There will be preaching service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McClellan to a turkey dinner on Sunday, January 1st, were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Tinguet and two children of Bellefonte and Philip Jones of Port Matilda.

George S. Bullock spent a couple of days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock, stopping off on his way from Pittsburgh where he and his wife had spent Christmas with her parents. He left for his duties in Philadelphia where he and his wife are both employed.

The loud and jazzy music which was heard all day on Monday at the home of Mrs. Harriet Askins, will be accounted for due to the fact that she and her sisters, Mary and Louise Turner went to the home of Raymond Snoko to butcher that day returning to their home in the evening about 10 o'clock and found they had left the radio on all day, with no one to listen to it but the neighbors.

The serenaders have had quite a time in the town the past week with no success.

Raymond Snoko butchered four fine hogs on Monday and will now be feasting on old fashioned buckwheat cakes and sausage. How about it Ray?

Mrs. G. W. Bullock left on the noon train Sunday for Philadelphia where she is visiting for a few days with her daughter and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Keeler.

Mrs. Roy Calhoun entertained at her home on Monday evening and served real home made ice cream. Mrs. Allie Hall and sister Miss Minnie Senator and Mrs. Anna Elway.

The Communion services in the Methodist church on Sunday evening was conducted by Candle Light which made it very beautiful as well as impressive. Rev. D. D. Kauffman was in charge.

E. T. Hall of Union Township butchered a 400 pound porker on Monday, assisted by his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams and Mrs. E. L. Parsons and daughter Margaret.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. W. W. Stambaugh who is a patient in the Centre County Hospital, having been admitted for treatment and observation. All hope for her speedy recovery.

We are glad to note that Miss Eva Rowan who has been confined to her bed for some time past is now improving and able to be up each day. Her many friends and neighbors hope her complete recovery may be speedy.

Young folks of the Community who are students of Bellefonte High School returned to their studies on Tuesday morning, while those who are students of State College returned their work on Wednesday. Schools of the Borough opened from a week's vacation, on Monday.

L. C. McKwain, one of our merchants, was confined to his bed over the weekend with a cold.

There are several cases of whooping cough in the community, among the children of the borough schools.

Mrs. William Brower of Pittsburgh, is visiting at this time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flick of Union Township.

Mrs. Julia Parsons spent a couple days and Louise Tinguet were entertained to dinner on Sunday, January 1st at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer of Bellefonte, Pa.

Many Christmas trees found their way out into the back yard on Monday which means that Christmas is all over for another year, but it will not be long until another one comes as the years seem to roll by very rapidly.

Miss Laura Rumberger, whose physical condition has not been so good the past week, was taken to Huntingdon last Saturday by her mother, Pearce Rumberger, who she will remain indefinitely and be cared for by her sister, Mrs. F. A. Helderman. Her many friends and neighbors in this community hope for her speedy recovery to health and return to her home again soon.

We are sorry to have missed some of the guests who were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauder for Christmas dinner on Monday the 28th. They had a real family reunion, all of their children being home with their families. Those whose names we missed last week were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bauder of Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. George Bauder of this place, now of Altoona.

Mrs. Nannie Williams returned to her home here on Tuesday morning after having spent some time with relatives in Hollidaysburg. We were very sorry to have learned of the death of her brother Samuel Fisher, whose funeral was held last Saturday afternoon and burial made in Half Moon Valley. Most sincere sympathies are extended to the relatives and friends in their hours of bereavement.

Word was received in the community on Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Cora Lucas of Clearfield whose funeral will be held this Thursday from the funeral parlor at Clearfield and interment in the Oak Ridge cemetery in Union Township. Mrs. Lucas was an aunt of Mrs. B. E. Holt and Mrs. Hazel Barton, also of Forrest M. Lucas of this place. We extend most sincere sympathies to friends and relatives in their hours of bereavement.

We would just offer this suggestion to persons of the community who have taxes which are unpaid for previous years, that arrangements be made to clear up the debt. These taxes must be paid as the various organizations of the community are in need of their funds. The tax collector has been very lenient with everyone in the payment and collection of their taxes and we think it would be very right and proper that citizens should reciprocate. Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stere who have been married since some time in October and just recently made it known. Mrs. Stere was the former Miss Margaret Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Harper of Union Township and recently employed in State College. Frank is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stere of this place also employed in State College. The serenaders gave them the usual welcome on Tuesday evening and received a generous treat.
