BABY DIES IN HOSPITAL

AFTER BEING WHIPPED

ses Thrashing Two-Year-Old Girl "at Least

Fifty Times" Through Jealousy

A case of extreme cruelty comes my baby." They said she would be from Mifflin county where Paul W. released to attend the funeral.

Barrick, 22, is being held in the Gray said that Barrick, held at

The child, born out of wedlock to knees that the child would live."

Sunbury Hospital Priday, of in- injury of the brain, kidneys and in-

BY MOTHER'S SUITOR

Odd and Curious News

Everything Borrowed

gion near Tyrone, not only borrowed two chickens to cook but they also porrowed the home and stove to cook them in. It seems that Jim Nau, 20, and Porter Miller, 19, were hungry and had visions of tender drum sticks. They broke into a Snyde Township chicken coop, snatched two hens and then proceeded to clean and cook the birds in the hom of Walter Hardy, only the Hardy weren't at home. It cost the two youths $5 for thir feast which was broken up by police and then they were ordered to clean up the Hardy kitchen as well as the pots and pans they used for their "banquet."

Gosh! Gee Whiskers!

kers grow was projected by Pitts-Lurgh barbers. The barbers an-Lounced they are sponsoring the iceal competition in the National cash prize and a trip to the Sacra- his assailant. mento-Golden Empire Centennial the next two months. I' on May 13 behind the ear and one on the arm you think you have a chance, make

Generous Drunk

A prudent drunk in Atlanta, Ga., hailed Ira Smith on the street asking him to drive his car. Smith took the job. Soon the inebriate ordered a stop. He climbed out, waved his hand, said "you can have the automobile," and walked swiftly away before Smith could recover his The impromptu chauffeur turned the automobile over to police and they expect the generous owner to claim it as soon as he conquers his hangover.

Wrong Luncheon

Legion luncheon, at Raleigh, N. C., Pennsylvania's chief executive. Lt-Gov. W. P. Horton went to the The governor, ending months of automobile salesman's spread. Full position Thursday. of apologies and chicken, he hasten-

Short Term

Two days after taking the oath of office, as Sheriff of Alamance county North Carolina, M. P. Robertson, and Policeman S. E. Baughn, of Burlington, were killed in a gun battle robber, Roy Huffman, was

Try It On Cow

ur child balks at eating spinach Dr. Thurman B. Rice, of the Indiana University School of Medicine, advises that the spinach be fed to a cow and let the child drink the cow's milk. Not bad, eh, provided one has

Finds Lost Eye

While seining in a creek at Blue Rapids, Kansas, recently Louis Cherney's net brought up a glass eve. George Barker claimed it, saying that he had lost it eighteen years ago while hunting raccoons ..

RELIEF CHISELING CASES FOUND IN CLINTON COUNTY

Alderman T. Mark Brungard last Thursday issued wararnts at Lock Haven for the arrest of nine persons, one woman and eight men, charged by the Department of Public Assistance with relief "chisel-

Implicated, for the alleged sums stated, are the following: Melvin J. A bullet plerced his temple: Crawford, Farrandsville, $23.10, 41; Howard E. Wren, Loganton, employed in the South Altoona $22.40, and from Lock Haven, Geo. foundry for the past 31 years. E. Seybold, $53.31; Zacharia Pecchia, $50.04; Michael Mulqueen, $17.- wife, Mrs. Alma Mary (Keagy) cratic Clubs of America was an- nual meeting of the eastern States year, 50; Nora English, $54.60, and Paul White; two sons. Joseph R. Wert, $175.96.

Thought to Be Human Bones Charred bones, found in the ruins of the barn on the M. J. Ryan farm, near Troy, which was destroyed by fire last Tuesday night.

Charred bones, found in the ruins white, both of Altoona.

Originally scheduled for August 3, members of the Exchange who buy feed, fertilizer, seed, motor oil, paint, 628 pounds of field seed, and a large stroyed by fire last Tuesday night. stroyed by fire last Tuesday night, lodge, Knights of Pythias, of the were taken to the Robert Packer Blair County Game, Fish and For-Hospital in Sayre for examination, estry association for the past ten to determine if they are the remains years, of the M. B. A. and of the P. of a human being. A skull, leg R. R. Veteran Employes association bones, and a hip joint were found by men who cleared away the debris. They were in another part of the barn from the spot where sev- ceived a letter from her mother in eral cows were burned. It is thought that a transient might have lost "Mrs. W. S. Coates, Oregon." An his life in the blaze.

COST TO BOTH FAIRS COULD BE BOUGHT WITH GAS TAX and sent the letter on to her.

Every man, woman and child in New York. Chicago, Philadelphia and Detroit, could get round-trip Francisco and New York World's Fairs with the money paid out for gasoline taxes in one year by the nation's motorists, according to a report just made public by the American Petroleum Institute at Rockefeller Center.

The total gasoline tax collections in 1938 reached nearly $1,000,000. This is enough to buy a $70 roundtrip bus ticket for 13,900,060 persons to both of this year's fairs.

Don't ever ask Steve Chollock, 30, of DuBois, to help you get your stuck car out of the mud. Chollock is in the hospital recovering from attempts to extricate his own car. He nearly froze to death after he ing efforts.

SECOND SECTION

The Centre Democrat

NEWS,

NUMBER 10.

VOLUME 58.

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1939.

Shearing Time

CCC VETERAN KNIFED BY COMRADE AFTER FALSE ACCUSATIONS

Member of Clinton County Camp In Serious Condition at Lock Haven Hospital As Result of Stabbing Affray

Clinton county, is in a critical con- him; the aroused man then struck dition in the Lock Haven Hospital, out with the small pocket knife with where he was admitted late Satur- which Potter was injured. returning from a party.

held in the Clinton county jail at Open Whisker Growing contest A Lock Haven. Potter refused to name

Fifty-six stitches were required drinking. celebration await the man who to close the wounds through which grows the longest beard in the 60 Potter had lost a large quantity of days between March 11 and May blood. All the wounds were said to 13 All you have to do is get an en- be of a serious nature. There were try blank from a barber shop and several on the throat, one on the t en forget all about shaving for forehead, one near the jugular vein Accounts of the incident, as given NABBED IN ATTEMPT by other members of the party to officials, were that a man, allegedly Miller, had cried out from the un-

Judge Hirt Named To Superior Court

Erie Jurist to Take Seat Va- clothing cated When James Became Governor

A judge who regards the thirteenth of the month as a good date will take on March 13 the Superior Court seat Governor James resign-Asked to speak at an American ed a few minutes after becoming hotel and went into lunch. It was speculation over his successor, ap-almost dessert time, however, before pointed President Judge William T. he realized that he had crashed an Hirt, of Erie, to the $18,000-a-year

James said he asked the 57-yeared to his engagement in the same old judge whether he had any objections, on superstitious grounds, to taking his promotion when the courts meet at Harrisburg on the 13th. He said Hirt told him that was a favorable omen. Hirt was born on the vicinity of Cherry Run bridge, May 13 and was notified of his first to a point where the dividing line judicial appointment on February separates Logan and Porter town-

While James was campaigning for the scene of one of the most daswhich followed an investigation of governor and still a judge of the tardly and revolting crimes known a robbery of a filling station. The Superior Court—an action that in the history of Clinton county. complaint to the committee on ethics of the American Bar Association-numerous persons were mentioned as his successor on the bench. Among these were James' secretary of the commonwealth, Miss S. M. R. O'Hara, of Luzerne county; Judge Fred S. Reese, of Cumberland county, and Judge W. A. Valentine, of Luzerne. James said Hirt would serve at least until next January 1, when the

Altoona Man Dies Of Bullet Wound

Found Lying on Floor By Family After Shot is Heard 1887. in Bedroom

Found lying on the floor by members of his family who had been vey, the mother of Isaiah, by prestartled by a thud in his bedroom. Lee Calvin White, 52, of Altoona. ing." The cases are the first of this well known patternmaker in the her son harvest his oats. Entering nature in Clinton county for several South Altoona foundry of the Altoona works, died suddenly at his there but the baby, which had the shoulder. She was almost entirely grandmother. Then came the search home Friday night at 10:30 o'clock, appearance of having exhausted it- naked, showing that whoever killed for the murderer.

Born in Altoona, March 21, 1886 James I. Mosley, Drurys Run, $23.- he was a son of Joseph D. and Mary YOUNG DEMOCRATIC CLUBS 66; Fred G. Hill, McElhattan, $83.- Alma (Geesey) White. He had been Members of the family include his nial convention of the Young Demo- turned from attending the 21st an-

W., of nounced this week at Harrisburg by Farmers' Exchange in Springfield, Washington, D. C., and Charles R., Joseph Barr, head of the Pennsyl- Mass. He is a director in the orat home, one sister and one brother. vania clubs and chairman of the ar- ganization. Mrs. Nellie Miller and Raymond G. rangements committee.

Mrs. W. S. Coates recently re-Australia, which was addressed, alert mail clerk in Portland, who had visited in Tillamook, remembered that he had met Mrs. Coates, by a non-profit corporation set up ers in Pennsylvania purchased coopunder the laws of Pennsylvania. Highlight of the three-day conclave What's Going on in Hellywood All the news of screenland, pictures of your favorite stars and bus transportation to both the San other interesting features will be found in the Green Spotlight magazine, distributed regularly with the mated by convention officials that Baltimore Sunday American. On 25,000 delegates and visitors will be sale at all progressive newsstands.

Beeck Creek Man Loses Toe-His left foot split when the axe with which he was cuting logs slipped, Carl H. Heverly underwent an operation at the Lock Haven Hospital for amputation of the second toe. The toe was nearly severed by Wake 'Em Service." Carter Crimp the axe. Girl Fatally Injured A young Cresson girl, Stella Latitta, 20, died at the Altoona Mercy hospital without regaining con-sciousness. She was one of a group spend enough money on education became exhausted from his extricat- of four struck by a ear while walk- every year to be certain that the ing along a highway near her home, country has some of it.

Jame J. Potter, 40, a member of lighted back of the truck that one he Farrandsville CCC Camp in of the four other men had struck day night after having received six Private Harry Rosenbloom of the knife wounds in a brawl on a truck State Motor Police, District Attor-Charged with the attack, John Bryerton and Deputy Sheriff Le-Miller, 56, a fellow enrollee, is being Roy Bryerton, all of Lock Haven, investigated. Dr. Henry G. Hager said at the hospital that there was evidence that the men had been Both men involved are World War veterans. Potter is from Philadelphia and Miller from Jessup, near

TO SCALE JAIL WALLS

Bernard Kingbeil, 22, enacted a human fly" role last Thursday and crambled down the outside wall of ne Lycoming county jail but was otured as he hit the ground. stooped to pick up a bundle of

Sheriff Joseph Mertz said Klingbeil had been exercising with other Pennsylvania, providing debate and prisoners previously. Mertz said he discussion on such problems as climbed over doors at the rear of the jail and expressed the opinion al isolation, rearmament, and the the escape was possible only for a attitude the United States should

Proceeding up Fishing Creek to ships, the traveler will come upon

The location is still referred to as the scene of the Culvey murder, and although it was enacted more than a half century ago, its memory will never be entirely erased from the old at the time this story begins in discovery.

home of the young people to help a basket of grass.

Grandmother Discovers Bodies

ust 8th of that year, Mrs. John Culvious arrangement came to the

A change in the date of the bien-

"This convention will be the most important political event of the year cause it will be a curtain-raiser for 1940. Every presidential candidate or would-be candidate will be rep-up at Pittsburgh are going to tell which way the political winds are will be election of all national of-Invitations are being sent out to clubs in every State, and it is esti-

"Wake Up" Service Sold

Washington who have trouble waking up in time for early morning classes can subscribe to the "We and Art Meyer offer the service and they telephone their clients according to a prearranged schedule.

Students at the University of ficers for the ensuing two years.

blowing over the country."

on hand for the occasion.

Barr said:

traditions of Sugar Valley.

TRAVELING TOWN MEETING' ORGANIZED AT PENN STATE

IT HAPPENED IN SUGAR VALLEY

Suspicion Fell on Many Parties

the double slaving recorded in this article. Among the number held on suspicion were several Centre county citizens, who, fortunately, were exonerated as the case became unraveled. At one time the victim's father was accused of the crime, but was re-lased when his innocence was established. His arrest at the time was regarded as a cruel outrage on a sorrowing parent. It was not until the real murder was tried and a confession secured that the under his left eye. By his side stood Nora being about 20 and Isalah

The woman had a bullet hole be- buried at Tylersville, and the child $17,893,369.

and Pennsylvania, and has a total When Crime Poses as Spiritualism membership of 88,240 farm owners. Investigator makes startling dis-were given showing to what extent in the March 19th Issue of The

to serve as their cooperative pur- distributed regularly with the Bal-chasing agent. Eastern States pro- timore Sunday American. On sale

gress and problems during 1938 were at all newsstands.

details of the horrible affair appeared in their true light.

At least seven persons were arrested at various times following

State College

Members of the varsity debating sion leader, have been appearing in various communities in central pump priming, the policy of nationtake in case of another war.

In this lonely section, apart from self from crying. Sensing that the her had gratified his lust either be-other habitations, Isaiah Culvey and child had been neglected longer fore death or after she had been fifty years ago. Their home was a The elder woman thought it the mother, and it was with diffihumble one, but it was a happy one strange that neither of the parents culty that she made her way to the

to the young couple. Isaiah culti- could be seen about the premises, nearest house to tell her story. The vated a little farm out of which it and decided that they must have spreading of the news created a was as much as he could do to make gone across the creek for some rea- wave of horror throughout the com-came to add to their happiness. The given up hope of locating them der and outrage stirred Clinton child was a little more than a year there, when she made a horrible and Centre counties to a high pitch

Both Had Been Shot to Death

Lying on the ground, but a few her son and his wife. Isaiah was lying on his side, with a bullet hole

REBERSBURG MAN REPORTS

M. W. Wert, of Rebersburg, has re-

There are in the state about 30,330

New England, Delaware, Marylan, in Pennsylvania," he declared "beresented, and the trial balloons sent farmers are calling on the Exchange American Weekly, the big magazine discussed. Records show that farm-

TO CONVENE AUG. 10-12. ON FARMERS' BUYING MARKET Farmers' Exchange 114,894 tons of a living; but the young pair were son. She walked to the end of the munity of Sugar Valley.

his young wife began housekeeping than it should have been, she went shot.

happy in the peaceful serenity that field, past which Cherry run flowurrounded their home. In the ed, crossed the bridge which spansourse of time a little daughter ned the stream, and had about Early on Monday morning of Aug- feet apart, were the dead bodies of 12 in order to avoid conflict with through their cooperative organizaties.

soon after their marriage some in search of the mother.

women's clubs and service clubs.

Klingbeil was placed in solitary Debates have already been held one Idaho farmer could stand saying she "looked just like a little onfinement. He had been held in in Bellefonte, Altoona, Howard and County Recorder W. L. Brewrink re- bud the jail since last December 21 Lewistown, and the schedule pro- ceived an urgent telephone call from Miriam's mother, held at Miffilm pending deportation proceedings to vides for further arguments at the farmer to send the snow plow so County Jail, Lewistown, wept at Canada. He was wanted there on a Clearfield, Huntingdon and Philips- that he could get to town to get a word of her death and begged au-

The sight was a terrible shock to

Crime Stirs Community

The terrible details of the mur-of indignation. Feeling became intensified as the fact became known that the crime had been committed the previous Saturday evening and the child had been left unattended

The Culveys were quite young, about 27 years old. The bodies were eed, 10,593 tons of fertalizer and fer-

During 1938 the Exchange pur-eastern states commodities valued at tons of feed, 49,558 tons of fertilizer, tray and plunder heartsick victims.

-The most news for $1.50.

At the Springfield meeting reports One of many interesting features Roy Decker, State College, and Miss meterials, and 1,487,950

It distributed 401.451

eratively through the Bastern States YOUTH ADMINISTRATION until discovered Monday morning.

A "Traveling Town Meeting" has Before the end of the season all Prematurely born, the child weighbeen organized at the Pennsylvania of the 28 members on the squad will ed one pound, nine ounces at birth be used in contests, according to and physicians struggled for months Joseph F. O'Brien, assistant profes- to save her life two years ago.

Wants Chaw.

testines." A coroner's jury found juries inflicted by Barrick, Young Barrick, a former brickjected to considerable mistreatment" yard employe, is quoted as saying that he beat the under-sized tot "at least fifty times" and branded her inflicted by a blow or blows from "Avoid mistakes."

was jealous of her father." The mother is being held for crim- persons unknown to us. Sheriff Carl Hawar of Juniata inal negligence in not reporting the bruise marks. The charge it is said was placed to insure her detention. County said authorities did not bring Baby Miriam, with a brain injury quite tense." and half of her bruised body paralyzed, died at Sunbury Hospital, where she had lain unconscious five

The fugitive was nabbed while he squad, together with a coach who accorded to pick up a bundle of acts as a conductor and a discussion of commerce. Schools, the spark of life in her diminutive body, were saddened at news of her two-year-old baby girl.

kept in an incubator for weeks and Being snow bound in his home for fed through a tube-she was so tiny two weeks was bad enough, but being she couldn't take nourishment in snowbound for two weeks without the ordinary way, they said. They his chewing tobacco was more than had fondly called her "Rosebud," true facts became known later.

Luther Shaffer Arrested and it was thought that the young to cover up a robbery at their home.

This theory was strengthened by the discovery that a number of articles were missing from the Culvey man by the name of Luther Shaffer who had been seen in the commun-rest. Shaffer who had left the vicinity after the murder, was looked upon as having taken part in the robberies, and was well worth considering as knowing something

A warrant was issued for his arrest, and officers got upon his track.

He was finally captured by Chief of Police Westbrook of Lock Haven and Officer Vernes of Renovo, at a lumber camp near Galeton, in Potter county. Shaffer was brought to Lock Haven and placed in jail and at the December term of court was tried and found guilty of the double fession, which cleared up every de-

(Continued on page four)

central Pennsylvania National Youth Administration district held last week at the NYA office in the under the supervision of W. I.

Scott, district director. The preparations were made for the spring projects and a discussion of new

Those who attended the meeting were Arden Miller, Philipsburg; Paul

L. Frantz, Lock Haven; E. C. Grover and David A. Ritchie, Ulysses;

Dr. Harold L. Holbrook, Josef Conklin, John C. Pella, George Teats, all of state headquarters at Harrisburg;

Ethel Dale and Mrs. Virginia Kessinger, of the Bellefonte office. The district includes Centre. Clinton, Cameron and Potter counties.

-Want ads bring results guidance projecta was held.

about the death of the Culveys.

Circumstances pointed to a young upon whom suspicion might

'Hexed' Child To Get New Home

Court to Take Charge of 'Bewitched' Girl

(Continued on page four)

girl whose mother and grandmother way he met death alone left ah charged she was "hexed" was ordered placed in a foster home in the custody of Miss Elizabeth B. Vastine, probation officer, following a hearing at juvenile court at Danville, Saturday morning.

school but 220 days during the 580 the Bellefonte Academy building. school days of the past four terms.

made a number of arrests in at-tempting to solve the mystery, and not believe in witchcraft and de-fonte High school fire. A number among those held on suspicion were nied his daughter was in poor of amateur movie cameramen were two Centre county citizens. They health, declaring it was but a belief on the scene, and are now invited were exonerated, however, when the of his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. their friends to view the regul Caroline Keefer, who lives with the their work. Among those room frame home which the hus- whose fflms are in natural color Sometime previous to the Culvey band, a WPA worker, crected during tragedy a number of robberies had his spare hours. been committed in Sugar Valley,

He said he had received anonymous letters, stating his daughter couple had been slain in an effort was "hexed" and that his motherin-law had spread salt on the door step of his home to keep out the "witchcraft."

Convict's Freedom Is Short Lived

Rockview Fugitive Granted and then aim to hold fast to the Liberty, But Virginia Officers borough limits, housing conditions, Take Him in Custody liam Wright, who has spent the buried in the interests of the town penftentiary at Bellefonte in 1926, get control so they can smash the fled to Washington, Pa., where he whole proposition if things aren't had been sentenced four years be- done so they get a few hundred or fore, and robbed the home of Mrs. a few thousand dollars of benefit Caroline C. Parkinson, who lay from the idea.

slaving. He later made a full condead at the time. Captured, he was given an additional 5% to 11 years SEES SERIOUS STUDENTS imprisonment. Court ruled his extended sentence HOLDS QUARTERLY MEETING At a quarterly meeting of the a habeas corpus action and heard "next decade or so the words that meant freedom. He walked from the courtroom. He got only as far as the corridor. chology of Pennsylvania State Col-There a Richmond, Va., detective lege, said that while "grinds" may clamped handcuffs on him. Rich-be future "big shots" they "often go mond hadn't forgotten that Wright through an entire semester with escaped from its jail in 1910 and talking to a girl socially."

Youth Robbed Father Robert J. Winner, 27 of Williamsport, is held in Lycoming County jail on a charge of robbing his own hem, lost his left ear in an automo father. The father, 61-year-old bile Prank Winner, told State Motor Police that while he slept on a couch, to a hospital where it was sewn on. his son entered the house with a a flap of flesh from the back of companion, bound and robbed him Van Billiard's neck being used. of $3. Young Winner and the companion, John H. Condriet, 23, were held on charges of burglary and rob- you if you don't-it pays your com-

Random Items

News Item From United Press at Los Angeles: "Secret files of the naval intelligence department, inroduced at the trial of three alleged Soviet Russian spies, discloses that United States agents had discovered just below the border in Mexico a ache of powerful acid, which, soured into the ocean, might eat through the armored plates of bat-Juniata County Youth Held After He Confes- tleships and sink them." Someone's getting a little hysterical-either in the navy intelligence department, or in the Los Angeles United Press bureau. If any acld was found it's a safe bet it was intended for something more practical than to convert the Pacific Ocean into a chemist's test tube. Next they'll be telling Mifflin county jail for fatally beating Juniata County Jail, Mifflintown, us they found three sticks of dynahad "spent all day praying on his mite the Reds had cached in Patagonia, with the idea of blowing up these United States. Helen Wolf, a domestic in a rural Three physicians performed an Juniata county home, died in the autopsy and found death due to "an Three physicians performed an

These horoscope columns you read in the newspapers are most prothat the baby "must have been sub- found and far-reaching in their advice. Samples culled from last week's before its removal to a hospital. At advice to those born in October inthe same time, the jurors concluded clude: "Refrain from eating foods with a hot stove lid lifter "because I that the injuries "must have been that don't agree with you," and

> We pause to pay tribute to the memory of Midshipman Samuel R. Barrick to the inquest because the Noll, of Pleasant Gap, and to pon-"feeling there (at Mifflintown) was der briefly the workings of an inscrutable Fate which claimed him Barrick and her mother brought in the prime of a life full of great Miriam to Sunbury Hospital Irom promise. Noll was brilliant, likeable ambitious. He had nearly completed his third term at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis last fall when he was stricken Ill. An examination at that time revealed him to be suffering from a condition for which there is no known cure. Death was a matter of wait-Mountour County Juvenile ing, and although Noll for a time believed he would get well, he did not flinch when the truth became apparent to him. He faced death bravely, fearlessly-like all good soldiers. Although he died on the A 12-year-old Montour county threshold of his life's work, in the everlasting sermon to those of us

> The Centre County poor home, at Howard and Wilson streets, is going to be one of Bellefonte's outstand-Mrs. Paul Hartley, 39, told the ing buildings It will be clearly viscourt her only child, Savina, 12, thie from various parts of town, had "a spell cast over her" which and from present indications will was responsible for her poor health occupy approximately the same and the reason she has attended prominence from a distance as does

> One of the minor indoor sports in The girl's father, 49, a native of Bellefonte these days is the show-Hartley family in a one-story four- having showings are Martin Miller, and George E. McCleuan East Linn street, and Carl Johnson, West Penn Power Company employe, who resides at the Talley-

> Note to Chamber of Commerce: A prominent Bellefonte business man likens Beliefonte to a ship without a rudder. The town is going somewhere, but no one has the faintest idea where. There is no charted course. The prominent citizen suggests that the Chamber plan a future course for Bellefonte course. Such matters as extending definite policies to be followed in many lines of town activity should be charted. Finally, he said, political Freedom was short-lived for Wil- and business bickerings should be ast 17 of his 70 years behind prison as a whole. Individuals should forget that when some new proposal Wright escaped from Rockview is made it is not their first duty to

The campus "smoothle" may atonly should have been 21/2 to 5 tract the co-eds, a State College proyears. And Friday, the aged Wright fessor declares, but he'll be working came up in court at Pittsburgh on for the academic "grind" in the ciate professor of education and paystill owed time on a house-breaking miss the chance to acquire "social ease" and a knowledge of the types of women, he concluded.

Severed Ear Sewn On.

Gilbert R. Van Billiard, of Bethle later the ear was found and taken

Advertising-if you do fi-pays

By POP MOMAND

'KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES' - Costs Are Increasing

charge.

