

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Free Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Friday evening in the church, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by the preaching service with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett at 10:45 a. m. Young Peoples meeting in the evening at 7:30 p. m.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service and Bible Study Class this Thursday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning, Junior League in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. immediately followed by the preaching service at 7:30 p. m. The League service at 6:30 p. m. will be held in the upper room of the church and will be a special Easter program accompanied by a program in honor of the mothers of the league members. Special Easter music by the choir in the church service and an Easter sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kaufman. All persons invited to both of these services.

Charles Rowan of Bellwood called on friends and relatives in town on Sunday between trains.

Students of the Bellefonte High School will have their day vacation over the Easter season, being Friday and Monday.

The Missionary meeting of the Methodist church was held on Wednesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. J. R. Williams.

The members of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church were entertained last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Eva Rowan.

Mrs. Mollie Holt expects to move back to her old home in the near future, she having spent the winter with her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Paul Immel.

Eugene Hall has been ill at his home for some weeks and not improving as rapidly as would be expected. His many friends and neighbors hope his complete recovery may be speedy.

Mrs. Amanda Moran moved from the old Hotel Building on Monday, into part of the J. Rollie Williams property. Rollie had some work done on his property and converted it into a double house, the other side being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stere.

The monthly group meeting of the young folks of the Methodist church will be held on Friday evening in the Methodist church at Bellefonte, being the annual Easter Communion Service. A number of young folks from here are planning to attend.

Miss Eva Rowan moved from her old home on Tuesday into the home she purchased some time ago from John Rowan being the home of his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rowan. Miss Rowan sold her home to a Mr. Mong and his family of Bellefonte who also moved on Tuesday into their new home. We welcome them into our community.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday April 9, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "The Greatest Victory of All Times."

The Ladies Aid Society meeting held on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Beightol was attended, a total of forty-five persons with the following as guests, Mrs. Pieta Harter, Mrs. Glenn Walker and son Junior, Mrs. John Dinkler and son Paul, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Cecil Herd and son Robert of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, Mrs. Harry Lyons of Lock Haven, Mrs. Robert Conway and daughters Kathryn and Lucy of this place, the President having a fine program appropriate for the day with a big April fool included.

The Ladies of the Reformed church are holding a roast chicken dinner with all the delicacies of the season added, making it a sumptuous meal for the meager price of 35 cents for adults and 25c for children on Saturday evening, April 22, in Grange Hall, also a lovely suit will be disposed of at the same time and place. This being a worthy cause, a liberal patronage of the public will be greatly appreciated. Everyone interested and concerned about it keep an eye on the weekly paper as more details will follow later.

The chief occupation of the citizens of the community at the present time, is moving, garden cleaning, painting, papering, garden making and a general clean up, all of which goes with the opening of Spring. Union Grange No. 325 will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday, April 12, instead of April 14th, on account of neighbor night at Half Moon. Let every patron make a special effort to be present at the meeting.

Mahlon Bruss and family, who have been residents of Union Township in part of the Clair Parsons property, moved on Tuesday over the mountain near State College where they will be tenants on a Dairy farm.

The members of the Bridge Club of the community tendered a farewell party for Mrs. Paul Immel one evening last week, prior to their leaving for Washington, D. C. It was also a surprise in honor of Mrs. Immel's birthday.

Howard Hall, who has been visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall of Union Township for the past several weeks, left on Monday for his duties in the Air Corps of the U. S. Army and will be for the present time stationed in New York.

FAIRVIEW

There will be a public sale at the Amelia Chapman home on Saturday April 8th, at one p. m. of stock and farm implements.

Mrs. MaVin Lucas and two children returned home on Monday after visiting a few days with her mother, Mrs. Vanna Colbert at Altoona.

Mrs. McDowell Walker and son Frankie of Orviston and Mrs. George Houdehall of Pleasant Valley were supper guests at the James Lucas home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Russell Jones and son Ernie of Pleasant Valley and Mrs. Amelia Chapman and daughter Faye of this place visited on Wednesday afternoon at the Myrtle Lucas home.

Mrs. George Robinson visited with Mrs. Alfred Lucas on Monday afternoon.

J. B. Lucas is spending a few days with his daughter Mrs. Fred Haines at Upper Marian.

Charity does not begin at home for some people. Americanism: Making a lot of money out of a scheme.

PLEASANT GAP

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Probst and son of Lock Haven moved recently into the Markle apartment formerly occupied by the Harrison W. Walker family. They moved into the home which had been owned and occupied by the Livingston family until they moved to State College, at which time Samuel Stevens, of Bellefonte purchased the property.

The George Kurtz family moved a few days ago into the small house on the Grant Dunklebarger estate. Hayes Zettle and George Zelenic will move their families into the apartments recently completed at the Joson sale barn; The William Mowery's moved into the small house vacated by Nathaniel Gill who is now making his home with Mrs. Oscar Gill and daughters who moved from Hilltown into Mr. Gill's large house.

HOWARD

Mrs. Frank Ruff of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived Sunday to attend her brother's funeral, Mr. Clair Berry of Beech Creek. Mrs. Ruff is a cousin of Mrs. H. A. Kline.

Six young boys enjoyed several days last week in Washington, D. C. Mr. Paul Shope, Fred Daves, William Lyons, Sheldon Schenck, John Bechtel and John Edward Heverly, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wagner, Mrs. Ethel Graizer and Mrs. W. S. Lambert of Alliquippa visited at the home of John H. Wagner, Tuesday.

Mrs. Gilbert Shope, Mrs. H. A. Kline and Mrs. Horan attended the funeral of Clair Berry Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. William Robb, spent the weekend at the home of Preston Robb's family at Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. George Regal, Mrs. Kate Weber, Nelle Weber, Mrs. Al. McKibbin, Mrs. Harold Betz, Mrs. John Fessenden, son Charles attended the W. C. T. U. convention in Anasburg last Thursday.

Mrs. Harold Kline left Monday morning for Montgomery, Va., to visit at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullough and son of Indiana, called at the home of Mrs. George Reals, Saturday.

A program of Easter music will be presented by the young people of the Kennedy M. E. church on Easter evening at 7:30 p. m. This will be followed by Congregational singing of Easter music. The public is cordially invited. A silver offering will be taken.

MOSHANNON

There were 63 present at the M. E. Sunday School and $25.56 collection. Rev. C. M. Hammond delivered a very good sermon Sunday evening. Next Sunday, Sunday school at 9:30 preaching at 10:30. Everybody welcome.

Free Methodist church—Sunday School 10 a. m., class meeting 11 a. m., preaching service 2:30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearce of Jersey Shore, spent Monday at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Quirk and family, visited their daughter Mrs. Frank Gallagher at Milesburg, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis motored to Williamsport Sunday afternoon taking their daughter Hope back to school. They were accompanied by Mrs. John Cartwright and Carl Schmoke.

The spaghetti supper held at the Print Shop was fairly well attended Saturday evening considering the weather and other activities the same evening.

There were quite a number of people from here attended radio, dot and smoozy entertainment at Snow Shoe Saturday evening last week.

Mrs. LeRoy Lewis called on friends in Snow Shoe, Monday afternoon.

PINE GLEN

Sunday April 9th, at 10 a. m. will be the Easter services at the Methodist Sunday School. Will you be there? Help to reach the goal.

J. R. Askey visited J. B. Askey at Sunnyside on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burkera and son, Tom, spent the weekend with relatives at Beaverdale.

Mrs. Carrie Saker of Gramplan is at Edward Hoover's.

A number of our people attended the show at Snow Shoe Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Marks and daughter of Tusseyville, visited Harry Meeker's recently.

Mrs. John Ammerman has been discharged from the Phillipsburg Hospital Saturday after a gall-stone operation. She is getting along nicely.

The younger set serenaded the bride and groom Monday evening, after Grange meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoover, Russell is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoover and his bride was Miss Laura Krone of Clarence. They were married at Lock Haven Thursday evening by a former pastor Rev. Elwood Bare.

SMULLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Harter are the proud parents of a baby boy, born last Thursday.

Mrs. Gottshall and daughter Eva of Centre Hall, were visitors on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ida Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Emy Day and family from Union County were visitors on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Tahl and daughter Beatrice.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wolfe and family of Lewisburg were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smull.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Meyer and daughter Doris were callers Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur D. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weber and daughter, and Mrs. Ida Walker were callers Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Pledier at Madisonburg.

ORVISTON

There were 173 present at Sunday School.

The Missionary society met at the Clair Butler home on Monday night for their regular monthly meeting the following were present: Mrs. Grant Hahn, Mrs. Willis Thompson, Mrs. Walter Shank, Mrs. Ed. Confer, Mrs. Earl Lomison, Mrs. William Gray, Mrs. J. E. Gillespie, Mrs. Robert DeBoer, Mrs. Anson Phillips, Mrs. Clair Butler, Robert and Harry DeBoer.

Miss Ann Daughenbaugh of Howard, spent the weekend with Emaline Butler.

Ben Poorman and Mrs. Paul Hunter of State College, spent Monday at the William Barnhart home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crisp, of Julian, spent the weekend at the Clayton Watson home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Confer spent Sunday evening with their son Joseph and family at Milesburg.

Paul Lomison and son Gerald, Mrs. David Confer and daughter Carol and Mrs. William Gillespie spent the weekend at the John Solt home at Altoona, also visiting Blanche Lomison at the Cresson sanitarium.

William Barnhart, A. J. Confer, W. O. Gray and Walter McCloskey visited Mr. and Mrs. William Barnhart Sr. at Curtin Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher of Sunbury, visited relatives here on Saturday.

Jack Shade and Pete Council of Flemington, spent Sunday evening with Paul Lomison Jr.

Mrs. Blanche Daley spent last Friday with her sister Mrs. Clinton Olmstead and family at Lock Haven.

The Logan Drama club which now has about eighty members will give a play entitled "Cheese" in the Grange hall on the evening of April 19th. Members admitted free, other folks 10c, per person.

The Woman's Civic Club will hold a Spaghetti supper on Wednesday evening, April 12th, in the Fire Hall, Hours 5 to 7 adults, 35c. children 20c.

The Loyal Workers of the Lutheran church will hold a bake sale Saturday evening, April 8th, in the room next to Stitzer's store and which was formerly a barber shop. Bread, buns, cinnamon buns, pies, cakes, cookies, etc. will be offered for sale. Collection will be made between eight and nine o'clock that morning.

After the regular meeting of the Women's Civic Club Tuesday night, Mr. Kusse, Sec. of the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce gave a very interesting talk on "Our Aims and Goals" and cited a number of instances in which the chamber of commerce had benefitted Bellefonte and vicinity. It might be mentioned these ladies donated 85 towels to the Centre County Hospital about 2 weeks ago.

The Pleasant Gap Sportsmen had as their speaker at their regular monthly meeting which was held in the Fire Hall on the evening of April 3rd, Mr. Doty, Pres. of the Federated Sportsmen of Centre County, who talked on the advantages of belonging to the County organization.

The Junior Sportsmen Club has a membership of 48 members and foremost ranger Clarence Muser of Spring Mills was the speaker at their last monthly meeting held March 31st in the Fire Hall. His talk dealt with forestry as applied to boys from 10 to 14 years of age.

Shooting matches have been a weekly event for the past five weeks of the sportsmen and will continue for some time yet.

Monday a week ago the Spring Township High School students were privileged for the second time to view pictures of telephone construction and other interesting facts pertaining to this industry. This time pictures of the recent New England hurricanes were included. Mr. Miller of the Bellefonte office who displayed the films was quite enthusiastic in his praise of the students' courtesy in listening and in helping with the moving of his equipment, etc. and is looking forward to his next visit with almost as much pleasure as the students, who are eagerly awaiting the next series. I believe there are nineteen different films, ranging in time from eight to thirty minutes and it is hoped that the Women's Club will some time be able to take advantage of the kind offer to them, to have as many as time permits, and this gives the older members of the community as well as the pleasure of seeing these most interesting and educational pictures. They are well worth any one's time.

Mrs. Eleanor Westerfield was home last week to pack and arrange for shipping part of the Westerfield furniture to Cumberland, Maryland, where she has taken a position as secretary supervisor for the Public Welfare for Allegheny county. Mr. Westerfield will remain at Penn State until June when he will receive his degree in forestry. He has recently been elected to a second honorary fraternity in the school of Agriculture.

Lee Brooks and daughter Evelyn, of Spring Mills were callers in town Saturday and the Bloomer Weaver family of Spring Mills on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Royden Gheen spent Friday night at the Harry Showers home.

The garden club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Bilger.

Dr. Bruce Krumrine was taken back to the Centre County hospital last week and given a blood transfusion. She had only been home a very short time from a visit to that institution and we sincerely hope that this trip will be very beneficial and that Mrs. Krumrine's condition may soon show signs of improvement.

Mr. Derr plans to leave Friday for East Greenville where he will spend a few days with his mother, who is seriously ill.

Mayor Hardman P. Harris of Bellefonte, was a dinner guest at the Noll-Melroy home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams left last week on their trip to the South, possibly going as far as Florida.

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

George Wilson is now head mechanic at the C. W. Behlers agency in Grayville.

Harry Trostle of Williamsport spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Trostle.

Roy Sunday and wife of Lemont in their new Chevy coupe spent Sunday p. m. at the W. R. Sunday home on Church Street.

Mrs. J. D. Tanyer was a pleasant visitor the past week with her daughter and family, Mrs. Riggs Mudge in State College.

Farmers William Deiber and Lee Harpster were among the spirited bidders at the Fred Tussey sale last Tuesday at Spruce Creek.

Chester M. McCormick of Circleville was in our town last Wednesday. Chester is minus his molars—hence he says he's taking it by the soup route.

Drover and Farmer Charles Widmer recently purchased a 5 bottom disc 1 H. C. plow from the L. R. Smeltzer farm equipment agency at State College.

Samuel I. Corl of Pine Hall veterinarian agent was a dinner guest Wednesday with his brother and sister on W. Main street, J. C. Corl and Mrs. Marie Krebs.

Mrs. J. S. English of Saxton Pa. spent the past week in our valley visiting her many friends with headquarters at the Samuel M. Hess home on the Branch.

A farewell party was held Wednesday evening last in the Presbyterian church in honor of the James Hoover family who Friday moved to the Buffalo Run valley.

Mrs. Madeline Hawn of Petersburg is convalescing nicely at her parents home, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland after an appendix operation 10 days ago in the Altoona Hospital.

Dr. Frank P. Gardner of State College who recently returned from 3 months sojourn in Florida, was here at Ripka sale last Wednesday.

Farmer Bruce Johnson of Seven Stars was among the bidders Wednesday at the George Gummro farm. Myers apartment to the Corl home on E. Main Street; Stephen Chitwick from McWilliams house to Myers apartment, his successor is Hugh McClintock; C. E. Haupt to L. K. Peters new house; S. C. Bailey will farm the Hoy Dr. Nixon farm at Oak Grove; George Rudy from Strouse farm to his own home "The Dodd" property on Chestnut street; W. R. Dodd to his new house at the Diamond of town; John Keller from the Gros house to Babin house at the Dam; Mrs. Anna Kocher and son Karl to Goss property recently purchased by her; Charles Behlers and bride to Haines house in Grayville; Harry Jackson from Marango, Pa. to Archey house in Grayville; Lee Harpster and bride to Ever farm at Galesburg; Ephraim Mallory from Spruce Creek to Henry Eilenberger farm at Marango; Carl Pooley from Grrazier farm to Carl Gales tenant house; Eugene Irvin from Warricks Mark to the Drebbelins (Krebs) farm; Charles Jones from Gohsen tenant house to Waelder; George Deiber to Reed apartment house in Rock Springs; Ronald Gilligan to the Ed. Gilligan farm; Ed. Gilligan to his own farm (The Geo. Harper farm on White Hall); Francis Miller to his new home at Pine Hill; Thomas Grove from Williamsburg to the Reish farm.

Farmer J. Foster Muser is down in bed this week suffering a bruised Solar Plexus caused by hard kicks from one of his large Holstein cows. He is somewhat improved at this writing under care of Dr. W. S. Glenn Jr. State College.

George Elder of Maryland who holds a nice position in Cumberland silk mill motored up Friday for a weekend stay with relatives in Centre County, headquarters at the Mrs. Anna Rostman home. He was accompanied by Mrs. Elder and their four sons.

Merchant John Reaick of Rock Springs was among the County Grange officers attending last week the annual meeting at Loan Grange hall, State Master Kenzie S. Bagshaw of Canoe Creek and State Lecturer Mrs. Ira Gross of Johnstown were guests speakers.

Late word from Dr. George B. Gohsen of Coalport, the plucky doctor is able to be down stairs in his home and enjoy his meals and all the events of the day which is very gratifying to his many friends here. The Dr. is a son of the late John B. and Mrs. Gohsen of W. Ferguson Twp.

At the annual community meeting last Thursday evening in Baileyville hall Treasurers report for the past year was most gratifying and many improvements were added. The board of trustees elected for '39 are D. S. Peterson, J. H. Gilliland, Miss Myra Miller, Mrs. E. E. Eilenberger, Eugene Eilenberger, S. A. Homan, P. E. Sunday.

The March meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society was held after the regular business session at the home of Mrs. W. H. Shon choice refreshments were served by the hostess and social hour was enjoyed. It being natal day of the oldest society member, Miss Sally Barr, she was presented with a dozen of beautiful American roses with best wishes of the society.

Dr. George C. Lake of Huntingdon Furnace last week purchased the well known Lyons farm near Penna. Furnace from the John Lyons heirs in Bellefonte. It is one of the largest and most productive in its section. The Lakes now own three of the best farms in Huntingdon county. It will be tenanted after April 1st, 1940 by one of the Lake Bros. The present tenant is Eugene Irvin.

One way to have a lot of work to do is to put off everything until tomorrow.

FOR YOUR EASTER SHOES SEE THE WIZARD

Always remember we put 5, 10 and 15c more value in our shoes that we sell for $1.98. If you don't see it, it shows in the wear.

HAINES THE SHOE WIZARD

The Original 98c and $1.98 Shoe Man on S. N. Allegheny St., Bellefonte.

One way to have a lot of work to do is to put off everything until tomorrow.

FOR YOUR EASTER SHOES SEE THE WIZARD

Always remember we put 5, 10 and 15c more value in our shoes that we sell for $1.98. If you don't see it, it shows in the wear.

HAINES THE SHOE WIZARD

The Original 98c and $1.98 Shoe Man on S. N. Allegheny St., Bellefonte.

One way to have a lot of work to do is to put off everything until tomorrow.

FOR YOUR EASTER SHOES SEE THE WIZARD

Always remember we put 5, 10 and 15c more value in our shoes that we sell for $1.98. If you don't see it, it shows in the wear.

HAINES THE SHOE WIZARD

The Original 98c and $1.98 Shoe Man on S. N. Allegheny St., Bellefonte.

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Muser and family were last Sunday dinner guests at the Lynn Mothersbaugh home in Potters Mills.

Mrs. Samuel Troyer of Mt. Holly, N. J. is spending some time at her parental home on Water street, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kline.

The Rev. and Mrs. James Fisher attended last Monday the funeral of Rev. Fisher's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Wilson at Centre Line.

Spring Movings—James McKivison from the G. Ed. Corl farm to the George Dale farm at Dales Summit; Samuel Rudy will till both of the Corl farms; James Hoover from the Millie Kepler tenant house to Mrs. Laura Kepler farm at Wadswick; Fred Osman from Lauck house to his farm East of town, known as Fred Marple from James Marple tenant house to the L. K. Strouse farm in Galesburg road; Richard Marple and family will be his successor; George Weiland from the Laura Krebs apartment to the Keller house on E. Main street; A. W. Fry to the Krebs apartment; Chester Leightner from Huntingdon County to his farm East of town, known as Ira Burwell farm; Clyde Ripka from Fred Gardner's farm to his own home in Pleasant Gap, his successor is J. H. Marshall, of Jefferson Co.; William Deiber returned from Tadpole to the Prof. P. I. Wrigley farm; Donald Fry and bride to the F. Reno Fry farm at Tadpole; John Baker from the Miller farm to Zion; Dennis Hillard will try his hand as farming on Miller farm; C. M. Trostle from Waldo Homan farm to C. E. Frank farm house at Baileyville; George Biglow from Frank Farm to Ex-Sheriff Boob farm at Rebersburg; and Mrs. Mary Sauerman has rope to live with her daughter, Mrs. David Harpster at Penna. Furnace; The Henry Blooms to their new home at New Northampton; James Trostle from Oak Hill to the Kelly Eye home; Russell Eyer from Keller home to his new home in Galesburg; W. Brooks Fry from Altoona to the J. J. Gohsen farm at Rock Springs; Paul Campbell and bride to the Clyde Elder tenant house; George Royer to the Randolph apartments in the Hotel; George Gummro from Myers apartment to the Corl home on E. Main Street; Stephen Chitwick from McWilliams house to Myers apartment, his successor is Hugh McClintock; C. E. Haupt to L. K. Peters new house; S. C. Bailey will farm the Hoy Dr. Nixon farm at Oak Grove; George Rudy from Strouse farm to his own home "The Dodd" property on Chestnut street; W. R. Dodd to his new house at the Diamond of town; John Keller from the Gros house to Babin house at the Dam; Mrs. Anna Kocher and son Karl to Goss property recently purchased by her; Charles Behlers and bride to Haines house in Grayville; Harry Jackson from Marango, Pa. to Archey house in Grayville; Lee Harpster and bride to Ever farm at Galesburg; Ephraim Mallory from Spruce Creek to Henry Eilenberger farm at Marango; Carl Pooley from Grrazier farm to Carl Gales tenant house; Eugene Irvin from Warricks Mark to the Drebbelins (Krebs) farm; Charles Jones from Gohsen tenant house to Waelder; George Deiber to Reed apartment house in Rock Springs; Ronald Gilligan to the Ed. Gilligan farm; Ed. Gilligan to his own farm (The Geo. Harper farm on White Hall); Francis Miller to his new home at Pine Hill; Thomas Grove from Williamsburg to the Reish farm.

Farmer Bruce Johnson of Seven Stars was among the bidders Wednesday at the George Gummro farm. Myers apartment to the Corl home on E. Main Street; Stephen Chitwick from McWilliams house to Myers apartment, his successor is Hugh McClintock; C. E. Haupt to L. K. Peters new house; S. C. Bailey will farm the Hoy Dr. Nixon farm at Oak Grove; George Rudy from Strouse farm to his own home "The Dodd" property on Chestnut street; W. R. Dodd to his new house at the Diamond of town; John Keller from the Gros house to Babin house at the Dam; Mrs. Anna Kocher and son Karl to Goss property recently purchased by her; Charles Behlers and bride to Haines house in Grayville; Harry Jackson from Marango, Pa. to Archey house in Grayville; Lee Harpster and bride to Ever farm at Galesburg; Ephraim Mallory from Spruce Creek to Henry Eilenberger farm at Marango; Carl Pooley from Grrazier farm to Carl Gales tenant house; Eugene Irvin from Warricks Mark to the Drebbelins (Krebs) farm; Charles Jones from Gohsen tenant house to Waelder; George Deiber to Reed apartment house in Rock Springs; Ronald Gilligan to the Ed. Gilligan farm; Ed. Gilligan to his own farm (The Geo. Harper farm on White Hall); Francis Miller to his new home at Pine Hill; Thomas Grove from Williamsburg to the Reish farm.

Farmer J. Foster Muser is down in bed this week suffering a bruised Solar Plexus caused by hard kicks from one of his large Holstein cows. He is somewhat improved at this writing under care of Dr. W. S. Glenn Jr. State College.

George Elder of Maryland who holds a nice position in Cumberland silk mill motored up Friday for a weekend stay with relatives in Centre County, headquarters at the Mrs. Anna Rostman home. He was accompanied by Mrs. Elder and their four sons.

Merchant John Reaick of Rock Springs was among the County Grange officers attending last week the annual meeting at Loan Grange hall, State Master Kenzie S. Bagshaw of Canoe Creek and State Lecturer Mrs. Ira Gross of Johnstown were guests speakers.

Late word from Dr. George B. Gohsen of Coalport, the plucky doctor is able to be down stairs in his home and enjoy his meals and all the events of the day which is very gratifying to his many friends here. The Dr. is a son of the late John B. and Mrs. Gohsen of W. Ferguson Twp.

At the annual community meeting last Thursday evening in Baileyville hall Treasurers report for the past year was most gratifying and many improvements were added. The board of trustees elected for '39 are D. S. Peterson, J. H. Gilliland, Miss Myra Miller, Mrs. E. E. Eilenberger, Eugene Eilenberger, S. A. Homan, P. E. Sunday.

The March meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society was held after the regular business session at the home of Mrs. W. H. Shon choice refreshments were served by the hostess and social hour was enjoyed. It being natal day of the oldest society member, Miss Sally Barr, she was presented with a dozen of beautiful American roses with best wishes of the society.

Dr. George C. Lake of Huntingdon Furnace last week purchased the well known Lyons farm near Penna. Furnace from the John Lyons heirs in Bellefonte. It is one of the largest and most productive in its section. The Lakes now own three of the best farms in Huntingdon county. It will be tenanted after April 1st, 1940 by one of the Lake Bros. The present tenant is Eugene Irvin.

One way to have a lot of work to do is to put off everything until tomorrow.

FOR YOUR EASTER SHOES SEE THE WIZARD

Always remember we put 5, 10 and 15c more value in our shoes that we sell for $1.98. If you don't see it, it shows in the wear.

HAINES THE SHOE WIZARD

The Original 98c and $1.98 Shoe Man on S. N. Allegheny St., Bellefonte.

One way to have a lot of work to do is to put off everything until tomorrow.

FOR YOUR EASTER SHOES SEE THE WIZARD

Always remember we put 5, 10 and 15c more value in our shoes that we sell for $1.98. If you don't see it, it shows in the wear.

HAINES THE SHOE WIZARD

The Original 98c and $1.98 Shoe Man on S. N. Allegheny St., Bellefonte.

One way to have a lot of work to do is to put off everything until tomorrow.

FOR YOUR EASTER SHOES SEE THE WIZARD</