

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

W. C. T. U. Meeting—The monthly business meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Nannie Williams.

Free Methodist Church Services—Prayer service on Friday evening, Sunday School and a special Mother's Day program in the morning, preaching service with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett, in the evening at 7:30 p. m.

Ice and Ice Cream—The ice plant at the Smith grist mill is now in operation and ice can be secured at any time. They are also making home-made ice cream for sale. The proprietor, Ralph Smith, offers prompt and efficient service.

Memorial Day Plans—Plans are being made for Memorial Day services which we can give in part at this time. James E. VanZandt, representative in Congress of the 23rd District, Washington, D. C., will be the speaker at the Oak Ridge cemetery in the afternoon at 1:45 p. m. Other plans will be able to give at a later date. Watch this column for particulars.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening and Bible Study, followed by rehearsal by the young folks for Mother's Day services; Sunday School on Sunday morning at the usual time followed by special Mother's Day program at 10:30 a. m. which consists of a psalm, "Mother's Gift" and "The Secret" and a talk on Mother's Day by the pastor, Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 p. m.

Garden Club Meeting—The newly organized Garden Club will meet next Wednesday evening, May 17th at 7:30 p. m. in the Community House. All persons interested in gardens and flowers are urged to attend this meeting and bring some of your choice flowers as they will have a real flower show in connection with the meeting. We are wondering whether the members of the Garden Club will fix up the Community flower bed which should be done soon.

Forrest Baender was confined to his home over the weekend with an attack of the gripe.

C. E. Eckenroth is visiting with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wagner of Upper Darby, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer and son Bobby of Bellefonte, Pa. were Sunday callers on friends and relatives in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Ward of State College, and infant daughter, were Sunday guests of her father and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hazel.

The monthly group meeting of the young folks of the Methodist church was held on Monday evening at the Methodist church in Howard, Pa.

Miss Mary Brugger has been ill for several days and confined to her bed with a severe attack of the gripe. Her many friends hope her complete recovery may be speedy.

Presbyterian church services on Sunday evening at 7:30 with sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood in keeping with Mother's Day also accompanied by Communion service.

Rev. and Mrs. E. C. John and three children of Greensburg, Pa. spent several days last week visiting with his mother and husband, Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Garrett of this place.

Mrs. G. A. Garrett was ill for a couple days the forepart of the week suffering from asthma. She is much better at this writing, which her many friends and neighbors are glad to hear.

Sunday guests of Mrs. C. E. Eckenroth were Prof. and Mrs. H. W. Hofer and daughter, Mrs. Ray Underwood of Bucknell Univ. city, all of Lewisburg, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holter of Howard, Pa.

Pearce Rumberger and Eleanor Lucas were married at the home of Miss Lucas on Tuesday. Congratulations young folks and may there be many good things in store for you as you travel the path of life.

Miss Ruth Lucas, teacher in the Clearfield at Mifflinburg, Pa. closed her term on Monday of this week. Last Friday she accompanied her school, with other grades in the same school, on a picnic in honor of the last day of school. They visited Martin's Grove in the evening.

The young folks from here who expect to graduate from Bellefonte high school next month are: Mary Brugger, Louise Trine, Ida Mae Barton, Basil Robison and William Barton. There are several from the township who will graduate including Julia Barton and Eloise Harper.

Miss Martha Brugger and gentleman friend of Wilmington Del. were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger. They were accompanied home by her brother Joseph Brugger who is employed near Media, Pa. They returned to their duties on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holtzworth of Fairmont, West Virginia, with their two daughters Ann and Mary Alice spent last weekend at Holtzworth home and at the home of her father Mr. Daniel Buck. Mr. Buck accompanied them here after having spent several weeks visiting in Palmyra with his daughter and family.

George Irwin and William Resides took Kenneth Hall's truck on Tuesday and motored over the mountain with the expectation of securing a load of coal. As they passed the picket line of strikers, stones were thrown at their truck and almost demolished the truck, one of the stones striking the occupants of the truck. William Resides is a patient in the Clearfield hospital. We have not learned the extent of his injuries but hope they are not serious. George Irwin was able to return to his home.

It is interesting to hear parents, who rarely read a book, criticizing children for not studying.

HOWARD

John Brickley of Ancho, New Mexico, is visiting with his sisters Mrs. Vernie Butler and Mrs. T. R. Robb.

Mrs. Thurman Hustler of Milton has been visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. Kline Wolf. Mrs. Hustler was called here for the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Ambrose Holter of Lamar.

Miss Emma Robb was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital Tuesday for observation.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. George D. Regal Friday night.

A tea was held at the home of Misses Anna and Nelle Holter, Saturday afternoon for the officers of the Missionary Society of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robb of New Jersey visited at the home of W. F. Hall over the weekend.

Kenneth Bitner son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bitner, cut his lip while playing baseball Friday afternoon. He was taken to a physician and had several stitches inserted.

Frederick Wenzel is visiting in Bellefonte at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wenzel.

Mrs. Emma Sreeter of Westfield, Pa. is visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bulkeley.

Mrs. Paul Cheesman and son Paul of Williamsport spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Long.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter F. Glenn of Dillsburg at the happy parents of an 8 1/2 lb baby boy born to them at Carlisle hospital on Monday. Rev. Glenn is a son of Mrs. Rebecca Glenn of Mt. Eagle and is well known here.

Miss Dorothy Bitner was admitted to the Centre County hospital Monday for an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gledhill of Phillipsburg are the proud parents of a son born last week. Jack Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pletcher attended lodge in Bellefonte Monday night.

Mrs. Mittle Gardner and grandson Eugene are visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. James Watkins of Romola.

A number of young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Fickes Monday evening to surprise Mrs. Fickes on her birthday. Four tables of five hundred were in play.

Tables of five hundred were in play at the home of Mrs. Lewis Dorman, ladies high and Mr. M. Bowers met here. For consolation Mrs. Hazel Fickes won the ladies and Mr. Dennison Confer won the men's. A luncheon supper was served to the following people: Mr. and Mrs. Mac Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mages, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jacob, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Dennison Confer and Mrs. Lewis Dorman.

Nittany Valley Charge of the Evangelical-Reformed church, pastor, John R. Gulick, services at Howard 10:30 a. m.; Jacksonville 7:30 p. m. Both services in observance of Mother's Day.

A flag-raising will feature the opening game between the Howard and Mifflinburg Centre County League teams on the Howard baseball field at 5 o'clock this Thursday afternoon, May 11.

Miss Margaret Kimpfort of State College visited over the weekend at the home of her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Slack and sister Lizzie.

Those who took dinner at the G. H. McCormick home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mingle of Akron, Ohio, E. G. Mingle of Aaronburg; Miss Isabel Bradford of Bellefonte and R. H. McCormick of State College.

Mrs. Charles McClennahan is seriously ill at the home of her daughter Mrs. William Confer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Faust and friends from Pottsville, visited on Sunday among relatives.

Harry Hubler, wife and two daughters, Miss Chloese from Lock Haven, Mrs. Minerva Hubler, Miss Kate Fredericks from Spring Mills, called on friends on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Sweeney is spending some time at the home of her son, George Sweeney in Centre Hall, Chal Vroman and friend Miss Amelia Copenhaver of Phillipsburg, Miss Orpha Fleisher of State College, visited over the weekend at the home of H. E. Callers on Sunday at the Point; home were Harry Lehler from State College, Philip Vonada from Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. D. Sparr Wert from Aaronburg.

Lester Goss and family visited on Sunday at the home of R. M. Royer. Mrs. Ed Sweetwood and Mrs. Laura McCormick are both confined to bed.

SMULLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Confer and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Harter and young son were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert at W. F. Storer.

Mrs. V. W. Fletcher of State College spent last Tuesday with Mrs. W. D. Meyer.

Mrs. Ida Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weber and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brumart of Rebersburg, were visitors on Sunday at Penna Cave at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Long.

Mrs. Carrie Detwiler and son Donald and family of Aaronburg, were visitors at Lewisburg on Sunday.

J. G. Winklebich who has been on the sick list, is much better and able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meyer were visitors at Freesburg and Northumberland on Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Detwiler spent last Monday with friends at Aaronburg.

Miss Carolyn Bennett is visiting with her brother and wife at Salona for a couple of weeks.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday May 14 (Mother's Day) Sunday School 9:30 and a special invitation has been given to encourage all mothers who can come to come and participate in all our services here on Sunday, C. E. 6:45 Topic for discussion "What is Home Christian?" Worship with sermon by the pastor Rev. John R. Gulick at 7:30.

The Ladies Aid society meeting held on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Miles Bartley was very well attended by the members and several guests, glad to report that one guest became a member, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dickey and Elsie Jane spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. George Wheeland and family of Pine Grove Mills.

Betty and Gladys Harter of Little Ferry spent Tuesday evening with their friends Kathryn and Lucy Conway.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrell Kessinger of Nittany, were Tuesday evening visitors at the Robert Yarnell home.

Foster Shamp of Hubersburg, spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. Winfield Ditzel and family.

Mrs. Anna Robb was a Sunday evening caller at the C. E. Aley home.

A group of young people affiliated with a church at Tusseyville presented a Biblical play entitled "Sons of the Loper, here in our Grange Hall on Sunday evening, bringing a message to all who had privilege of hearing them trying to emphasize and prove the Love and Power of God.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Flemington spent Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon.

Billie Doney and Miss Elizabeth Greenob of Flemington spent Sunday afternoon with their friend Miss Kathryn McCrea.

Emmer Swope and daughters Geraldine, Arline and Vivian spent Saturday evening with his sister Mrs. C. S. Miller of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy of Centre Hall spent Thursday night at the home of the latter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith of Millsboro called at the Nerva Yearick home on Sunday afternoon to see her aged aunt who has been on the sick list is improving and is able to be up and around most of the time.

Miss Dorothy Btz and George Swope of Jacksonville and Laird Schenck of Howard spent the weekend at State Run with Miss Betz's Williamsport School class, Miss Bernice Campbell.

Mrs. C. L. Neff and daughters Sara Jane and Lillian of Howard, spent Saturday afternoon and evening with another daughter, Mrs. Miles Bartley and family.

Mrs. Alice Betz spent Wednesday evening at the William Beightel home.

Charles Hines of Hubersburg and Miss Christine Burd of Upper Marlboro spent Sunday evening at the William Dixon home.

Sunday callers at the Orin Fye home were Mr. and Mrs. Blair Mann and sons J. A. and Leonard of Howard, R. D. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone and grandson of Jersey Shore and Jesse Thomas of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Florence Stover and Mr. Winnet of Lock Haven spent Sunday at the A. A. Garrett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat McLaughlin and daughter Patay and Mrs. Frank Malone of Jersey Shore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conway and children of this place and Foster Shamp of Hubersburg were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mrs. Lucy Conway.

Sunday visitors at the D. P. Etley home were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Corman and daughter Betty of Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strunk and daughter Hope of State College, Miss Violet Etley of Bellefonte, June and Eulodie Etley of this place.

Mrs. Robert Conway and children Kathryn, Lucy and Harry spent Monday evening of last week at the Harry Dolan home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte were Sunday evening supper guests of her parents, and attended the play in Grange Hall.

Miss Helen Kewling spent Wednesday and Saturday night with her uncle Robert Conway and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son Bobby of State College were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll.

The wet and cold spring delayed the farmers considerable nevertheless many have their oats sowed and ready to plant corn and potatoes, and these warm days are surely making the gardens grow but in need of a good soaking rain.

Brooks, had his lip cut and a tooth knocked out by being hit by a stone thrown by one of them, and another driver had his clothes torn quite badly.

Don't forget this Sunday, May 14th is Mother's Day. Mother's Day cards, greeting cards, carnations and a great variety of gifts may be purchased at Melroy's.

Mrs. Henry Noll spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bargart at their home at Rebersburg.

Mrs. Grace Biler is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church will hold a bake sale at Stitzer's barber shop on Saturday morning, May 13.

The Pleasant Gap Woman's Club met on Tuesday evening with a special program for the display of hobbies and talents; the members and townfolks chose to exhibit. It was a new departure and well worth carrying on in future years. At the business meeting the president introduced Lloyd Sweeney, chairman of the Future Sportsmen. Mr. Sweeney gave the women an informal talk on the purpose of the organization that he heads and asked them to assist the committee in repairing the lodge beside Green Valley Dam. They wish to make it usable for the 50 boys between the ages of 10 and 16 years who make up the group. After this, the women voted to give $10 for the work. Money was also set aside for the prizes to be given to the schools during this next month. These Williams; Margaret Beatty, John Heichel and Dean Confer.

Mrs. Tillie Stier, aged aunt of Mrs. W. H. Spangler passed away at the Spangler home, Saturday at 4 a. m. following a lingering illness due to her advanced age. A short funeral service conducted by Rev. Davies of Beech Creek was held in the home on Sunday evening at 7 p. m. The body was taken to Philadelphia by Mortician Claude Beichel for burial. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spangler, T. M. Kunes, and nurse Miss Lois Jones, with Rev. Davies composed the funeral party which left here early Monday morning.

Miss Virginia Beatty left Monday morning to begin work in Lock Haven.

Donald Beichel who has been suffering from a head infection since his recent operation at the Jewish hospital in Philadelphia, was again removed to that hospital on Saturday. His brother Joe accompanied him and at this writing his condition is still serious, although he was again operated upon on Monday.

Mrs. Pete Wozniak called on Mrs. Mikhus Sunday.

Melvin Knofstinger and sister Evelyn visited among friends in Clearance, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shive, Patty Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shive and daughter Grace, comprised a motor group that spent Sunday at Jersey Shore.

E. D. Myers of Lock Haven spent the Sabbath with his wife here, the former Dorothy Shive.

amounts, added to what has already been paid out this year brings the Woman's Club's disbursements for the past year up to $334.35. Of this, $50 has been paid to the Pleasant Gap Fire Company to be applied on their new pump.

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGARD

The past week has been one of extremely balmy weather. High temperatures with little humidity brought summer atmosphere on the double quick. Dandelion is showing yellow curls and all fruit is bursting a profusion of blossoms while forest and shade trees are hurriedly springing to leaf. Local schools all closed Thursday, grade eight celebrated by taking a bus trip and having a picnic at Whispering pines. Total of 55 enjoyed the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bugosh were to Phillipsburg Saturday, shopping. Mrs. Pete Wozniak called on Mrs. Mikhus Sunday.

Melvin Knofstinger and sister Evelyn visited among friends in Clearance, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shive, Patty Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shive and daughter Grace, comprised a motor group that spent Sunday at Jersey Shore.

E. D. Myers of Lock Haven spent the Sabbath with his wife here, the former Dorothy Shive.

Mrs. John Kaehk called on Mrs. Andy Bugosh Thursday afternoon.

Vesper by the Moshannon Presbyterians was well attended and greatly enjoyed by all. It's quite doubtful to all attendees when there is a combination of appreciative enthusiasm.

Among others who are members of the Snow Shoe high school class who will matriculate in less than a month are Joan Drapcho, Jane McGowan, Jack Belle and Leslie McLaughlin of our burr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sevinisky spent Sunday at Poormanville with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Charnik. Joe Drapcho is at present re-roofing his house with brand new wood shingles.

Prizes for selling the most seeds by individual pupils in grade four are to be awarded to Louise McCloskey and her cousin Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lora and baby were Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mrs. M. A. Yachon.

Pupils perfect in attendance at Poormanville school taught by Miss Myra Peters are Pauline and Helen Biggans, Helen and Anna Baranyak, Helen and Andy Omdor.

Quite a number of our younger people are attending the dancing classes at Snow Shoe Gym, conducted by Mrs. Harris.

The E. O. Casper family, Mrs. Arthur Stephens and son Benny were State College visitors Sunday p. m.

Mrs. E. R. Krone called at her mothers, Mrs. Elizabeth Meek brief Sunday.

Miss Gladys Fye of Moshannon spent Monday night with her friend Isabel Stephens.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lair of Philadelphia visited over the weekend at the Francis McGowan home. The lady is a niece of Mr. McGowan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Duddish and two daughters visited Mrs. Duddish's parents in Karthaus Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCloskey and some of their children called at the Sayers home, Sunday at Yarnell.

Mrs. E. R. Krone, Eugene Abida and Elizabeth Krone visited at the Bob Hartcock home at Julian Sunday afternoon.

Miss Myra Peters whose home address is Beech Creek successfully completed her 4th term as teacher at Poormanville and Monday evening took her self and effects to her parental home for vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bugosh spent Sunday at Poormanville with her parents the Stacos.

Mrs. Andy Lenger and two children of Winburne visited at the Alex Duddish home Sunday.

Miss Margaret Morgan called at Krone's, Thursday evening. She just completed about her ninth term as teacher in Clearance Schools last grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Vornish had their newest baby, christened Beverly Ann. The ceremony took place Sunday at the local Greek Catholic church.

Betty Stephens spent one night last week with her friend Rose Marie Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Myers and daughter Kay were out of town over the weekend.

Woodrow Resler and John Stephens were fishing on Spring Creek the day the 4th grade were on a picnic and enjoyed a fine catch.

J. C. Pravel and lady friend Mrs. Gonder also Miss Bertha Gonder and Rae Jean Lukens all of Osceola Mills spent a few hours at the home of Mrs. Pravel's daughter, Mrs. Arthur Stephens on Saturday.

Forty-two pupils of grade four and their teacher Mr. Brungard enjoyed a picnic dinner at Penna Cave. Other stops made or points of interest viewed were big fish at Bellefonte, Fish hatchery at Pleasant Gap, Nittany Mt. top, Rockyview penitentiary, Farm barns, equipment and live stock at State College and the most of Fisherman's Paradise. They all returned home before 7:00 p. m. and reported the best outing ever. Money to defray expenses was procured as 4th grades one-third receipts in its Hygrade Seed Selling Contest.

We take this means of thanking any and all who contributed toward the success of this column during the past school term. May you have a pleasing and profitable summer. Adios from the scribe.

SALE OF Government Tractors AT INDIANTOWN GAP, PENNA.

Caterpillar make, crawler type, 5 ton or 3 1/2 size, slight usage, overhauled, cost over $7,000.00 each, price $375.00 each. Also 16-ton or 6 1/2 size, equipped with winch, $750.00 each. Very adaptable for logging, contracting, farming, oil field, county road and municipal work. Demonstration given at any time, N. W. corner Govt. Reservation, Indiantown Gap, Pa. Come early for first choice.

FRIDAY & SATURDAY (May 12th & 13th) Wallace Beery Robert Taylor F. Rice, in:

'Stand Up and Fight' LATEST NEWS ISSUE BEST OF SELECTED SHORTS

MONDAY & TUESDAY (May 15th & 16th) Kent Taylor Buddy Ebsen Ann Rutherford

'Four Girls in White' Chapter No. 3—"THE HAWK OF THE WILDERNESS"

FRIDAY & SATURDAY (May 19th & 20th) "THE DUKE OF WEST POINT"

C. C. EVANS, P.O. Jonestown, Pa.

MOSHANNON

There were 69 present at the Methodist Sunday School and $234 collection. Rev. Hammond delivered a good sermon, text Matt. 13:44.

Regular services at the Free Methodist church, Sunday school at 10 a. m. class meeting 11 a. m.; preaching service 2:30 p. m. Every-body welcome. W. J. Kerry, pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gotshall of Sunbury, visited Sunday at the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leeder. Mrs. Leeder is rapidly recovering from her recent operation.

Those who helped Mrs. Charles Guenet celebrate her birthday Sunday were Charles Guenet and the following children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith and son Marvin of Clearfield; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bedwell and children, Melvin, Dixie June and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. John McClusick and children Junior and Jimmie and Logan and Willard Guenet. Other callers were: Mahlon Quick, George and Joe McClusick of Clearance, Mr. and Mrs. William Graham and son Billy, Joe Fontonoe and son Dick and wife of Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierce have returned to their summer home here, and Sunday motored to Clearfield and visited Mrs. Pierce's sister, Mrs. Alex Black.

Faye Quick spent several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Gallagher at Milesburg, she returned home Monday night accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Gallagher and son Buddy and Jack and Pat, and Miles Holt who spent the evening at the Alden Quick home.

Mrs. Whorten Fye returned home from the Phillipsburg hospital one day last week and is improving rapidly.

Sunday a week ago Mrs. Winnie Kerin, and Arthur and Mary Louise and Joan May, accompanied by Mrs. Christine May of Williamsport, motored to Franklin, N. J., where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh.

The Loyalty Class of the Methodist church had its monthly class-meeting and social on Friday night, May 5th at the home of Peggy McKean. The ones of the class who attended were: Dorothy Beas, Eloise Beas, Bernice Borer, Marjorie Borer, Edna Cartwright, Gladys P. Hope Lewis, Delphine Martin, Jean Martin, Peggy McKean and Twila Schrock. The teacher, M. A. Yachon, Watson, was unable to attend on account of illness. As Mother's Day comes this month the class extended an invitation to the mothers. The following were present: Mrs. Clyde Berger, Mrs. Ambers Fye, Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Mrs. Milford Martin, and Mrs. Jack McKean.

After the business meeting, games were played and refreshments were served. All departed having had an enjoyable time.

ORVISTON

There were 163 present at Sunday School, Sunday.

John Daley of Middle River, Md., spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Blanche Daley.

Emeline Butler of Howard, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler.

Little Ann Lomison two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lomison was admitted to the Lock Haven Hospital on Monday evening for medical treatment.

The children of Mr. Ed Yeager helped him celebrate his 83 birth on Friday night, the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Ward Yeager and children Lucille, Florence, Esther and Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Yeager and daughter Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Yeager and daughter Evelyn, Miss Ruth Bowman and Miss Wren of Marsh Creek; Mrs. Harry Gonsil and three children, Dorothy, George and Darrell of Beech Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yeager and two children Lois and Yvonne, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yeager, of Orviston, and Harold Yeager of Marsh Creek.

The Men's Bible Class met at the home of Clair Heichel on Friday night for their regular monthly meeting.

Miss Doris Daley and six friends Rena Lee of Johnsbury spent the weekend with Mrs. Blanche Daley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler daughter Emeline, Otto Schenck and John Daley spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Walker at Mifflinburg.

Miss Verna Shank of Tyrone, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shank.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Confer, Mrs. Robert Confer, Mrs. Leonard Yeager and Mrs. Melinda Confer, spent Sunday afternoon at the Dill Confer home at Hunters Run.

William Barnhart and son Glen, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnhart, Sr., at Curtin.

Mrs. A. M. Shank, who has been under the doctor's care for the past six weeks is spending this week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Poorman at State College.

Lots of people do things to get publicity and then become surprised over the publicity they get.

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mac Fry)

The interior of the G. P. Irvin home on Wall street is being refinished with new coat of paint.

Grover C. Corl after a few months vacation is again alighting the paint brush for Porter and Weber, State College contractors.

Rev. James Fisher and wife called on friends Sunday at Phillipsburg State Hospital. His mother Mrs. Harry Fisher accompanied them.

Assistant County farm agent R. E. Tait of Bellefonte, was an important business caller in Ferguson last Thursday on 4-H club business.