Surviving are her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Mary Bullock of near Howard; Doyle, Betty, Thomas, Joseph, Martha, Joan, Paul and Shirley Gardner, all at home. She was a member of the Pilgrim Holiness church. Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon followed by services at the Pilgrim Holiness church, with the Rev. R. Davies officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

JESSE COX
Jesse Cox, well known former local resident and business man, died at his home in Reading, Thursday of last week, death being attributed to a heart condition. He was past 70 years of age. Mr. Cox was a son of Augustus and Lucy Klinger Cox and was born near Bellefonte. He was united in marriage with Martha Reesner, of Bellefonte, who survives. There were no children and Mr. Cox is the last member of his immediate family. Funeral services were held Monday at Reading with interment in that city. In his youth Mr. Cox was employed in the box factory of the Ardell Lumber Company here and also was a glass cutter at the Bellefonte Glass Works. For a time he conducted the Palace Livery on Race street, and later purchased the Anderson restaurant in the McClain building, West High street, conducting that establishment until he sold it to the Moerschbachs and moved to Reading where he made his permanent home.

MRS. HARRIET S. WIGTON
Mrs. Harriet S. Wigton died on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Henry C. Rudeen, Windy Hill, near Philipsburg, where she had been making her home for the past year. Although being asthmatic and having a heart condition for the past year, her condition assumed a critical state only several days ago. Mrs. Wigton was born at Bellefonte in June, 1863, making her in her seventy-sixth year. Her early life was lived with her aunt, Mrs. Frank McCoy, at the McCoy iron works, Bellefonte. Of late years she had lived in Morrisdale and Philipsburg. She followed nursing as a means of a livelihood and was known to many in this region. She was of the Presbyterian faith. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Weber funeral parlor, Philipsburg, in charge of Rev. Charles W. Mackay, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Burial was made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

MRS. DELIA LUCAS
Mrs. Delia Lucas, of Tyrone, died in the Philipsburg State hospital on Monday morning following an extended illness with a complication of diseases. Mrs. Lucas had been admitted to the hospital two days before her death. Mrs. Lucas was a daughter of Ellsworth and Lucy (Haines) Ellsworth and was born at Mount Eagle, Centre county, on August 15, 1881. On April 15, 1890, at 10 o'clock following an extended illness with a complication of diseases, Mrs. Lucas had been admitted to the hospital two days before her death. REV. HENRY S. CHRIST
News has been received in Bellefonte of the death of the Rev. Henry S. Christ, rector of St. Joseph's church, Lancaster, which occurred Monday after a lengthy illness. Interment will be made at Lancaster this Thursday morning. Father Christ was 79 and had served six years as a priest. His first appointment after his ordination was St. Mary's church, Snow Shoe, Centre county, after which he went to St. Joseph's, Lancaster, as assistant, and later was stationed for a number of years at Lock Haven. He celebrated his 50th jubilee last year.

LUTHER A. ZERBY
Luther A. Zerby, an active member of Grace Lutheran church, State College, died at his home on East Pittsburg avenue, State College, at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, death being attributed to a heart condition. Mr. Zerby was a son of Beneval and Hannah Zerby and was born at Collinsville on April 24, 1867, making his age at time of death 71 years, 9 months and 17 days. Surviving are his wife, the former Nanna Ginterich and these children: Warren and Ralph, of Detroit, Mich.; Kenneth, Johnson, and Mrs. Mildred Fox, Williamsport. Also surviving are these brothers and sisters: Wesley Zerby, of Jersey Shore; James, of York, Pa.; Mrs. Ida Gramley, Jersey Shore; and Mrs. Emma Bush, Hilton, N. Y. Affiliating with Grace Lutheran church in 1913, Mr. Zerby became one of the outstanding members of the congregation. He was a Sunday school teacher for many years, had long been active in synodical work, and recently completed a term as member of the Grace Church Council. Mr. Zerby was a member of Amazon Lodge No. 662, I. O. O. F. of this city.

business at the Potter-Hoy Hardware, having been employed there for 12 years prior to March 20, 1929 when he, Mr. Owens and Harry M. Murdorf formed a partnership for the establishment of the Bellefonte Hardware Company. Mr. Murdorf dropped out of the partnership some years ago and Mr. Williams and Mr. Owens have conducted the business since that time.

by Mrs. Wion. The Rev. Mr. Shuey responded to the occasion in a happy address of appreciation and pledge of continued loyalty and active leadership. Exceptionally vigorous and active for his age, he serves as general superintendent each Sunday morning, often teaching a class, and then preaches twice a Sunday at Dix Run and Advent churches. Although Mr. Shuey is well past the age when most men have aged perceptibly, his faculties retain all their former vigor and his cheery outlook on life is the same as it was three years ago. He has probably come as close as any Bellefonte resident to finding the famed "Fountain of Eternal Youth."

Mr. Williams is a Past Exalted Ruler of the Bellefonte Elks lodge, a member of the British Country Club; the I. O. O. F. lodge and the Logan Fire Company, Bellefonte. Widely known and held in high regard throughout the county he is fully fitted to add to the high peak of success already attained by the Bellefonte Hardware Company. Mr. Owens, the retiring partner, leaves the hardware business after 27 years of activity in that line of work. Prior to becoming one of the partners in the Bellefonte Hardware Company he was employed for 18 years by the Potter-Hoy Hardware Company. He was president of the former Business Men's Association, Bellefonte, and is a past president of the local Kiwanis Club. He expects to devote his entire time to managing the family's various real estate holdings.

parade, but the Flag Day event shows every indication of overshadowing all previous ones, for Legionnaires from every part of the district, comprising Centre, Clearfield, Cameron and McKean counties will be represented at the convention, while hundreds of others from Clinton, Lycoming, Union, Mifflin, Huntingdon and Blair counties are expected to accept invitations to spend the day here. At the same time, invitations will be issued to friends and musical organizations throughout Central Pennsylvania to compete for the prizes to be offered for excellence in various departments. These tentative arrangements were made last Thursday night at a meeting held at the American Legion Home on East Howard Street, with Samuel D. RhineSmith, commander of the Legion, presiding as chairman of the Flag Day general committee. RhineSmith is being aided in the plans by the following sub-committee chairmen: entertainment, Aaron D. Letzell; meeting and seating arrangements, Horace J. Hartranft; program, Malcolm L. Wetzel; parade, Captain Herbert M. Beeger; finance, Francis J. Crawford; and distinguished guests, John G. Love. The Flag Day celebration will have its real beginning on Friday, June 9, when a five-day carnival will open at the school commons, or on the Undine lot. The carnival will be in progress every night, except Sunday, up to and including Flag Day. Tentative arrangements call for the District Legion Convention at the Court House Wednesday afternoon, June 14, followed by Flag Day services by the Bellefonte Elks Lodge at 5 o'clock. The mammoth parade is expected to march at 7 p. m. At 8 p. m. a prominent speaker is scheduled to speak from the Diamond. A public address system will be provided to carry the Flag Day services as well as the speaker's message throughout the central part of town. It is possible that a judges' stand, to accommodate judges choosing prize winning firemen's and musical organizations in the parade, will be erected on the Diamond, while distinguished guests may review the parade from the balcony of the Brockerhoff Hotel. The parade will consist of four divisions: a fraternal division in charge of the Elks lodge; a commercial and industrial group in charge of the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce; a firemen's division in charge of George Carpeneto, Philip Saylor and John Gillen, and a veterans' division, in charge of Brooks-Doll Post American Legion. American Legion is expected to be here for the day, while fully 20 other distinguished guests are to be invited to participate in the program. An effort is being made to have the
