

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mae Fry)

Wilbur R. Sunday and son Donald, were visitors in Warriors Mark Monday p. m.

Miss Helen Homan's choice pen of lambs gained 3rd. place last week at the State Farm Show. Congratulations.

Mrs. Donald Fry of Pa. Furnace, is spending a few weeks at the J. Arthur Burwell home on E. Main Street.

Rev. and Mrs. James Fisher were royally entertained to a sumptuous (farmers) dinner last Tuesday evening at the G. Myron Bloom home in Centre lane.

Claude Myers tendered the installation of officers at Half Moon grange last Saturday where an elaborate oyster dinner was 2nd great event of the day.

College Top's veteran dairyman, J. W. Klinger was a business caller in the Glades recently and purchased an extra fine Guernsey cow out of the R. W. Reed herd.

The Samuel Martz home on East Main Street, now the property of Mrs. Bessie Cori, is being completely re-conditioned with new paper and paint on interior, in the near future a modern home ready for occupancy.

Charles M. Dale is spending some time in Chester, a guest of his daughter and husband, Prof. and Mrs. Ralph Ricker, while there he will consult Dr. Johnson a specialist of U. P. Mr. Dale was taken down by his son Hugh C. Dale.

Cards from Dr. and Mrs. Hugh I. Fry of Nashville, Tenn., announce the marriage of their daughter Lela Rebecca to Mr. James Hamilton, of Indianapolis, Ind., the wedding to take place in early spring they will reside in Ind., where the groom has a nice position.

Last Wednesday farmer George Rudy purchased the Wilbur Dodi property on Chestnut street. On March 11th, Mr. Rudy will dispose at public sale his farm equipment on the Luther Strouse farm and he with his good wife will retire for well earned rest to their newly purchased home.

A number of folks from this section attended the Mahlon Beck funeral Monday p. m. at his late home near Centre Lane. One of Centre County's best farmers and reliable citizens. He occupied the Wood Miller farm the past 27 years. His family has the sympathy of the entire community.

MOSHANNON

Not with standing the strenuous weather we had, Sunday school at the M. E. church was well attended there being about 60 present. After Junior church Rev. Hammond read the rules of the M. E. church, re-quired in the Discipline.

The Misses Geraldine Cartwright and Hope Lewis spent Saturday and Sunday at their homes here, returning to Williamsport through the blizzard.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas spent Saturday and Sunday at their respective homes here and at Lanes, Mrs. Lucas remained at her home on account of the serious illness of her mother, who is recovering after an operation at the Philipsburg hospital.

There will be preaching services at the Free Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Jan. 29th, at 2:30 Rev. Curry, Pastor.

Mrs. John Billy had the misfortune to fall down stairs, she was hurt badly, fortunately there were no bones broken.

Oscar Nicholson, who has been housed up the past week on account of sickness, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Ida Sheeder has been quite ill. Seems a little improved at this writing.

Mary Ann Lucas R. N. spent last Wednesday at her home here.

Read the classified ads here and profit

YEAGERS Children's Shoes 98c Regular Price $1.95 BELLEFONTE, PA.

PRE-NATAL CARE advertisement with illustration of a woman and child, and text about prenatal care importance.

BLANCHARD

This seems to be accident week in our community. Late Friday afternoon a serious accident was avoided when Carl Frome of Marsh Creek struck a tree in front of Mrs. Ellen Kunes' home to keep from hitting Johnnie Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams. Howard Curtis Jr., and Johnnie Williams who were pulling his sled, attempted to cross the road in front of the car, but they did not reckon the distance of the car from them. As a result the car struck the sled and swerved into a tree. No serious damage was done.

On Friday morning M. C. Bowman fell while loading a brick truck at the General Refractories plant in Beech Creek, and injured the elbow of his left arm. After being given first aid by Dr. McDowell Tibbins he was brought home. The next morning Dr. Tibbins took him to Lock Haven Hospital for an X-ray and found the elbow broken.

Carl Maxon of Curtis Bay, Md., and Bertha Lomas of Baltimore, Md., and Ernest DeLoach who is working in Beech Creek R. D. spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxon.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aiva Miller were Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. Alma Kunes of Beech Creek.

Mrs. Irvin Pravel, Mrs. Ben Merriam, and two children, spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Raymond Maxon who has not been so well lately.

Another robbery occurred this week. T. M. Kunes store was broken into on Monday evening and several small articles were taken. Three young men were apprehended on Friday afternoon and later which may have been the ones who committed the two robberies in town.

The pulpit committee of the Baptist Church met in a joint meeting with the Milesburg church on Sunday afternoon. N. definite plans for filling the pulpit of the two churches were made.

Mrs. Raymond Maxon and daughter Evelyn and Mrs. Irvin Pravel spent Wednesday in Monument with Mrs. Delmar McCloskey.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. James Martin attended the funeral of Mrs. Martin's brother-in-law, Mrs. John Forey of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Percy were well known in our community as they spent several days each summer at the Martin home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heverly and family of Howard. John Williams has been on the sick list the last few days.

The funeral of Mrs. John Mann of Monument was conducted in the Church of Christ at 2 p. m. Sunday afternoon.

John Heichel Jr., was a pallbearer at the funeral on Sunday afternoon of one of the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Walker of Marsh Creek.

BENNER TWP.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Ira Benner were Jack Lofe of Bellefonte, Wilbur Orndorf, wife and son James and daughter Sarah, and Glenn Glasgow from Centre Hill.

Benjamin Wolfe and family from Wyoming are spending a couple of days at the Benner home. Mrs. Wolfe's daughter, Catherine Hoy is a daughter of William Hoy of Spring Mills.

A jolly crowd of young people from Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap gathered at the Ira Benner home on Saturday and Sunday night and had a jolly time eating and dancing the Benner jig. They had one week when one of the sleds ran away. The hill being very icy they could not stop the sled and several of the girls were thrown off and badly bruised. Marie Benner bruised her left eye and caused the eye to swell shut, she had to wear a patch on Monday.

Some of the WPA workers have been laid off that were working on the road that is being built through Rock.

James Orndorf, son of Wilbur Orndorf is suffering from the chicken pox.

The dreaded disease gripe is circulating around through this vicinity.

Sorry to note the death of Mrs. Edward Longwell who was buried at the Meyers cemetery on Tuesday.

The roads have been drifted and had to be shoveled out through here. Any person wanting to know how good the roads are to Altoona should inquire of Lester Marshall, he has been making trips to Altoona once or twice a week.

Farmers are busy getting in their supply of hay for summer use and cleaning up their barn yards, and white washing their barns.

The neighbors are spending the winter evenings by gathering together at each others houses playing pool, bingo, cards, and having some very good singing and music together with good eats, ice cream, cake, sandwiches, pickles and popcorn.

Several families are compelled to haul water from the Benner spring at Rock.

Russell Glasgow, wife and son Robert, are spending a few days at Centre Hill at Russell's, parental home, Robert Glasgow's.

PINE GLEN

Miss Myrtle Watson, who was stricken with a paralytic stroke over two weeks ago, passed away on Saturday afternoon with out regaining consciousness. Miss Watson's former home was Philadelphia, but she has been making her home with her brother Nelson who survives also a brother James of Philipsburg, and three sisters Mrs. Harry Lantz of Bellefonte, and Mattie and Caroline of Philadelphia. The body was shipped to Philadelphia where burial was made on Tuesday.

Mrs. Max Ritter, who was called here from Philadelphia on account of Miss Watson's illness returned home last week. Mrs. Theodore Watson of Clearfield also returned home.

Miss Helen Butler, Home Extension worker gave a very interesting demonstration of bedspreads and curtains on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pyle. Miss Butler will meet the club members, friends and any new members Thursday, Feb. 2nd, at Mrs. James Hodges home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Askey, son James and William Hodge attended the inauguration on Tuesday, Mr.

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Askey had the honor of shaking hands with our new Governor Arthur James.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hipple and son Arthur, of Bellefonte were at Sherman Askey's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoover and sons Robert, Willard, Don and Russell attended the Farm Show last week.

Harold Muholland of Altoona, visited his mother, Mrs. J. P. Muholland over the weekend.

Mrs. Frances Straw of Harrison, N. J., Mrs. Iva Brush, Newark, N. J., Miss Hazel Fry and Nick Menjoune of Brooklyn, N. Y. spent a few days at the Fry home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wertz, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burkey and children Marjorie and Tom were shopping in Bellefonte on Saturday.

CLARENCE

The ladies club under the supervision of Mrs. Valera Bateman were Wednesday supper guests at the home of Mrs. E. G. Carra. Those present were Mrs. G. B. Casher, Mrs. J. H. Murrain, Mrs. Valera Bateman and Mrs. E. G. Carra. Mrs. B. B. Benny also Mrs. Bruno Carra and children.

The Clarence Banjo Band was well represented at the band rehearsal at Bellefonte Thursday night for election of officers. Leslie McLaughlin was elected secretary and Oliver Bell the band drummer was elected police.

Isabel Stephens spent Tuesday night at the Watzsch home along the pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Midlan and family of Coalport, visited in our town Saturday afternoon and evening. While here they called at the home of his uncle and aunt and family Mr. and Mrs. Lewey McLaughlin.

Mr. Charles Harrison, insurance agent of Bellefonte combined business and pleasure on trip he had to Clarence Saturday.

Miss Zoe Meek was absent from her post as teacher of eighth grade Monday being housed with a cold.

Miss Ann McGowan 2nd grade teacher was also absent because of the illness of her aged mother, Mrs. Martin McGowan.

Charles Guenther, who has the contract for supplying fuel to township schools, attended a convention to the school week end.

Miss Myra Peters did not fill her teaching position Monday at Portmanside on account of the inclement weather.

Mr. Brungart took supper out of town Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. Don't forget the coming date for an inspection is Jan. 31st.

Coasting, skiing and skating are being enjoyed to the utmost this past week. Especially highland and low temperatures put the ever increasing snow into best condition for these winter sports.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McGowan moved to Lock Haven Tuesday to return little Miss Patty Myers to the home of her parents, after she had been spending several days with relatives here.

Sunday night Veterans at the Free Methodist church, were well attended by about 20 young boys, despite the arctic cold.

The class of Miss Zoe Wagner, teacher of Senior girls filed the choir chairs and nobly upheld the title of well chorister. These girls, were quite inspirational and will continue till spring each Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Master Bobby Retorick, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Retorick, was rushed to the State Hospital at Philipsburg Friday for an operation due to acute appendicitis.

Resting comfortably and he optimistically hopes for a speedy ultimate recovery.

The Pete Wozniak family is for the present sharing a part of the Biugosh apartment in the Samuel Hutler property, where they will be making their headquarters.

Some of the WPA workers have been laid off that were working on the road that is being built through Rock.

James Orndorf, son of Wilbur Orndorf is suffering from the chicken pox.

The dreaded disease gripe is circulating around through this vicinity.

Sorry to note the death of Mrs. Edward Longwell who was buried at the Meyers cemetery on Tuesday.

The roads have been drifted and had to be shoveled out through here. Any person wanting to know how good the roads are to Altoona should inquire of Lester Marshall, he has been making trips to Altoona once or twice a week.

Farmers are busy getting in their supply of hay for summer use and cleaning up their barn yards, and white washing their barns.

The neighbors are spending the winter evenings by gathering together at each others houses playing pool, bingo, cards, and having some very good singing and music together with good eats, ice cream, cake, sandwiches, pickles and popcorn.

Several families are compelled to haul water from the Benner spring at Rock.

Russell Glasgow, wife and son Robert, are spending a few days at Centre Hill at Russell's, parental home, Robert Glasgow's.

ZION

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gentzel of State College were Sunday callers at the Epley Gentzel and Joel Royer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boone and sons Robert, Willard, Don and Russell attended the Farm Show last week.

Harold Muholland of Altoona, visited his mother, Mrs. J. P. Muholland over the weekend.

Mrs. Frances Straw of Harrison, N. J., Mrs. Iva Brush, Newark, N. J., Miss Hazel Fry and Nick Menjoune of Brooklyn, N. Y. spent a few days at the Fry home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wertz, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burkey and children Marjorie and Tom were shopping in Bellefonte on Saturday.

The ladies club under the supervision of Mrs. Valera Bateman were Wednesday supper guests at the home of Mrs. E. G. Carra. Those present were Mrs. G. B. Casher, Mrs. J. H. Murrain, Mrs. Valera Bateman and Mrs. E. G. Carra. Mrs. B. B. Benny also Mrs. Bruno Carra and children.

The Clarence Banjo Band was well represented at the band rehearsal at Bellefonte Thursday night for election of officers. Leslie McLaughlin was elected secretary and Oliver Bell the band drummer was elected police.

Isabel Stephens spent Tuesday night at the Watzsch home along the pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Midlan and family of Coalport, visited in our town Saturday afternoon and evening. While here they called at the home of his uncle and aunt and family Mr. and Mrs. Lewey McLaughlin.

Mr. Charles Harrison, insurance agent of Bellefonte combined business and pleasure on trip he had to Clarence Saturday.

Miss Zoe Meek was absent from her post as teacher of eighth grade Monday being housed with a cold.

Miss Ann McGowan 2nd grade teacher was also absent because of the illness of her aged mother, Mrs. Martin McGowan.

Charles Guenther, who has the contract for supplying fuel to township schools, attended a convention to the school week end.

Miss Myra Peters did not fill her teaching position Monday at Portmanside on account of the inclement weather.

Mr. Brungart took supper out of town Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. Don't forget the coming date for an inspection is Jan. 31st.

Coasting, skiing and skating are being enjoyed to the utmost this past week. Especially highland and low temperatures put the ever increasing snow into best condition for these winter sports.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McGowan moved to Lock Haven Tuesday to return little Miss Patty Myers to the home of her parents, after she had been spending several days with relatives here.

Sunday night Veterans at the Free Methodist church, were well attended by about 20 young boys, despite the arctic cold.

The class of Miss Zoe Wagner, teacher of Senior girls filed the choir chairs and nobly upheld the title of well chorister. These girls, were quite inspirational and will continue till spring each Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Master Bobby Retorick, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Retorick, was rushed to the State Hospital at Philipsburg Friday for an operation due to acute appendicitis.

Resting comfortably and he optimistically hopes for a speedy ultimate recovery.

The Pete Wozniak family is for the present sharing a part of the Biugosh apartment in the Samuel Hutler property, where they will be making their headquarters.

Some of the WPA workers have been laid off that were working on the road that is being built through Rock.

James Orndorf, son of Wilbur Orndorf is suffering from the chicken pox.

The dreaded disease gripe is circulating around through this vicinity.

Sorry to note the death of Mrs. Edward Longwell who was buried at the Meyers cemetery on Tuesday.

The roads have been drifted and had to be shoveled out through here. Any person wanting to know how good the roads are to Altoona should inquire of Lester Marshall, he has been making trips to Altoona once or twice a week.

Farmers are busy getting in their supply of hay for summer use and cleaning up their barn yards, and white washing their barns.

The neighbors are spending the winter evenings by gathering together at each others houses playing pool, bingo, cards, and having some very good singing and music together with good eats, ice cream, cake, sandwiches, pickles and popcorn.

Several families are compelled to haul water from the Benner spring at Rock.

Russell Glasgow, wife and son Robert, are spending a few days at Centre Hill at Russell's, parental home, Robert Glasgow's.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday Jan. 29 are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 worship with sermon 2:30 p. m. A trial sermon delivered by Rev. Gulick of Scranton, and the urgent request of the consistory is that as many of the members and friends of this church as can possibly come are to be in attendance. C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "This Church and our Denomination" (Endeavor Week).

Rev. Harry D. Houtz of Selinsgrove, very ably filled the pulpit on Sunday and delivered a fine sermon using as his text: "What Hath God Wrought!" Taken from Numbers 21:23.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley were Thursday afternoon callers at the home of Henry Vonada and C. A. Dolan of Little Nittany.

Mrs. William Beightol and daughter Louise were Friday evening callers at the home of her aunt Cora Baney of Howard, previous to attending the revival service held in Methodist church.

Those who attended the Harrisburg Fair from our village were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter, Hogan Long and son George, W. H. Kessinger, Mr. Nevin Yearick and daughter Norma, Messrs. Floyd Yearick, Harry and Clair Beightol, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and son, Philip.

Elmer Scope and daughters spent Saturday afternoon in Lock Haven. Homer F. Yearick, a student of the Theological Seminary, of the Reformed church of Lancaster, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Yearick.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clements and Russell Poorman of Bellefonte were Monday evening supper guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone, and grandson of Jersey Shore, spent over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Fry. Saturday evening callers were Ed and Dean Boone, Edwin Hunt, Fred Betz, Edward and Billie Orr, Dick McCreia, Mildred East and Louise Beightol, Betty Ealy, Barbara and Rebecca Shaffer, all reported a very enjoyable evening, spent listening to fine string music and singing.

Homer F. Yearick and sister June were Saturday evening callers at the Roy Oyle's home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and Mrs. Anna Robb were Saturday afternoon callers at the home of the former's aunt, Mrs. Albert Thompson of Bellefonte, who is in a critical condition at the home of her son Charles Thompson.

Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dick and Elsie Jane spent Friday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Misses Betty and Gladys Harter of Little Nittany, spent Saturday evening with their friends Kathryn and Lucy Conway.

Visitors at the Mrs. Lucy Conway home this week were the Messrs. Geraldine and Arnie Swope, Vivian Wiley, Kathryn McCreia and Mr. Willard Walker.

On Tuesday Jan. 10, Mrs. Julia Lucas vacated the Raymond Lucas property and moved into the farm house belonging to Nevin Yearick situated at the crossroads west of Jacksonville. On Tuesday Jan. 17, Mr. Orin Fry and family of Marsh Creek moved into the property vacated by Mrs. Lucas.

Mrs. Hozan Long and nephew Johnny and Junior Poorman spent Tuesday last week with her mother Mrs. Julia Lucas, Mrs. Willard Hoy, and children spent Thursday at the same home.

Sunday callers at the Roy Oyle home were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Diehl of Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Oyle of State College and Mrs. Mollie Wentzel.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and Mrs. Anna Robb called on the latter's cousin Wilson Romick of Bellefonte, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. William Watkins and son Walter of Bellefonte were Tuesday afternoon visitors at the William Beigh of home.

Geraldine Swope attended the Mt. Bethel Cheerful Helpers Sunday School class meeting on Friday evening at the home of Lucille and Doris Lucas of Fox Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy, of Centre Hill, Miss Mildred Aley and Jack Mabius of Bellefonte spent Sunday afternoon and were supper guests at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley called on Mr. and Mrs. Arden Walters of Bellefonte on Saturday afternoon.

Sunday was a very stormy and blustery day but not bad enough to mar the sport of the sled riders which included the grown ups along with the kiddies. They on Monday afternoon the caretaker of the road asked one side leaving only one side to coast on.

HOUSERVILLE

Those who took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lee were Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Homer Gauntt and children Joanna, Charles, Sandra of this place, and Mr. Clem Hershey of Altoona.

Miss Freda Coble stayed with Mrs. Peter Emshizer a couple nights last week.

Mrs. Grant Coble is visiting in Harrisburg with her daughters.

Miss Lois Jean Hook is a visitor at her grandparents home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houtz and children called at the Ralph Hook home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ralph Hook and Mrs. Roy Wertz entertained the Willing Workers Class on Tuesday evening at the Roy Wertz home, the evening was spent in Bible reading by Mrs. Hook, prayer by Mrs. Wertz, while a number of songs were sung. A business meeting was held and refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mrs. Honer Gauntt, Mrs. Berlin Chilcote, Mrs. Clifford Corman, Mrs. Ervin Knepp, Miss Ruth Hoy, Mrs. James Reese, Miss Dorothy Coble, Miss Thelma Chilcote, Mrs. Marvin Lee, Miss Mary Walters, Miss Mary Ellen Shuey, Mrs. Vincent Hoover, Mrs. Andy Dale, Mrs. John Boal.

Those who were on the sick list are much improved at this writing.

Charles Coble has been suffering with a sore hand.

Those who attended the Farm Show at Harrisburg on Monday were Bruce Struble, Gean Struble, Glenn Struble, George Risher, and Roy Wertz.

Only the 1939 Studebaker assures you this healthful warmth all winter!

New safety for the driver... cozy comfort for all passengers! Studebaker's unique Climatizer, centrally located under the front seat floor, draws in a constant supply of fresh air from the outside, thoroughly filters it, then heats it and distributes it throughout the car. Costs only a little extra.

Studebaker's New Central CLIMATIZER HEATING AND VENTILATING SYSTEM Built into the car, under the seat, out of the way.

GEO. A. BEEZER GARAGE NORTH WATER STREET BELLEFONTE, PA.

PLEASANT VALLEY (From last week) Mr. William Richner is not feeling so well at this writing but we wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sayers, Linda and Billy Griffith of Yarnell, spent Thursday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Richner.

Calvin McMullen and Robert Long of Harrisburg, spent the weekend at the home of Harvey Emshizer. Harvey accompanied them back to attend the Farm Show.

Russell Jones was a visitor on Friday at the home of Harvey Emshizer.

Mrs. Graw Anderson and Lena Hatch were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Sayers and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cowler and family of Summit Hill were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCartney.

LaVera Emshizer of Lemont, spent the weekend with her daughter Jane and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Emshizer.

Harvey Emshizer returned home Sunday from Harrisburg, after spending a week at Robt. McMullen's and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sayers and Linda and Billy Griffith spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Richner.

Harvey Emshizer was Robert McMullen and Bob Long of Harrisburg, William and Theodore Emshizer, Robert Smith and Thomas Peese.

Mrs. and Mrs. Raymond Bressler, Jack Wilder, LeRoy Hoffman all of Reading spent Sunday with William Theodore Bressler.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Richner and children spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sayers at Yarnell.

YEAGERS Less Than 1/2 Price All Styles Women's SUEDE SHOES BELLEFONTE, PA.

Now Reduced! A & P Family BREAD advertisement with list of products and prices.