Page Four

Levy Proposed Wet Mud Spot Clue In Fatality On Pa. Incomes

Unfrozen Splotch Aids Jury Five Per Cent Tax Would Miss Irene Tharp, of State College, in Fixing Time of Mishap Causing Man's Death

A splotch of wet mud found on the A major revenue bill held by the head of Herbert Hand. 50, Black Mo- House in the Harrisburg Legislature shannon airport worker who was yesterday for consideration when killed on the camp road Saturday Gov. Arthur H. James submits his January 21, mystified a coroner's blennium budget next week would jury which met last Wednesday at impose a flat five per cent tax on Phillipsburg to probe the man's net incomes to cover school district subsidies under the Edmonds act. death.

Provide 25 Millions For

Schools, Claimed

The mud, which was still wet when The levy, generally regarded as the man was examined despite the constitutional because of its unifreezing weather was the only tang- formity of burden on revenue sourevidence the jury possessed- ces affected, would be collected on but led to no definite results as the incomes, less allowable deductions, jury found Hand had died of "in- for the calendar year 1938 and therejuries sustained from 7:30 p. m. to after.

8:30 p. m. after being struck by the Official estimates of the probable Thelma Johnson were united in marrim of a wheel of a motor vehicle yield were lacking but it was be- riage Sunday, January 15, at the M. the identity of which is unknown." |lieved the measure, sponsored by

The main witness in the investiga- Rep. Albert L. O'Connor, D., Camtion, George Morenno, truck driver bria, would pour more than $25,who picked up Hand's body and no- 000,000 a year into the Commontified the police, testified he had wealth treasury.

seen the body which he believed at Yield of the graduated income tax ing the serenaders did their part in clared this week. the time to be a log, lying in the enacted by the preceding Democratic administration for schools, road

"I swerved to avoid hitting the ob- and invalidated by the state supautomobile. ject." Merenno stated, "and later re- reme court, was estimated at $20.turned from Philipsburg at an ear- 000,000 annually on a two to eight cheers per cent rate. The graded levy was lier hour than I expected.'

Morenno said that while he was in adjudged in violation of the unifor-Philipsburg Saturday night the idea mity of taxation clause of the state came to him that the log he thought constitution.

he saw on his trip there may have The O'Connor bill would tap net been a human being. He returned earnings of non-residents of Pennand found the man lying on the road. sylvania from operations and in-The testimony of Anacleto Mal- vestments within the state, as well carne, who said he saw Hand Walk- as the incomes of all Pennsylvaning towards camp around 6 p. m. ians whose books show a profit for and that Hand was staggering badly each year's work. Estates and from one side of the road to the trusts would be taxable on their net other led to the belief that Hand incomes.

may have been under the influence Chief deductions allowed under of liquor The last man to see Hand alive, E. come were:

J. Unger, timekeeper at the airport, 1. Ordinary and necessary exsaid he saw Hand sitting on the side penses in carrying on any trade or perous. of the road between 7:00 and 8 business. o'clock.

2. Interest paid or accrued dur-A torn gash on Hand's head and a ing taxable year on indebtedness. chest led the jurors to believe the 3. Federal, state and local taxes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward man was struck by a motor ve- except the 4-cent state tax on gas- Sheesley, of Woodward, became the oline. hicle property, and obsolescence. 7. Living expenses, including out-About 12 boys from H. T. H. S. attended the annual Farm Show lay for food, house bills, clothing, gasoline and lubricants, medical, at Harrisburg.

Harris Township

William Hess' pen of hambs placed bospital and nursing care. fifth in the Shropshire class. A flat income tax at a lower rate In the projects that the Agri- (three per cent) has been recomculture boys have during the sum- mended from time to time by the and Mrs. Dress expect to go to secondly because the fills and emmer months, James Gilliland placed Pennsylvania Chamber of Comfifth in his sheep; Lester Gladfelter merce as preferable to the emer- lona. placed third on his garden pro- gency relief levies imposed during ject, and John Patterson placed former Governor George H. Earle's third on his swine project. administration on business and in-

Mr. E. H. Dale had an attendance dustrial corporations. Governor of 31 at his farmer's meeting held James has pledged a reduction in fonte, were united in marriage at able settlement of the question of Monday evening. His topic for next the burden on industries. Monday evening will be Pastures and Pasture Improvements.

nd Pasture Improvements. There were 23 ladies who attend-Trvin Zaleski are going to qualify ed the adult meeting conducted by for Future Farmers of America at tendants on the young couple were "Our alternative was: prolonged out, hands in the air. He was rush- severe terms a man who deliberately "Our alternative was: prolonged out, hands in the air. He was rushwas "Table Setting and Meal are 17 a night meeting to be held Febru-Was "Table Setting and Meal are 17 Topic for next Monday Mr. Lutz gives the F. F. A. boys will be "Preparation of Meats From Farm Cellar." Miss Helen Geer will needer a talk on aviation every other Wed-ry Halderman, of Bush Addition, ter alternative. Our decision in this torney James C. Bane for question-increasing revenue through increased to the Belleforde High Farm Cellar." Miss Helen Geer will nesday. teach this class. The course of study Junior Class Notes for all these meetings is "Planning The Juniors will start their work Mrs. William Moyer, of Blanchard that the highway must be substan- In Greensburg. Major Jacob would appear the new administra-Meals from Farm Cellar. on orations after the mid-semester street, attended the Bellefonte High tially completed by May, 1940. Also, Mauk, in charge of the district mo- tion would have preferred." These adult meetings are open to people from the age of 18 and exams. This is an annual part of beyond. No school children are althe Junior Oral English class. Miss fireman at the Court House in Rissinger, the English teacher, is Bellefonte. For the time being Mr. lowed to attend. The officers elected by The Fu- in charge of the orations and they and Mrs. Moyer will make their ture Farmers for 1939 are: James are sponsored by the Civic Club. Addleman, president; Mahlon Nev-Senior Class Notes

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Recent Weddings See Turnpike A Progressive Baney-Tharp Joseph Baney, of Bellefonte, and were united in marriage at 8 o'clock last night by the Rev. M. C. Piper at his residence in Milesburg. Chief Engineer Points Out

Economic Feature of Super-Highway

Mich., formerly of Bellefonte, and Miss Laura V. Farmer, were united WOULD RESULT IN GAIN ample of that type in marriage at Detroit on December 28, 1938, according to reports.

The Kellers were well known residents of Bellefonte prior to 26 years ago when they moved to De- Increased Population and

Business Will Follow When

Completed

Kline Wolf, of Howard, and Miss Prosperity and progress will fol- District Attorney said. Complaints clared. "Four years ago the new vania Turapike in the same way because operators of such lotteries $36,000,000. E. parsonage in Avis, by the Rev. Raymond L. Morris. Mr. and Mrs. expanded with the growth of the county, moved into Centre county Wolf will reside in Clintondale, early transportation facilities, Chief to continue their activities. where the former is operating a Engineer Samuel W. Marshall de-Clover Farm Store. Monday even-

"History proves that no one can in one way or another. Many thorwelcoming the young couple at the bridegroom's home, following with stand in the way of progress," Mr. a ride on a sleigh attached to an Marshall told a luncheon meeting They were taken of the Harrisburg Exchange Club.

Eckley-Rodgers

Keller-Farmer

of George D. Keller, of Detroit,

Wolf-Johnson

James Wolf, son of Mr. and Mrs.

troit

Hassell E. Keller, youngest son

Piper at his home in Milesburg, criticisms.

Mrs. William Rodgers, of Philips- tory knows how civilization follow- legal under the law, and prosecuburg, and the groom is a son of ed the railroads as they advanced tions can be brought against per-Mrs. Arthur Eckley, of Bellefonte across the continent 60 years ago, sons who violate these laws, the and is employed by the Chemical and how in our own day highways District Attorney said. Lime Company. The ceremony was are the arteries along which comthe bill for computation of net in- witnessed by Mrs. Arthur Eckley merce and business flow.

long and be always happy and pros-

Dress-Sheesley

noon at the parsonage of the Evan- its military value." celical church, Millheim, by the The chief engineer said the Com- State Policeman Mrs. Reuben Musser, of Woodward; bargain for three reasons; First housekeeping on a farm near Sa- bankments are more firmly settled

Mover-Halderman

Russell G. Moyer and Sarah eight tunnels. Elizabeth Halderman, both of Belle- "Had we not reached this amicage of

District Atty. Directs State's Bills All Clean-up of Gambling Paid, Ross Says (Continued from Page 1) Four Years Ago Treasury

charities. He cited the many church serted in a radio broadcast Saturday sponsored bingo parties throughout night that Pennsylvania "now is just the county as an outstanding ex- $36,000,000 better off than it was four is divided into four areas, of which are devoted to drill, for which the Gettig declared that police will Ross went on the air to refute Gov- These four areas could produce an TO OUR COMMONWEALTH be instructed to make arrests in ernor Arthur H. James' charge, pre- army of two million men. It would every case where violations of the sented over a State-wide net-work require perhaps a year to equip and practically all clothing are supplied. lottery laws are found, and he ad- Friday night, that Pennsylvania's get such an army in shape, especded that such persons will be pros- financial "cupboard is bare" as a re- fally physically so as to endure the the local outfit, and about $20,000 ecuted to the full extent of the law. sult of overspending during the last rigors of a war campaign.

> in the county-wide ban on gamb- Administration. ling came from Philipsburg, the

Quite a Contrast, He Says

The District Attorney's order will The District Attorney's order will affect scores of Bellefonte merchants the Earle Administration, $23,000,000 oughly reputable business places was borrowed, without provision for have openly displayed punch boards repayment, from special funds of the on their counters for many months. Theatre bank nights, suit, furniture and electrical appliance clubs are conducted openly, and daily or weekly drawings are features many stores. Slot machines, in slightly worse taste, are by no "Contrast this picture with that of today," Ross declared. "The means scarce. Chance tickets on everything from hunting dogs to Irish Sweepstakes are sold openly the Commonwealth is just $36,000,000 and the treasury balance lottery better off than it was four years ago." Ross asserted that when former Governor Earle came into office "the cupboard not only was bare, but it had been pawned as well."

There is apparently a widespread There is apparently a widespread wave of public sentiment against financial condition of Pennsylvania." construction of the Pegnsylvania years has published notices of bingo tail how the State raises and spends Turnpike now underway through cames shooting matches prize die his funds.

was warned by United States Postal "Our State is solvent. But mount-"The Pennsylvania Turnpike will authorities at Washington that ing relief rolls present a serious probbring permanent gains in popula- news stories concerning the Belle- lem, so serious that if present relief bride of Charles N. Dress, son of tion and business to this Common- fonte Chamber of Commerce's $600 standards are to be maintained-and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dress, of wealth-and this will be in addition cash prize distribution at Christmas the new Secretary of Public Assis-Salona, at a ceremony performed to its service in providing employ- time were in violation of the postal tance has just declared that relief standards cannot be lowered-every single emergnecy tax of the Earle Administration must be re-enacted or a new source of similar revenue Slain By Veteran found. Luther Harr, city treasurer of Philadelphia, who was State Secretary (Continued from page one) of Banking under former Governor were having "trouble" with Pal- Earle, also assailed Governor James anzo, and that the man, a World for "deliberately misleading the veteran, had threatened him public" in his post mortem of the Earle Administration

After the slaying a call for addi-"During the Fall campaign Govand provided the very best possible tional officers was sent out. Every ernor James stated he would reduce bases for highway construction; window in the building was broken taxes and at the same time give and thirdly, the excavations done in as the police hurled barrage after more funds to the unfortunate souls. on relief." Doctor Harr said.

publicly stated at that time thought he was either misleading Meanwhile the motor policemen the public or not sufficiently versed 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at a right-of-way," he pointed out, "we braved death to drag Naughton with the problems of the State govceremony performed in the parson- would have had to resort to con- from the structure. An ambulance ernment during the terrible crisis through which the world is passing More than three hours after the "I hold no brief for the Earle Ad-

BUSH HOLLOW

ped again. We only had an attendat home by the fireside. Hope we

A truck from the Wolf Furniture

Co. of Bellefonte slid off the road

above the Roy Spotts home on Friday afternoon. The driver could of Allentown

Sunday school attendance drop-

Mrs. Byrd were supper guests on by the Governor of the Common-Friday night at the Roy Spotts wealth. The regimental headquarhome. Visitors on Sunday at the ters are at Tyrone. In time of war Spotts home were Mr. and Mrs. the machine gun officer of the regiment and the troop is broken up Andrew Irvin and family. Don't forget the revival services the captain of the troop becomes each night at 7:45 o'clock. U. S. Has Small

> Standing Army (Continued from page one)

anxious to have a fine type of the local troop is in the third.

member is allowed one dollar. Two weeks are spent in camp for which the men are paid. Uniforms and Thirty-two horses are assigned to a year is brought into the commun-

Industry is being organized at ity and spent largely in local cirpresent so that in event of war the cles in support of this troop, February 2, 1939.

into three platoons. The troop consists of seventy men and four officers. There is a turnover of from forty to fifty each year, so that there is a need of this number of enlistments each year. The troop is young manhood. Two hours a week

"Such is not the case," Ross de- particular industries could go into In regard to the question as to full-time war production. There are whether horses are obsolete in this low construction of the Pennsyl- originated there, chiefly, he said, administration inherited a debt of few arms factories in the United age in warfare. Captain Beezer This administration States. A new gun is being manu- pointed to the fact that Japan tried factured, which shoots eight times mechanized forces and soon found as fast as the piece now issued to that, with torn-up terrain, bridges the army. Initial orders have been and roads destroyed, and other cirgiven to about thirty factories so cumstances, it was necessary to use hat all dies will be on hand and cavalry and they bought one-half the way prepared for high speed million horses for use in China. production in case such is needed. Germany and Prance are in the It is expected that the entire arm- world market, buying horses whereed forces will be equipped with this ever they can. For reconnaissance the cavalry is invaluable and is the The local troop, Captain Beezer most important, being superior to said, is one of the oldest in the the air and mechanized forces, state. It is at present a machine which are also used. gun troop attached to the 103rd The armory on Route 220 and lo-

Cavalry. Formerly the entire na- cated on the edge of Bellefonte is open for inspection every day and tional Guard of the United States cordial invitation to look over the interested citizens were given a and Pennsylvania. The buildings buildings and grounds and to attend and grounds are owned by the state, the drills, Captain Beezer said.

wise by the federal government, and subject to the call of the Presi- Never worry about your competdent of the United States. In case itor; give him something to worry

4. Losses not compensated for by insurance. 5. Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off. School News 6. Exhaustion, wear and tear on the Methodist Episcopal demnation proceedings with conse- took the body to Fredericktown. church, Bellefonte, by the pastor, quent delays in start of construc-through the Howard streets with "Each of those early transportation facilities-the toll roads, the canals, and the railroads-was violently opposed by reactionary elements of Kenneth Guy Eckley, of Belle- the times. Such elements jeered at fonte, and Cecelia Ruth Rodgers, of the steam boats, the steam locomo-Philipsburg, were united in mar- tive and the airplane. We know rlage January 30 by Rev. M. C. now how shortsighted were those

Miss

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and "Every student of American his- fiourishes. All these things are il-and Miss Hazel Eckley, mother and "In exactly the same way, pros- lotteries and gambling. Last week, sister of the groom. May they live perity and progress will follow the The Centre Democrat which for > Turnpike now underway through games, shooting matches, prize-dissome sections of Pennsylvania not tributing events, and similar items, now fully developed.

Bertha Viola Sheesley, at 3 o'clock last Thursday after- ment in this time of need, and to laws.

Rev. H. A. Houseal. Following the mission's purchase of $2,000,000 of wedding a dinner was served at the the right-of-way on which the home of the bride's parents to the abandoned South Penn Railroad following invited guests: Mr. and spent more than $10,000,000 was

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Houseal and because the owners, the Pennsylson, Donald, Miliheim; and Verle vania Railroad and the Baltimore Sheesley, brother of the bride. Mr. & Ohio, wanted $9,000,000; and Enactment tery and chance. Gettig declared Gettig declared that while lotter-Was Not Only Bare, But les are definitely illegal under the "Pawned," He Answers law, many forms of lottery have been condoned because they are operated for the benefit of various State Treasurer F. Clair Ross as-

years ago.'

Most of the complaints resulting twenty months of George H. Earle's that the nation's economic structure driven out by the ban in Clearfield finds itself with no unpaid bills."

The treasury head pointed out that Commonwealth; $6,000,000 was in money due and unpaid to local school new rifle within a year. districts; $3,500,000 represented back payments due hospital, and the remaining $3,500,000 was money due State-aided universities and colleges. tional guard belonged to the state militia, but since 1927 it is the Nabut the troop is supported other-

"I do not agree with those persons Ross declared after describing in de-

Harr Also Answers James

el, vice president; Robert Bailey, treasurer; reporter, James Gilli- tures of the high school building land; secretary, Irvin Zaleski. James Harner, Robert Barger, mencement invitations.

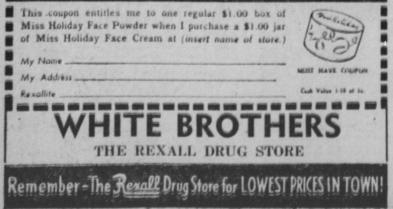

John Patterson, Robert Bailey, The mid-semester exams were Richard Zaleski, Lester Gladfelter, given the 26th and 27th of Janu-James Keller, Mahlon Nevel, Rich- ary, Powder. Clip and sign the coupon below and bring it to our Rexall Drug Store. It entitles you to one regular $1.00 box of Miss Holiday Face Powder when you purchase a $1.00 jar of the Face Cream-a $2.00 value for only $1.00. You save $1.00. No strings attached. Simply buy the $1.00 jar of Face Cream and we'll buy and give you the $1.00 box of Face Powder. Be one of the first women to use this glamorous new Miss Holiday Face Powder and Cream-Act now! (Limited offer.)

REDEEM THIS COUPON AT OUR Jexall DRUG STORE ...

of Buffalo Run Valley. The bride school. Mr. Moyer, son of Mr. and home with Mr. Moyer's parents.

The Senior class is having pic-taken, to be placed in their com-Mrs.

riage at Grays M. E. church, Pat- route.

Rudy-Beck

blue," She is a graduate of State and speed to all users. College High school, class of 1934. and has been employed, part-time, by the G. C. Murphy Company at State College during the past year. The groom for the past few years has been assisting his father with his work on their large farm. Until they have completed plans for the dius of 955 feet and permitting future, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy will spend their time at their respective a considerable saving in time, parental homes. May theirs be a trucks will be assured greater safhappy and prosperous journey ety and less mechanical faults by through life. the use of these low grades, especially when traveling down hill.

6 Hurt When Car Hits Sled at Snow Shoe (Continued from page one)

Etters, possible fracture of the left torists to enter or leave the super- burg, about two years ago. ankle and cuts of the lower lip. Earl Walker 11, son of Harvey highway with freedom and safety, Description and Location: Begin-Walker, of Eagleville Station, near Blanchard, is a patient at the local ning at Middlesex, 16 miles west of hospital suffering a serious liver Harrisburg, the route of the Turninjury received when he was thrown pike passes through the southern from his sled while coasting near portion of the state piercing the his home. He was admitted to the Alleghenies with eight tunnels, bypassing all towns, and reaching its institution Sunday morning. The Snow Shoe boys were injured western terminus at Irwin, 21 miles about 5:10 o'clock Saturday night east of Pittsburgh. The Superwhen the large sled on which they Highway will be located as far as were coasting ran in front of a car possible on the southern and westdriven by Lester McCloskey, of Mo- ern slopes of the hills, thereby reshannon. The sled was crossing the ceiving maximum benefit of sunroad leading to Clarence at the shine which will facilitate traveling eastern end of Snow Shoe at the in adverse weather conditions such time of the mishap. Neither the as snow, ice, rain and fog. It should sled nor the car was badly damaged serve to reduce maintenance cost,

Robert Swartz was pinned under especially snow removal and cinthe machine which had to be lift- dering in icy weather. Employment: Thousands of men ed before he could be extricated. will be given employment by the Super-Highway project, not only in Trap Large Wildcat One of the largest specimens of construction, but in the manifold wildcats ever caught in the Renovo industries which contribute to road section was trapped by Fish Warden building. In materials alone, it is George Cross, assisted by several estimated the project will require hunters who aided him in digging 770,000 tons of sand, 1,200,000 tons it from a hole, after the animal of stone, 50,000 tons of steel, and had viciously attacked the warden's 392,000 tons of cement. The project dog. The wildcat, estimated to should account for 51,345 man years weigh 40 pounds, is being held at of direct and indirect employment. Mr. Cross' home awaiting arrival All productive labor will be hired of State Game Commission repre- by the contractors through the Resentatives to make motion pictures employment Offices affiliated with for educational purposes. (Continued on Page 6),

Wash ngton and after first misleads the purchases of right-of-way and start aid treatment for lacerations on his stress. The Earle Administration matter also was hastened by the ing. stipulation in the PWA agreement

Brave Death

Lauds Naughton ployed were not left to starve as it school and is now employed as there was no assurance that we had for policemen, praised Corporal resorted to lengthy condemnation Naughton as a "splendid, outstandproceedings the cost would have ing" officer and said a charge of been less than $2,000,000. murder would be pushed against his

Facts on Super-Highway slayer.

Naughton celebrated his fortieth ance of 42 on Sunday. Guess the Length: From Irwin to Middle-Miss Ruth Marie Beck, daughter sex 160 miles. This represents a re- birthday with his wife in their small cold weather kept a lot of people of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beck, of duction in mileage over existing apartment at Washington, on Jan-

War

with the shotgun.

barrage of tear gas.

Port Matilda, R. D. 1, and Henry routes, and will result in consider- uary 12. He joined the old state do better next Sunday. Harrison Rudy, son of Mr. and able saving of time and convenience police November 1, 1926. He was The second week of revival ser-George Rudy, of State Col- to the traveler. There will be only born in Sharpsburg, near Pitts- vices are now in progress. The atlege, R. D., were united in mar- seven miles of tunnels in the entire burgh, where the body was taken tendance has been real good so for interment. far. Last Wednesday night Rev. and ton township, at 8:30 o'clock Sat- Type of Roadway: Modern four- Private Paul Rittleman, who was Mrs. Robert Fitch, urday night, with the Rev. Wallace lane concrete highway, east and with Corporal Naughton, when he and Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Kresge J. Cummings, pastor of the church west traffic separated by a 10-foot was killed near Washington Mon- of Lock Haven, were present. We officiating. Attendants for the young center parkway. Width of each traf- day afternoon, was stationed for were glad to have them and invite couple were the bride's brother and fic lane to be 12 feet. Except tun- some time at the Altoona substa- them back again. Everybody is welsister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul nels, where the roadway section re- tion of the state police before the come to come and hear Rev. and Beck. The impressive ring ceremony duces to two 111/2 foot traffic lanes, merger with the highway patrol. Mrs. Doll as they conduct the meetwas used. The bride was attired in the highway carries throughout its Corporal Naughton was in charge ings each night. Come and hear blue and followed the traditional length divided dual-lane roadways of the Rockview barracks of the them preach, sing and play instrusomething old, something new, of 24 foot width. One-way traffic State Motor Police for a number mental numbers.

omething borrowed, and something will serve to insure safety, comfort of months, being stationed there We sure are having winter weathduring the time of the strike at the er but rather changeable anyhow. Grades and Curves: Maximum Titan Metal Manufacturing plant Have been having lots of windy ascending grades throughout en- early in 1937. Private Paul Rittle- days to blow the snow and drift the tire length of highway to be not man, who was with Corporal roads shut; also keeping some of greater than 3 per cent. Curves, av- Naughton when he was killed near the children home from school. On eraging about one to each mile, are Washington, was stationed at Rock- Monday only 11 waded the slushy limited to about 4 degrees with only view for some time before the mer- snow and water to get out to a couple six degrees, having a ra- ger with the State Highway Patrol. school. Locally Naughton was recognized maximum sight distance. Besides as a capable and efficient officer, > Widow Gets Heavy Award A verdict of $28,500 has been not get it out and on Saturday awarded to Mrs. Dennis Young, of morning they got Jim Flick with Danville, formerly of Milton, against his team and pulled it down to Crossings: There will be no rail- the Arrow Carriers Corporation, in Spotts' house and they had to get a wrecking truck to tow it to Bellebad or highway crossings at grade common pleas court in Philadelphia fonte as it was all froze up. They nywhere along the route. At points Mrs. Young's husband was killed in had quite a time getting started to of access to the Turnpike, ramps a collision of two trucks, one of will be constructed to permit mo- which he was driving, near Blooms- Bellefonte with it.

Rev. and Mrs. Doll and Rev. and # Properties For Sale !

HOWARD BOROUGH

21/2 Story Brick Dwelling -Containing Seven Rooms and Bath. Lot 64 x 205 feet. Loca-ted on North side of Black Stret.

21/2 Story Frame Dwelling -Containing Eight Rooms. Located on East of Walnut Street.

154 Acre Farm –

Formerly known as "Olewine Farm." Situated in Ferguson Township. 20 acres timber, 134 acres cleared. Includes 21/2 story stone house, bank barn and other outbuildings. Water piped to house and barn-drilled well, flow 7 gallons per minute. Electricity.

REASONABLY PRICED. INQUIRE AT

