A bedroom and the dining room of the Mrs. Thomas Howley residence on North Spring Street were somewhat damaged by a fire which broke out in the residence burned through unused pipe holes in the rooms, about 6:50 o'clock last Thursday morning. The blaze was extinguished by the Logan Fire Company, with the use of chemicals.
William S. Nichols, two weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, of Pleasant Gap, remains under treatment at the Centre County Hospital from an illness common to infancy. Mrs. Nichols was discharged from the institution Wednesday of last week. According to reports yesterday the little boy who was born January 15 is showing marked improvement.
Miss Jane Gehrer, of East Logan Street, entertained the following persons on Saturday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary: Miss Eral Gilliland, William Parker, George Wolf, all of State College; Clarence Kellerman, of Miesburg; Paul Boyer, of Julian; and Miss Gertrude Stewart, Miss Elizabeth Hale, Miss Joan Stewart, Miss Betty Scherret, all of Bellefonte. Following an evening of entertainment, refreshments were served.
Miss Henrietta Quigley, who for the past year or more has been in the reference department of the Columbia University library, New York City, yesterday assumed the duties of her new position in the cataloging department of the New York Public Library, at the headquarters on 42nd street. The change is a substantial advancement for Miss Quigley, who before becoming interested in library work was employed by the Bellefonte school district.
Mrs. Morris Levine entertained at her home on East Logan street, Wednesday of last week, in honor of the 11th anniversary of her daughter, Rosella. Games and refreshments were prominent features of the program and Rosella received many gifts. Guests were: Helen Dunn, Jean Blaney, Caroline Robinson, Jane Walker, Betty Lou Herninger, Joyce Deters, Helen Hasinger, Barbara Everett, Gloria Goldman, Dorothy White, Ann Cruise and Ruth Schechter.
Mrs. Albert Thompson, of Nittany, who for the past thirteen weeks has been confined to bed at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson in the Witmer apartments, West High street, is reported to be showing some improvement, although she is still bedfast. Last September Mrs. Thompson after a long period of illness at her son's home, returned to Nittany, but three weeks later suffered a relapse and returned to Bellefonte.
Edgar R. Mallory has disposed of his household goods at private sale and has taken rooms at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mallory, in the Hayes apartments on North Allegheny street. The house he vacated after the recent death of Mrs. Mallory, is being made ready for occupancy by Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, who expect to vacate the Driscoll duplex apartment on East Curtin street in the near future. The former Mallory residence is located on Wilson street and is owned by Leo Boden.

White, Jr., at the home of Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Barr, at Pleasant Gap, Saturday, Mrs. White before her marriage was Miss Iyule Margaret Barr. Both she and the young son are reported to be getting along nicely.
David Washburn, who has been confined to his home on East Curtin street for the past three months because of an infection, Tuesday was able to be out of bed for the first time since the outset of his illness. Although he remained up for only about two hours, members of the family and friends are greatly encouraged, and it is believed he will now regain strength rapidly.
Attorney R. Paul Campbell, of State College, who has been confined to his home there since January 21 because of a severe attack of the grippe, expected to return to his offices in the Crider Exchange building, Bellefonte, yesterday, but when a sinus infection developed his physician ordered him back to bed. He probably will not be able to resume his duties until early next week.
Miss Roseann Brachbill, daughter of Mrs. Charles Brachbill, of South Spring street, Bellefonte, was the guest of honor at a dinner party held Monday night at the Brookhoff Hotel in honor of her birthday anniversary. The program also included the movies and a dance.
The dance in addition to the guest of honor and host, Franklin Grycko, were the Misses Mary Catherine Flynn, Jane Rumberger, Elizabeth Ann Wetzler, Winifred Fleming, Robert Cretzer, Donald Eckel, Richard Williams and George I. Purnell, Jr.
Howard Spangler, well known resident of Centre Hall, yesterday was reported to be showing marked improvement after having been quite ill for more than two weeks. He is under a physician's care at the Centre Hall Hotel, where he has made his home for the past three years. His son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, of New York City, came to Bellefonte last week for a visit with Mr. Spangler. Mr. Brown is returning east during the weekend. Mr. Brown is being indefinitely, making her headquarters at the home of Mrs. Hugh Taylor, on Willowbank street.
Random item (too late to classify): George "Tuffy" Lucas, aged 20, of East Logan street, may turn up in court Monday morning showing signs of battle. According to grapevine reports, "Tuffy," who with a number of other local boys is charged with committing a series of burglaries in this vicinity, engaged in a fist-fight with a member of the State Motor Police at the Sheriff's office in the jail, Monday. Reports of the battle vary, one version having it that the small-time burglar took exceptions to a remark made by the officer, and swung him. The officer accepted the challenge and an old-fashioned fight took place. After the smoke of battle had settled, the officer was found to have a cut lip. Although he hasn't been able to get a report on Lucas' condition, the officer is reported to have several battered knuckles.

County To Get Refund of $1,553

half of the $328.43, or $164.21 is the county refund after the $3,000 allowed by law is deducted.
The Register's office lists receipts of $5,725.97, and expenditures of $2,989.19, or a net profit of $2,736.78.
The full statement of the Auditor, Mr. Hoy, follows:
To the Honorable Ivan Walker, Judge of the several Courts of Centre County:
The undersigned Auditor appointed by the said Court to audit the accounts of the Prothonotary, Clerk of the Courts of Common Pleas, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, and Orphans' Court, the Register of Wills, and the Recorder of Deeds, pursuant to his appointment, secured from the various officials whose accounts were to be audited, sworn statements of their accounts, which said accounts were checked and audited by me with the following results:

Account of John L. Wetzler, Register of Wills and Clerk of the Orphan's Court, for 1938: Gross receipts from Fees for 1938: $5725.97 Expenditures: Salaries for 1938: $1807.00 Paid to Commonwealth of Penna.: $2989.19

Account of Leamer R. Woodring, Recorder of Deeds, for 1938: 1897 Writs: $4584.80 263 Satisfactions: $4190.00 2 Justice of the Peace Commissions: $9.00 17 Notary Public Commissions at $6.50: $110.50

Account of Bond C. White, Prothonotary, Clerk of the Courts of Common Pleas, Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and Clerk of the Court of Oyer and Terminer: Gross receipts for 1938 in the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Court of Oyer and Terminer and the Juvenile Court: $6257.20

None of the engine crew, train crew or passengers were injured, however, Dr. William L. Lowrie and Dr. W. S. Musser, of Tyrone, were called to the scene of the accident, but their services were not required.
The wreck did not hinder east-bound traffic but westbound traffic was delayed somewhat.
As soon as word of the derailment was received at the Middle Division office at Altoona, a new train was immediately made up, leaving Altoona at 9:15 o'clock. The two coaches which were not derailed were attached to the substitute train, and all baggage and mail transferred, the train later leaving for the run to Lock Haven over the Bald Eagle branch.
Middle Division officials are making a thorough investigation as to the cause of the derailment, but no definite cause has yet been determined.
