

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Methodist Church Services—Special services will be held in the church beginning this Thursday evening, February 23rd, when the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kauffman, will preach, Friday evening the World Day of Prayer will be observed and will be under the auspices of the W. F. M. S.; Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:15 a. m. Epworth League at 8:30 p. m. and Evangelical services at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor. Each evening the following week at 7:30 p. m. guest preachers will bring the message as follows: Monday evening, February 27th, Rev. F. Bernard Henry of Pleasant Gap; Tuesday evening, Feb. 28th, Rev. D. A. Sowers, Jr. of Port Matilda; Wednesday evening, March 1st, Rev. D. D. Kauffman; Thursday evening, March 2nd, Rev. E. R. Davidson, Trinity Church, Lock Haven, Pa., and Friday evening, March 3rd, Rev. Mont H. Crawford, of Osceola Mills, Pa. Sunday March 5th, Decision Day in the church school and in the public worship. Members and friends of the church are urged to attend and the public is most cordially invited.

Tax Reminder—All property tax which are unpaid by May first for the years 1937 and 1938, will be turned in to the County Commissioners to be disposed of according to law. There are two months yet before that time and unless some arrangements are made with the Tax Collector before that time, the property will be included among those turned in. Our Borough has not had many turned in for sale but there are some lagging in their payments which cannot be carried on any longer. Don't let your property be sold for tax.

Free Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Friday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. and the regular preaching service in the morning at 10:45 a. m. Young People's meeting in the evening at 7:30 p. m. Special Evangelical services will be held in the church on Monday, March 13th and continuing until March 26th, with the Rev. R. A. Kelly of Pittsburgh as the Evangelist.

Missionary Meeting—The members of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be entertained this Thursday evening at the home of J. B. Holzworth.

John Stier, student of Penn State, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stier.

Miss Eva Rowan still has a property for sale in the borough and which can be purchased at a reasonable price. Call on her and get particulars.

The members of the Young Women's Sunday School Class taught by J. H. Finch, held their regular monthly business meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Pierce Peters.

Misses Lorraine Parsons and Margaret Parsons spent the weekend as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons. Lorraine is a student of State College while Margaret is employed at the College.

The Washington Birthday dinner sponsored by the Aid of the Methodist church, which was to have been held on February 22nd, was postponed on account of illness in several of the families they are planning to have it at a late date.

Walter Burkholder suffered a burn on his face and eyes recently when fumes from a barrel of kerosene exploded and burned him. The fumes having ignited from a cigarette which he had in his mouth at the time. He is improving rapidly but still is compelled to wear dark glasses.

The bible study class under the direction of Rev. H. E. Oakwood of the Presbyterian church was held last Monday evening at the home of Miss Eva Rowan. There will be no meeting next Monday evening, February 27th, on account of the services in the Methodist church, but each Monday evening thereafter will be held at the home of Miss Rowan.

White Leghorn DAY-OLD CHICKS 4-Week Pullets CUSTOM HATCHING HEISEY Poultry Farms SPRING MILLS, PA. Prices Reasonable. Phone 6-11-11

DANCE AT Brownie's Place Music by "SYNCOPIATORS" Every Wednes- & Friday Dancing 9 to 1:30. Lunch and all kinds of Beverages Sold. H. E. BROWN, Prop.

SPECIAL! ALL REGULAR 15c SUNDAES 10 Cents Other Sundaes Also Reduced. LUNCHES AND DINNERS Boston Restaurant North Allegheny Street BELLEFONTE, PA.

MILESBURG

George Washington once said words to this effect: "Without religion there is immorality." You are invited to join in a fellowship of prayer, the world around, on the World Day of Prayer, Feb. 24th, 1939. In the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. special program with music by Union choir.

The Young Women's Missionary society met on Thursday evening last week in the Methodist church. Mrs. Blanche Fisher and Mrs. Norman Kelley were hostesses.

That things usually happen in three's was demonstrated in Bellefonte during the past week. (three fires).

The latest in modern sidewalks is the kind that you turn upside down to clean the snow off.

137 attended the group meeting on Monday of last week in the Methodist church. The next meeting will be held in State College on the 13th of March, subject to be discussed will be "Gambling."

Edward and Leonard Shope of Altoona visited with Miss Lydia Shope on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stine have moved into their new home near Sky Top.

Mrs. James Lucas of Blairsville, visited during the past week with her mother, Blanche Jones and other relatives.

William Fulton, of Stubsensville, Ohio, is visiting relatives here.

Evidently some one in our town is very fond of chicken, as one of our residents have mysteriously lost several lately.

The Frances Eddy Zimmerman Sunday School class will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Stanley.

You boys and girls that belong to the callithumpian band had better get your instruments ready, for 'tis rumored you will be needing them.

The Sunday School class taught by Miss Daisy Shawley will meet at her home on Tuesday.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church also of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches were entertained on Tuesday last week at the home of Miss Hilda Haupt.

A program was arranged for the World Day of Prayer on Feb. 24.

Valentine day was observed in the Central City school by a real party, with ice cream, cake and sandwiches as refreshments, and the usual custom of exchanging valentines.

On Friday evening the Suzanne Wesley Society held a Valentine party in the Sunday School room of the Methodist church. The making of Valentines and games were the main amusements. Refreshments were served at a reasonable hour.

Mr. Bruce Jones of Tyrone, was a caller at the William Eckenroth home Sunday.

Anyone wishing more of that delicious marshmallow may obtain the same by calling 509-R-2, free delivery.

Mrs. F. L. Baird has returned from a pleasant visit at Philipsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver entered the Centre County Hospital on Monday for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Haugh visited at Millerstown over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Confer visited at State College on Saturday with Miss Jennie Adams.

Poster Baird is visiting with his brother Joseph at Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown of Williamsport and Miss Mabel Brown of Sunbury, spent Sunday with Mr. Nathaniel Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Snyder, Mr. Melvin Hoy and Lewis Saires all of Lock Haven, were Wednesday evening guests at Spring Mills hotel and accompanied Miss Leona Detweiler to the dance in the Gym.

Mrs. Rose Diehl of Akron, Ohio, is visiting with relatives but making her headquarters with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Mrs. Annie Smith and Mrs. Rose Diehl spent the day with relatives in Clearfield.

E. C. Hettinger administrator of the late W. S. Hettinger and Mrs. Anna Bell Hettinger last Thursday sold the farm east of Centre Hill, which was knocked down to Harry and his sister Miss Lottie Hettinger.

Miss Alva Bilger and sister, Mrs. Bertha of Pleasant Gap, were recent visitors in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rachau of Bellefonte were weekend visitors in town.

Rufus Hettinger and lady friend of Sunbury spent last Sunday at the former's parental home.

Mrs. Lillie Kenneley visited Mrs. Bariges at aquitting party last Monday.

STATE COLLEGE

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Welsh of Heister street had as their guest over the weekend, Peggy Bell of Greensburg.

Joseph Hays and Dean Kennedy motored to Harrisburg Friday on business.

William Dennis, Jr., of Pine street spent Monday and Tuesday in Philadelphia on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kropp of East College avenue motored to Huntingdon on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Anthony of Hillcrest Avenue had as their guests over the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Errol Peckham of Penn Craft.

Maybelle Smith and Esther Cummings spent the weekend in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Walter Parsons and daughter, Veda of Heister street motored to Bellefonte Friday evening.

Bernice Barger of East Hamilton avenue spent the weekend at her home in Spring Mills.

Mrs. F. S. Campbell of South Allen street and son of Wilkes Barre motored to Philadelphia on Tuesday.

P. A. Frost, R. D. Casselberry, John Holmes, and T. E. Gravatt all of State College made a business trip to Lewisport on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham attended the Ice Carnival in Hershey on Wednesday.

Howard Parsons a teacher in the Jonestown High School spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parsons of Heister street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Markle, daughter Eleanor and son Elwood of North Patterson street visited with friends in Howard on Sunday.

R. Y. Sigworth of South Atherton street attended the Ice Carnival in Hershey on Wednesday.

Dr. J. F. Shigley of South Burrows street made a business trip to Johnstown on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homan of W. Nittany Avenue had as their guest on Wednesday their son Sheldon of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Hannah Hicks of West Beaver avenue spent Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hubert Williams of Marlina Furnace.

Peggy Erb daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Erb of Heister street entertained a number of her friends with a Valentine party Tuesday evening.

Loebe, Harm of South Burrows Street entertained several friends at a dessert bridge Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Mary Glenn of South Burrows street is confined to her home because of illness.

Richard Billett of Port Royal, Virginia, spent the weekend at his home on East Avenue.

Mrs. Catherine Phillips of South Frazier street spent the weekend with relatives in Lock Haven.

The Modern Woodmen of America held their Annual Banquet at Sky-Top Tuesday evening. A good time was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Zimmerman and daughter of Locust Lane spent the weekend in Philipsburg.

Mr. Walker Parsons of Heister street is confined to his bed because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bowers of W. Barnard street visited in Burnham over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robb returned Saturday after a week's visit in Baltimore with Mr. Preston Robb and family. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Robb accompanied the brother and wife to their home.

Miss Sophia Caprio, Mrs. Hilda W. Leathers and daughter Eleanor, and Mr. J. H. Wagner spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eason.

A birthday dinner was held this past Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Robb for the following people: Mr. Chauncey Weaver, of Beech Creek; William Butler and Charles Sayer, of Romola. The other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Preston Robb and daughter Janice, of Baltimore; Mrs. Chauncey Weaver and daughters, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Vernie Robb, of Romola; Mr. and Mrs. Tomer Robb, of Harrisburg; Mr. Duke Gledhill, Mr. J. H. Wagner and Mr. W. Wagner attended lodge in Bellefonte Tuesday evening.

Calvin Pletcher and Paul Pletcher and William Bryan met with an accident near Clearfield last Sunday. Paul Pletcher and Mr. Bryan were able to return to their homes the same day while Calvin Pletcher is a patient in the Clearfield Hospital.

Mr. Harry Coder, son Ronald, of Conshohocken, and Mr. Tom Corrigan, of Valley Forge, visited at the home of George Regal.

The World's Day of Prayer will be held in the Christian church Friday evening, Feb. 24th.

Howard Borough School News The P. T. A. of Howard is sponsoring "Jessie Ray Taylor" in her program of impersonation of characters, such as Mickey Mouse, Shakespearian characters, etc. The date is Wednesday, March 15, 8 o'clock.

The Senior class of the Howard High school will hold a chicken and waffle supper on March 11 at the High school building. The prices are 35c for everyone over high school age and 25c for everyone under school age.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Feb. 26 are as follows: Sunday school, 9:30, and E. S. 6:45. Topic for discussion, "Where Are Our Modern Frontiers?"

Harry Swope, who is employed at Philipsburg, and friend Miss Virginia Fisher, of Charleroi, spent Sunday evening with the former's father, Mr. Elmer Swope and family.

Mrs. Fred Kesling and son Clarence, of Yarnell, were Friday dinner guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Shaffer and family.

Mrs. Ted Dixon and son Ronald were callers at the Noll home Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Belight spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. John Dinkle and family, at Bellefonte High school.

Sunday afternoon callers at the Winfield and John Deitz homes were Mrs. Clayton Wemelsdorf and children, Nellie and Novell, of Beech Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Funk and children, of Clintonville.

Mrs. Orin Fye and children spent Friday evening at the Lucy Conaway home and entertained the following to good interesting string music, Kathryn, Lucy, Lester and Harry Conaway, and Mrs. Fred Kesling and son, Clarence.

Mrs. Fred Kesling and son, Doris of Beech Creek, were Monday callers at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fritz.

Miss Dorothy Betz spent several days last week with her brother Harold Betz and family, of Howard.

Mrs. Fred Kesling and son, Clarence, of Yarnell, were Wednesday afternoon callers at the Sumner Noll home.

Sunday afternoon callers at the Ted Dixon home were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, of Flemington, George and James Boone, of Lock Haven.

Geraldine Swope spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Elvora Weight of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley spent Saturday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Neff, of Howard.

On Saturday evening about 9:15 o'clock, that big bird so familiarly known as the stork, decided that with the aid of Dr. Painter, of Mill Hall, and Mrs. Sadie Deitz and Mrs. C. E. Aley, that they would present Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Erley with a 7 pound baby girl, of which the Erley family are very proud and glad, and both mother and baby are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett and children spent Sunday afternoon at the G. P. Garrett home in Rebersburg.

Louise and Earl Belight spent the weekend with their sister, Mrs. John Dinkle and family, of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and sons, Arthur, Roy, Ralph and Fred, motored to Bellefonte on Sunday afternoon to see the damage done by the fire and on their return home called at the home of their uncle, Mr. C. W. Bartley and family.

After spending a week here with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Conaway, Mrs. Fred Kesling and son Clarence, returned to her home at Yarnell on Sunday.

On Thursday Miss Geraldine Swope entertained an all day quilting at her home. The following ladies were present: Mrs. J. B. Lucas and daughter Lucille, of Fox Hollow; Mrs. Cecil Herz and son Robert; and Mrs. Alice Betz. Fred Kesling and Mrs. Robert Conaway, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, of Flemington, spent Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, and sorry to learn that Mr. Dixon is not enjoying the good health his many friends wish him.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer and daughters spent Sunday afternoon with his brother, Mr. William Shaffer and family, of Bellefonte.

On Thursday while hauling stones from the White Rock stone quarry in the Philipsburg State hospital since last week undergoing treatment and observation prior to a prospective operation in the near future.

Presbyterians at Mochannon are planning a restaurant supper for early in March. It is to be the same price as the last one but to be bigger and better in most ways. Your patronage is solicited. Watch for posters and further particulars soon.

Clarence Banjo Band is scheduled to give a concert there also in about three weeks. We're only announcing the event. Date and admission fee will be told later. They are unequalled in musical talent now so need little advertising.

We surprised someone last week by giving them a real piece of news to their pretentious. Guess we have sources of information they didn't know about. We are more or less social reformers. It's near our object to specially hit anyone but if this column helps make any one better we've fulfilled our mission. Truly some things would sound quite nil were we to publish all we know.

WPA workers visited Hill school Monday to correct an error in the construction of the boys toilet which they erected sometime back. The visitation of school inspector brought several other evils to light which we presume will be corrected anon.

Porch at Poormanside school went Katow during the high winds last week.

Any ladies wanting rugs made should see Mrs. Bantam who has charge of such work in the Women's club. Many pretty specimens of their handiwork are now displayed in several homes about town.

Mrs. Arthur Stephens and son Benny were Saturday callers at the B. G. Carra home.

Arthur Stephens and Woodrow Resler who is making his home with the Stephens family were to Bellefonte Monday night.

J. C. Frawley of Osceola Mills spent Monday with the Stephens (his daughters family).

4th grade teacher Mr. Brungard seems to be the most popular again this year as he received the most misses of sentiments from present and past pupils on Feb. 14th. With the near four score received there was none of those smart ones. Imagine! He called on relatives near State College Sunday, while Miss Myra Peters visited at her sisters Pleasant Gap home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sigle and daughters, Imelda, Sarah Belle and son Richard of Stormstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin.

Weekend visitors at the home of Archie Snyder were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder of Utaville, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Snyder and son Bobbie, of Osceola Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meade and son John of Tyrone and Miss Dolly Stine and friend Don Shaw of Clayburg.

Mrs. John Henderson and Miss Nannie Weaver are on the sick list at this writing.

Quite a number attended the funeral of Andrew J. Johnson from around here.

There will be a square dance on St. Patrick's Day March 17th, at the Bald Eagle Grange. Everyone welcome.

Quite a pleasant evening was spent at the grange on Tuesday evening. They gave their members a party. A good time was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. David Mingle, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin and son Bernard, Miss Marguerite Kerin, Miss Mary Alice Stine, Myrtle Miller, Betty Dayton, Matthew Sharer, James Morris, Hattie Snyder, Mrs. Way, Mrs. Stonbraker, Mrs. Hogarth, Mrs. Woomer, Mrs. Hollibaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tobin, Mrs. Chancy Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lehman, Dr. I. A. Boucher, Christopher Friday, John Friday, Minnie Friday, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Woomer and Sam Friday, and Mr. Wilcott.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ducey spent Sunday in Tyrone with the latter's mother, Mrs. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoshand had a kitchen shower in honor of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hoshand. Quite a large crowd was present and they received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The farm show was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robison of Unionville, spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beckler.

On Wednesday Mrs. Anna Ducey had a quilting. Those present were Mrs. Nancy Miller, Mrs. Robert Miller, Miss Myrtle Miller, Miss Marguerite Kerin, Mrs. M. A. Kerin, Mrs. A. J. Collett, Mrs. Joseph Ducey, Mrs. Arma Ducey and Mrs. Susan Strassick.

Mr. Lee Eiders of Altoona, spent the weekend with his uncle George Beaver of this place.

The home that Paul Price was living in burned to the ground. They didn't even get their clothes saved. Mrs. Leona Walk is bedfast at this writing. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

William Urban of Pittsburgh, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Veronica Urban. Also Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Adams and daughter, Bettie of State College visited with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hoshand of Sandy Ridge spent Sunday with her son, Mrs. Ducey Soll.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin attended the funeral of Rex Seymour at Tyrone on Tuesday morning.

Romance vanishes when a wife sees nothing but a meal-ticket in her husband.

Develops New Gladiolus.

Everett A. Quackenbush, of New Cumberland, a former superintendent of the Tyrone schools, had originated a new gladiolus, which he has named the Flora Farmer, in honor of his wife. The blossom is a radiant pink, with a creamy white throat. The flower is unusually large, and unusually ruffled. It has received several awards at flower shows.

Gurnsey is Sold to Myers

A registered Gurnsey bull was recently sold by Mrs. H. L. Stuart, of State College, to C. M. Myers, of Jullin. This animal is Nittany Meadows Majesty 256334, according to the American Gurnsey Cattle Club, Peterborough, N. H.

Classified ads are thrifty

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGART In loving memory of Paul Confer, Gerald Confer and Edward (Cole) Witherite pupils of Cherry Run school Snow Shoe Twp. who met such an untimely death in a trucked collision there, two weeks ago, we submit the following:

We look in vain for each dear face Of those boys so young and gay; Who departed from this dreary world.

In such a tragic way. But the we miss them we are glad That a home in heaven they're found— Where there's never cold or sorrow But love and joy abound.

By teacher Mary E. Levi and schoolmates of the boys.

A new dinner call at Poormanside is Sophie Veneziano's whistle.

Mrs. Jno. Patishneck visited with her sister Mrs. Andy Bugosh at her apartment in the Butler property, Tuesday.

Calvin Stark of Scotchtown was home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Carra and the former's mother, Mrs. Patsy Carra were to Philipsburg Saturday to see the Dr. Mrs. Patsy has not been so well for several weeks.

Betty Stephens spent Monday night with her friend Pearl Hingdon along Snow Shoe-Bellefonte pike.

We notice the local hosiery mill seems to be increasing business as they are employing more of the towns younger people. Two shifts of workers are on the job now—one day and one night.

Velda Reese of Snow Shoe visited Sunday p. m. and evening with her friend Delores McLaughlin.

Mrs. Anna Morgan was visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Lauck, Sunday afternoon.

House party at the Emro Drapcho home on Tuesday evening was quite a gala occasion. Clarence elite only were invited. Among those who enjoyed themselves there were: Mrs. Anna Drapcho, Mr. and Mrs. George Drapcho, and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Drapcho and daughter, Marcella; Mr. and Mrs. John Kachik, Mrs. Mary Kachik, and sons Mike and George; Mr. and Mrs. James Kolosa, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Murnyack, Mr. and Mrs. George Murnyack, Mrs. John Bosson; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ely; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jurchik; Elizabeth Rushcock; Mrs. John Jendriak; Mrs. Ignace Miklukas; Mr. and Mrs. Emro Chahik; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Drapcho, Mr. and Mrs. John Bugosh, and Albin Bugosh; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Wozniak; Mr. and Mrs. John Martin; Miss Frances McGowan; Edna Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bosson, and the Emro Drapcho family.

Sam Butler of Potterdale, called on his tenants in town Thursday to collect the monthly rentals on his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Edna Adams and daughter, Bettie of State College visited with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hoshand of Sandy Ridge spent Sunday with her son, Mrs. Ducey Soll.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin attended the funeral of Rex Seymour at Tyrone on Tuesday morning.

Grade Four had an unusual experience Tuesday in listening to their school radio when they heard the school superintendent, Mr. J. C. Frawley, in the Philipsburg State hospital since last week undergoing treatment and observation prior to a prospective operation in the near future.

Presbyterians at Mochannon are planning a restaurant supper for early in March. It is to be the same price as the last one but to be bigger and better in most ways. Your patronage is solicited. Watch for posters and further particulars soon.

Clarence Banjo Band is scheduled to give a concert there also in about three weeks. We're only announcing the event. Date and admission fee will be told later. They are unequalled in musical talent now so need little advertising.

We surprised someone last week by giving them a real piece of news to their pretentious. Guess we have sources of information they didn't know about. We are more or less social reformers. It's near our object to specially hit anyone but if this column helps make any one better we've fulfilled our mission. Truly some things would sound quite nil were we to publish all we know.

WPA workers visited Hill school Monday to correct an error in the construction of the boys toilet which they erected sometime back. The visitation of school inspector brought several other evils to light which we presume will be corrected anon.

Porch at Poormanside school went Katow during the high winds last week.

Any ladies wanting rugs made should see Mrs. Bantam who has charge of such work in the Women's club. Many pretty specimens of their handiwork are now displayed in several homes about town.

Mrs. Arthur Stephens and son Benny were Saturday callers at the B. G. Carra home.

Arthur Stephens and Woodrow Resler who is making his home with the Stephens family were to Bellefonte Monday night.

J. C. Frawley of Osceola Mills spent Monday with the Stephens (his daughters family).

4th grade teacher Mr. Brungard seems to be the most popular again this year as he received the most misses of sentiments from present and past pupils on Feb. 14th. With the near four score received there was none of those smart ones. Imagine! He called on relatives near State College Sunday, while Miss Myra Peters visited at her sisters Pleasant Gap home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sigle and daughters, Imelda, Sarah Belle and son Richard of Stormstown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin.

Weekend visitors at the home of Archie Snyder were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder of Utaville, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Snyder and son Bobbie, of Osceola Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meade and son John of Tyrone and Miss Dolly Stine and friend Don Shaw of Clayburg.

Mrs. John Henderson and Miss Nannie Weaver are on the sick list at this writing.

Quite a number attended the funeral of Andrew J. Johnson from around here.

There will be a square dance on St. Patrick's Day March 17th, at the Bald Eagle Grange. Everyone welcome.

Quite a pleasant evening was spent at the grange on Tuesday evening. They gave their members a party. A good time was enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. David Mingle, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kerin and son Bernard, Miss Marguerite Kerin, Miss Mary Alice Stine, My