

W.C.T.U. Institute At Aaronsburg

Afternoon and Evening Meetings Prove Inspirational Sessions

The Spring Institute of Centre County Women's Christian Temperance Union held at Aaronsburg last Thursday, proved to be an inspiration to the many who gathered from all parts of the county.

The Gold Medal Contest was a splendid feature, the following taking part: Alice Brigger, Unionville; Eileen Shives, Barbara Hall, Ardeny Harsh, of Snow Shoe; Franny Woodring, Fort Matilda and Betty Berger, of Moshannon, who won the medal.

Mrs. Nellie Parks of the Phillipsburg Local, was appointed as Temperance Light Bearer director for the county. The dedication of four bibles was made to the cause of Christian Temperance work.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE TEAMS TO DINE HERE who spoke on fishing for salmon in Canadian streams. Other speakers included M. E. Sherman, of Fullerton County, a division superintendent of the Game Commission, who spoke on the value of sportsmen's associations to conservation; and Bert Morgan, of Hughesville, who spoke on game feeding during the summer months.

The entertainment program included the showing of several reels of motion pictures. A sound movie "Let's Go Fishing," was presented by Charles Fisher and Sheldon A. Hoffman of State College, and Randolph Thompson presented two lengthy and interesting reels on fishing and hunting, made by the Fish and Game Commissions.

Charles Guyer, young Bellefonte pianist, entertained with piano solos during the evening. The Rev. A. G. Herr, vice president of the Association, gave the invocation.

Among the guests introduced to the audience by Toastmaster Hoffman, who also read an original alliterative poem on fishing, were: George Bohn, of Lemont, president of the College Conservation Association; Charles Stoddard, Jr., of State College, who has charge of the Young People's Conservation work there and who is secretary of the County Federation of Sportsmen.

Dean R. L. Watts, of State College, as the oldest angler present shook hands with Curtis Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner, who was the youngest fisherman in the audience.

Plan Liquor Law Changes

that club licenses must require a majority of members without voting privilege. 4. Each licensee would be required to advertise his application once a week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation.

6. Penalties for sales to minors increased. When minor is between 20 and 21 penalty would be 10 days or $50 and when under 17, revocation of license and fine of $300. 7. For the first time, license money in part would be set aside for local law enforcement.

8. Lengthening of the distance from 50 to 400 feet of a school or church, excepting a hotel of more than 40 rooms, for retail liquor sites where entertainment is offered, the licensee would be required to have at least 1,000 square feet of space. One board member would be paid a salary ranging from $2,000 to $3,000, dependent on the population of the district, and two others would receive $15 a day while sitting. All three would be chosen from lists submitted to the liquor control board by the presiding common pleas judge of the district. Lists would have to contain an equal number of Democrats and Republicans.

Gettig Will Head Elks' Lodge Officers. District Attorney Musser W. Gettig, of Bellefonte, will be installed as exalted ruler of the Bellefonte Elks Lodge at a ceremony to be conducted at the Elks home, West High street, Monday night, with District Deputy Baker, of Bloomsburg lodge, as the installing officer.

C. Jodon farm, just east of Axemann. At 1:30 p. m. a demonstration will be given on the F. H. Smeltzer farm, at Pillmore. A forestry expert from the Pennsylvania State College will be in charge of the work.

Townsend Meeting April 7. A Townsend meeting will be held in the Court House, Friday, April 7, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. C. L. Nonemaker and others will be the speakers. Everybody is invited.

Cooking Costs Will Be Studied

household costs, for a homemaker must be a good manager of the family budget. Budget Meals. Speaking of budgets, for her second lecture Mrs. Bathgate plans to talk about meals that will fit the most "iron clad" household accounts. She has selected menus for steam cooker, oven and one-dish meals that economize on heat, save time and labor, and transform the most expensive foods into savory triumphs.

She believes that while women may like to see an elaborate, complicated dish prepared occasionally, the things they are most interested in are every day foods, turned into hearty family meals by new time-saving methods. This is the sort of cooking she will do in all three classes for her school for the Centre Democrat.

Classes will be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, April 19, 20 and 21, starting each afternoon at 2 o'clock.
