

Over The County News

Paul Fleck, 13-year-old son of the Rev. Robert E. Fleck and Mrs. Fleck, of Howard, sprained his right ankle when he ran against a fire plug while playing with a group of boys on the street near the post office building. He was unable to attend school last week.

George Emel, who has an interesting display each Christmas at his home at N. Spring street and Fifth avenue, Bellefonte, has another display this year. The arrangement includes a toy town, forest, dam with a waterwheel running a sawmill, with a Christmas tree in the center of the village.

G. G. Neff, Millheim furniture dealer and mortician, has a novel and beautiful display in his show window. A miniature church, steeple, windows and all, was built for him by Carrett & Kidder, of Rebersburg. Painted green and white, and with Christmas carols being sung through the amplifier from the automatic chapel musical instrument, the display attracts many persons.

Officers of Bellefonte Lodge, No. 288, Free and Accepted Masons, for the ensuing year were elected and installed at the final meeting of 1938 last Tuesday night. The following were elected and installed: worshipful master, J. Willard Barnhart, Jr.; senior warden, Melvin J. Cherry; junior warden, Harry C. Taylor; treasurer, Frederick O. Wimer (re-elected); secretary, Arthur H. Sloop (re-elected for 2nd term); trustees, Ebon B. Bower, Earl S. Orr and Lewis R. Lenthart (all re-elected); representative in Grand Lodge, Arthur H. Sloop (re-elected); John Dunn is the immediate past master of the lodge.

A portion of the Penns Cave rural telephone line leading to the Grove farm, occupied by Guver Grove, is being rebuilt by the company, with a view of improving the service.

A purebred Hampshire boar was recently purchased by W. P. Campbell on the Penns Cave farm. Mr. Campbell makes breeding of swine one of the chief incomes from the farm. The Hampshires are an English breed and are black with a white belt back of the shoulder.

In a decree of court, issued recently, Judge Ivan Walker ordered the former poor directors of the Phillipsburg poor district to pay to the Phillipsburg borough the sum of $4,884.30, representing the balance remaining from the poor fund on January 1, 1938, when the poor districts were abolished.

Golden wedding anniversaries are being mentioned so frequently that their occurrence is no longer a rarity. This was not so some years ago, when the anniversary period was sufficiently rare in the community to attract more than local attention. This may go to prove that the span of life is lengthening.

Farmer C. T. Crust, of near Centre Hall, had hard luck a few days ago. On going to the barn in the morning a farm hand had noticed the most valuable horse in the stable out of kilter. He informed Mr. Crust who went to the stable and found the horse in a most alarming condition. It was found that the animal had died.

A group of Centre Hall citizens interested in furthering the advancement of the Centre Hall High school band, and in appreciation of the efforts of Prof. David I. Graybill giving his time for instruction without financial remuneration, have raised a fund of approximately $50 as a partial reward for his voluntary service.

At a regular meeting of the Millheim Fire Company, No. 1, held on Friday evening, December 9, the following officers were elected: president, Charles F. Stover; secretary, Norman W. Brauch; treasurer, M. L. Brown; fire chief, L. P. Bobb; assistant, Chas. A. Miller; 3rd assistant, John Reffensnyder; chaplain, Lloyd Cable; plugmen, Ralph Brown, Ralph Rossmann, Ralph Rote and Guy Musser.

Drew E. Koib, manager of the Municipal Theatre, Millheim, announced that persons who are without funds for entertainment, who are listed by the welfare groups as being worthy of assistance, will be given free passes to shows during the holiday season. This practice is in line with the custom established by Mr. Koib several years ago and applies only to those to whom this pleasure is denied only by their unfortunate financial position.

An apparently heavy leak in the water line to the First National bank building, Centre Hall, was repaired on Friday. The leak was somewhere between the water main and where the private pipe line entered the building, but showed no waste of water anywhere. Correction was made by threading a three-quarter-inch pipe through inch-and-a-half old pipe. The large pipe was used to accommodate a water motor used as power to operate a printing press some years ago.

Dr. James M. Runkle, pastor of the Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church in Altoona for the past 18 years, going there from Jeannette, announced his retirement from the ministry. Dr. Runkle preached his last sermon in Altoona recently, and he and his wife will take an apartment in Williamsport in January. Dr. Runkle is a native of Centre township. He graduated from Franklin and Marshall College and the Seminary, and was successful in his long career as a minister.

It was probably due to the heavy dose of sulphur of zinc taken by Edward Lair of Centre Hall, that saved his life, or at least it lessened the immediate suffering. A large dose taken in mistake for aspirin caused vomiting and relieved the patient. Mr. Lair, on discovering his error, went to the Hogan garage, made known what he had done, and asked that a physician be notified, and then retired to a small compartment in the rear of the garage. The physician prescribed taking milk liberally, which advice was followed with good results. The two drugs have a very similar appearance, but there is no similarity in their action.

Centre County's Commissioners have taken steps to have a bill introduced at the next session of the Legislature which would have the state bear the expense connected with the disposition of convicts who escape from the Western Penitentiary at Rockview. At the present time Centre county is burdened with that expense, with its only recourse being to charge the county from which the convict was originally sentenced. This has been difficult, since Centre county has had to sue in the courts for the amounts owed by several other counties. At present the Commissioners are trying to obtain counties to have the expense. It is said that Assemblyman Haines will be asked to introduce the bill. The Commissioners are also planning to seek changes in the registration code.

KEEPING TILE DRAINS OPEN PREVENTS FREEZING
A warning concerning protection and maintenance of outlets of any type of the drain is timely, says County Agent R. C. Blaney.
It is always advisable to screen outlets against the entrance of birds and animals and against crushing and undermining. Be sure the drain outlet is kept clear and functioning at all times. Such care is particularly essential during the winter.
Inspect drain tile outlets and remove grass, leaves, brush, gravel, and other debris that may obstruct the free flow of water from the mouth of the drain. Such care is particularly essential during the winter.
Failure to remove these obstructions may result in water freezing in the tile and causing considerable damage to the drainage system. Some of the tile may be broken and the repair job may be expensive.

It would be funny, if it wasn't tragic, how people continue to run into trains that are using the same crossing.
