

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

League Meeting:—The regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth League will be held on Friday evening, February 10th at the home of Mabel and Julia Barton up the Pike. The meeting will be in the form of a Valentine party after the business has been conducted.

Free Methodist Church Services—Prayer service on Friday evening; Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by class meeting. Preaching service in the evening at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor Rev. G. A. Gorrett.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening followed by the regular monthly business of the Official Board of the church. Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:15 a. m. followed by the preaching service at 10:30 a. m. Epworth League in the evening at 8:30 p. m.

Miss Eva Rowan, who has been ill for the past several weeks, is recovering and able to do some little chores about the house.

There will be preaching service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood.

Wednesday of this week, being Feb. 15, is the dead line for payment of taxes, but the balance of the week will be extended before the 5% penalty is added to all County, State, and Borough tax.

Miss Margaret Parsons of State College, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons of this place and celebrated her birthday which was on Monday, the 30th. Miss Louise Tingue, her cousin had Sunday dinner with her in honor of the occasion.

Miss Maxine Resides, student nurse of the Germantown Hospital, is home for a month recovering from a recent attack of pneumonia, which she went through at the hospital over the holidays. She is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Resides. She expects to return to her duties after she has fully recovered and will graduate this Spring.

REBERSBURG

Rev. C. O. Frank of Vandergriff preached in the Lutheran church last Wednesday evening.

Miss Mary Louise Kelly of Philadelphia is spending several weeks with her parents Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Breen are the happy parents of a son, who arrived last Wednesday. He has been named David Lynn.

Rev. N. F. Donly left for New York City on Monday, to be engaged in Bible conference work at Hephzibah House.

Mr. Richard Mann of Beech Creek visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lambert last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lee and sons Donald and David of State College, were Sunday guests at the S. A. Bierly home.

Miss Maxine Page of State College visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weber of Sunliton, are the proud parents of a son, born on Sunday.

Mrs. C. O. Mallory became very ill on Sunday with a heart attack but is improving at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stover and family of Livonia were Sunday visitors at the C. D. Weaver home.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock attended the Evangelical ministerium at Lock Haven on Tuesday and visited friends at Bellefonte, on their return.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Brungrat on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gulsewitz and Mrs. Alice Crouse visited the former's mother, Mrs. Jane Gulsewitz at Leontion, Sunday.

The members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society enjoyed a sleighing party last Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Schechterly and daughter Joyce and son Franklin of McGuffey visited at the K. S. Breen home Saturday.

Lives There a Man Who Never To Himself Hath Said, I'd Like A Home I Can Call My Own

You Can Now Have That Wish Come True. JUST ASK Clusters Phone 8 We Arrange All FHA Financing For You!

MOSHANNON

There were 62 present at the M. E. Sunday School Sunday. Next Sunday, Feb. 5th, preaching at 9:30 p. m. Sunday school at 10:30 on account of Evangelistic services at Clarence.

On next Sunday afternoon there will be the regular preaching service at the Free Methodist church by the pastor at 2:30. In the evening Evangelistic services by the Rev. Paul Stewart, the services will continue indefinitely. W. J. Kerly pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Muhllian, sons Edward and David, and Mrs. Anna Lewis of Tyrone, spent Sunday with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland and Grand- ma Lewis called at Askey's and at the Lewis home Sunday in Pine Glen.

Oscar Nicholson is under the doctor's care and is confined to his bed at this writing.

Mrs. Carolyn Mayes, who suffered a stroke of paralysis Friday of last week, is not much improved at this writing.

Those who attended the quilting at Mrs. Jacob Hazards last Wednesday afternoon were: Mrs. Frank Culver, Mrs. Ambers Fye, Mrs. Annie Norton, Mrs. John Lucas and Mrs. H. Yeager. A covered dish dinner was served at Mrs. Carl Schmoke's. Mrs. Doyal Berger and Mrs. Schmoke served the dinner.

Mrs. Carl Schmoke and Jane and Barbara spent Saturday and Sunday in Snow Shoe on account of the death of Mrs. Schmoke's uncle, Mr. Adam Dixon.

Mary Ann Lucas R. N. spent the weekend at home and attended the services of her home church.

The C. B. C. class met at the home of Mrs. Jacob Hazards for their monthly business meeting. Those present were: Mrs. Clyde Borger, Mrs. Edith Fye, Mrs. Homer Quick, Mrs. Annie Norton, Mrs. Ambers Fye, Mrs. Carl Schmoke, Mrs. H. L. Yeager, Mrs. John Lucas and Mrs. Jacob Hazards, Mrs. Harold Borger. Business was transacted and refreshments were served. The meeting next month will be at the home of Mrs. Edith Fye, the weather permitting.

The many friends here of Lee Shaffner will be glad to know he's the proud father of a young son born last Thursday at their home in Newark, New York. This is the second child of the Shaffner family but only son to date.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin and baby of Kate, were visiting in town during the past week.

While his auto was being inspected at the C. G. Black Motor Co. in Tyrone Saturday, Mr. Brungard accompanied by his cousins Shirley and Rachel Albright called on Mrs. Hubler at the Methodist Home.

The Clarence Banjo Band played at the Methodist church here Sunday afternoon in the opening night of a revival service which is being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Hammond, the ensuing week. Services begin at 7:30. Try to attend and bring your friends.

A birthday party was held recently at the home of Geo. Kachuk and pleasantly surprised Mrs. Kachuk on her natal anniversary. A large number of adult friends comprised the gathering which called to extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Gussulish of Beech Creek, were weekend guests at the William Tarman home. The ladies June and Beulah are sisters.

The John Garlock family were to Bellefonte Saturday and got their daughter Kathryn bringing her home for the weekend and returning her to the Arthur Dale home, her place of employment Sunday evening.

Boys who called evenings during the week on Mr. Brungard at his apartment were the following: Paul Casber, Clair Tarman, George and Robert Murnyack, George Gavlock, David Palinkas and George Bucha.

Grade Four is sponsoring a seed selling contest again this year, which is now in progress and will continue until March 1st. They are the same company, High Grade, as last year. These seeds are only 5c a pack and well recommended. If they sell all of 27 boxes they receive 50% of proceeds otherwise they get 5%. Either way you are getting seeds guaranteed to grow and you are helping support the seed library funds. With the profit from the sale of over 5000 above expenses of their Christmas plays this grade taught by Mr. Brungard is getting a small radio for school purposes. It is expected to be on hand and installed for use Friday, Feb. 1st. That night at 7:45, Hill school is having an amateur show. Immediately following school radio will be tuned in for the next championship boxing match, so don't let it keep you home. Anyhow the program is to close at 9:45 so you'll have time to get home and tune your own radio if you prefer.

Admission is 10 and 20 cents and no one better congregate outside or some events to be seen and heard will be in this column.

Miss Meek drove to Clearfield Saturday and found her sister Mrs. Lucas much improved in health. While there she visited friends on West Side Clearfield also.

John Beam and family called at the former's sister Mrs. Lee Moore Sunday. Moore's live on Windy Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Monroe and family of Lock Haven, spent Sunday night and Sunday with Heaton's of Fountain and visited Mrs. Har- nish, Mrs. Monroe's mother.

Frances Flashburn is contemplating work away from home in the near future.

Nelson Davis was to the funeral of his brother at Munson, Pa. during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Berger are planning to go to housekeeping soon at Karthaus. The newly weds are bride and groom for just a fortnight. Mrs. Nettie Mann and daughter Marian called on another daughter, Mrs. Harve McCloskey, Sunday p. m.

Mary Besteman, daughter of No. 10, is confined to her home with abdominal pains for more than a week.

Master Bobby Retorick is sufficiently recovered from an appendix operation to be at his home again. Harve McCloskey's were Saturday shoppers in Bellefonte.

4th Grade is proudly displaying a seal for their fourth month writing being up to standard.

Mrs. E. D. Myers and daughter Betty of Lock Haven, are spending this week with the home folks.

Will Sing at World's Fair.

Thirty singers from Lock Haven and vicinity are now rehearsing under the direction of L. L. Dick, school supervisor in the Lock Haven Public Schools, for appearance with several thousand other singers of the Associated Glee Clubs of America at the New York World's Fair in July.

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGARD

Sunday visitors at the Arthur Stephens home were Mr. Stephens' uncle Larry Resler and cousin Woodrow Resler and Basil Smith, of Cramer, Indiana Co. Pa., also Mrs. Stephens' father J. C. Pravel and lady friend of Osceola Mills. Other callers were Diana Besteman, Della Cantoni, Marie Muirhead, John Crestani and the B. G. Carro family.

Fourth grade constructed and are using bird feeders again since the middle of January. The Hill School has become quite a popular rendezvous for our feathered friends.

The home and Holland week, this week in poster, poem, story and art. Miss Virginia Cole was on the sick list early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McGowan and their daughter Janie made a Saturday business trip to Philadelphia.

One of New York Central Railroad Co's freight train cabooses is being utilized as a local station since Clearance $40,000 fire of a few weeks back, while a box car also on the adjacent siding answers the purpose of freight storage room.

Mr. Clifton Reiter and family of Gillettown, called Sunday on the children's, Agnes and Eliens' grand- ma Stone at Karthaus.

Mrs. Orlando Wagner and children of the same place were visiting over the weekend with relatives at Laane and vicinity.

Several grades of Clarence schools filled a dollar card of games and sent them to the President to help wage the fight against infantile paralysis. Among others were 4th and 5th grade.

The many friends here of Lee Shaffner will be glad to know he's the proud father of a young son born last Thursday at their home in Newark, New York. This is the second child of the Shaffner family but only son to date.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin and baby of Kate, were visiting in town during the past week.

While his auto was being inspected at the C. G. Black Motor Co. in Tyrone Saturday, Mr. Brungard accompanied by his cousins Shirley and Rachel Albright called on Mrs. Hubler at the Methodist Home.

The Clarence Banjo Band played at the Methodist church here Sunday afternoon in the opening night of a revival service which is being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Hammond, the ensuing week. Services begin at 7:30. Try to attend and bring your friends.

A birthday party was held recently at the home of Geo. Kachuk and pleasantly surprised Mrs. Kachuk on her natal anniversary. A large number of adult friends comprised the gathering which called to extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Gussulish of Beech Creek, were weekend guests at the William Tarman home. The ladies June and Beulah are sisters.

The John Garlock family were to Bellefonte Saturday and got their daughter Kathryn bringing her home for the weekend and returning her to the Arthur Dale home, her place of employment Sunday evening.

Boys who called evenings during the week on Mr. Brungard at his apartment were the following: Paul Casber, Clair Tarman, George and Robert Murnyack, George Gavlock, David Palinkas and George Bucha.

Grade Four is sponsoring a seed selling contest again this year, which is now in progress and will continue until March 1st. They are the same company, High Grade, as last year. These seeds are only 5c a pack and well recommended. If they sell all of 27 boxes they receive 50% of proceeds otherwise they get 5%. Either way you are getting seeds guaranteed to grow and you are helping support the seed library funds. With the profit from the sale of over 5000 above expenses of their Christmas plays this grade taught by Mr. Brungard is getting a small radio for school purposes. It is expected to be on hand and installed for use Friday, Feb. 1st. That night at 7:45, Hill school is having an amateur show. Immediately following school radio will be tuned in for the next championship boxing match, so don't let it keep you home. Anyhow the program is to close at 9:45 so you'll have time to get home and tune your own radio if you prefer.

Admission is 10 and 20 cents and no one better congregate outside or some events to be seen and heard will be in this column.

Miss Meek drove to Clearfield Saturday and found her sister Mrs. Lucas much improved in health. While there she visited friends on West Side Clearfield also.

John Beam and family called at the former's sister Mrs. Lee Moore Sunday. Moore's live on Windy Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Monroe and family of Lock Haven, spent Sunday night and Sunday with Heaton's of Fountain and visited Mrs. Har- nish, Mrs. Monroe's mother.

Frances Flashburn is contemplating work away from home in the near future.

Nelson Davis was to the funeral of his brother at Munson, Pa. during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Berger are planning to go to housekeeping soon at Karthaus. The newly weds are bride and groom for just a fortnight. Mrs. Nettie Mann and daughter Marian called on another daughter, Mrs. Harve McCloskey, Sunday p. m.

Mary Besteman, daughter of No. 10, is confined to her home with abdominal pains for more than a week.

Master Bobby Retorick is sufficiently recovered from an appendix operation to be at his home again. Harve McCloskey's were Saturday shoppers in Bellefonte.

4th Grade is proudly displaying a seal for their fourth month writing being up to standard.

Mrs. E. D. Myers and daughter Betty of Lock Haven, are spending this week with the home folks.

Will Sing at World's Fair.

Thirty singers from Lock Haven and vicinity are now rehearsing under the direction of L. L. Dick, school supervisor in the Lock Haven Public Schools, for appearance with several thousand other singers of the Associated Glee Clubs of America at the New York World's Fair in July.

HUBLERSBURG

Rev. Musser attended the funeral of Rev. Earl O. Kline of Sellingsgrove on Friday.

Class No. 10 will hold their monthly meeting in the social hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 7th. All members please bring a valentine.

Quite a number of members from Walker grange attended the Pomona meeting at Pleasant Gap on Saturday and report a very interesting meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Lee and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Krape of Bellefonte were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krape.

Mr. Ed Vonada and son Ben of Jacksonville, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Carner.

Mrs. Ada Yocum returned to the parsonage on Sunday after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Billett of Coleville.

Miss Mildred Hayes was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of Betty and Jacqueline Noll.

WALKER TWP H. S. NEWS

Senior Class Play. "Oh, My Stars," a three act comedy, will be presented by the Senior Class on March 17. After the performance is given in the Community Hall of Hublersburg, it will be taken to Flemington under the sponsorship of the Boy Scouts.

School Assembly. Mr. Balley had charge of assembly program on Friday, January 13. His talk was on gossip and how it affected others. The next assembly will be held January 27 and will be given by the Junior Class.

Juniors. The Juniors of W. T. H. S. held a question and answer contest on Wednesday, January 11, in American History Class. The boys won by a score of 3-0.

Assembly. The Juniors of W. T. H. S. held a program in assembly on Friday, January 27, 1939. The program was made up of songs by the whole group and the regular program by the class. The Sophomore class will have charge of the assembly program on Friday, February 24.

Honor Roll. There were seventeen students on the honor roll from Walker Township High School for the second quarter, ending on January 20. The roll includes: Earle Gates, Kathryn Zeigler, Ruth Dolan, Marion Rogers, James Hunda, Dorothy Haagen, Wil- lard Weber, Paul Sulzer, Beatrice Lannen, Donald Dunkle, John Mc- Auley, Kermit Showers, Arthur Mc- Clure, Ronald Houck, Pearl Dietrich, Oscar Dunkle and Bernice Corman.

Farm Show. Those pupils of W. T. H. S. who attended the farm show either Tues- day or Wednesday January 17 and 18 were: Donald Dunkle, Norma Year- gler, Ruth Dolan, Howard Ardry, Ce- cil Herman, George Shaffer, and Ber- nice Corman. The show is in the Vocational Agriculture Course were especially urged to attend.

Junior Assistants. Several of the Junior girls were chosen for the second cast in the Senior play "Oh, My Stars!" Those chosen were, Edna Harter, Mary Stover, Lenore Yearick, Mirlam Bierly, Jean Shaffer, and Sara White. The admission for the play will be 20c for adults and 10c for children.

Orviston. There were 166 present at Sunday School Sunday. Come on folks turn out and keep our record up.

Leah Thompson of Lock Haven spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Condo spent Sunday afternoon at the Ed. Condo home at Mill Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heverly of Lock Haven spent Sunday afternoon at the Bertha Condo home at Mill Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heverly of Lock Haven spent Sunday afternoon at the Bertha Condo home at Mill Hill.

Revival services started at Mon- ument on Sunday night with Rev. and Mrs. Rawlins as evangelists.

Mr. and Mrs. David Confer and two children spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wensel at Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Confer visited Sunday afternoon with Mary Jane Lucas at Mt. Eagle.

The Loyal Women's class met at the home of Olive Gray last Friday night for their regular monthly meeting.

The social club met at the W. O. Gray home on Tuesday night for their regular monthly meeting.

The Loyal Daughters Class met at the G. P. Butler home on Monday night for their regular monthly meet- ing.

John Daley spent Thursday night at the O. J. Wensel home at Milesburg.

Rebecca Confer, who is teaching school at Yarnell, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Confer.

Emeline Butler of Howard, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler.

The Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Leonard Lucas, Monday.

A number of the men spent the weekend at the Boy Scout hunting camp.

PINE GLEN

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mulholland of Tyrone, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis and Mrs. Anna Lewis of Moshannon, were entertained at Robert Askey's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall and daughter Sandra of Towanda, N. Y., were at Benton on Sunday.

Jack and B. B. Burkey of the Co- burn OCG camp spent the weekend at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Polmer and son spent Sunday with relatives at Tyrone.

Game Warden William Hodge of Pinesutawney was home over Sun- day.

Mrs. William Huston of Winburne, concluded a visit at Sherman Askey's. Harry Mooney of Snow Shoe, is at Mulholland's this week.

Some of our folks are attending church at Karthaus this week.

SPRING MILLS

Monday evening supper guests of G. N. Wolfe were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Elsen- huth and family, Mr. Bright Bitner. They celebrated Mr. Wolfe's birth- day.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Dewiller, daughter Leona, Mrs. Heckman, Helen Snyder, Har- vey McCool, Russell Sweetwood, vis- ited to Lock Haven, where they vis- ited the Moose Club, and attended the dance in the evening.

Wednesday evening, Josephine Stover at her home entertained her bridge club. Those present were Vivian Havise and Pearl Lingle of Millheim; Rosella Hettlinger, Mabel Bungard, Evelyn Hettlinger, Mabel Bungard, Evelyn Brooks, Francis Zerby and Bernice Smith. The evening was spent in playing cards, with refreshments served at a late hour.

The Gregg Township High School won both girls and boys basket ball games on Tuesday evening, over their opponents, Mill Hill. Girls score 66-8, boys score 31-30.

The team Tuesday evening mot- ors to Mill Hill to play return games.

Lets all keep in mind the next "Neighbor Night" sponsored by Gregg Township Civic Club on Wednes- day, Feb. 8. An evening of special attraction for every member of the family is being planned. Every one welcome. No admission. There were over 200 present at last meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. MacMorrow spent several days at Williamsport, where Mr. and MacMorrow attended a special Mason banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Erdly, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman on Wednesday motored to Williamsport, the men spending several days there taking extra mason work. Mrs. Corman returned home that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Swabb spent the weekend in Pittsburgh, where they attended a Woodmen banquet, returning home, Monday.

Pearl Lingle of Millheim, spent the weekend with Rosella Hettlinger, Betty Lee, a student of Altoona Commercial School, spent the week- end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee.

The Alumni will sponsor a public dance Wednesday evening, Feb. 15. Admission 25c. music by "The Melod- iers" of Milliflurg.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cummings and family of Rebersburg spent Sunday with Mrs. Lulu Brungrat at the C. E. Zeigler home.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hettlinger were Dean Rus- selt Hettlinger, Pearl Lingle and Josephine Stover.

The President's ball held on Mon- day evening was a success. A very large crowd attended. Everyone en- joyed themselves.

SUMMIT HILL

The Freshmen Class of Howard High School planned to have a sled- ding party Monday, January 28, but due to the fact it was cold they can- celed the party.

The following were entertained at the home of Eleanor Mann: Mr. Weikert, Louise McCloskey, Mildred Jacobs, Paul McClede, Mabel Hinton, John Wagner, Bethany Fike, Erna Cor- don, Maudie Raser, Harold Platicher, Robert Love, Loyd Lomison, Leonard Thompson, Jane Carson, Reida Woome, Thomas Lynn, James Heath, Phyllis Brumbaugh, Charles Bathurst, Betty Bedchell, Emma Heverly and Eleanor Mann. Games were played and at a late hour refresh- ments were served, and all started for a jolly ride home.

Thomas Nyman visited Saturday evening with Erma Boone and Esther Lucas.

Mrs. Fred Watkins and two daugh- ters Ernestine and Marie, called on Mrs. Esther Warr Saturday evening.

Mrs. Walter Fye and daughter Margaret took dinner with Mrs. Cal- vin Yeager on Sunday.

Miss Phyllis Brumbaugh spent the weekend with Reida Woome.

John Warr and three sons, Floyd, Bobby and Charles, spent Sunday at the Clair Cosher home.

Thomas Nyman spent Sunday with Evelyn Watkins.

Miss Florence Rann spent Thurs- day night with Mrs. Fred Watkins.

Thomas Nyman and Evelyn Wat- kins, called on Alice Cusher on Sun- day.

Reida Woome and Phyllis Brum- baugh took dinner at the James Wat- kins home on Saturday.

Miss Florence Rann took dinner with Mrs. Fred Watkins on Sunday.

Mary Woome spent a couple days at Howard last week.

Martha Young spent Sunday with Fay Woome.

Ward Yeager is sick at this writing, we wish him a speedy recovery.

Church services as usual: Sunday School at 9:30, followed by preaching 9. P. M. at 7 o'clock; Sunday evening followed by preaching. Everyone is welcome.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. McDowell Walker of Orviston, Mrs. Russell Jones and baby and Mrs. Ira Gilbert of Pleasant Valley, visited on Monday at the Amelia Chapman home.

Mrs. Miles Eiters and two chil- dren visited on Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lucas at Curtin.

Mrs. Amelia Chapman visited her daughter Mrs. Russell Jones at Pleasant Valley on Thursday.

Mrs. Myrtle Lucas and son Robert visited on Wednesday with Mrs. Brice Hoover at Howard R. D.

Mrs. Barbara Confer of Bellefonte spent a couple days with Miss Ella Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones and baby of Pleasant Valley visited a couple days last week at the Amelia Chapman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brice Hoover of Howard R. D., spent the weekend with Mrs. Hoover's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lucas, Mr. J. B. Lucas and Mrs. Amelia Chapman called on Mrs. Mary Jane Lucas at Mill Hill on Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Lucas, Lee Lucas, Jimmie Lucas, Charles Lucas and Ardell Eiters of Pleasant Valley visited on Sunday at the Russell Lucas home.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Confer of Bellefonte, called on Miss Ella Lucas on Saturday.

Oranges, Tangerines, Seedless Grapefruit CARLOAD AT THEIR BEST!

FLORIDA FRUIT DIRECT FROM GROWERS—Tree Ripened! No Color Added! Full Flavor! Plenty of Juice!

On Siding Bellefonte Frt. Station WILL SELL BY THE BUSHEL—BRING YOUR BASKETS. PRICES WILL BE REASONABLE!

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, FEBRUARY 6th, 7th and 8th.

McKEES MARKET STATE COLLEGE, PA.

Find Body of Aged Man The body of Frank W. Davis,