OBITUARY

Mrs. Jennie McCauley Gibson, nathers and sisters.

JAMES A. SUMMERS

After a several months' illness with a complication of diseases, James A. Summers, for many years one of Bellefonte's most highly respected colored residents, died in a early Friday morning at his home Pittsburgh hospital, Monday of last at Greenburr following an illness week. Two years ago he left Bellefonte to make his home with a dent of Sugar Valley, he was a niece, Mrs. Blanche Crabble, at member of the Evangelical church. Pittsburgh. Mr. Summers was born Survivors are four children: S. N. in Maryland nearly 90 years ago Gharet, of Logan Mills; R. L. and came to Bellefonte as a young Gharet, of Mifflinburg; F. W. Gharman. For some years he was em- et, of State College, and Mrs. T. W. ployed by the late Governor and Weber, of Altoona; five grandchild-Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings, both of ren; two brothers and a sister, Mil-Bellefonte and Harrisburg, and ford Gharet, of Signet, O.; Charles upon their deaths found employ- Gharet, of Salona, R. D., and Mrs. ment in various homes and business Michael Miller, of Charlton. Funeral places in this community. During services were conducted at 10:30 a. his residence here he was an active m. Tuesday at the Evangelical member of the A. M. E. church and church by the Rev. Charles Wolfe, served in several official capacities of Wilkes-Barre. Interment was in the congregation. His wife Re- made in St. Paul's cemetery near becca Summers, passed away a Greenburr number of years ago. The sole survivor in the immediate family is Charles Summers, of Harrisburg. Funeral services were held in Pittsburgh last Wednesday afternoon, with interment in that city.

CLAYTON H, HECKMAN.

Clayton H. Heckman, of Willowbank Street, Bellefonte, well known retired farmer, died at the Centre County Hospital here at 3:55 o'clock Sunday afternoon after a lingering illness with heart trouble and comwhen he suffered an injury to his hip in a truck accident while employed on the Port Matilda-Waddle road. He had been a patient in the hospital for about one month. Mr. Heckman was a son of Daniel and Blazing Arrow Hook and Ladder Susan Reeser Heckman and was Company born in Centre County on February 19, 1873, making his age at time of death 66 years and 23 days. He was united in marriage with Elizabeth Simco, died at the family home in Henderson, who survives with a son Spring township, along the Jackson-and two daughters, namely: F. O. Spring township, along the Jackson-and two daughters, namely: F. O. wills road near Reliefonts at 7:30 Heckman, and Mrs. William Howard, o'clock Saturday evening from the both of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Thomas effects of a stroke suffered Thursday P. Geary, of Upper Darby. Also sur- of last week. Mrs. Simco was a viving are three sisters: Mrs. J. F. Jones, of Turtle Creek, Mrs. Mattle dry, and was born in Austria on John D. and Mary Hand McGirk. Beezer, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. C. June 3, 1886, making her age at time He with his father built and explored al services were held yesterday afterpoon from the home on Willowbank States at the age of 19 years, and in years he was one of the leading play-three days with pneumonia. She Thompson, paster of the Bellefonte
Presbyterian church, officiating Interment was made in the Union

Ludick, Mrs. Catherine Shaffer and to use the K-ray for diognostic pur
Ludick, Mrs. Catherine Shaffer and to use the K-ray for diognostic pur
John and Alice Mayes Shirts in the cemetery. For many years Mr. Charles Simco, all of Bellefonte, and poses. He was one of the early Valley, and upon his retirement from that occupation in April 1921 his Frank Simco, all at home. Funeral logical Society and continued his in 1881 was married to Reuben D. that occupation in April 1921 his son, Fred O. Heckman, took charge from St. John's Catholic church. He was elected a Fellow of the farm. He was a member of the farm. He was a member of the farm. He was a member of the farm. He was elected a Fellow of the marriage she spent her life on the Bellefonte. In charge of the Rev. American College of Surgeons in October 1912. After the her able equipment and furnishings at the Presbyterian church Bellefonte. In charge of the Rev. American College of Surgeons in October 1912. After the her able equipment and furnishings at the presbyterian church Bellefonte. In charge of the Rev. American College of Surgeons in October 1912. After the her able equipment and furnishings at the presbyterian church and furnishings at the presbyterian church. He was a residue with the following the college of Surgeons in October 1912. After the her able equipment and furnishings at the presbyterian church. He was a residue with the following the college of Surgeons in October 1912. After the her able equipment and furnishings at the presbyterian church a the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte. In charge of the Rev. American College of Surgeons in Ocfarm where she was residing with rental price of $25 per month. No was widely known and was held in the presbyterian church, Bellefonte. In charge of the Rev. American College of Surgeons in Ocfarm where she was residing with rental price of $25 per month. No
was widely known and was held in the presbyterian church, Bellefonte. In charge of the Rev. American College of Surgeons in Ocfarm where she was residing with rental price of $25 per month. No was widely known and was held in high regard throughout this area.

WILLIAM F. ASKEY.

William F. Askey, 89. of Karthaus. Daniel F. Funk, well known resione of the oldest residents of the dent of Port Matilda, died suddenly Karthaus region, died Friday after- at his home there at 7 o'clock Satdaughter, Mrs. James Hugar, at and of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Ty-Keewaydin on Monday afternoon. rone.

SUGAR

CRISCO

MATCHES

KIDNEY BEANS

PORK & BEANS

PURE EGG NOODLES

GRAHAM CRACKERS

BEECH NUT COFFEE

GOLDEN BANTAM CORN

LARGE COBBLER POTATOES

GRAPEFRUIT JUICE

24 LB BAG FLOUR

SHREDDED RALSTON

BEECHNUT SPAGHETTI

YELLOW LAUNDRY SOAP

PALMOLIVE SOAP

10c LUX FLAKES

TOMATOES

AMMONIA

MACARONI

SPAGHETTI

CATSUP

5c TOILET PAPER

MILK

Adie Gibson, of State College, died ver Hockenberry, of near Curtin, vania State College in 1914. Memat 8:15 o'clock Saturday morning at died at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morn- bers of the family include his paron November 14. 1863. She is sur- and several brothers and sisters, the vived by her husband, Samuel C. Funeral services were held yester-Gibson, seven children and five bro- day afternoon from the home, with the Rev. J. B. Mays, pastor of the Bellefonte Evangelical church officiating. Interment was made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

WILLIAM H. GHARET

William Harvey Gharet, 82, died with complications. A lifelong resi-

MRS. MARY A. NEFF

Mrs Mary Alma Neff wife of Robert M. Neff. of Tyrone, died at her home on Sunday afternoon at 2:50 o'clock following an illness of three years. Mrs. Neff was a daughter of Henry and Marietta Daugh enbaugh and was born at Howard. Centre county, on January 28, 1867 She had been a resident of Tyrone for the past 47 years. Surviving are her husband and two sons: Ernest E. Neff, Altoona, and William H. plications. He had been in failing Neff, Cleveland, Ohio. She is also health since about four years ago survived by eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church, the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Ladies' Auxiliary to the

MRS. ANDREW SIMCO.

Mrs. Annie Simco, wife of Andrew daughter of Samuel and Mary Munof death 52 years, 9 months and 8 services were held Tuesday morning

DANIEL F. FUNK.

noon, March 10. about four o'clock urday night, of a heart attack. Mr. of ailments incident to his advanced Funk had apparently been in his age. He had been blind for over a usual health and was in the act of year. Mr. Askey was born in Pot- changing clothes when he was tersdale and resided in Karthaus and stricken. Death was almost instanthat region all his life. He was aged taneous. He had been unemployed 89 years, 8 months and 6 days. Sur- since four years ago when he reviving, along with his wife, who was linquished his position with the the former Miss Catherine Gross, of State Highway Department. Mr. Keewaydin, are eight sons and Funk was a son of Martin and Radaughters, as follows: Mrs. A. X. chael Prantz Funk and was born on Kennedy, Tyrone; Mrs. Dortha Rou- June 23, 1884, making his age at sey, Clearfield; David Askey, White time of death 54 years 8 months and Plains, N. Y.; Lemuel Askey, Wil- 18 days, On May 20, 1913 he was liamsport; Roy Askey, Karthaus; united in marriage with Maggle E. Mrs. James Hugar, Keewaydin; Mrs. Crain, who survives with two daugh-William B. Michaels, Grassflat; Fos-ters: Mrs. Mable Prve. of Port Mater Askey, Grassflat. A sister and a tilda, and Miss Dorothy Funk, at brother, Mrs. Mary Black, of Re- home. Also surviving are two novo, and Robert Askey, of Pine brothers and two sisters: John and Glen, also survive. In his early life Zeek Funk, and Mrs. Mary Miller Mr. Askey was a woodsman and and Mrs. Elsie Williams, all of Tyraftsman by occupation when lum- rone. Funeral services were held bering was an industry of great mag- on Tuesday afternoon from the nitude in that region. He was a home, with the Rev. D. A. Sowers. member of the Church of Christ at officiating. Interment was made in Karthaus and one of the grand old the Port Matilda cemetery. Mr. gentlemen of that section Funeral Funk was a member of the Port Maservices were held at the home of a tilda Methodist Episcopal church

10 lb 47c

7 for 25c

10 lge cans 59c

6 5c boxes 19c

4 No. 2 cans 25c

2 1-lb bags 25c

3 1-lb boxes 25c

4 No. 2 cans 25c

3 No. 2 cans 22c

100-lb bag $1.29

3 lge bottles 25c

3 lge cans 29c

qt bottle 9c

4 cakes 15c

2 for 15c

3 cans 17c

cake 2c

3 lb 13c

3 lb 13c

box 10c

3 lge cans 25c

3 lb can 45c

lb can 23c

FINAL CLOSE-OUT SALE

GEO. PIFER STORE-Milesburg

FRIDAY & SATURDAY-MARCH 17, 18

Everything Must Go Regardless of Price!

Fixtures for Sale.

FOSTER W. SMITH

former Nell Ertley of State College, church at Axemann. Funeral serdied at his home in Hollidaysburg at 10:45 o'clock last Thursday night (Orr) Smith, now of Bethlehem, he Gap, and the Rev. C. C. Shuey, of in lifting burdens of others where-PHILIP CLAIR HOCKENBERRY crived his early education at the was made in the Pleasant Gap in the work of a minister's wife, she Philip Clair Hockenberry, aged 7 Moravian Preparatory school, Beth- cemetery. tive of Blair county and mother of weeks, son of Harry and Laura Sto- lehem, and graduated from Pennsyl-

MRS. GEORGE J. HOUTZ

Mrs. Sarah A. Houtz, wife of Island, N. Y. George J. Houtz, of Lemont, died at the Centre County Hospital at 12:25 o'clock Sunday afternoon after a Houserville cemetery.

MRS. EDWARD FREDERICKS

terment in that city.

DR. CHARLES E. McGIRK.

Dr. life-long awsident of Philipsburg, the American Legion. died last Wednesday morning at the McGirk Sanitarium. He was born September 17, 1869, the son of Dr. John D. and Mary Hand McGirk. ped the McGirk Sanitarium where days. She came to the United he devoted himself to surgery. For 1907 was united in marriage with sicians and surgeons of Pennsylvament was made in the Catholic of the organization in Philipsburg. her son at the time of her death.

Mrs. Ardery was an active member and August when the schools are cemetery.

He was a life-long member of the of the Baptist church at Martha closed.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, where she spent nearly half a cen-Fraternity. He is survived by his wife, Rose Milliken McGirk, an only neral services and interment were held Friday afternoon.

FRED F. SMITH

Following an illness of six weeks. Brown's cemetery. he death of Fred F. Smith, 79, occurred at his home at Cold Stream. Friday morning. He suffered an attack of grippe, with pneumonia developing, and that and a heart condition were attributed as the cause of his death. On October 13, 1859, Mr. Smith was born at Snow Shoe, a son of Peter and Catherine (Viehdorfer) Smith, and when he was one year old the family moved to the present location, which remained his home up to the time of his death. The marriage of Mr. Smith and Miss Bertha Shimmel took place in Philipsburg on November 20, 1883. To this union ten children were born, all of whom survive, as follows: Charles C. H. Stanley, Roy, Anna Mary, wife of C. E. Barall of San Antonio, Texas; Clarence F., of Warren, Pa.; Barbara, wife of Fred Klett; Elizabeth, widow of W. D. Swartz: Florence wife of Robert Thompson; Max E., wife of James and Mideline. Knowles, all of Philipsburg. Mr. Smith was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church and Moshannon Grange. He followed farming, but retired from active work about twelve years ago. Few residents have record, such as Mr. Smith, that of residing seventy-eight years continuously on the same location. He was held in highest esteem.

GEORGE R. HUGHES

George R. Hughes, of Axemann dled at 12:45 o'clock Thursday morning of last week at the Centre County Hospital after a several months' illness with a complication of diseases. Mr. Hughes had been confined to bed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Nighthart, of East Bishop street, Bellefonte for the past 16 weeks, and on Friday. March 3, his 84th birthday, underwent an operation at the local nospital for the removal of his left leg. He was a son of James and Mary Jane Rhoads Hughes and was born near Lemont on March 3. 1855. He spent most of his life at Axemann where he worked in the axe factory for a number of years. Later he was employed at the Valentine Furnace, and when that industry went out of business he entered the employ of Whiterock Quarries. Surviving are his wife, the former Sarah Elizabeth Wian, of Bellefonte, and three children: Mrs Nighthart, Bellefonte; Mrs. Jacob Miller, of Yeagertown, and Charles Hughes, of Altoona, Also surviving are a brother and a sister: Harry, of Yeagertown, and Mrs. William

Hoover, of Mingoville. Mr. Hughes Foster W. Smith, husband of the was a member of the Methodist

MRS. DAVID JEFFREY

the family home at Whenwood, ing at his parental home after an ents, his wife, and four children: mother of William Jeffrey, Penn for each day, grace for the trials, near Altoona. She was a daughter illness with a disease common to in- James E., of Pittsburgh; Richard E., State soccer coach, died in an Edin- help from above, unfailing symof Thomas B. and Martha Reese fancy. He was born on January 11, Peggy Jane and Robert H., all at burgh, Scotland, hospital Tuesday, pathy as she found it, and to the McCauley, and was born at Juniata this year. Surviving are the parents home. Mr. Smith was a member of Mrs. Jeffrey is survived by her hus-Hollidaysburg Presbyterian band, David Jeffrey, two sons, Fred. burg, and one daughter, Mrs. Mar- Now, There'll be One Less At Home. garet Rutherford, of Rosedale, Long Yes, the family circle broken—a at home, and William, of Boals-

MRS. BELL M. WEISS

several months' iliness with a com- les T. Weiss, of Newark, N. J., and Sabbath spends there her first Sabplication of diseases. A daughter of a native of Centre county, died at bath in heaven, and the coming Ira and Anna Wertz Lyle, Mrs. the home of her daughters, Mrs. Easter Crowning Joy with the Houtz was born at Houserville on Andrew P. King and Mrs. William Christ who made November 10, 1873, making her age Adams, of East Orange, N. J., Mon- sure for all who believe. He is The at time of death 65 years, 4 months day afternoon. Born May 8, 1872, in King of kings, now victorious ove and 2 days. About 40 years ago she Hublersburg, Centre county, she was sin and death was united in marriage with George a daughter of Daniel D. and Eliza-J. Houtz, who survives. Also sur- beth (Lander) McKean, Mrs. Weiss viving are these brothers and sis- resided for many years in Altoona, ters: John and Alfred Lyle, of State then for ten years in Florida prior College; Emanuel Lyle, of Washing- to locating in East Orange in April ton state; Mrs. Russell Schreffler, 1938. Members of the family include of Lemont, and Mrs. Annie Rosen- her husband, two daughters, one berger, of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Houtz grandson and one sister, Mrs. Anna was a member of the Houserville Garth, of Altoona, the latter now United Brethren church. Funeral the last surviving member of a services were held yesterday after- family of 11 children. While in Flornoon at the Houserville church, ida Mrs. Weiss was a member of the and interment was made in the First Presbyterian church of St. Petersburg

CHARLES G. GETZ.

Mrs. Nellie Brown Fredericks, wife Charles G. Getz, of East Prospect loving Mother has gone of Edward Fredericks of Williams- avenue, State College, a World War Asport, and a native of Penns' Valley, veteran, died at 6:50 o'clock Mondied at her home in Williamsport day night at the Philipsburg State Friday afternoon from the effects Hospital, after an illness with a of a succession of three strokes, the complication of diseases. He had first of which occurred about a been admitted to the Hospital the year ago. Mrs. Fredericks was about previous day. Mr. Getz, formerly a years of age. Her husband was member of the Boal Troop at Boalsformerly a resident of Bellefonte, burg, left with that organization where he was employed at the old when it answered the call to the Nittany Furnace. She was quite well colors during the last war. He was locally through frequent a son of John and Alice Tressler visits with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Getz and was born at Lemont on William Fredericks, of South Alle- June 29, 1882, making his age at gheny street. Bellefonte. Surviving, time of death 56 years, 8 months in addition to the husband, are and 14 days. He was united in marthree sisters and a brother, namely; rlage with Susan Wellar, who sur-Mrs. C. A. Reed. Mrs. R. E. Frey vives with one brother and one sis-and N. P. Brown, all of Williams- ter, namely: David Getz, of Altoona. and Miss Elsie Brown, of and Mrs. George Hutton, of Platts, Newark, N. J. Funeral services were mouth, Neb. Funeral services will held from the home in Williams-port, Monday ufternoon, with in-terment in that city.

be held at 2 o'clock this Thursday afternoon from the home, in charge of the Rev. H. F. Babcock of State College. Interment will be made in the Boalsburg cemetery, Mr. Getz was a tinsmith by occupation, but Charles Edward McGirk, had not worked at that trade since for and George Carpeneto, prominent physician-surgeon and August 1931. He was a member of

MRS. ALLA L. ARDERY. Mrs. Alla L. Ardery, life-long resident of Huston tewnship, died at the home of her son, G. E. Ardery, at Martha Furnace, Tuesday morning spent her early years teaching in the in 1881 was married to Reuben D. and like his father was a member tury teaching a Bible class. Surthe Academy are now open for use, children and 16 great-grandchildren. ing, Mr. Stock declared. Puneral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock by her for a special election, April 18, for fonte. Interment will be made in the construction of a new school,

> MRS. BELLE M. MATTERN (Contributed)

Mrs. Belle M. Mattern, wife of the late Rev. J. A. Mattern, died at her home March 6th, 1939, after much, and long years of suffering principally caused by blindness.
During these years of blindness until her death-truly could she with John Greenleaf Whittier say: "THY WILL BE DONE"

We see not, know not: all my way Is night-with Thee alone is day: From out the torrent's troubled

Above the storm my prayers I lift. Thy will be done She took with meek solemn daily endurance Her blind burden up, nor ask it less-if must be

There's

A ROOF OVER YOUR HEAD

ONCE

J M ROOFING Costs as little as

$10.00 per month

We arrange the financing thru FHA

CLASTERS'

release for Thee. Whose will be done.

Mrs. Belle Gray Mattern was a vices were held Sunday afternoon rare, sweet character throughout from the Nighthart residence, with her life from childhood, and dur-A son of George Emory and Grace the Rev. B. F. Henry, of Pleasant ing the years of her matured life was born in Bedford county. He re- Bellefonte, officiating. Interment ever oppressed, and the discouraged well knew God hath not promised skies always blue, or flower strewn pathways to us all our lives through Mrs. Margaret Johnston Jeffrey, but, God hath promised strength

Undying Love of The Father. dear face missed day by day from its accustomed place, but cleansed and saved, and perfected by heaven's grace.-One more in Heaven. Mrs. Bell M. Weiss, wife of Char- What will her joy be when she next

Mrs. Mattern leaves one daughter -two preceded her-and two sons also two sisters. Mrs. Mathew A Eler, of Philipsburg, Pa., and Mr. Rev. William K. Foster, of The Del mar-Morris, Germantown, Philadel-

Her weary-worn body is being laid in her family burial lot in the beautiful Grays cemetery near her homestead where are gathered in the many of the noble of that section awaiting the glad morning of The Second Coming of Our Christ Dear children weep not that your

"Now the laborer's task is o'er; Now the blind days are past; Now upon the farther shore Lands the voyager at last. Father in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now Thy servant sleep-

There the tears of earth are dried, There the hidden things are

There the work of life is tried By a juster judge than here. In loving memory of your sister, Agnes Gray.

(Mrs. Wm. K. Foster)

School Returns To Routine Basis

(Continued from page one)

school is located. At the recommendation of Fire Marshal Philip Sayfire extinguishers, of the acid type. have been placed at strategic points in the buildings. Three fire drills have been held to date, and the buildings are evacuated with a minimum of time and confusion, the official said.

Because the only fire warning available at present is a series of short signals on the same bells which mark the beginning and end- of Miss Ebert, teacher, who is again tutions Miss Mattern attended; 1861, making her age at time of ling of chass periods, the Board indeath 78 years. Her parents were death 78 years. Her parents were dicated that an inexpensive system, Fred Fisher is serving as substitute. Seminary of Williamsport, Susqueto be used only for fire alarms, may The petition of the Bellefonte hanna College of Music in Clear-her son at the time of her death, charge is to be made during July ig are four sons: G. E. Ardery of and the WPA matron service pro-Martha, Russell Ardery of Clearfield, ject, which began several months sen. John D. McGirk, and one Ellis Ardery of Bellwood, and Howago, is proving quite valuable ungrandson, John D. McGirk H. Fu-children and 16 areas, are related to the emergency conditions exist-With the preparations under way > pastor, Rev. A. G. Herr, of Belle- approval of a $50,000 bond issue for the Board, at Monday's meeting, declared that no further action is possible until the results of the elecon have been determined. Matters of site, cost, type of build-ng and other factors depend largeupon what money will be avail able for the new building, and what aid may be granted by the Pedera and State governments. Until these things have been determined no definite action will be possible, it was stated.

Upon the advice of the Department of Labor and Industry, the Board is to Instruct its architect. Hunter & Caldwell, of Altoona, to examine the walls of the burned building to determine whether or not they have been damaged beyond further use. The architects are to submit a written report to the

Because of additional janitorial duties necessary at the Academy To suffer, serve, and wait for its property, the Board retained Thomus Morgan, former high school janitor who was retired some time ago. to serve on a part-time basis, temporarily. His wage was fixed at $25 per month. Keeping the walks and drives clear of snow, and later the care of the Academy lawn requires extra help, it was reported. Mr Morgan was employed on a month to month basis, which can be tercominated at any time.

The Board heard the reading of deluge of letters, most of them rising from the fire. In the lot were letters from the Logan and Undine Fire Companies of Belle-fonte, the Picasant Gap Fire Company and the Alpha Fire Company State College, thanking the board for the contributions of $25 each for their services during the fire. The Alpha Company returned its $25 check with instructions to the board to use it in reconstruction work. Letters of sympathy to the board in the loss of the building were received from the State College Borough Council, the President of the Altoona School District, and James R. Gilligan, superintendent Hartman Wreckers, of Altoona of schools at Dunmore, former instructor in the local schools. and Max Fisher, of Williamsport asked permission to bid on the demolition of the building. Mr. und Mrs. S. F. Ripka, of South Water street, wrote to warn the board against dumping ashes or rubbish on their property at the rear of the Academy building. The Wallace Construction Company, of Akron. through Donald C. Wallace, a for-

Bellefonte resident, wrote

BELLEFONTE MERCHANTS EXPOSITION

BELLEFONTE Y. M. C. A. Wed., Thurs., Fri. March 22, 23, 24

The following members of the Retail Division of the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce offer the people of Bellefonte and vicin-

A. & P. Stores Bfte. Milk Products Co. Brown's Boot Shops Brachbill's Furniture Bottorf Bros. Shoes Central Pa. Gas Co. City Bakery County Chevrolet Co.

Davidson's Candy Shop DeHaas Electric Co. Electric Supply Co. Goldman Foods Hoag's Dairy Store Hazel & Co. Lintz Ladies' Shop G. C. Murphy Co. Woodring's Floral Gardens

Poorman Garage Parrish Drug Store Hubert Rossman Schaeffer Hardware Shaffer Stores Wolf Furniture Co. White Bros. Drug Store Yeager Shoe Store

Doors Open at 7:30 P. M.

Entertainment at 9:00 P. M.

ity, a Pre-View of Their 1939 Merchandise.

Admission 15c

Style Show at 8:15 P. M.

Music by the "Keystonairs" ecommend an Akron architect in tention of the present location as burg, Bucknell University, considering any new construction, the site of any new building was graduate work at Columbia Univer-The Rev. G. E. Householder, pastor read, and was tabled for future refof the Bellefonte U. B. church, of- erence. fered the use of the church build- The Board approved changes in taught school at Clearfield, Greening in case it is needed for school the teachers' tenure act as suggest- wich and Rutherford, N. J., Juniata purposes, and C. C. Collins & Co., ed by the State School Directors' High school and Cheltenham High reminded the Board of its bond ser- Association. Mr. Stock was granted school in Elkins Park. She was

In the Supervising Principal's report, it was brought out that one of Week activities in Philadelphia, and the sanding machines in the manual the Board went on record as guartraining department has worn out and that one of the large wheels on the bandsaw has broken. Mr. Stock reported that the Board's luck was evidently still holding good, for when the rapidly revolving wheel broke, pieces of iron were thrown about with great force, but no one was injured. An examination of the broken parts revealed that the wheel had evidently contained some flaws plies committee was authorized to to purchase a sanding machine.

The board passed a resolution of next week to attend Schoolmen's anteeing a deficit of $150 in the Bellefonte High school athletic fund.

ISABEL G. MATTERN DIES

Miss Isabel Gray Mattern of Halfnoon, died at 6:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte. She was a daughter of Mrs. Bella M. Mattern which caused the mishap. The sup- Mattern was a talented musician who died Monday of last week. Misand an accomplished painter. While purchase a replacement, and also teaching in Tyrone she formed the high school orchestra of which Tom and Fred Waring were members sympathy and good wishes in behalf Following are the educational insti-Woman's Club asking for the re- field, Irving College of Mechanics- country 1,069 sires were not prove sity, five summer sessions at the Pennsylvania State College. She school in Elkins Park. She was a a leave of absence for several days faculty member of the Tyrone schools for 16 years. Miss Mattern was a daughter of the late Rev. John A. and Bella Gray Mattern. Surviving brothers are Eugene, at home, and Harold C., of New York City. She was affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal church Puner-al services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Koch Funeral Home, State College, with Rev. J. Wallace Cummings officiating. Interment will be made in Gray's cemetery, Halfmoon Valley,

94 Herd Sires Proved

Ninety-four sires used in herds of members of Pennsylvania dairy herd improvemnt association were proved during 1938, according to R. H. Olmstead, head of dairy husbandry extension at the Pennsylvania State College. In the entire

AT TURNERS

Ladies' Blouses Beautifully made, zipper front Colors white, pink, blue.

All sizes 39c

Ladies' Aprons

15c White Sheets 72x90-Special at

44c ea. PART Linen Towels

Table Cloths 25c ea.

Boys Dress Shirts

5c ea.

39c Boys' Golf Hose 15c pr.

We Have Just Received a Beau-tiful Assortment of Women's House Dresses

Charming frocks of fast color percale, daintily trimmed, and what a bargain at

39c

Men's and Boys' Athletic Shirts and Shorts

Swiss ribbed shirts and broad-cloth shorts. All sizes. 20c ea.

Men's Dress and

Work Pants $1.00

A Remarkable Value! CHILDREN'S

DRESSES

On sale at-66c

Regular $1.00 value. You can

79c Congoleum Rugs

Ladies' Finest Quality

Rayon Panties

Regular 25c value!

10c

Ladies' Rayon

Taffeta Slips

29c ea.

Cotton and Rayon

Bed Spreads

Regular $1.29 value !

27x54. While they last 19c ea.

Table Cloths

51x51. Real Hudson Cloths. 49c ea.

Men's Heavy Dungaree Pants 79c

Chocolate Drops 10c lb

SHOP AND SAVE AT TURNERS! OUTSTANDING VALUES IN ALL DEPARTMENTS!

Fresh Ast. Cakes 10c lb

Men's TIES

10c ea.

TEMPLE COURT BUILDING.

MEN'S. WORK OR Dress Sox 10c pr.