednesday afternoon.

friends and relatives, the home of his home on the Glades farms.

Farmer and Banker, J. Warren In- S. M. Hess home were Mr. and Mrs. gram of Alexandria, was a caller in David Portzline, of Selinsgrove. panied by Miss Lucy Bollinger.

Late news from little Betsy, daugh- recent visitors at the John Quinn ter of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Illings- home.

Claire of Centre Line were among cent visitors at his brothers home in pappy. Master Jimmy Harpster is able to the Maynard Williams home in Rock be out again after an illness of Springs.

several days. Appropriate Christmas services will be observed in the Presbyterian church ale Baileyville Thursday evening, Dec. 22nd at 7:30 p. m.; in Gates- monthly auction. burg Lutheran church Sunday evening. Dec. 25, at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. Merchant J. M. Ward of Clover Farm Store Baileyville, was a Santa their palatial home and gone to Claus searcher in the Mt. City last Wednesday evening. The electric line through Tadpole valley is being completed this week those good neighbors will illuminate X-mas foliage with the Ben

The many friends of Mrs. Charles T. Homan will be glad to know that he is able to be out as usual after many weeks of illness.

***** YEAGERS ***** Only $1.39 Growing Girls' Low Heel

Black Suede Oxfords

HOOD'S

BILLIARDS

TOBACCOS

SMOKERS'

SUPPLIES

West High Street

FOR-

PIPES-

* HOOD'S

MILANOS; MEDICOS; SMOKEMASTERS

Priced at from 25 cents to $5.00

MAKE HOOD'S YOUR SMOKING

HEADQUARTERS

HOOD'S * HOOD'S * HOOD'S * HOOD'S

and an arman and an arman a

KAYWOODIES; DUKE OF DUNDEES

AND OTHER POPULAR BRANDS.

The members of the Presbyterian Mr. and Mrs. John Rearick were Sunday School Ladies' Bible Class Sunday callers with the latters siswere entertained at their December ter Mrs. Myra Wingardner, who has class meeting at the home of Dr. and been ill at the Ed. Glenn home on Mrs. E. B. Gavitte on E. Main Street, the branch. She is somewhat im-

Stock and bond salesman J. Lloyd Mrs. J. C. Spangler of Bellefonte Barr of State College was a pleasant ing some time in York, Pa., with annual butchering at the C. E. Frank Last Sunday dinner guests at the our valley recently, he was accom-panied by Miss Lucy Bollinger. The Roy Gates family of Lewis-town and Mrs. Annie Kocher, were worth is gratifying to her many Old Santa will leave a fine shetfriends, that she is recovering very land pony, wagon and harness, all safety program is to blame. We must after operation last week at complete at the John Kocher farm

Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, for Master John to enjoy himself To all a very, very Merry Christmas and prosperity through the enindex of a most beautifully lighted Yuletide tree on the Diamond to shed the Farmer Harry Fisher and son X-mas spirit to all far and near. St. Nick just missed it by a week Mrs. Margaret Boyer was buried at ner guests at the home of Mr and the bidders Friday at the I. G. Harp- with his present, a fine bouncing boy Oak Ridge cemetery on Friday. ster stock sale. High cow went for at the J. Arthur Burwell home No. 1. $143.00; hogs sold at high $ all strict. He has been christened James Arthur Jr., just call around and get Karl Kocher and family were re- your 25c X-mas cigar from the proud

Huntingdon county, the Ed. Kocher Claude C. Williams and wife of Centre Hall were Sunday callers at Cow drover W. A. Foy of Somerset county was in these parts the past shopping excursions to Bellefonte, week and purchased 2 truck loads of Tyrone and Altoona. They report fresh cows for his Shanksville traffic in stores very heavy, every-

Retired State College merchant their shopping before X-mas. Luther David Fye spent several days the past week with his son Richard Fye on his Tadpole farm. The Copley sisters have closed spend the winter with friends in YARNELL

The Women's Bible Class will hold their regular monthly meeting this Friday evening, Dec. 23rd, at the Miss Pearl Miller of Bellefonte, spent the weekend at her parental Dad and Mother when they say go sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D.

Walker and family, at Farmer's Mills. Linn Shawley is on the sick list.

Say It

spirit of "the maker"

WOODRING'S

Floral Gardens

127 E. Howard St. PHONE 64.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

HOOD'S * HOOD'S

Phone 114.

They radiate the

JULIAN

Breon home on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Flack are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter. Mother and babe are doing very nicely

Folks please do not forget the Christmas entertainment on Saturday evening the 24th, Everybody Gov. Earle hould be congratu'ated on the result of his drive for lessening accidents on the highway. In case any of our readers do not know. partison paper. "Records for the senage on Tuesday. first ten mon hs of his year show a total of 1,240 fatal motor accidents during that period as against 2,066 at Centre Hall. for a similar perio last year, this is Hades.

Mrs. Relda Frank of Lemont moa record of 826 fewer fatalities." burg attended the Republican Farmer William Deibler is spendtored up Friday to assist with the Well who knows but that if the 826 Christmas party held at Pleasant lives were lost instead of saved some Gap on Saturday of them may have been members of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Weaver and son our own families. We think it was Wayne visited Mrs. Weaver's para grand program, and as there are ents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Shuitz on fust as many or more automobiles on Sunday. the road and just as much gasoline burned who gets the credit, if not Harrisburg and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gov. Earle and his efficient helpers. Strayer of Lock Haven visited at the because a few people lose con- home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler trol of their cars we do not think the on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Miller and Mrs. not forget our local workers who Emma Corman transacted business keep roads in good condition and at Bellefonte on Thursday help make them second to none in Miss Mary Miller of State College the country. Let us all do our part spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. to help this good program. and Mrs. Charles Miller. Mrs. Myrtle Parsons of West Decatur a sister of Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. W. H. Ziegler were Sunday din-

Mrs. Carrie Green who has been an invalid for a year, the result of visitor in Williamsport on Monday. a stroke, had a very bad heart attack but is now much better.

The good old Centre Democrat is stitches in his head on Monday when advertising. We should make use of the advertising section as it brakes. is very cheap and very efficient. Quite a number of our folks made Monday in Williamsport.

one making frantic efforts to do

Is there a Santa Claus. Well the College were Sunday dinner guests latest thing we have heard to prove at the J. E. Carper home. the authenticity of reports about that good old fellow is that a lady 8 p. m. Friday Dec. 23rd. elates that when she was a little girl she refused to go to bed early Carolyn Young of Bellefonte were in Lemont recently. (That is she just lingered around for guests at the Robert Hall home. a while like all little boys and girls are tempted to do on X-mas eve). Thursday evening will be the Christ-The result-Santa came in with a mas Pageant, "Enter-The Stranger switch and gave her a whipping be- to be given by the young folks of the cause she would not go to bed. She Epworth League at 7:30 p. m. Sunnever forgot this harrowing experi- day School on Sunday morning at

to bed.' Mr. Aaron Donley who was con- worth League in the evening. siting with her brother, Mervill fined to the hospital with an attack of pneumonia, is at home again and terian church on Sunday evening at

Miss Mina Goheen, who lives with by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood. We still hope to be able to live her niece Mrs. Chase of Narberth, ong enough to discover that what Delaware county, is visiting her old ofthe Borough will have their Christwe have in the bank is actually home here. It is the Gray residence, mas entertainment this Friday af-••• BELLEFONTE, PA. •••• what we think we have. Her old friends are glad to have her ternoon. All parents and friends beek and glad that she is enjoying invited.

E. A. Peters has returned to his Prayer service Friday evening in the home at this place after a short stay church, a brief session of Sunday Little Miss Beverly Weller has m. followed by a special Christmas been very ill for a week. She is not program of the young folks at 10 For they were going to Grandma's able to take part in the X-mas ex- o'clock. Preaching service in the To spend their Christmas Day, ercises. But let us hope Santa will evening at 7:30 p. m. with a Christ- They donned their warmest togs find her at home.

Wilson Stiver of Tyrone called at A. Garrett. the R. M. and Charles Alexander Don't forget our community stores Merrily they rode along. homes on Saturday

According to information from to give pairons an opportunity to near friends William Lester Breon, complete their Christmas shopping. son of John Breon of near Zion was the first Centre County soldier to his family and belongings from our die in camp during the World War. midst to Altoona where he is em-Cause of death was measles and ployed in the Railroad shops. They pneumonia. The Breons were for- will move next week into the same mer residents of Julian where Lester house which they moved out of when was well known. In civil life he was coming to Unionville last Summer. a telegraph operator.

REBERSBURG

A Merry Christmas to all our New Hampshire Red pullets for sale

Mrs. Lily Baker of Wilkinsburg visiting her sister Miss Emma Sholl, first person interested as he wants Wooden sleds were for the boys, while the latter is slowly convalesc- to dispose of this goods before moving from a fall which has confined ing next week. her to her home for a number of

Mrs. George Adams and son Mar-cus, Mrs. Clara Adams and the former's aunt, all of Elysburg, called at the T. M. Hartman home recently. E. H. Hosterman is on the sick list suffering with pieurisy. Sunday callers at the Hosterman home were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hosterman of Penn Hall and their son

Samuel Hosterman and wife of Mil-Mrs. R. W. Meyer attended the funeral of her friend, Mrs. Janette Auman of Millheim last Friday. Mrs. Mable Doerr of Erie is visiting her sister Miss Cella Brungart. Richard Bair of Smullton visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. days. Bair several days last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waters, Mr.

and Mrs. James Paul and infant son of Jersey Shore were Sunday callers hospital for several weeks having and harness for two horses. at the homes of Mrs. M. C. Haines and J. E. Ziegler. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Smith and Miss speedy recovery to health. Roberta Smith of Centre Hall called on Paul Breon Saturday evening. the Young Women's Sunday School Mrs. Fred Whitehill spent the Class of the Methodist church will weekend at the Frank Whitehill hold their regular monthly business nome in Lemont. Mr. and Mrs. Luther West of State cember 27 at the home of Miss Mar-College and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hos- garet Stere. terman of Aaronsburg, visited Mrs.

Mrs. Fred Whitehill and Mr. and and Prosperous New Year. Mrs. Gale Swartz, the latter of Mill- A Christmas entertainment, open parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Baker, at chorus and several plano duets by

Among the out of town relatives furnishing committee, and friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. Sue Long last Saturday were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fromm of Salina, Paul Detwiler of Glenoiden. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brungart of tainment to be held Thursday even-Mifflinburg, Mr. and Mrs. Epley ing. Dec. 22, 1938. Gentzel and Mr. Joel Royer of Zion, Mr. and Mrs. James Lingle and Mrs. the G. B. Hoover home the latter

Don't forget the Christmas enter-

Emma Rishel of Madisonburg and part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Yearick of Mill The Ladies Aid of Fillmore M. E.

MILESBURG

Merry Christmas, everyone; have The ladies of the Women's M's-Mrs. Savilla Stitzer spent several Dads woolen ones. Hope Santa is next time. days last week at the home of Mr. good to you and while we are on the and Mrs. John Gradon at Smullton.

Mr. James Wert and Mrs. E. L. Kes- never be abbreviated to X-mas. Danny Swyers who is in a COC of Woodward called at the Claycamp is spending the holldays at his A, doesn't owe many of these indi-Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Houser of Mill- home here. Upon his return to camp viduals a cents worth but being gen-I give figure from a popular non- heim, called at the Evangelical par- he is being sent to Mexico. We wish him good luck.

Florence Miller spent the weekend with her friend Miss Harriet Smith A number of women from Rebers-The many friends and neighbors burg attended the Republican of Mrs. Elizabeth Weaver wish her and Martha Kobularchik were Satgood luck in her new home. Mrs Weaver who has long been a resi-

The many friends of Mrs. John Shell will be pleased to hear that Mr. and Mrs. Herman Confer of she is improving nicely. Sholl returned home from the hosplial on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Hazel Glenn was a Philadelphia shopper last week.

was a weekend visitor to our town. weekend visitors with relatives. Mr. H. C. Ziegler and Mr. and days at his home here. Rev. N. F. Douty was a business mals. There is a law or perhaps only a extent of requiring a number of custom in some of our western states, that if a man imbibes too freely he cured to provide sidewalks or subway good publication in which to do the jack slipped which he had placed can have his car driven home by an facilities to accommodate these officer. That would be a good thing under his truck while adjusting the for our state. Or if the proprietor there and not allow them to go out day visitors at the county seat.

> ily and Mrs. Sarah Miller of State start housekeeping in the near fu- from Newark, New York. ture on Thomas Street in Bellefonte. Union Grange No. 325 will meet at delphia shopper during the past Franck at Poormanside.

beautiful and impressive Methodist Church Services:-This "C ndle Light" service was rendered ago to Hawk Run. on Sunday night in the Presbyterian spersed with music by a chorus of ence, and to this day her advice to 9:15 a. m. followed by the regular A very enjoyable evening was spent boys and girls is "Do not argue with preaching service at 10:30 a. m. with on Priday of last week when Mrs. Jesse Sowers entertained the card Kauffman. There will be no Epclub of which she is a member. All voted Mrs. Sowers a charming host-Preaching service in the Presby-

Our town is taking on a gala ap-7:30 p. m. with a Christmas sermon pearance. We have a community but either some prankster or thief is removing the light globes from it, five in all having been taken. (Is this nice I ask you?)

> A REMINISCENT CHRISTMAS The day dawned clear and cloudless

The snow was on the ground The children were up early School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. There was much bustling around To the jingte of the sleigh bells will be open all day this Thursday Their hearts most burst with happi-On their lips there was a song. George Bauder expects to move in the great old fashioned parlor There stood the Christmas tree, Their eyes popped with amazement While they danced about with glee. On the tree were strings of popcorn A red apple here and there, While dolls cut from the catalogue Due to his having to move, George Were himg on the top with care. has a nice Victrola Heating stove which he will sell and which was Perhaps some walnut shells new this Fall, also he has about 15 Covered with tin foli bright And it was lit with candles and they are now laying. Call and For there was no electric light.

For in those days you know There were no mechanical toys. But we were just as happy As the children are today, With all their stream line toys Chapel at State College on Sunday To everyone of us, Christmas and Mrs. Clark Williams, Mrs. Julia Should mean one thing, Parsons and Louise Tingue and Miss The coming of the Christ Child

> Fire Levels Large Barn At Dix Run

Whose praises, we, in Carols sing.

(Continued from page one)

In addition to the livestock, the enjoying the sport, hoping it will loss included 18 tons of straw, 20 continue through their vacation tons of hay, 15 tons of corn fodder, wheat and oats, 1400 pounds of chop, a half-ton of chicken mash, home Saturday from Philadelphia a number of farming implements where she has been a patient in the including a new wagon and drill, undergone an operation. Her many Mr. Fisher reports that on his friends here are hoping for her inspection trip less than an hour before the fire was discovered, Class Meeting:-The members of everything in the barn was in orfloor, although he is at loss to acholds little belief that the fire was urday sho started by spontaneous combustion. The owner plans to rebuild motor trip away from home Sunday

The barn destroyed in Saturday's list during the past week. isbet on Saturday.

nesday night at 7:30 in the Commufire was the third structure to rest

Mr. C. H. Gramley received medinity House, Miss Cristine Kauffon the same foundation. Some years cal treatment at Williamsport sev-eral days last week. man and several other young ladies ago the original log barn was torn a Merry Christ of New Years. a Merry Christmas and the happiest Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brungart and daughter Marjorie were business vistors in Lock Haven, Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Hackenberg and daughter Joan, visited the former's entertainment will be a young ladles the barn. The building erected to Hampton, attended revival at Colereplace that one was destroyed during the weekend.

> During the height of the blaze a of the bucket brigade the building

Harshbarger home on Army Reserve should be addressed Marion and Betty to either Williamsport or Albeena, cream and cake were served.

CLARENCE

Maybe someone didn't approve of listing names of donators to the P. T. sionary Society of the Evangelical a good time, hang up your stockings listing names of donators to the P. T. church held their annual Christmas and all that. But I just don't know A.'s last supper. In that case better party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. what you girls will do that wear be careful we might publish names Paul Rearick last Thursday evening, socks, Have to borrow mothers or of those who refused to cooperate

> At the last meeting of P. T. A. Dec. subject a day so significent should 13th, is was decided to purchase more chairs and treat all school children to fruit for Christmas. The P. T. erous and by stretching a point they provide this benevolence. Miss Elizabeth Smith was the thank Mr. Brungard and Mr. Tarlucky winner of the cash award at man. It was the ones idea and the the Johnston Drug store Saturday. others action which brought it about. F. J. McGowan and daughter Jane > urday shoppers at Bellefoote. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Myers and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shive motored to dent of our town moved to Bellefonte

Halifax on Sunday. In case of severe wintry weather Mrs. Fourth grade plays will be postponed to some early date in the luture.

A new slant on the cow versus auto case—High school pupils as pedes-trians now take the blame. We Sherwood Dunkle of Pittsburgh, heartily agree that the High School should put a course of Eudcation for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hobba and Safety in their school curriculum. son Robert Lee of Osceola were It appears a necessity that at least someone must be killed hereabout) Gray McKinley who is a patient every three years to cause pedestriin a sanitarium will spend the holi- ans to exercise a little caution. S. H. S. pupils are so brave that they Mr. and Mrs. Guyer Fisher and dare to promenade over half the son Junior were weekend visitors at road. We too feel like bumping them off rather than dumber ani-

> Maybe a PWA grant could be sehighway hazards.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Carra and chil-Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock spent of a drinking place would keep them dren and Mrs. Stephens were Saturon the highway to become the victim Sunday callers at the Dewey Mcof an automobile or public nuisance Laughlin home were Mrs. McLaughlin's brothers Messers Lee and Philip Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner will Schaffer and the latter's wife, all

Miss Sue Rushnock spent the week Mrs. George Newman was a Phila- with her sister, Mrs. Katherine

The Patsy Carra family moved one Mrs. Jesse Sowers visited relatives day the past week from the Watson faim to the Andy Rushnock farm. Andy and family moved some time

We notice a community tree again church. Miss Jean Wallace read a this year by the Brick Building. Christmas story which was inter- Townsfolk appreciate a tree quite as much as the young people do.

Two of our popular young boys Jack Bell and Leslie McLaughlin took part in one of Jimmie and Janies amateur hours at Karthaus Saturday and won No. 2 moneyprize and a chance to broadcast over adio station WRAK Williamsport Wednesday p. m. Dec. 21st. These boys are members of the Billefonte Banjo band. Good luck dueters.

Mr. Harry Shive and children called Sunday at the McGowan home. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darby and son Floyd Jr., and Miss Kathryn Wenrick of Gleasontown called on Mrs. Eva Wenrick and family on Satur-

The Rex Bedwell family of Virginis are visiting with the Gorton Fye family and in Moshannon. Mrs. Fye and the gentleman are brother and sisters.

Clarence schools are closed from Dec. 22nd. to Jan. 3rd. for Christmas vacation.

A beauty spot we noted recently is the rubbish and paper from the vicinity of No. 10 and Cherry Run. which has lodged in the hedge by the Chambers residence.

Miss Gaynell Ardell visited Grade Four Friday p. m. She's a worker in he field of Religious Education emloyed near Pittsburgh, and is at present assisting Mr. Brungard in costuming and directing Sunday night's pageant at Moshannon and Grade Four plays at Clarence on Friday, Dec. 23rd. Two performances are programmed for that see him early as he will sell to the Grandma made rag dolls for the girls time matinee 2:00 p. m.; evening 8:00 p. m. Admission 10 and 20c. Everybody welcome. Come and enjoy a notable home talent production Colorful, awe-inspiring, seasonal and strictly religious.

Miss Ellen Wenrick is spending And a Christmas tree with tinsel gay. this week with relatives and friends near Renovo Mrs. Annie Watson and family are now living in their coxy bungalow near Conaways which makes both late tenants of the Watson homestead happier than happy. Emma Jane Retorick fell before reaching home Thursday evening and after leaving the school bus and injured one of her lower limbs A goodly crowd attended the Pilgrim Progress Stereoptican picture shown at the M. E. church Monday

Last P. T. A. gathering enjoyed re freshments of sandwiches, apple coffee and cake. Next meeting for the election of officers. At the same time another quarter dues for the coming year will be collected. Mr. Snap Fye and family called at the Gorton Fyes Sunday P. M.

Miss Meek and Miss Peters motored to Bellefonte again Saturday Fred Herr, Paul Casher and Clair der. He declared that it is believed Tarman called at the Brungard that the blaze began on the second apartment Friday evening. Orie Conoway of Snow Shoe, Mrs.

count for its origin. The barn was Eva Wenrick, Ellen and Leonard not wired for electricity, and he Wenrick were to Bellefonte on Sat-The Lee Moore family enjoyed a the structure as soon as weather p. m. Mr. Lan Wagner was on the sick Hope you enjoy Don't eat too much. Best wishes for

VALLEY VIEW

Marion Houser, Mairie and May ville Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Corman and Betty Eckley were shopping in Lock Haven Saturday

Earl Wion, Mrs. Elmer Breon,

We are all very sorry for Peggie Eckley, who has scarlet fever. She is the daughter of Paul N. Eckley. We all wish her a Merry Christmas. Mary Hampton was ill with tonsilitis last week, others who were on Santa Claus reports that he is Correct this sentence: "As a matgetting urgent messages every day ter of principle, I will not accept a discount."

We hope every one of you enjoys the happiness of this Christmas season.

CENTRAL PENNA. GAS CO.

CAPAPAPAPAPAPAPAPAPAPAP

Boys' Under 16 Years Win A Bicycle

Register Tuesday AFTER X-MAS

WHITE BROS.

REXALL DRUG STORE

Allegheny Street

Bellefonte, Pa.

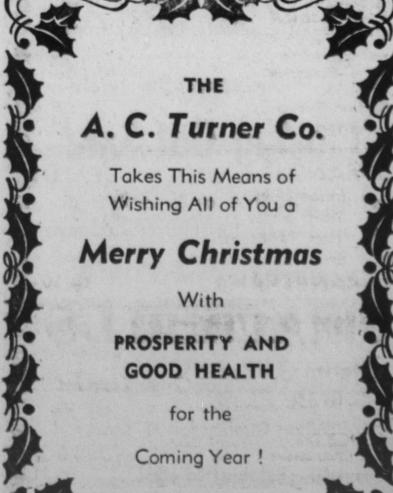

A bright Holiday season be yours! That's our Christmas wish to our many friends and patrons.

DeHAAS ELECTRIC CO.

BISHOP STREET

BELLEFONTE, PA.

arararararararararararar

Holiday Greetings to you from us and may your Christmas be a most cheerful one.

BOTTORF BROTHERS

ALLEGHENY STREET

. 的事理也不同的方法

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Yearick of Mill Charles Harshbarger Hall and C. S. Hosterman and chil- Thursday of last week.

meeting next Tuesday evening, De-

We take this opportunity to wish all readers of the Unionville Items, H. C. Ziegler, Mrs. W. H. Ziegler, a very Merry Christmas and a Happy heim, visited Mrs. Anna Stanley at to the public will be held next Wed-

Don McElwain and Arthur Barr. Miss Musser of State College visit-ed at the home of Mrs. Edith Gentzei refreshments. Proceeds will be given to the Methodist parsonage nearby shed housing 20 chickens caught fire, but through the work

FILLMORE

Oran Hull of Mill Hall visited at

Recruiting Station Closed The Centre Democrat is request- the sick list were Judie Carol and ed to state that the United States Janet Corman.

Army Recruiting Station in Lewistown has been closed and that all inquiries concerning enlistment in Those who attended were: Hazel and day school held a quilting at the the Regular Army and Regular Hilda Corman, Mrs. Paul King