

Slayer Calmly Walks to Death Chair

cent day, while playing at a tricky Fleetwood course at Miami. The following day, as a third ball "landed" in the water, he saw a small alligator dart from under an overhanging bank, snap at the ball, and start to swim away. Striking the 'gator with his driver, Mr. Woodin killed it. When the alligator was cut open, which he is keeping as souvenirs.

Rat Round-up

Between 2,000 and 8,000 rats were slaughtered in the vicinity of the borough dump at Towanda, during the peak of the recent high water. The rats, forced from their holes, swarmed up to the top of the dump and were shot by waiting marksmen. When the number became too great for the gunners, boys and men armed with clubs aided in the slaughter, and dogs joined in the which were almost as large as cats.

Not Cavemen

Police Judge James Devin, of Seattle, fined a woman $25 for disorderly conduct following a family row, then explained: "In olden days it was all right for a man and wife to hold a family squabble. They lived on several acres and the nearest neighbor couldn't hear them. Times have changed. We have become cliff dwellers and often dozens of nd wife squabble."

Back Scratcher

For a man to scrape the back of of the car was demolished and shovhis neck with an axe would seem ed into the rear section of the car. impossible but that's just what hap- Parsons and Miss Stone were unof Beaver township. Columbia by passing motorists and English. county. Slipping on ice while cut- They were taken to the Phillpsburg ting wood, the man suffered a cut State Hospital where Miss Stone's ceived the news with satisfaction. reprieve. "Right now-life." "The Lord told me something was Although the official hand that going to happen to save me at the stayed his execution was that of last minute," he declared. Governor James granted Lockard a month's respit in order to allow further medical examination into the man's mental condition. Lock-Mr. Woodin found all three balls, ard had been convicted with Mrs.

Two Injured As Car Hits Truck

Receive Serious Cuts and Bruises in Highway Mishap Friday Night

Thrown against the windshield of a car in a collision with a truck near killing of the rodents, some of Flat Rock early Friday night on the Port Matllda-Philipsburg road. Samuel J. Parsons, 46, West Decatur and Amanda Stone, 57, Clearfield, are in the Philipsburg hospital in critical condition. Parsons suffered facial cuts and chest injuries and Miss Stone head cuts, fractured jaw and other injuries when the car in which they were driving struck the rear end of a truck operated by Dean English, 33. Woodland, R. D.

The car and the truck were both people are disturbed when a husband traveling up the mountain where the car smashed into the truck, the driver evidently failing to see the preceding truck. The car struck with such force that the front part The recent fire which left its disped in the chair at 12:31 a. m., and "legal murder." cold-blooded murderer. In the history of Pennsylvania four minutes later was pronounced Blackwell was convicted Jan. 28. no person has ever stood within the dead by Dr. W. J. Schwartz, prison 1938, and sentenced July 15, 1938 shadow of the electric chair as physician. many times as Lokard and lived to

Gov. Arthur H. James, it was the pleading of a woman who raised

Where the pleas of Lockard's parents had failed, those of Mrs. C.

Williams, Altoona, proved more

Lockard as a little boy which sway ed the Governor in his decision.

finds time to play.

fonte's History

residents of another memorable event that is still referred to as "the

The Conrad House fire occurred late in January of 1894. At that burning of the old Conrad House."

tell the tale. His case was said to fatal shooting of Eleanor Edwards law" as his defense, but commonone of the most protracted in and Richard Parker during an ar- wealth testimony that he had taken the state's history.

ter, on July 9, 1937.

Valley. She was a member of th William McKinley Blackwell, 46- He once won an eleventh-hour Evangelical Church at Clintondale ear-old Whitaker, Pa., Negro, walk- reprieve, when, early last Novem-In addition to her son and daugh ed calmly to his death in the elec- ber, 468 prisoners at the Allegheny tric chair at Rockview Penitentiary county jail staged an unprecedented his common-law wife and the man signed a petition to the State Parbe commuted to life imprisonment.

The husky slayer started the During the demonstration, Black-"last mile" from his cell to the well made a brief speech and joined by Judge J. Frank Graff. At his Blackwell was executed for the trial, he stressed the "unwritten gument over payment for a second- Miss Edwards as his common-law hand icebox which Blackwell had wife without being legally separatinfluenced the jury.

placed at $6000.

cident While Responding to Alarm

nembers of the company

High school building, you'd imagine the town had been struck by a ma-

Mrs. Holmes, who resided with a 3 p. m. in the Baptist church, Blanson, Clyde C. Holmes, at Salona, had chard, with interment in the ceme-gone to Altoona December 5 to spend tery adjoining the church, Rev. A. jor disaster. Our neighboring city, Lock Haven, is guite frequently visited by destructive floods. The high school building several years ago suffered tremendous damage and in addition most business places and many individuals suffered heavy osses. And yet Lock Haven rebuilt Husband and Wife the school; cleaned up and repaired business places and homes, and scarcely a complaint was heard Altoona Man Rushes Into from them. The difference between the two towns is that Lock Haven has learned to take misfortunes gracefully.

> Centre county plumbers are sleeping on a gold mine. Statistics reveal that of a total of 2,105 farms in the county only 200 of them have bathrooms. With a little sales talk, it seems that baths could be installed in at least several hundred of the other farm homes.

When efforts to check the fiamet which were confined to a clothes

After all the upsets Governor James has had in recent attempts to economize in the State governhe said had tried to leap from a back ment, this department bets when he goes to bed at night he admits to himself that Governor Earle and

In the meantime Mrs. Voltz had The man who works hard usually purchased from Parker's stepdaugh- ed from his first wife apparently Damages to the huge road bug were run to the porch where her cries for half had to a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to be a manine the first wife apparently bar half had to be a manine to be help brought neighbors. She was half bad job of running the State, unable to get back because of the It all depends upon whether you're blinding smoke and rapidly moving outside looking in, or inside looking out. We feel a little sorry for Arflames

thur. He was so cock-sure that costs Voltz bounded back up the steps and was trapped with his wife. Heat of government could be materially by that time had begun cracking out reduced, and now at every turn he reduced, and now at every turn he finds it practically impossible to window panes and smoke was ebbing shave even a few dollars here and from every crevice in the upper part there from expenses. the dwelling.

A ladder, rushed to the front parch by neighbors, was thrown up and the pair scampered down to safety. Teddy, the six-year-old son, re-ceived treatment for slight face Time was when every proud fahave resulted in serious injury to the burns. His hair was also slightly few local fathers during the past singed by the flames. He confessed week who in punishing their unruly "If you di that he had been playing with sons, threate At that time their engine was matches. "I lit a match and the your ways I'll run you for President!" A number of Centre countians may learn a lesson through a case tried here in court this week. A Wedded 50 Years man living in a small community went to a storekeeper and borrowed $2, leaving a gun with the merchant as security. Sometime later the man Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Smith went to the store, offered the mer-Began Housekeeping at chant $2 and asked for the gun. The merchant declared he wouldn't Marengo, This County release the gun until a $19.70 store bill owed by the man was paid. The Congratulations are in order for owner of the gun preferred charges Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Smith, of of larceny by bailee, and in court In spite of the handicap the Un- Tyrone, who on Sunday quietly and Monday a jury found the merchant Early on the morning of Monday, January 22, 1894—at the hour of do be burning briskly on the first four, to be exact—Dr. George F. Har-four, to be exact—Dr. George F. Harris, a prominent physician of the Realizing the situation, Dr. Harris The old wooden roof as well as the streams were playing on the roof of marked with the visits of relatives doned by officials of a certain Cen-Walter M. Smith and Phoebe Tay-During the week this department has heard much dissent among Republicans and Democrats alike over ary 27, 1889, at the Presbyterian manse, Pennsylvania Furnace, the the unsatisfactory ashing of streets late Rev. J. C. Kelly, officiating. and highways during the recent Pollowing marriage they took up treacherous snowfall. Ashes were housekeeping at Marengo, remaining placed only on curves, and the re-Logans engine was located on the Diamond and sent several strong Grawford had building. Mr. Crawford had just purchased the Smith followed the profession of Governor James economy program, business from J. S. McCarger, the stone mason until a few years ago many Highway maintenance employes have been laid off, and it is when he retired. Five children blessed this happy reported that ashing crews can't union, of whom three are living: Mrs. William Benford, Bellefonte, leave the local barns without orders from the Clearfield office. Under the former system, ashing crews went to work after each snow but it is partly covered by insurance. also fourteen grandchildren and one reached a certain depth, without waiting for orders from officials in The occasion was marked with an distant cities who had no knowledge means of better merchandising, and store of George F. Wurster 638 E. Barr, of Williamsport, who has been gave valuable aid to merchants for Church St., were gutted and the distant cities who had no knowledge of local conditions. The people vot-Miss Alice Shea. doing without things we've become Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are enaccustomed to. So if your car goes joying fair health, and were very into a tail spin and lands against a tree you can smile in the knowlhappy in the anniversary celebraedge that at least the State is saving money.

The burning of the old Conrad House building on Allegheny street was one of the outstanding local events of forty-five years ago. The long, rakish-looking stone structure was erected in 1854 by Jerry Rothrock and named after James Conrad, a prominent hardware dealer of Philadelphia.

View Large Group of Deer Two West Burlington men, of Bradford county, while enroute to their hunting camp on South Mountain, West LeRoy, to spend a few days, saw 71 deer feeding in siding at 2922 Pine avenue, Altoona one group. The know had melted was awakened from an afternoon from the side of the mountain and nap Thursday by his little son Tedthe deer came down to feed. Many dy screaming that his bedroom was of them were large, and all appear- afire. Teddy's four small sisters ed to be in fine physical condition. were on the same floor.

Slightly Injured in Wreck

last members of their family.

health had been failing for several months. She was a native of Rebersburg, Centre County, but had pent most of her life in Nittan the Winter with her daughter. Her G. Herr, of Bellefonte, officiated.

Neighbors Rescue

Blazing Home to Save

Screaming Wife

A. J. Voltz, an express trucker re-

Charles Evans, Pittsburgh, was closet, were unavailing, Voltz marminus several inches of skin from shalled his children several of whom his nose, the only injury he received when the huge trailer truck he was story window, down the stairs to a driving wrecked near Altoona after landing. hurdling a creek near the highway.

on the back of his neck from his condition was reported as not good astrous effects upon the Lyon build-axe. Two stitches were required to and the condition of Parsons as fair. ing, one of Bellefonte's oldest busiclose the wound.

Between Two Fires

Pupils at Shelly's school, located midway between two other rural schools, at Quakertown, are keeping close to their own domain these days. The reason: At one of the neighboring schools most of the students are absent because of chickenpox. At the other school, half of the students are down with mumps.

Picking Up

Charlie Cline of Knoxville, Tenn., is doing better with his legs. Sev- killed last November 18 near Alleral months ago, the 38-year old port, was exonerated of criminal Knoxville man broke both legs in an negligence Friday and then arrested automobile accident. Almost well, by motor police for driving the he fell, broke both of them again. death car while his license was re-Tuesday night, Charlie walked into voked. the side of a moving automobile but Hubler did not testify at the cor- tient, discovered fire in the entry- then gave the alarm.

Dog Carries On

to death when his clothing caught fire from a tree stump he had fired and Roy Crowell, 38, both single, structure and one of the oldest quick response. Therefore, on this for warmth, a sheep dog brought a whose lifeless bodies were found ly- buildings in the town. It had been particular morning some difficulty flock of sheep safely to a ranch yard ing side by side, tossed 75 feet from scorched a number of times by fire was experienced in reaching the stasearchers to the body of his master. Joe Peters, 40, under a mound of

Own Death Chamber

victed of the murder of Mrs. Vivian inquest with an injured leg still in Davidson, 20, has been sentenced to a cast. die on June 8th in the lethal gas A coroner's jury composed of Edchamber which he helped to build while a prisoner in the State Peni-Frank Howe, W. H. Hill, William tentiary at Jefferson City in 1934.

Lives 109 Years

Mrs. Mary Adelman, of Chicago, achieved her wish to "live long and right." She recently died at the age Adolph Johnson of Winburne, Hubof 109 years. Although she spent ler, who stated he was the driver Hall, Tyrone, was a marked sucmuch of her time sewing, she wore of the car, pleaded guilty to driving cess with 275 Clover Farm mer-

Six-Year Job

needle.

After six years' work, Charles C. Reynolds of South Pasadena, Calif., recently completed a directors' table, which consisted of 1,110,000 different pieces of inlaid wood.

Auto Thieves in Toils Clever sleuthing on the part of field chief of police resulted in two youths. W. A. Brickley, 20, and Or-vis Borst, 19, gracing the county The child, LeRe auto and holdup of a Curwensville R. D. man last week. What was first considered a wild goose chase endwere persuaded to waive extradition from Ohio. A "Sinless" Town

Read the story of a town in the United States that has no crime, liquor, police or jail, not even a divorce. One of many interesting illustrated articles in the March 12th issue of The American Weekly, distributed with the Baltimore Sunday

Jury Exonerates Death Car Driver

> Blair Hubler, Morrisdale, is time the Lyon building was saved Freed of Negligence in Allport Wreck

Blair Hubler, 24, Morrisdale, R. disaster.

D., driver of the death car in which Fire Discovered in Stairway two Morrisdale R. D. men were port cutoff four months ago when gheny street, opposite the Brocker- electric light plant to sound an the car in which Hubler was one of hoff House. Although his master was burned the motorists left the road and rolled over killing Riley Carr. 30, the Conrad House, was a solid stone was not always possible to get a led the wrecked car.

been postponed for some time because of the critical condition of Hubler as well as sickness of County Coroner E. E. Erhard, of Cur-Robert West, 22, of St; Louis, con- wensville. Hubler appeared at the > Davis, Sr., and William Davis, Jr., of Morrisdale, where the jury met found Hubler not guilty of criminal negligence in the accident.

When arraigned before 'Squire no glasses, not even to thread a during revocation of his license and chants, their wives, sweethearts and also misstatement of facts in ob- friends, officials and forces of the taining another driver's license. He Bayer-Gillam Company, and high was released on bond for his ap- officials of the Clover Farm organpearance at court.

CHILD RECOVERING FROM

State Motor police and the Clear- is recovering at the Philipsburg State hospital after being in a dan-

The child, LeRoy Kephart, son of jail charged with larceny of an Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Kephart, while running to open the door for his mother who was entering the Kephart house spilled the contents of ed successfully when the youths a pail of hot water down his head when he bumped the pail.

He was rushed to the Philipsburg hospital where for a time he was not expected to recover.

Undoubtedly most newspapers in of Tyrone. the United States are honest but journalism has its black sheep.

For a number of years it was used as a hotel by John Morrison ness blocks, will perhaps be a rewho was followed by Jerry Butts. Afterwards it was purchased by calling circumstance to many older

Henry Brockerhoff, and at the time of the fire was owned by the Brockerhoff estate.

The building had grown into a dilapidated condition and was considered an eye-sore to surrounding property. Its passing occasioned no expressions of regret.

only by heroic work upon the part of the firemen. Now, forty-five destined to end its days of usefulness to all parts of the town and in a very bottom with a madrush. It struck years later, so near to the anniver-sary of the event as to border on the present day Temple Court, which, about the building and the firemen cupied by the Weis store (formerly unusual, the Lyon building suffered Phoenix-like afterwards arose from soon had a stream working from the known as the Aikens corner) turned its ashes.

Delay in Sounding Alarm

fire made great headway by rapidly broken that it could not be used. working up through the partition to this time only one leg was fractured. oner's inquest concerning the acci- way leading to the upper floors of At that time the town depended alley on the right. Both were in irol and no further damage was en- lor were united in marriage Februdent which happened near the All- the old Conrad building on Alle- on the huge steam whistle at the great danger from flying embers. countered.

Undines Wreck Engine

alarm of fire. While the plant had The building, commonly known as adequate telephone connection, it The fire companies responded streams upon the building. The but never badly damaged. This tion to have the whistle blown.

The probe of the fatal crash had time, however, the old landmark was Nevertheless the news soon spread hurrying to the scene which might branches, spoke at length on the LOCK HAVEN STORE subject of Merchandising, giving DAMAGE audience much valuable food for thought and practice. In Lock Haven's first good-sized Mr. Mason spoke of ways and fire of the year, the meat market and absent at the time. Mrs. Wurster increasing their business. He stress- second floor apartment and smoke sick. ed the personal contact with the house in the rear were damaged by customer, giving illustration and ex- smoke and water shortly after noon ample of how this could be suc- Sunday. cessfully accomplished.

He spoke on sales methods, sales psychology, giving copious examples of the selling of the individual downstairs to the store to find the bullet peppered body of their son article that bore weight with his store, attention to the customer, tion of the refrigerator cauge how to attract the customer when points dwelt upon. Closing his an hour's hard fight, and the fire- poor health. splendid talk, Mr. Mason spoke on men returned to their stations the matter of produce and meat shortly after 2 o'clock. The store was badly damaged, and most of the your life; drive carefully. (Continued on Page 6)

oused on Logan street in a building clothes burned," he said. that stood at the rear of the Brant

House. In bringing it down the steep incline of South Allegheny street to Bishop, the engine became Tyrone Couple unmanageable and started on a wild dash down the hill. The men at the tongue were thrown to the side and the heavy machine continued to the plug along the curb in front. The completely over and was so badly ris, a prominent physician of the Realizing the gituation. Dr. Harris The old wooden roof as well as the the building and upon adjoining and friends bringing flowers, gifts tre county town. the building and closed the interior burned flercely, endanger- property. An hour and a half later and warm congratulations. and the Lyons building across the the fire was completely under con-

Newspaper Office Damaged

The first floor was occupied by

(Continued on Page 6)

stock will probably be lost. No es- Mrs. James Shea, Tyrone and Her-DAMAGED BY FIRE timate of the damage could be made, man Smith, Akron, Ohio. There are Both Mr. and Mrs. Wurster were great grandchild.

> Lad Finds Father's Body A 6-year-old son's shout "Come tion.

The blaze was discovered by Mr. here, something has happened to refrigerator in flames. It was He was found slumped on the floor, thought later that the cork insula-tion of the refrigerator caught fire from the adjoining chimney. He was found slumped on the floor. Spangler, stop to pet dogs. He was the struck and killed by a car as he chest. The self-inflicted wound may cause the young man's death as his dog which was standing in the thought later that the cork insula-tion of the refrigerator caught fire thest. The self-inflicted wound may cause the young man's death as his dog which was standing in the entering the store, etc., were salient The blaze was under control after condition is very serious. He was in road.

Spending money on battleships Just a reminder that might save seems foolish to people who live one thousand miles from the coasts.

Kindness Leads to Death

No more will John Wargo, 50, of When Crime Poses as Spiritualism Spangler, stop to pet dogs. He was A true-life story disclosing how their loved ones. One of many exciting features in the March 12th issue of The American Weekly, distributed in this territory with the Baltimore Sunday American. On sale at all progressive newsstands.

By POP MOMAND

hearers. Proper arrangement of the ization gathered about the festive board for mutual fellowship and furtherance of goodwill existing among the 125 stores over nine

Maynard Meckes, of The Bayer-his

Gillam headquarters, Tyrone, acted as master of ceremonies, bringing the greetings, and stating something of the purpose of the gather-

Clover Farm Holds

Store Merchants and Company Officials Meet and

Dine in Tyrone

The Mid-Penn Clover Farm "Fel-lowship Banquet," held Tuesday night, February 21st, in the Moose

Annual Banquet

A full course turkey banquet was served by the members of the Moose Degree Team, headed by Ernest Anderson, on attractively decorated and arranged tables. The evening was interspersed with hearty group singing, headed by John K. Miller, of Bayer-Gillam headquarters, assisted by Joe Dickson and Walt

Hamor. The invocation was made by Rev. William T. Sherwood, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church

Following the dinner, the toastmaster called on Grant Mason, Merchandise Manager of Clover Farm headquarters, Cleveland, Ohio, Mr.

A farmer grows food and feed for Mason, a young man of long exper-American. On sale at all progres- himself; a planter buys both and lence in the field of chain store speculates upon the price of a crop. merchandising and in all allied

BAD SCALDING ACCIDENT Central Pennsylvania counties. A four-year-old Drifting boy who was critically scalded when he spilled a pail of hot water over himself