-Statements were sent out this week to all subscribers who are in arrears. If you received a little "pink slip" with your paper this week, it is a reminder that your subscription is due and in some instances past due. We are looking forward to a generous response to our appeal for paid up subscribers. If you are in the arrears and cannot pay all at one time, any portion will be appreciated at a time and eventually you will be paid up to date. The statement you receive will tell you the amount you owe to bring your account to date.
-About 3 o'clock one morning early last week Mrs. George A. Beecher, of East Curtin Street, was aroused from sleep by a slight noise downstairs. She thought nothing of the incident until she went to the refrigerator on the glass-enclosed back porch which was preparing breakfast. There Mrs. Beecher found that during the night someone had stolen a chicken, eggs, butter, mayonnaise and other foods from the refrigerator. Investigation showed that who ever took the food evidently gained access to the porch by opening one of the sliding windows of the enclosure. Borough Police are conducting an investigation.
