

SPRING MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Raucou of Bellefonte and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shultz and three bright little boys, Clark, Robert and Dennis were visiting friends in town last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dukeman of Clearfield, spent part of a day visiting friends in town.

Randall Meyer and family moved into the home he bought recently from S. L. Condo.

The Nation Wide Grocery, was recently taken over by the Better Stores Chain Corporation and is under new management. C. E. Ziegler, who operated the Nation Wide Grocery, for three years is contemplating a trip through the Western States and Canada this Summer. The Better Stores, will have a formal opening in the near future.

A goodly number of the Spring Mills Townsend Club, attended a Club meeting at Rebersburg, on Monday evening, C. L. Nonemaker, of Altoona, was the speaker.

Harry A. Corman, moved to town last week, while he still expects to superintend his farming activities west of town.

The Gregg Township Civic Club will have their monthly business meeting, also family night sponsored by the Club, on Wednesday evening the 12th, inst. in the Municipal building with a surprise program, every family in Gregg Township is very cordially invited to participate in a social evening. Admission free.

Mr. and Mrs. Albin Jacobson, of State College, moved to our town on Monday. Mr. Jacobson, is employed at the State College Hotel.

Miss Mildred Lundy, of Williamsport, was a guest at the C. E. Ziegler home on Monday.

The Sheffield Farms Co. Inc., have recently made very extensive improvements to their plant here in town.

Mrs. Lulu Brungard, visited her mother in Williamsport, on Sunday.

KENNEDY

William Watkins and family of Jacksonville were recent callers at the Irvin Watkins home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McCartney of Milesburg called in our vicinity on Sunday p. m.

The sick in our community are all reported better at this writing. William and Joseph Leathers, also Fount McCartney left Friday for a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mr. Mullender of Wallaceport visited a few days at the Joseph Leathers home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leathers and daughter Alice called at the Bryan home Sunday evening.

A program of Easter music will be presented by the young people at the Kennedy M. E. church on Easter evening at 7:30 p. m. This will be followed by congregational singing of Easter music the public is cordially invited. A silver offering will be taken.

BENNER TWP.

Shops saw mill that has been here sawing out the timber in Dr. John Clark's woods for about two weeks has a nice pile of lumber all ready sawed out.

Charley Smith spent Saturday evening very pleasantly at Red Root with friends and returned home Sunday.

Wilbur Orndorf's family and Mrs. Orndorf's sister Thelma Kilne, spent Saturday evening at Hubbersburg at the home with the Calvin Young family.

Mrs. Ira Benner and Marie Benner spent Sunday afternoon at State College with relatives and friends.

Ed Marshall and wife, returned to Shiloh on Saturday to help Bob Walters to move to Houersville.

Blaine Benner moved this week from the Florence Brennan farm here at Rock to the West Tate farm at Pleasant Gap; George Spicer moved to where Benner vacated; Dewey McConnell moved from the Gummo farm to Bellefonte; George Schenck moved from Buggersburg to the Gummo farm; Russell Glasgow moved from here to his property he bought to Woody Crest near State College; William Spotts moved from Bald Eagle to the William Ishler farm; Bob Walters moved from the Walters farm at Shiloh to the William Emehizer farm at Houersville which he bought; William Bucherhart from Philadelphia to the late Henry Walters farm where Bob Walters vacated; Marvin Lee from the Eminhizer farm at Lemont.

June and Lloyd Rhoades from Curtin visited at the home of Ira Benner on Friday. In the evening they with the Benner family all attended the dance held at the home of Lester and Fred Marshall.

School children have been suffering severe colds and sore throat on account of the changeable rainy, cold weather.

Fred and Lester Marshall's sale was largely attended on Wednesday.

William Saxton Jr., has bought a new John Deere tractor and plows from Mr. Beckwith, agent, to do his farming this summer.

Vincent Speary's health is not improving very fast. He has been on the sick list for some time.

We have been told that the Elizabeth Herkimer farm where Vincent Speary now lives is for sale also the William Ishler farm and the Lewis Marshall farm and the J. W. Clark farm, are all for sale, all situated here at Rock.

The birthday dance held at the home of Lester and Fred Marshall on Friday evening in honor of their nephew, William Shuey's birthday, was largely attended and every person present enjoyed the evening along with William Shuey, and wishing him to live to enjoy many more such happy events.

The Tramble brothers from Bellefonte furnished the music for the occasion.

VALLEY VIEW
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Breen, Betty, Thelma and Elma Wion, spent Sunday with Cyrus Wion in the OCC camp of Coburn.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Miles Houser were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Houser and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Houser and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Houser.

Mrs. Milford Cox spent Sunday with Mrs. Roy Lomison.

Mrs. Ed Houser helped her daughter, Mrs. Fred Ishler move from Zion to Centre Hall.

PLEASANT HILL

Miss Arlene Crust of State College, spent Wednesday of last week at her parental home J. Earl Crust.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnstonbaugh and little daughter Shirley Louise, of Valley View spent last week at his parental home, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnstonbaugh, also John Johnstonbaugh and wife have been staying at the same home since their marriage which took place on the 27th of February, until they went to housekeeping on the 30th of March.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Horner have moved into their new home at Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnstonbaugh and daughter Shirley motored Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnstonbaugh and daughters Gladys and Grace to Lock Haven where they were shoppers.

Allen Wolford has been staying with relatives near State College while going to school.

Clair Burd of near Milesburg, visited at the John Johnstonbaugh home on Saturday evening.

Miss Betty Speary is staying with her grandmother Mrs. Florence Brennen while going to school in State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnstonbaugh were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnstonbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Johnstonbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson and son Dale, Mrs. O. A. Johnson, Mrs. Clayton Korman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Speary, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wolford and son Homer. The young folks were: Gladys Johnstonbaugh, Arlene Houser, Grace Johnstonbaugh, Kathleen Hillard, Verna Houser, Leoda Johnstonbaugh, Gertrude Baldwin, Eunice Wolford, Betty Johnstonbaugh, Beverly Rocky, Mary Wolford, Phyllis Rocky, Margaret Korman, Savilla Korman and Marceline Johnstonbaugh, John Friedline, Kenneth Garner, Cecil Rockley, Paul Johnstonbaugh, William Speary, Clair Burd, Nelson Wolford, Philip Wolford, Lee Lutz, Forrest Young and Ralph Korman, Junior Garner and Carl Rocky.

The evening was spent in playing games, a late supper, and refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, cake, pickles and ice cream. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received. All left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Johnstonbaugh many years of happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burd of Centre City visited at the Edith Burd home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fetzer and daughter called at the Lloyd Smith home on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter Anne, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley were callers on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Switzer in Bellefonte.

Monroe Burd spent the weekend at the E. M. Burd home.

The Callthumpans gathered at the Albert Young home on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McCloskey who were married recently.

Mrs. Edith Burd visited relatives at Runville on Sunday.

Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Milesburg spent Saturday afternoon at the Orvis Watson home.

Mrs. M. C. Reese of Gum Stump spent Tuesday of last week with friends at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fitzgerald and family were Sunday guests at the Roy Fetzer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poorman and niece were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelley and family at Howard.

SUMMIT HILL
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yeager and daughter of Orviston called on Sunday at the Calvin Yeager home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Tierney and daughter of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the James Watkins home.

Martha Young took dinner on Sunday with Mrs. John Warr.

Sunday visitors at the Irvin Young home were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herd of Orviston, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boone and son Manley of Howard.

Betty Young visited over the week end with her sister, Mrs. Walter Boone of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chapman and daughter Janet, and Grace Young called on Mrs. William Lehman at Curtin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Berry and family of Lock Haven spent Sunday at the Ben Chapman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young and family of Holts Hollow spent Sunday at the Curt Kessinger home.

Esther and Dorothy Yeager spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Yeager.

Mrs. Harvey Weaver and Mrs. Charlie Singer took supper at the James Nymen Jr., home on Sunday.

Mrs. Daisy Watkins and daughter Geraldine, spent Sunday night and Monday at the Jeff Tierney home in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warr called at the James Nymen Jr., home on Tuesday afternoon.

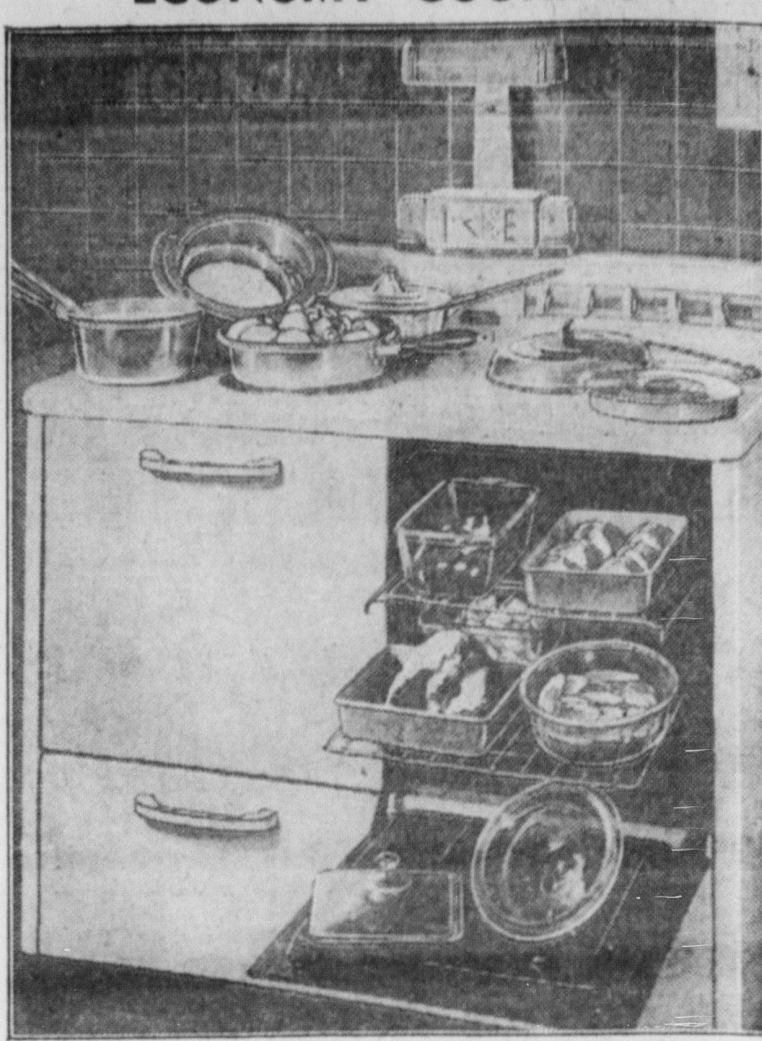

Callers at the Fred Watkins home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of Orviston, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Packer, of Mill Hall, Mr. Harold Miller and son Terry, Mr. and Mrs. John Frank and daughter Margaret of Flemington, Raymond Bennett and Mrs. Lulu Ealy of Watsonstown; Mrs. Walter Mann of Howard; Mrs. Samuel Turner of Bellefonte and Mrs. Harry Woomer of Marsh Creek.

Harry Woomer spent Sunday at the Curt Yeager home.

Sunday school at 9:30 followed by preaching; Y. P. M. at 7:30 followed by preaching, every one is invited.

Trade is free in the United States but the idea doesn't carry much weight in international commerce.

ECONOMY COOKING

Of course you wouldn't cook three meals at one time on one range—but Mrs. Dorothy Bathgate does at the Centre Democrat Cooking School. However, she has a reason—to show the housewives of Bellefonte just how economical this quantity of food can be prepared by modern electric cookery. Be sure to see this interesting demonstration and the many other helpful hints for using kitchen equipment.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mrs. J. F. McCartney, Mrs. Earl Runkle of Mt. Eagle, Mrs. Agnes Shawley and daughter of Central City, Minnie Reese of Gum Stump were recent visitors at the Leathers home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas assisted Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox and family in moving from Bellefonte to Milesburg on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley of Clearfield, spent the weekend with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas called at the Ira Lucas home at Pleasant Gap on Sunday, also called at the Walter Switzer home in Bellefonte, other visitors at the Switzer home were Mrs. M. C. Reese and three daughters of Gum Stump, William Howell of Runville, Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson and family, Nevin Watson is improving at the Switzer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burd of Centre City visited at the Edith Burd home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fetzer and daughter called at the Lloyd Smith home on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter Anne, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley were callers on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Switzer in Bellefonte.

Monroe Burd spent the weekend at the E. M. Burd home.

The Callthumpans gathered at the Albert Young home on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McCloskey who were married recently.

Mrs. Edith Burd visited relatives at Runville on Sunday.

Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Milesburg spent Saturday afternoon at the Orvis Watson home.

Mrs. M. C. Reese of Gum Stump spent Tuesday of last week with friends at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fitzgerald and family were Sunday guests at the Roy Fetzer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poorman and niece were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelley and family at Howard.

FILLMORE

There was a chicken and waffle supper at the George Hoover home on Tuesday evening of last week for his birthday. Quite a number of friends were present.

There have been quite a few movements around here the past week; Morris Garner moved from the Johnstonbaugh place to one of the Coles farms; John Johnstonbaugh moved into the place vacated; Roy Breen moved from the Kephart farm to a place near Valley View, and James Hoover moved into the place vacated; Howard Neff moved on Monday of this week from the Brockerhoff farm at the mountain to a place near Houersville, and Blaine Brenner moved from Mrs. Brennan's farm to the Tate farm near Pleasant Gap, and Mr. Spicer from Stockton moved into the place vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Guyer Taylor took their baby to the hospital one day last week. It is somewhat better at this writing. Mrs. J. E. Taylor has also been ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huey of Juniata spent the weekend at the Prax Hill home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smeitser and son Dick, and Mr. and Mrs. Dora Smeitser visited at the Bernard Crust home Saturday evening.

Mrs. H. C. Huey has gone to State College to spend a couple of days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Koons and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atcheson and son Charles visited at the W. D. Marshall home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huey and Mrs. Frank Hull and son Leonard, visited at the Gordon Huey home near Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Speary visited with his father John Speary of Bush Addition on Sunday evening.

ZION

Sorry to note the death of Mrs. William Smith who expired at 4:30 Tuesday a. m. at her home. Funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Miss Eva Harter is visiting her sister, Mrs. Merrill Witherite and family below Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hookman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Owens motored to Vicksburg Sunday where they spent Sunday evening with Mr. Owens father.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick, Mrs. Sharer called Sunday at the Jacob Sharer home at Centre Hall. Mr. Sharer has not been enjoying the good health his many friends would have him enjoy.

The young people of the community held their monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the form of a progressive meeting they were entertained at the Penrod, Shaffer and Stover homes.

Quite a number of men from our community attended the Jodon sale last Tuesday evening.

A delightful birthday party was held at the Edwin Fiddler home Friday evening, March 24th, in honor of Mrs. Andrew Bressler. Those present were the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bressler and children George, Walter, Paul, Kenneth, William, Betty and Dora; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vonada and daughters Dorothy, Grace, Lois and Mary; Mrs. Elwood Wolf, Mrs. John Corman, Mrs. Vesta Potter and son Nevin, Lottie, Arthur, Harry and Melvin, Mrs. David Barlett and sons Richard and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fiddler and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Bessie and son, Mrs. Paul Vonada and sons, Glenn, Dean and Mahlon of Mill Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and son Albert and daughter Margaret of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Logan Dunkle and children Elmer, Mary Phyllis and Earl of Bellefonte; Leonard Weber of Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Dunkle and children Elmer, Mary Phyllis and Earl of Bellefonte; Leonard Weber of Nittany.

Trade is free in the United States but the idea doesn't carry much weight in international commerce.

REBERSBURG

Pre-Easter services are being held in the three local churches this week. Rev. Dale Kohl of the Lutheran church and Rev. Arthur Miller of the Reformed church will give the messages in their respective churches, while the Evangelical pulpit will be filled by Rev. L. E. Kline of Howard on Tuesday evening. Rev. Hoffman of Lycoming charge on Wednesday evening; Rev. Harry House of Millheim on Thursday evening and Rev. Norman Douly of town on Friday evening. The public is invited to all these services.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wolfs and C. C. Small, Mrs. Helen Shultz and daughter Hilda were Lock Haven visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. C. F. Catherman and sons Charles Wesley and Harold of Hanover and nephew Grace Rudy, of Sunbury, spent Saturday with Mrs. Catherman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg.

Mrs. K. S. Breen and children Janet and David are visiting the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Schenckler at McClure this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wise and Mrs. Emma Corman were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Miller spent several days this week with the former's father, who is ill at his home in Sharon.

Mrs. W. F. Bierly is ill at this time with grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frye, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tarbert and Mr. William Tarbert Jr., of Pittsburgh visited at the S. O. Mallory home the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hosterman and daughter Catherine of Penn Hill were Sunday supper guests at the home of the former's son E. H. Hosterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Reish were Friday business callers in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown and two children visited at the Jay Vonada home at Piedler, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winters were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Colyer and family of Millheim called at the Harry Bowersox home on Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Walton of Muncy returned to her home on Sunday after a two months visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. H. Hackenberg. She was motored home by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Huey and daughter, Jo.

The latter two remaining for several days visit with Mrs. Hackenberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Baker.

Mrs. William Musser and granddaughter Elberta Weaver of Coburn spent Monday at the C. S. Hosterman home. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Weaver and children and Mr. William Musser of Coburn called at the same home Monday evening.

Spring movings in our vicinity included the following: Herbert Gobble from the Scot Stover home in Red Hill, recently sold to Kenneth Brungart into the Scot Stover Est. home next door, recently sold to Mrs. Helen Shultz, Kenneth Brungart from the R. W. Bierly home in East Rebersburg, formerly the Mrs. Orpha Ocker home, into the house vacated by Gobble; W. F. Bierly from West Rebersburg into the house vacated by Brungart; Paul Cummings from the Jerry Oramley home into the house vacated by Mr. Bierly and which was recently purchased by Cummings, C. S. Hosterman from the Coburn into the G. R. home vacated by Mr. Cummings; Mrs. Eida Musser moved from the west side of the A. E. Lambert home and stored her furnishings; Mrs. Lulu Mallory moved from the west side of the R. W. Bierly home into the rooms vacated by Mrs. Musser; Lawrence Bierly from Millheim into the rooms vacated by Mrs. Mallory; Mrs. Annie Stover stored her household furnishings and rented her house to Harry Bowersox of Smulton.

Among the relatives and friends from out of town who attended the funeral of William Stover last Saturday forenoon were: Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stover of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Stover of Aaronsburg; Martin Stover of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brungart of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Stover Hess of Laurelton, Mrs. Della Karstetter and daughter of Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Emma Peil and Mrs. McGovern of Clearfield visited at the P. J. Resick home on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ritter and family of Midway were Sunday supper guests at the same home.

WOODWARD

Harry Crader, Trovia Stover, C. E. Kreamer and his son, Harwood attended a Christian Endeavor meeting in the Millheim Evangelical church last Thursday evening, where they had the opportunity to listen to Pennsylvania's General Secretary of Christian Endeavor Warren G. Hoopes. It certainly was a treat for those assembled that evening and also discuss plans for better Christian Endeavorers—better church workers which are highly necessary.

On last Friday Calvin Haines and family moved from Union county into their residence in town vacated a few months ago by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sheesley, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sheesley now occupy the former Mrs. Isaiah Bob residence purchased from her heirs last July.

Johnny Brindle is ill of an attack of pleurisy. It later developed into a beating affecting both ears which the doctor had to lance. He is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stover of Middleburg were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Stover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Stover and at her sister's and husband's residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ard.

Harry Brindle is ill of the grippe and is bedfast. He is not much improved to date.

Miss Trovia Stover accompanied her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stover to their home in Middleburg where she is visiting for about a week. We hope she is having a fine vacation.

Lawrence Denner has contracted a bad cold. Quite a number of children in this locality are having a bad ticklish cough and it seems hard to get rid of.

PLEASANT VIEW

Miss Alice Spicer and Miss Ethel Spicer spent the weekend with their sisters, Mrs. Mary Rocky of Bellefonte, R. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hook and children Lois Jean and Charles were supper guests at Charles Packer's. Miss Lois Jean Hook remained with the Packer family for an over night visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson and Orvis Watson of Milesburg were guests with the George Spicer family, on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Myrtle Meyers and sons Stanley and David were callers at Charles Greaser's on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Packer and children Woodrow and Pasty Lou spent Sunday evening at the Charles Packer home.

Miss Alice and Ethel Spicer were Tuesday evening guests at the Charles Meyers home.

Visitors on Sunday and Sunday evening at George Spicers were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Spicer and family of Oak Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cori and family of Pine Grove Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rocky and baby Joan of Bellefonte, Franklin Rocky and girl friend Jean Irvin of Pleasant Gap, Robert Stonebraker, Mrs. Annie Williams, Mrs. Nellie Rupert and girl friend of Northwood near Tyrone and Mrs. Charles Shearer and sons Emory and Glenn and Charles Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lyle and family spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. Arthur Loesch and family at Struble Station.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tresler of Bellefonte were Saturday evening callers at Alvin Krebs.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Orr and two children are moving this Friday, March 31, from Mill Hill into a part of the farm house occupied and owned by Mrs. Orr's parents, Sid Neidigh.

Alfred Lyle and daughters Charlotte, Naomi, and Anna spent Saturday afternoon with his brother-in-law Jeff Houtz, who was recently bereaved of his wife, Sarah Houtz.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crawley were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krebs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Neidigh and sons, Ronald and Jimmie were Sunday dinner guests with her mother Mrs. Thomas Harpster on West College Avenue.

All of the Pleasant View school children except Anna and Sarah Lyle were taken by Fred Mackereth, the teacher, Red Garman and Mrs. William Neidigh by car to the Centre Furnace school Monday where they along with that school were given the T. B. test.

Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church was held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. James Uzzie Br. Those present were Mrs. Charles Weaver, Mrs. Arch Marshall, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. Lewis Price, Mrs. James Uzzie, Jr., and Mrs. Merrill Harnish.

Ladies Aid of the M. E. church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. John Buhler.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hoover of Johnstown, spent the weekend with Mrs. Hoover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Moore.

Miss Pauline Lucas visited her sister, Mrs. Mahlon Watson and family, of Moehannon, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poorman and daughter Barbara, of Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. William Sise and Mrs. Holter of Philadelphia, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Slim Workman, of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ikey of Milesburg, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gillette.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kellerman and family spent Sunday at Centre Hall with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smeitser.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Longwell and children Jean, Lois and Junior spent Sunday evening with her sister, Mrs. Harry Kellerman.

Guy Kellerman and lady friend, Betty Ray of Aze Mann, spent Wednesday evening with Guy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kellerman.

Alfred C. Justice spent the weekend in Altoona visiting his sister, Mrs. George Myers and brother John Justice.

Advertising is the excuse for much foolish expenditure—no wonder some people doubt whether it pays.

J. M. Keichline Insurance Agency
ANN W. KEICHLINE, Agent.
Temple Court Phone 190

Weak and Run Down
Men and Women

Take Luebert's Iron Tonic Tablets, Containing Cod Liver Oil Extract
There is no tonic equal to these tablets for those who are weak and run down or recovering from the effects of severe sickness. They assist nature by replacing what has been worn out in the blood and nerves. They are composed of iron, extract of cod liver oil and blood building, tonic medicines, which restore the system to its proper tone and make life worth living.

COLEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kelley and son Robert took supper with Earl White and family, recently, also stopped at the home of James Kelley.

Sunday callers at the Oscar Billett home were William Becker of Cumberland, Md., Michael Mathana of Piedmont, W. Va., Julia Ripman of Bellefonte and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Meeder and Lee Lucas of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Houser and children Faye, Janet and LaRue and Miss Hazel Kelley and Mr. Monroe Darby of Bellefonte.

Mrs. E. T. Kellerman spent Saturday and Sunday with her son George Kellerman of Bellefonte celebrating his birthday.

Jane, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reber of State College spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garbrick.

Saturday shoppers at Lock Haven were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Malone and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sine and Mr. and Mrs. John Possinger.

Those on the sick list are Mrs. Ruth Stover, Mrs. Sara Kellerman, Mr. and Mrs. Nora Myers, Jimmie Rote.

Mrs. E. T. Kellerman and Mrs. Leonard Rhoads spent Wednesday and Thursday at a quilting at Mrs. John Rudy of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bish of Milesburg, are the proud parents of a son, born at the Centre County Hospital. Mrs. Bish will be remembered as