

THE RED & WHITE NEWS

Vol. V. PUBLISHED BY STUDENTS OF BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL Number 5.

THE STAFF
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF—Emmy Lou Craig
REPORTERS—Betty Miller, Joan Faculty Advisors—Marle G. Carr, John S. Dubbs, Paul S. Beaver.

She was born in Snow Shoe and ten years later moved to Bellefonte. A graduate of our own Alma Mater, Miss Morgan was an active member of various organizations including the Glee Club and the Student Council, of which she was president.

HONOR ROLL FOR FOURTH SIX WEEKS
The decrease in the number on the honor roll probably can be attributed to the conditions to which the students have been subjected during the past six weeks.

SECURITY NEEDED
Out of town students who are keeping their books in drawers in the gymnasium have found that their pens, books, tablets, and anything else of any worth are not at all safe as they were in lockers or assigned desks.

After she had graduated, she came back to B. H. S. to teach. Miss Morgan has taught here three years and during that time she has completed sufficient work for a Master of Arts degree in English Literature, at Penn State. She has coached the Junior Lutheran Choir and our school glee club for the past few years.

BOX SOCIAL SCHEDULED TOMORROW
Has grandmother ever told you about the good times she used to have? If so, she has probably told you about the many good times she has had at box socials.

LIBRARY NEWS
Good news for the book worms. An order has just been placed for 400 new books. Among them are books of fiction, general and special reference books, and popular edition of classics.

But perhaps she has neglected to explain to you exactly what a box social is. So I will play "grandma" and tell you and explain it, because such an event will be held April 14, at the Gymnasium, Spring Street, and will begin at 8:00 p. m. It is to be held by the junior class to obtain funds for the Junior Prom.

COMMUNITY SWIM
All students, friends, and teachers of the Bellefonte High School will have the opportunity of enjoying a swim at the Glenland Pool in State College, it was announced last week by Mr. O. P. Goldenberger, principal.

JUNIORS SPONSOR DANCING CLASSES
Our enterprising junior class will in the next few weeks sponsor dancing classes to be held in the gymnasium of the Spring Street school. The music will be furnished by prominent musicians of B. H. S. Each patron will receive individual instruction from expert dancers who are also members of the class.

EXCHANGE
One for the Mathematicians
Take your house number and double it, add five. Multiply by half a hundred. Then add your age. Add the number of days in a year. Subtract 615. The last two figures will be your age; the others, your house number.

DUNN-IN-A HURRY
I bet the Juniors are excited. Their try outs for the Junior Declamatory Contest started on Tuesday.

FACULTY ON PARADE
Gosh! I wish I could find a way to start this week's interview because Miss Morgan did tell me some very interesting things, but how can I put them all together on paper? Let me see.

Mr. Frazier—A perfect 7-8 biology class.
Mr. Aumiller—A cheerup pill.
Mr. Ward—Cold weather so he can wear his blue suit.

"KITTY" AGAIN
As Rose Ann Branchill was unable to write her essay on the day scheduled, she wrote hers the day preceding.

Each person was given an envelope with a number on it which was to be written on the essay instead of the name of the pupil. The person was to put his name on a piece of paper and put it in the envelope.

Mr. Dubbs, she said, "I just couldn't possibly get it in."
Mr. Dubbs, she said, "I guess you think I am pretty dumb."

Mr. Houtz expressed the desire that at least 500 people make up the party, and the only actual accommodation that the Glenland asks is that the affair be arranged for a Monday or Tuesday evening.

Mr. Solkenberger has appointed Marie G. Carr, librarian, to be in charge of arrangements for the party, and any one who is interested is asked to report to her in the library.

Francis Donovan—a better seat in study hall 3rd period so he won't have to stretch his neck to look at Blanche Locke.

Mr. Stock has his office in the Master's house. Welcome to the Master's house, Mr. Stock.

Mr. Miller—Needs a special company to man his shoes.

Mr. Casper was very much worried about the weather for Easter Sunday—she was afraid she would not be able to wear her new Easter outfit.

Mr. Stock was a guest at a luncheon given by the commercial club. The following members of the faculty visited these places over the Easter vacation: Miss Forbes—Chambersburg; Miss Risini—Dunbury; Miss Carr—Brookville; Miss Wolke—DuBois.

BOV SOCIAL HINTS
Want a Prom? Then you'd better attend the social functions the Juniors are having for that purpose, the first of which is the Box Social.

LOST AND FOUND
Found—a one snap, brown leather key case containing several keys. It was found a short time after the fire near the Allegheny Street school.

Found—a navy blue, silk umbrella with a blue, glass handle has been turned over to the librarian for identification. The owner may claim it by reporting to the library.

Found—a pair of plain dark brown, knit gloves with long tight cuffs is in the library. The owner may claim them by reporting to the library.

Found—one blue knit glove with red and yellow stripes has been found and is in the library awaiting the owner.

"The Crown of Coyopan"
Opening chapters of a new romantic novel by H. Bedford Jones, distinguished author, beginning in the April 23rd issue of The American Weekly, distributed with the Baltimore Sunday American. On sale by all progressive newsmen.

PLEASANT VALLEY
Mrs. Frank Emel is on the sick list. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCloskey and family of Lock Haven, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. McCloskey's brother Irvin Confer.

Mr. Sollenberger—a new set of keys.

Mr. Dubbs, she said, "I just couldn't possibly get it in."
