Pete Killen of Swiswala has posted $500 bond for his appearance in court to answer charges of violating the vehicle code following an accident in which he was involved near Port Matilda. Killen's car and one driven by a Miss Wise from Altoona crashed on March 18 and the Swiswala man is charged with failure to stop after the accident.

There were 119 new cases received in District No. 5 office, 87 granted final discharges and 17 returned to penal institutions during the past year. Among the duties outlined above, Mr. Miller conducts classes in Pre-Parole instruction to inmates at Rockview and the Pennsylvania Industrial School at Huntingdon twice a month.

Mr. Miller stated that the success or failure of any organization depends upon the personnel of the organization and states that in any parole system, the agents should be schooled in psychology, sociology and psychiatry, have a good understanding of human nature and good common sense.

Mr. Miller is an active member of the following organizations: National Probation Association, Pennsylvania Association on Probation and Parole, Middle Atlantic States Parole Conference, and the Pennsylvania Conference on Social Welfare.

ZOOM BY AT 120 M. P. H. Italy's electric "Bullets," fastest passenger trains in Europe, have a top speed of 120 m. p. h., according to the Italian Information Center, at Rockefeller Center, New York. These trains run on electricity from the "Valley of Hell," so-called because scientists have capped more than 200 live steam wells as a source of electric power. More than 32,000,000 KW hours of electricity a day are produced at the valley. It furnishes light, heat and power for factories, railroads and cities hundreds of miles around.

EVENING SCHOOL FOR FARMERS A SUCCESS

On Monday, March 20th, the last of a series of farmer's meetings was held in the Harris Township High school in Boalsburg. The series consisted of a study of farm crops. Twelve meetings in all were held each Monday evening beginning January 2nd. The meetings were well attended with an average of 30 per meeting. Considerable interest was shown by the farmers of the community as indicated by their attendance. Questions and discussions by the farmers were a part of the meetings. Farmers from Harris, College, Ferguson and Potter townships were represented at the meetings. This year was the ninth annual Farmer's Evening School held by the Agricultural Department of the Harris Township High school. These meetings were arranged and conducted by E. H. Dale, Agricultural Supervisor. Those who have paid their income taxes won't have to worry about it again until next year.
